Of the major department store chains, only Eaton's has summoned the courage to make a commitment to the thigh-high look. It sponsored a spring fashion show for the designer Kenzo, the man credited with bring the mini out of exile. And now its Attitude shops carry Kenzo designs.

Eaton fashion co-ordinator Inge Wood says $40 mini-tunics in cotton Hawiian prints will add pizzazz to the beach this summer. Come fall, she says, the look will move into the city in the form of $65 cotton minis worn with patterned leotards and over-the-knee boots for the layered effect.

Few other retailers, surveyed by The Financial Post in major centres, say they have included minis in their fashion plans this year. The feeling is the look is just a news story for trendy and high-fashioned retailers to cash in on

PAST PRESIDENTS RECEIVED JEWELLED PINS

"Reasonable" Deficit Recorded During 1976

The City of Bathurst has emerged from the year 1976 with deficits of less than one per cent in both its general revenue and water and sewer utility funds.

At the first June meeting of City Council Monday evening, councillors okayed financial statements submitted by H. R. Doane and Company which showed a deficit of $33,771 in the general fund and $6,500 in the water and sewer utility fund.

City Manager Pierre Marquis explained that snow removal and garbage collection were responsible for overspending of $45,000 in the general fund, but this amount was diminished somewhat in unexpected revenues of $11,500 from licences and building permits. All other city departments remained well within the set budgets for the year.

Mr. Marquis said the administration had hoped to cut spending in the area of snow removal this year but could not due to increasing costs.

He described the deficit as a "very reasonable one" and felt the various departments should be commended for their efforts.

Commenting on the water and sewer deficit, Mr. Marquis said it amounted to "less than one half a per cent."

Councillor Joe MacNeil pointed out the figures for snow removal should be noted when the 1978 budget is drawn up. "If we could improve our system of removal, maybe we could save $100,000."

Council unanimously supported a motion by Coun. Jean Paul Lavoie in recognition of "the conscientious effort made by the city manager and administration in keeping the deficit to a minimum."

H. R. Doane and Company was again appointed as auditors for the City of Bathurst for 1977.

In other monetary matters, Mayor John A. Duffy and City Treasurer Robert Bouchard were authorized to borrow from time to time as required in 1977, a sum of money not exceeding $2,358,500 from the province's Capital Borrowing Board.

Tenders awarded during the course of the meeting went to Kenny's Ready Mix ($91,520) for 26,000 tons of crushed gravel; North Shore Construction Co. ($227,048) for 9,100 tons of asphalt and 12,400 lineal feet of asphalt curbing; Ken Jenks Excavating Ltd. ($12,387.50) for service connections; and Four Seasons Sports ($6,840) for line painting.

"SHIPS AHOY" AT THE BATHURST YACHT CLUB

Despite a week of inclement weather throughout the province, the launching of boats took place at the Bathurst Yacht Club. Rain and high winds also set over Bathurst, but the tides were at their best to get such boats as the Lady Gale and the Watergate floating. Due to the weight of the vessels, a bulldozer was needed for the towing and pushing. The Lady Gale, owned and made by Gilles Godin, was launched June 2. The Watergate was set afloat June 4 and is captained jointly by the owner Adrien Albert and Sonny Stever. Several smaller boats were also lauched at the Yacht Club over the weekend.

GOODWILL GESTURE

A group of 50 students at Lorendo Dunton School in Montreal are likely to have pleasant thoughts of Bathurst for some time to come.

While the CN train on which they were travelling early last Friday (1:20 a.m. approx.) made its usual stop-over at the local station, a box of treats including soft drinks, doughnuts and fruit was taken aboard.

The package was a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Albert Doucet, 1530 St. Peter Ave., whose daughter, Mrs. Anne Cher, is one of the teachers at the Montreal school, and one of three chaperones accompanying the group. Mrs. Cher had contacted her parents from Halifax, and mentioned the time the students would travel through Bathurst, en route to Quebec.

The lunch was put aboard by local CN officials with whom Mr. and Mrs. Doucet had left the goodies Thursday evening.

The students had all worked to earn the money to finance their special jaunt to Nova Scotia and were especially pleased and delighted to find the surprise package from a New Brunswick centre awaiting them on awakening Friday morning as they were nearing their homes.

"THE VERY BEST"

Members of New Brunswick Auxiliary Command Royal Canadian Legion, in their smart, trim and neat appearing uniforms featuring navy blue blazers, white skirts, shoes and gloves and the distinctive off-white berets and insignia, must be one of the most impressive groups in Canada.

At least, so it appeared last Thursday evening to those of us who watched the parade to the cenotaph and later to BHS auditorium. The color party, 55 strong, gave added distinction as it headed the long procession.

The auxiliary merits praise,

Midway, Paint-A-Thon Discussed By Council

The Bathurst Festival Commission was given the go-ahead to sponsor Racine Greater Shows Ltd. in the parking area of Harbourview Boulevard during Hospitality Days 1977 during Monday's council meeting.

The carnival will pay licence fee of $500, provide liability insurance, electricity generators and pay for the water used during its stay. In return, the city will provide water hook-up.

Chief David Camp said the area in question is large enough to accommodate the carnival as well as customer parking, and the car compound can be opened if necessary.

A letter from the Downtown Merchants Assn. indicated that group is in full agreement with the commission request.

Still in connection with Hospitality Days, a request from the paint-a-thon committee for permission to use the fence surrounding the ball park for the event was given conditional approval.

While councillors seemed anxious to provide an area for the paint-a-thon, most indicated that using the ball park fence would do nothing to enhance the beauty of the area, "no insult to our artists intended."

A motion to grant permission to use the fence was defeated by a 6 - 3 vote. In favor were couns. Robert Hodgins, Hilaire Brideau and Albert Lavigne. Against were Couns. Jean Paul Lavoie, Jim MacLaggan, Hugh Campbell, Doug Williamson, Joe MacNeil and Ken Frenette.

Councillor for Coffyn Ward, Hugh Campbell, then suggested three alternatives - to offer city fire hydrants for painting, to make available the fence in question with the understanding it would be re-painted after the festival, or to cover the fence with kraft paper from Consolidated-Bathurst Ltd. which would be removed after the contest.

The first alternative was later dropped when City Manager Pierre Marquis remarked that hydrant-painting takes a good deal of planning before being undertaken.

The remaining two suggestions will be passed on to the Festival Commission for its consideration.

City To Fight For Landmark

A letter from a concerned member of the Nicolas-Denys Historical Society concerning plans for the old town Post Office has prompted action by Bathurst City Council.

The communication, from Eloi DeGrace of Munro Street and read at Monday's council session, stated there are plans afoot for the renovation of the building, including the removal of the roof and old clock. Mr. DeGrace pointed out the building, the only one of its kind in Bathurst, added to the city's beauty, and its removal would result in a "loss of charm."

Mr. DeGrace remarked that historical sites are rare in the city, and should be protected "before it is too late."

Councillor Joe MacNeil was in complete agreement with the letter, and his motion to contact the federal defence and supply and services departments requesting information on the future of the building met with the approval of all councillors. Council also voted, again at Coun. MacNeil's suggestion, to have the city manager draw up a resolution declaring the building a historical site and to notify Heritage Canada of the move.

City Council Bits, Pieces

- Council will approach the provincial health department about the possibility of establishing an infirmary at Chaleur Villa.

- The police department will look into the need for a caution light at the intersection of College Street and University Drive. As well, the department will check into the dangerous practice of parked cars on Miramichi Avenue between Bridge Street and Rough Waters Drive.

- A shortage of manpower was given as the reason for the lack of foot patrolmen in the central business district during the day. Replying to questions from Coun. Hilaire Brideau, Police Chief Dave Camp said he would like to see a 24-hour patrolman but manpower doesn't allow for it. "I also have mixed emotions about two officers per car but this is necessary for backup due to a shortage of cars."

- Coun. Joe MacNeil gave a detailed report on the annual meeting of the Canadian Federation of Municipalities held in Toronto May 15-18. Mayor John Duffy and City Manager Pierre Marquis were also in attendance.

- Residents of Parkwood Heights were reminded to deposit garbage on the street on the morning of the collection only. Coun. Jean Paul Lavoie noted the area is becoming a favorite meeting place for skunks out for a midnight snack.

- Police Chief Camp will investigate the feasibility of establishing a bicycle route in Coronation Park.

- A petition signed by 65 residents of Lindsay Street requesting paving of the street was noted by council, and the project will be considered in the 1978 capital works budget.

- City Manager Pierre Marquis explained the street has not been paved to date because property owners are not willing to pay for water and sewage installation. He felt chipsealing would be more in order until services are installed.

One-Way Traffic Denied

A request made earlier this spring by the Bathurst Fesitval Commission for permission to revert to one-way easterly traffic on Main Street during Hospitality Days 1977 has been turned down by Bathurst City Council.

The request, which came about following an objection by the Downtown Merchants Association to a total closure of the downtown shopping area as in other years, had been under investigation by the local police department as well as the provincial highways department.

In a report to council Monday, the two agencies stated one-way traffic would create both a hazard to pedestrians as well as traffic problems, and the entire closure of Main Street from Murray to Douglas Avenue was recommended.

A move to disallow the request was passed by an 8 - 1 margin, with Couns. Lavoie, MacNeil, Williamson, MacLaggan, Campbell, Frenette, Hodgins and Lavigne in favor. Against was Coun. Hilaire Brideau who noted the merchants were opposed to entire closure. However, the remaining councillors noted they were going along with the recommendation against one-way traffic only, not finalizing an entire closure.

GERALD CHIASSON

Appointed Store Manager

The appointment has been announced of Gerald Chiasson as Manager of the New Brunswick Liquor Corporation's store No. 48 on St. Peter Avenue in Bathurst. Mr. Chiasson expects to assume his new duties later this month.

Mr. Chiasson had served as assistant manager at the St. Peter Avenue outlet for nine years before being transferred to the corporation's store in Allardville where he has been manager for over three years.

The Bathurst native has been with the N.B. Liquor Corp. for 30 years, joining the staff at No. 3 Main Street outlet April 21, 1947.

Mr. Chiasson, familiarly known as "Hawk", attended local schools and later served in the RCAF for four and one-half years.

He is married to the former Maria Oakes of Edmundston. They have four children and nine grandchildren.

Death Occurs

The death of Clarence P. Doucet, 65, of 320 St. Andrew Street, occurred last evening, June 7, at Chaleur General Hospital where he was a patient for over two weeks. He was a painter by trade.

Surviving besides his wife the former Edwige Leger, are one son, Gerald of Bathurst. A daughter Cecile, died in 1973.

Mr. Doucet is resting at Elhatton's Funeral Home. The funeral will be held at 11 a.m. Friday at Sacred Heart Cathedral.

Class Reunion Set For July

Plans for a reunion of the 1972 graduating class of Bathurst High School are well underway, with tickets available from two graduates residing in the city.

The date of the five-year reunion has been set for July 16, and those wishing to attend are asked to contact Polly (Ward) Wesenberg at 546-3121 or Sharon Veniot at 546-3124 for tickets. Admission is $3 per person or $5 per couple.

The location has not yet been confirmed, but will be announced as soon as arrangements are finalized.

The evening will include a happy hour from 6:30 - 7:30 p.m.; a pot luck dinner from 7:30 - 9 p.m., with each graduate being asked to bring along a dish to serve 3 - 4 people; a discotheque following from 9:30 p.m. to 1 a.m. Dessert and beverages will be provided with dinner.

Anyone wishing to help with decorations is asked to contact Janet Demmings at 546-4685.

More details will be forthcoming in the July 6 edition of The Northern Light.

Permission For Tollgate Refused

Bathurst City Council has denied a request by the Bathurst School of Nursing for permission to operate a toll bridge in the city on June 18.

The request came in the form of a letter signed by Huguette Doucet, secretary of the school's student council, who explained that all proceeds from the project would be used to finance tours of the nursing school by youngsters in the city.

Commenting on the request, City Manager Pierre Marquis pointed out that toll bridges often result in major traffic tie-ups. He felt the entire question of tag days and tollgates should be looked into because of the traffic problems they create.

Coun. Doug Williamson noted that such a project had just been carried out over the week-end by the Bass River Adult Workshop for the mentally retarded, and he moved the nursing school be advised to find another method of raising funds.

Asked if he had received any complaints about the June 4 tollgate, Police Chief David Camp replied that while he had not been approached officially, some complaints had been noted and the effect on traffic was considerable.

Coun. Joe MacNeil felt that while another toll bridge was not acceptable, the group should be given some direction as to a suitable form of fund-raising, and he moved the student nurses be informed about available tag days. The motion was carried.

Coun. Jim MacLaggan then requested the city set down a policy for tag days and toll bridges if it did not already have one, and the city manager was instructed to look into the matter.

Program Director, Clerk Among New Appointments

Bathurst has once again acquired the services of a full time program director for the Recreation Department.

At Monday's first regular business session following the May 9 municipal elections, Coun. Jim MacLaggan, who headed the hiring committee, gave a full report on efforts to find a replacement for Leonard Doucet who resigned almost a year ago.

He said the committee, comprising Couns. Jean Paul Lavoie and Robert Hodgins, had advertized in local, provincial and Maritime newspapers and received 14 applications by the mid-April deadline. Of this number, two applicants were interviewed, and Fidele Cormier, 23, and a native of Grand Anse, was recommended for the job.

Mr. Cormier is married, bilingual and has experience in the recreation field. He has been hired on a six-month probationary basis at a salary of $13,000.

All councillors were asked for their co-operation and assistance in helping Mr. Cormier to adjust to his new position.

In other appointments, Barry Miller was named assistant city clerk effective June 7. Mr. Miller, who has no experience in civic affairs, was hired on six-months probation, after which he is expected to assume the full duties of Acting City Clerk Pierre Marquis. Four applications were received for this post.

Coun. Hilaire Brideau was named liaison for the city on the Bathurst Festival Commission. Other councillors chosen for various bodies are Coun. Hilaire Brideau (Airport); Jim MacLaggan (Canada Week); Hugh Campbell and Ken Frenette, (Civic Emergency Executive); Albert Lavigne, Ken Frenette (Recreation Centre); Joe MacNeil (Six Cities Assn.).

Coun. Jean Paul Lavoie was named deputy mayor by secret ballot, a position he accepted with the understanding he would be presenting legislation calling for the rotating of the role on a yearly basis.

Norman L. Doucet was named to the City Planning Commission to replace John MacKenzie who is leaving the city.

BATHURST TOASTMASTERS OBSERVE TENTH ANNIVERSARY

The Bathurst Toastmasters Club celebrated its tenth anniversary June 6 at Danny's Colonial House with Prof. George Van Tassell as guest speaker. Mr. Van Tassell chose "The key to success through public speaking" as his topic. From the left, recipients of pins, trophies and plaques are: Normand Dufresne, membership pin; Hermann Derbuch, annual table topics trophy; Otto Peter, area governor, Newcastle; Percy Cormier, 10-year membership plaque; Bill Cormier, president of Bathurst Toastmasters; and Marcel Goyette, membership pin.

HOSPITAL WORKERS RECEIVE RECOGNITION FROM LOCAL

Engraved plaques for 25 years of service and over, have been presented to members of Local 905, CUPE who have been associated with hospitals in Bathurst. Presentations were made during the local's lobster party June 3, and are in recognition for services rendered to the shut-ins. From the left are: Donald Robichaud, president of Local 905, who made the presentations; Bernadette Gallant (1937-77); Frank S. Daigle (1946-77); Paul Milot (1948-77); Ernest Guitard (1950-77); and Benoit Berthelot (1951-77). Missing are: Lionel Chiasson (1947-77); Real Frenette (1949-77); Estelle Boudreau (1950-77); and Gerard Hebert (1951-77).

FIND REFUGE

A Moncton barrister, Erwin Mitton, and his pilot, were forced to make an emergency landing of the helicopter in which they were travelling late Monday afternoon.

Mr. Mitton, with an early court appointment in Bathurst on Tuesday, had planned to land the chopper behind the Fundy Line Motel where overnight accommodations had been arranged.

Due to heavy fog in the area, the men had to find refuge in the only clear spot they could see from the air as suitable for putting down the craft, the spacious yard at Johnson's Van and Storage, 1090 Riverside Drive.

WAR VETS AFFAIRS

A regular service of which some war veterans may not be fully aware takes place in Bathust every second Tuesday of the month. The next session is scheduled for Tuesday, June 14, at the regular hours, 8:30 to 11:30 a.m.

On these occasions, a welfare officer from the Department of Veterans' Affairs is on hand for the purpose of giving service in an advisory capacity, dealing with various benefits and other aspects of veterans' affairs.

The office is located on the second floor of the Continental building and entrances are on both Main Street and the Boulevard.

WHEN TO SPRAY?

It has been suggested that the Department of Natural Resources could advise residents of a suitable time to spray evergreen trees and shrubs which enhance their properties, in order to avoid destruction by the spruce budworm.

Considering the differences in climatical conditions throughout the country -- even in our own province where the growing or so-called spring ??) weather in the southern area is generally two to three weeks in advance of the north and varies from year to year -- the time and frequency of spraying too must differ considerably.

Some local folks who have attempted to curb this insect destruction of their lawn properties, hedges, etc., have reported their efforts were disappointly unsuccessful, possibly due to timing, they felt.

Suggested also is advice from the department on the type of chemicals which can be used effectively.

TIPS AND TAKES

The weather left much to be desired outdoors but the atmosphere was genial, warm and hospitable indoors last Saturday, June 4, when Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shirley of Montreal entertained at the family cottage at Youghal Beach for his mother, Mrs. E. R. Shirley who would be observing her 80th birthday later in the week. . . A gift to Mrs. Joy Winton was presented by John Sweezey, chairman of the Bathurst High and J. Gordon Chalmers Home and School Assn., and Emery Goguen, principal of Bathurst High School and a H and S member, at the May meeting of the association. The gift from the two teachers was given as a gesture of appreciation for her untiring efforts and accomplishments within the association during her two-year term as president, and her retirement from that office. . . Sunflower Crafts, a popular gift-shopping centre with both tourists and local folks, is opening for its sixth season at Danny's Motel, on Friday, June 10, starting at 1:00 p.m. The centre's under the direction of Elizabeth (Nippy) Lewis and offers a complete selection of the best of New Brunswick craftsmen. . . Edward J. Whelton, well known and highly respected resident of Black Rock, died early Tuesday afternoon at his residence. He marked his 96th Birthday Jan. 4 of this year. Among his 17 sons and daughters to whom sympathy is extended, are Vincent J. Whelton, Q.C., and Mrs. Mildred Wilbur, both of Bathurst. Mr. Whelton is resting at LeGresley's Funeral Home and the funeral will be at 4 p.m. Friday at the church in Grand Anse. . . Reports of seeing bears in several areas including near homes and cottages, Chalet Sportif in Beresford and vicinity, and around Gowan Brae Golf course are a source of concern to residents, especially those who have young children who may not be aware of possible danger. Residents who should happen to see such a wild animal in their vicinity are advised to contact the Forest Ranger office as persons not holding a license to shoot bears are liable to be fined if they use a gun for that purpose. . . Promoted to the rank of Staff Sergeant in "E" Division of the RCMP in British Columbia is J. Gerald J. O'Neil, son of the late Police Chief and Mrs. Jerry O'Neil of Bathurst. S-Sgt. O'Neil was recently transferred to the Prince George Detachment. . . Auxiliary Command President Mrs. Joyce Lockhart, in her opening remarks at the memorial service Thursday evening following the parade, consoled the ladies with the remark, "I know you are wet and uncomfortable, but don't forget we represent those who went through a lot of hardship, and were often wet and uncomfortable". . . Local hair stylist Gerald Levesque was one of the judges at the annual men's hairstyling seminar in Moncton June 5 - 6. Among winners was Marcial Comeau of Sheila who placed third in Maritime competition for men's hairstyling. Richard Frenette of Bathurst is one of four provincial winners who will represent the Maritimes in the national hairstyling competition this fall. . . Reported but unconfirmed: Lehndorff Properties firm with headquarters in Toronto, whose interests include the Bathurst Shopping Mall, seriously considering expansion of their property on St. Peter Avenue. A high official of Lehndorff was in the city Tuesday morning in connection with the project. . . Mrs. Elizabeth Hachey, 232 Notre Dame St., Bathurst, is winner of The Northern Light's Atlantic Sweepstakes for June 1st. . . Lomer Basque recently appointed Maritime Leasing Manager of Lehndorff Properties Management, leaving with his family shortly to take up residence in Riverview. He is succeeded as manager of Bathurst Shopping Centre by Bathurst native J. Aurele Lavigne. . . Mrs. Raymond Duguay, 75 Reese Lane,, winner of hand-made hooked rug in a drawing sponsored by the South Bathurst Parents Assn. of Guides and Brownies. Her name was drawn last night by Mrs. Phyllis Paquet. . . A meeting of the Canadian Consumer Assn. of Bathurst was held June 6 with guest speaker Lorraine Lovett of Fredericton. The group will be publishing a grocery list next week from the five larger grocery chains comparing prices. . .

MAKING 'HAY' WHILE THE SUN SHINES

South Bathurst youngsters saw it fit for the opening of a Lemonade Stand last week when temperatures finally warmed up. With the scarce warm weather Bathurst residents had been experiencing recently, many passers-by enjoyed a refreshing drink while taking advantage of fine weekend weather. Profits reached $5.05 for only a few hours in business. From the left are: Michel Beliveau, organizer, Robert Beaudet, Daniel Beliveau, Ronald DeSilva, Michel Lavigne, Joanne DeSilva, John Babin, Bradely Gray and Kevin Duguay.

Was Native Of Bathurst

The death of Mrs. Florence LeBlanc, a native of Bathurst occurred suddenly, June 2 at her residence in Toronto, at the age of 54.

She was a daughter of the late Frank and Gertrude (Doucet) Fitzgerald of Bathurst.

Mrs. LeBlanc resided here until moving to Toronto in 1965. She had worked for many years at the Carleton Hotel Grill and later at the Gloucester Hotel.

Surviving besides her husband, Wilfred LeBlanc, are four children from her first marriage, Barbara of Bathurst, James and Mrs. Gary Russell (Beverly), both of Toronto and Daniel of Fredericton.

Also surviving are four sisters, Mrs. Harold Melanson (Sadie) of Montreal, Mrs. Mary Strople, Toronto, Mrs. Patrick Henry (Helen) of Duncan, B.C., and Mrs. Joseph Trenouth (Margaret) of Ottawa; and one brother, Harold Fitzgerald of Calgary and one grandchild, Lisa Boyle, Toronto.

Mrs. LeBlanc rested at the Gerrard Chapel of Ingram Funeral Home, 1055 Gerard St. E., Toronto.

The funeral mass was held at St. Ann's Church in Toronto, Saturday at 9 a.m.

The pallbearers were her sons, James and Danny Boyle, two nephews, Peter Strople and John Melanson, and brothers-in-law Albert LeBlanc and Gerry Draper.

Interment was in Mount Hope Cemetery, Toronto.

VISITED IN N.S.

Mr. and Mrs. George Beaulieu spent a recent week in Nova Scotia visiting their son, Mr. John Beaulieu, wife and family at Halifax, and in Dartmouth to visit with Rev. Ruth Stuart and family and Mrs. Anna Hachey.

Social And Personal

Miss Denay Cormier, Montreal, has arrived to spend a vacation with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Audet, Murray Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Levasseur spent the weekend visiting the former's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Leolin Levasseur and family, and with friends in Fredericton.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Cassidy and sons David, Brian and Blair, Halifax, spent the recent holiday weekend, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McGraw, and the former's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Duguay and other relatives in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Frenette, accompanied by their son, Mr. Bernard Frenette, were in Halifax to attend the graduation of their daughter, Miss Ina Frenette who was awarded her Doctor of Medicine degree by Dalhousie University at ceremonies held May 20. Present also were Miss Frenette's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Frenette, Petit Rocher, and her sister, Miss Francetta Frenette, Halifax.

Safety Program Winners

Several more employees of Consolidated-Bathurst Ltd. were recognized recently for their ability to perform work in a safe and efficient manner. In the top photo, Clarence Carroll of the maintenance department is presented with his prize, a smoke detector, by Stearns Jacobson, mechanical superintendent. He is a second line safety bingo winner in Group B. In addition, members of the maintenance crew received Atlantic Loto tickets for the second time. From left, D. Daley, R. Chamberlain, R. Imhoff, B. Branch, D. Knowles, D. Aubie, E. Blanchard, Mr. Carroll, D. Sealy, Mr. Jacobson and A. Godin. Missing are H. Sealy, R. Beaulieu, H. Boucher, M. Glendenning, A. Chamberlain and T. Scott.

In the centre photo, Albany Gionet (right), housing foreman, is presented with a jigsaw by Don Crawford, division manager. Mr. Gionet was a first line bingo winner in Group A.

Chambers To Hold Workshop

The Caraquet, Lameque and Shippegan Chambers of Commerce are in the process of organizing a regional workshop on the development of the fishery in the northeast.

The workshop, scheduled to last a day and a half, will take place at the School of Fisheries in Caraquet at the beginning of October, and representatives of the industry, fishing associations and provincial and federal departments will attend.

Those participating will work in groups to discuss such topics as fishing vessels, marine resources, human resources, production and marketing.

It was decided to hold the workshop following completion of a study on fishing vessels in New Brunswick. Results of the study showed a serious deterioration of the industry in the region as well as out-of-date vessels.

Workshop dates and other details will be announced at a future date.

Veterans Want Hospital Beds

A meeting of the Northeastern New Brunswick Veterans Association was held May 15 in Neguac with about 40 veterans and their wives in attendance.

Executive director of the Mobile Information Centre in Bathurst, Romeo LeBlanc, chaired the meeting in conjunction with Wallace Duguay.

The meeting adopted the following resolutions:

- That beds be made available for veterans at Chaleur General Hospital as they are in Saint John, Fredericton and Moncton, with financing by the Department of Veterans Affairs.
- That those veterans receiving allowances be permitted to earn $1,500 if single or $2,500 if married. In the case of those unable to work for medical reasons, the amount would be given them as a "living grant."
- That the wives of veterans receiving less than 48 per cent disability pension continue to receive the pension after the death of the veteran.
- That communication between the veteran, his family and the Department of Veterans Affairs be improved.
- That the group never ask more than what is coming to it, but never accept less that what it deserves.
- That the association continue to work for the good of war veterans. It was noted information service is available to all veterans whether they are members of the association or not.

These resolutions were also upheld at a meeting held in the Shippegan Parish Hall on Sunday, May 22 which was attended by about 45 veterans and many of their wives.

Expenses High For County MLAs

Finance Minister Lawrence Garvie tabled the expenses of all MLAs during the last fiscal year in the Legislature June 2.

The expenditures, the minister advised, are not a reliable guide to the extravagance or frugality of members because of the numerous factors involved. Some live farther from Fredericton than others and spend more money on travel. Others must travel extensively because of committee work, for example.

Nevertheless, the highest spenders in various categories were:

Sustenance: Adjutor Ferguson ($2,196.35).

Telephone: Sterling Hambrook (PC-Southwest Miramichi) - $1,325.55.

Conferences: Charles Gallagher - $1,430.00.

Entertainment: House Speaker William Woodroffe - $2,054.96.

Mr. Woodroffe had the highest total expenses, $8,702.67. His duties are different in character from those of other members.

The records show that James Tucker (PC-Charlotte-Fundy) received $65 for "toll bridges", ferries, and tuxedo rental. He is the only member listed as having rented a tuxedo.

Social and Personal

Dr. George Eddy, Edmonton, Alta., is visiting this week with his father, Mr. Chesley G. Eddy, Parkside Drive, and other members of the family.

Local Cadet Division Is Best In Province

Peter M. Belyea has been elected to his second consecutive term as president of the New Brunswick Council of St. John Ambulance.

Also re-elected were Col. G.F.G. Stanley of Sackville, 1st. vice-president and Ralph Brenan of Rothesay, 2nd. vice-president.

During the council's annual meeting, held May 27 in Fredericton, other executive officers chosen were: Dr. G.W.A. Keddy of Saint John hononary president; Burton D. Colter of Fredericton, provincial commissioner; Dr. Ali Uygur of Moncton, provincial surgeon, and David Stephenson of Saint John, honorary Treasurer. Ronald G. Chisholm of Saint John was reappointed executive director.

Lt. Governor Hedard Robichaud continues as patron of St. John Ambulance New Brunswick Division, and Madame Robichaud as president of brigade nursing divisions.

St. John Ambulance provides training in first aid, home nursing and child care. They also operate 45 ambulances throughout New Brunswick, a few on a 24 hour emergency basis, but mostly for long distance invalid transport between hospitals, for from hospital to home. Volunteers also attend public gatherings such as sporting events, providing first aid assistance as needed.

At investiture and presentation ceremonies held in the Legislative Assembly Chambers, No. 319 Woodstock Division was awarded the J. Leonard O'Brien Shield. Woodstock superintendent Ronald Brown accepted the award on behalf of his group which was named the most effecient adult division in the province.

Chosen best cadet division in the province was number 691 Bathurst Division. Miss Barbara Boyle, R.N., acting superintendent received the Col. R.W. Leonard Shield.

Eugene Boles of Saint John was named officer-of-the-year. Mr. Boles is superintendent of No. 286 Saint John Division.

The chancellor of the Order of St. John in Canada, G.E. Beament of Ottawa, presided at the colourful investiture ceremony, at which Lt. Gen. E.W. Sansom of Fredericton was made a Knight of Grace in the Order of St. John.

Promoted to the rank of officer brother or officer sister were Dorothy Faye Allen and Frances Ethel Toner of Fredericton, Peter M. Belyea and Reginalde Cecile Mulhern of Edmundston, Marie Blanche Picot of Bathurst and Cecil Murray Clowater of Saint John.

Admitted to the Order as serving brother or serving sister were Noreen Ann Underhill of Blackville, Irma Eloise Russell of Doaktown, Elizabeth Margaret Neilson, John Edward Hodgson and Helen Mildred Mowry, all of Fredericton, Margaret Ann Mallais of Dalhousie and Clifton Hazen Furrow of Canterbury.

Preparing Brief For School Board

A meeting to prepare a brief concerning a recent news release made by Trustees of School District No. 4 will be held by a group of concerned parents of the district on June 13 in the basement of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church.

The brief will deal with the board's plans to make schools within the district either English or French, and is to be prepared for presentation at the next school board meeting on June 23.

Decision to prepare the brief was reached at the June 7 meeting of the group held Tuesday night this week at the Nepisiguit Centennial Library.

Beware The Children!

Do you know how fast a small child can move? - when he wants to, that is.

Picture a puppy darting after a moving figure or a kitten jumping at a trailing string. Children move like lizards: one second they're there and the next it's "Where's Johnny!".

Beaches are deceptive. There are plenty of loungers there, and lifeguards, but you can't be sure they are alert to your child's whereabouts. It's almost a reflex for children playing ball on the beach to splash into the water to retrieve a long shot. Will they make it?

At a campsite, a child wanders around a clump of brush and is out of sight. Is he close by, or lost?

Even at the backyard pool, in the time it takes you to rub on suntan oil or search out the car keys, a child may have slipped into or under the water, too surprised to do more than gasp.

Drownings of children are often silent, and the sixth sense that jolts parents to the fact that things are TOO QUIET may come too late.

Through its many water safety programs Red Cross does its best to protect everyone engaged in water activities, but it's up to all of us to "keep an eye on the kids!"

Permanent Ban

Environment Minister Fernand Dube has introduced an important bill to the Legislative Assembly. It would phase out the use of all non-returnable bottles and beverage cans in New Brunswick. This bill should be passed with haste for we have had to put up with the scourge of bottles and cans along our streets and roadways long enough. The non-returnable bottle and metal container may be an asset to the bottling business and the distributor, but it has spread havoc throughout the environment.

The non-returnable bottle becomes the object of target practice with rocks; it becomes part of the Saturday night jollies of destructive people as they litter parking lots and other public places with broken glass; and it becomes an item of garbage wherever it is discarded. Although the cans cannot do the damage bottles do, their eyesore aspects are perhaps more outstanding.

There should be no mercy for the non-returnable bottle or beverage can. Swift, decisive action is needed to rid us of them. The date for implementation of the new law is later this year which encourages those who have faith in government. It is to be hoped no red-tape political process impedes the passage of this important measure. The non-returnable containers were a poor substitute that failed. No further consideration is necessary. A permanent ban is in order.

Villages Meet This Weekend

The sixth annual general meeting of the Association of the Villages of New Brunswick will be held June 10 - 11 in Petit Rocher.

Guest speaker at Saturday's session will be Horace B. Smith, municipal affairs minister, who will address delegates on new legislation affecting the new unconditional grant structure and non-incorporated areas in the province.

A panel discussion on the Police Act and RCMP contract is also set to take place Saturday along with discussion on the sale of service to non-incorporated areas.

An election of officers will be held during the meeting, and committee reports on insurance for emergency vehicles and dumps will be presented.

Council OKs Pool Bylaw

Second and third readings were given an amendment to a section of the zoning bylaw dealing with swimming pools Monday by Bathurst City Council, but only after the addition of three clauses relating to safety.

The first clause, introduced by Coun. Robert Hodgins of Hachey Ward, was taken from a City of Toronto bylaw and stated a fence must be erected around a pool before it is filled with water.

The second amendment, from Coun. Hugh Campbell, dealt with the height of the fence. While he agreed with provisions calling for a minimum of four feet and a maximum of five, he felt the bylaw should specify that the fence extend from the ground up.

The way the present law reads," he pointed out, "you can have a five-foot fence around the pool which begins a foot off the ground. This loophole is a safety hazard for small children."

The third amendment, introduced by Hachey Ward Coun. Albert Lavigne, called for the inclusion of both above and below-ground pools in the bylaw as the portable pools present as much a safety problem to children as do the permanent structures.

S. E. Martin Funeral Today

The death of Stafford E. (Buster) Martin of 236 Munro St. occurred suddenly June 5. He was 59.

Development Of Nat'l Forest Policy Urged

At the 21st annual meeting of the Canadian Council of Resource and Environment Minister, held in Saskatoon June 1 and 2, Environment Minister Fernand Dube expressed strong support for the development and implementation of a national forest policy.

Speaking on behalf of Natural Resources Minister Roland Boudreau, Dube's statement emphasized the major contribution which the forests and forestry make to the New Brunswick economy.

Dube pointed to the concern of the province for development of policies which will respond to current problems. Among these is an immediate resolution of the high cost of transportation in New Brunswick, which appears to be a basic element in better utilizing our forest resources, he said.

Expanding on the further role of the federal government, the New Brunswick minister urged that Canadian Forestry Service expand its research program and provide a stronger information storage and retrieval system to aid in answering questions on inventory, supply demand, and associated subjects.

Dube's statement concluded by emphasizing that provincial jurisdiction in forest land management and control must be protected within the context of a national forest policy. The federal and other provincial delegations expressed agreement within the New Brunswick position.

Proposed amendments to the Canada Fisheries Act, Bill C-28, received considerable discussion during the meetings. Although there was support for most sections of the bill, serious reservations were expressed by the majority of the provinces about some of the provisions dealing with water management and pollution control.

Provincial ministers noted that all provinces have existing legislation respecting water management and pollution control, and mandatory reporting of spills. A duplicate approval system at another level of government for companies, agencies, or individuals who wish to withdraw water, discharge an effluent, or undertake works adjacent to a water course or other body of water, was questioned by the majority of the provinces. They favoured the withdrawal of the amendments until there could be consultation on resolving potential conflicts and duplication.

Another subject of discussion was pesticides use and control in Canada. Federal representatives explained in detail the extensive testing and review procedures necessary before a pesticide is licenced for use in Canada. Technical information and expert advice is available to all provinces to assist them in the administration of their pesticide control legislation.

RHEESE DICKIE

Services To H-S Are Recognized

A presentation was made to Rheese Dickie, principal of J. Gordon Chalmers School, at the May 18 meeting of Bathurst High and J. Gordon Chalmers Home and School Association, by the president, Mrs. Joy Winton, on behalf of the organization.

The gift was presented in recognition of Mr. Dickie's work in serving the association in various capacities and on different committees, especially during his 12 years as principal.

Mr. Dickie who has also acted as liaison between parents and teachers for many years, is joining the staff of Bathurst High School and assumes his new duties this September. He will be engaged in the English Department.

Newcastle Will Host Home-School Annual

Plans are being finalized for the 40th annual meeting of the New Brunswick Federation of Home and School Associations to be held at the Miramichi Valley High School June 18.

Guest speaker will be Deputy Minister of Education Harvey Malmberg, who will address delegates on the Basic Education Program and distribute copies of the study document on basic education tabled in the legislature on March 31. Home and School associations are being asked to respond to this study paper during the month of June.

Sessions will open at 9 a.m. with greetings from the District Superintendent Michael Coster and Donald Donahue, representing home and schoolers in the Newcastle area. The president's address will be delivered by retiring President D.M.L. Dougherty of St. Stephen, followed by reports from other officers and committee chairmen.

Incoming president is Mrs. Flora Cormier of Cocagne, president of the French-speaking section of the New Brunswick federation. Other officers elected by acclamation are Mrs. Alan Young of Belledune as recording secretary and Gerard Dube of Edmundston, treasurer. Rev. C. E. Pickett of Salisbury is executive vice-president of the federation following his election as president of the English-speaking section of the federation recently.

Other reports will be given by Mrs. Phyllis Dixon of Moncton and Mrs. Cormier, as co-chairmen of the Constitution Committee, and Mrs. James Barnes, chairman of the Smoking and Health Committee, as well as executive-secretary Shirley Dobson of Moncton and membership co-chairmen Mrs. Robert Horsman of Moncton and robert Allain of Cocagne. Manager of finance, Craig Dickson of Moncton, will present the budget for the ensuing year.

Resolutions to be presented reflecting the concern of home and schoolers throughout the province will include those dealing with basic education, communication skills, principally English, spelling, writing, summer schools, health services, the length of time spent by some students on school buses, textbook supplies, driver education and school bus safety.

It is anticipated that repres-

CARVING COURSE ENDS WITH EXCELLENT RESULTS

A 30-hour 10 week woodcarving course was conducted by Rev. Yvon Boudreau, parish priest at St. Theresa's church, throughout the winter months. Classes were held in the basement of the South Bathurst rectory and the sessions ended May 29. The group was introduced to the basics of woodcarving, along with the production of the finished products. Approximately 50 items of art will be on display at the Nepisiguit Centennial Library June 13 - 18 inclusive. An invitation is extended to the general public to drop in and view the crafts designed and completed by the novice group.

Operation Tollgate Nets Almost $2,200

Despite extremely bad weather which forced an early end to the project, Operation Tollgate has been termed an unqualified success by the Bass River Adult Workshop.

A spokesman for the group announced Monday that a total of $2,184.45 was collected from 8 a.m. Saturday until the toll booths closed at 2 p.m. The goal for the day had been set at $3,000.

The workshop would like to send out a special thank-you to all those who braved the heavy rainfall to collect donations, as well as the CBers who were on hand at all times during the day to help in various ways. Organizers also were generous in their praise for the general public, whose support is much appreciated.

Thanks also to the following, groups and businesses:

WINNERS IN UCT ANNUAL SAFETYPOSTER CONTEST

Students at Mary Gosnell School have done well again this year in the Annual Safety Poster Contest sponsored by The Order of United Commercial Travelers of America. This year's judging was at the UCT convention in Halifax held in May. Daryll Stothart (left), chairman of the contest for UCT Council 827, presents to Grade 7 students Cinthia Sewell, Sandra Fournier and Floyd Dempsey, first, second and third respectively. Prizes awarded were $25 for first place, $15 for second, and $10 for third. Looking on are Senior Counselor Gerald Roberts and Doug Henderson, school principal.

Get Those Mustaches On The Go

One of the most competitive events for male participants in Bathurst's Hospitality Days, the mustache contest, promises to be bigger and better this year according to Chairman Robert Boudreau.

Set for July 7, 8 and 9 at the Bathurst Arena, the contest, held in conjunction with the Mustache Pub, offers cash prizes to winners as well as a bit of friendly rivalry between all contestants.

Registration takes place July 7, with eliminations the following night and final judging July 9. There will be four categories this year, including small, medium, large and novelty. Winners will be chosen in each class, and one overall winner picked from the four semi-finalists.

The committee is urging all those planning to take part in this year's contest to get those masterpieces started, as competition was "stiff" last year and is expected to get even better.

Canada Works Projects Announced For County

Minister of Manpower and Immigration, Bud Cullen, has announced the approval of 23 more Canada Works projects for the federal constituency of Gloucester, New Brunswick, and fund increased to 10 previously announced projects.

Added to the eight project grants approved earlier, the announcement brings the federal contribution to $1,493,251. The total revised allocation given to this constituency for the Canada Works program is $1,748,000.

The Canada Works Program is designed to utilize the expertise of local organizations in the development and management of projects that will create new short term employment opportunities. The objective of the program is to get needed work done and public benefits pro-

Pollution Problems Discussed At Hearing

The second meeting of the New Brunswick Environmental Council to be held in Bathurst in the past five years took place Wednesday, May 25 in City Council chambers.

Presentations made during the session were from the Nepisiguit Salmon Association, the Bathurst Fish and Game Association and the Bathurst Hostel Association, all of which expressed concern over the amount of pollution emitted into the air and waters by Brunswick Mining and Smelting Corp Ltd. and Consolidated-Bathurst Ltd.

Speaking on behalf of Brunswick Mines was John Martin who pointed out pollution control is the company's continuing concern and who outlined new treatment facilities now being constructed.

The first plant, situated at No. 12 mine site, will be in operation this summer at a cost of $700,000, he noted, and the second, set for No. 6 mine site, is scheduled to be operative by summer 1978 at a cost of $1,250,000.

Charles Rimmer of Consolidated-Bathurst told the committee that his company has made great strides in pollution control and the pulp and paper mill is polutung a lot less today than it was five years ago.

He said the industry has put a lot into controlling the amount of suspended solids released into the water, and since the first of the year, has been within five or ten percent of federal requirements.

Not much has been done to control the amount of oxygen-consuming substances released into the water, he said, because that comes from one process in the mill and "this mill is in a dubious state as to where it's going. It's not really a viable operation where it sits right now."

Chairman Dr. Brian Newbold expressed satisfaction with the meeting, and he thanked those who had participated, saying it had been one of the most interesting meetings the committee had held in some time.

The 14-member committee, made up of a cross section of New Brunswick citizens, is appointed by the federal minister of environment with a mandate to study and make recommendations on environment problems presented by the minister or by concerned citizens. Meetings are usually held in Fredericton but every second meeting is held in a different part of the province in order to assess environmental problems in various regions.

At the conclusion of the Bathurst session, Dr. Newbold noted the committee's role has expanded to include questions touching on ecological reserves under the Ecological Reserves Act, and to make recommendations in this area to the minister of resources.

Funeral Today At Allardville

The death of Mrs. Edward Guignard of Allardville occurred here June 6 at Foyer Notre Dame de Lourdes. She was 88.

Born at Shippegan, she was the former Cesarine Duguay, a daughter of the late Gregoire and Angele (Duclos) Duguay.

Mrs. Guignard had been a resident at the Foyer in Bathurst for two years.

Surviving besides her husband are one daughter, Mrs. George Losier (Lauza) of Allardville; two brothers, Charles and Pierre Duguay, both of Dalhousie; and 13 grandchildren.

A son, Leo Guignard, died in 1974.

Mrs. Guignard is resting at Elhatton's Funeral Home.

The funeral mass will be held at Christ the King Church, Allardville, today (Wednesday) at 4 p.m. Interment will follow in the parish cemetery.

Moosehead Softball League Results

The opening of the 1977 Moosehead Softball League regular season got underway last May 31 with two games on tap.

In the first game, Pizza Delight, the 1976 champs, came from behind to defeat Captain's Cabin 17-16. Winning pitcher was Larry Blackett while Denis De Silva was tagged with the loss. The game was played at the College Field.

In the other contest, Bathurst Machine Shop crushed the Moosheads 23 - 12 behind the steady pitching of Freddie Theriault. Gerald Roy suffered the loss. The game was played at the Riverview field.

Two league games scheduled Sunday, June 5, were rained out.

"Provincial 77" To Open Speed-Bowl Next Wednesday

The preliminary planning is being completed for one of the premier stock car events of the year, the Provincial 77, to be held at Danny's Speed Bowl June 15th.

Indications are that this could be the finest field ever compiled at the local track in many years.

It will mark the return of two of the most popular personalities ever to race at Danny's in the persons of Murray Branch and Fred Rosengreen.

Branch, under the banner of Kenny's Trucking, will be driving the car which compiled the most points and captured the Schooner trophy last year, while Rosengreen with the sponsorship of Sumner Tire has purchased the Mustang, formerly owned by third place finisher Jerry Greene in 1976.

Coco Cola will have one of the finest looking cars at any track as their colors will be flying in a car driven by well known sports enthusiast, Vic Aubie.

Best T.V. will be represented by Ligouri Roy, also no stranger to racing fans. They are presently negotiating purchase of a Fredericton car.

Mike Daigle will be operating Levis Mallais' 68 Beaumont this year, while Victor Godin is also expected for the first race.

Heading the list of returning "Miramichiers" is Lindsay Tozer, runner-up in last years Schooner Points Parade.

Tozer will be joined by three other returnees to the bowl; namely Ian O'Donnell, Lloyd Wormell and Frank Mackenzie.

Jack Scott, the robust Dalhousie native will also be returning in 1977 after a respite of five years.

Track Talk

Ross Aubie will be returning as flagman for the upcoming season. . . Al Hebert will handle the announcing role while Aurele Hachey will be the handicaper. . . Adelard Cormier having his troubles with his brand new car - he has finished out of the money in his two starts at Riverglade. . . Richard McArthur still looking for another car - rumor has it that he could be making an American purchase. . . Doug Hill, a regular performer last year at Danny's doing very well with his new car. . . . Paul Lewis also performing very well with a new purchase. . . . Charlie DeGrasse will handle the pit registration while Jack Furlotte, of hockey fame will look after managing the pit.

Club House Chatter

News notes from Gowan Brae Golf and Country Club by Jean Boylan

This past weekend's rainy weather curtailed practically all golfing on the fairways, but indoors there was much planning going on in preparation for several coming events.

One of these is the Ladies' Field Day which will be held on Saturday, July 2nd. Invitations have been sent out to the various clubs in the province with the hope that many will respond by having some of their members take part.

Posters are now up for Pin Days with the weekday golfers scheduled to play on Thursdays and the Business Ladies scheduled for Saturdays. Be sure to sign up as soon as possible. A poster is also up for Spring Handicap play. Entries will be received until June 15th.

Contrary to what was reported in last week's column, Doug Pineau's Band and not George Robertson's will be playing at the Opening Dinner and Dance this coming Saturday evening.

Well, I hope the sun will be shining for our first Ladies' Day next Wednesday, the 15th. We'll be looking forward to a good turnout. See you at the No. 1 tee at 9:30 a.m.

I've also got a bit of news from the Junior golfers who would like everyone to know that their annual Spaghetti Supper which was so popular last year will be held on June 22 from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. Tickets are available from the Junior girls or at the bar.

Another date for the Juniors to keep in mind is July 7 when the first leg of the North shore Juniors (boys and girls) will be held at Gowan Brae in conjuncton with the Boys Zone playdowns. Juniors are thus advised to start practicing early.

Until next week.....

Minor Baseball Meeting Monday

The Bathurst Minor Baseball Association will hold a general meeting this coming Monday, June 13, 7:00 p.m. at Chalmers School.

Purpose of the meeting is to prepare for the coming minor baseball season as well as elect a new slate of officers.

Everyone interested in minor baseball is urged to attend this important meeting.

Girls' Softball Exhibition Game Set For Tonight

Dixie Lee and Dr. Pepper are the new sponsors of the Bathurst Girls' Softball team which will compete in the Senior "A" softball classification this season.

Ken Perron returns as team coach and will be assisted by Leo Vanderheyden. Celine Jamieson remains as team manager.

The local team has three exhibition games lined up this week as they prepare for the Provincial Senior A Softball title which will be determined at a two-day tournament scheduled for Moncton July 1 and 2.

Tonight, the Loggieville Flames will be here, weather permitting, for a 6:30 p.m. contest at Coronation Park.

Saturday, June 11, Fredericton Gardner Realty will visit Coronation Park for a double starting at 1:30 p.m. and 3:30 p.m.

Another doubleheader is scheduled for Coronation Park Sunday, June 12, with Fredericton Mar Hawks supplying the opposition. Game times are 1:30 and 3:30 p.m.

The Dixie Lee Dr. Pepper team will be holding a 50-50 draw on Wednesday, June 15.

A softball Clinic under the National Coaching Development Program is scheduled Monday, June 20, at the Nepisiguit High gym at 7:00 p.m.

Pre-registration for the clinic - Level 1 - Softball - Technical, may be arranged by calling the Department of Youth, Recreation and Cultural Resources at 546-3314 on or before Friday, June 17.

Course Information

- A minimum of 10, or a maximum of 25 coaches will be sufficient for a course.
- Coaches are asked to bring: Sweat Pants, Sneakers and Gloves.
- This course is co-sponsored by the Department of Youth, Recreation and Cultural Resources, and the N.B. Softball Association.
- A course fee of $6.00-coach will be charged and collected during the first session.
- For any additional information, please call 546-3314, Department of Youth, Recreation and Cultural Resources.

Atlantic Open At Westfield As Scheduled

"The clubhouse and the pro shop are burned to the ground, but we still have a golf course and we're still having our tournament."

Bobby Barr, head professional at Westfield Golf Club in New Brunswick, and tournament chairman for the 1977 Peter Jackson Atlantic Open says the event will be played at the club, as advertised, July 1, 2 and 3.

"The players might have to change their shoes in the parking lot and the press might have to work out of the back of a truck but the show will go on," he said.

"The fire may have destroyed the buildings but it didn't destroy the club's spirit," said Andre Daoust, Atlantic Region Sales Manager for Imperial Tobacco Limited. "The members have resolved to work twice as hard to make the event a financial and golfing success."

Although the fire on May 18 levelled both buildings, the pro shop is operating again -- from a construction trailer -- the club offices are in a mobile home and a temporary clubhouse will be opening in mid June.

Westfield, however, faces a lengthy, expensive rebuilding program and members are counting on revenue from the Peter Jackson Atlantic Open to get the campaign underway.

The tournament offers $15,000 in prize money, plus a $2,000 pro-am event, and low Canadian professional will earn an exemption into the Canadian Open at Glen Abbey.

All players have a chance to win $2,500 and the Peter Jackson Cup for the most points earned on the cross-Canada Tour. Second prize is $1,500 and third is $1,000.

Altogether, prize money available in seven events is $139,000, beginning June 17, 18 and 19, in Ontario at Guelph's Cutten Club, and ending August 19, 20 and 21 at Marine Drive Golf Club in Vancouver.

OLAND'S SOFTBALL LEAGUE RESULTS

Monday, May 30

Sandy Bond drove in 3 runs with a triple, double and single and also scored twice as Wye Electric doubled Sumner Tire 14-7. Wye peppered loser Byron Boucher (0-2) for 16 hits including 2 triples and 6 doubles.

Gary Peters (1-0) hurled the win giving up 10 hits including a triple and single to Marcel Legacy. This was the first contest for Wye Electric while Sumner Tire suffered its second loss in as many starts. The game was played at Rough Waters field.

Tuesday, May 31

Raymond Allain scored three runs and drove in a pair with four singles to lead Murphy's Esso to an 11 - 7 victory over Nadeau's Poultry in a game played at Coke's field.

Starter Roger Martel (1-0) took the win fanning five and walking seven before Carl Smith relieved in the fifth. Smith walked one in gaining a save. Norman Boudreau (0-1) took the loss.

Thursday, June 2

Sumner Tire won its first of the season with an impressive 14 - 5 triumph over Murphy's Esso at the College field. Winning pitcher Allen Daigle (1-0) held Murphy's to just 5 hits including a solo homer by Gerald Doucet. Loser Carl Smith (0-2) and reliever Roger Martel combined for eight strike outs but walked 10 batters.

Riverside Course To Host Ladies Golf Tourneys

Mary Ellen Driscoll, publicity chairman of the New Brunswick C.L.G.A., has advised that the New Brunswick Ladies Amateur, Junior and Senior Golf Championships will be held at the Riverside Golf and Country Club, Saint John, on July 25 and 26.

The Amateur, Junior and Senior Ladies Team Trials will be held July 23 - 24, the Saturday and Sunday preceding the Provincial Championships. Mrs J. D. Hickman, Rothesay, N.B. is the tournament chairman.

The tournament will determine the 1977 N.B. Ladies' Open Champion, the Junior Champion and Senior Champion. The trials will be utilized to select representatives for Provincial Amateur, Junior and Senior teams who will participate in Inter-Provincial competitions.

Comets Edged By Chatham 9-7

Chatham Junior Ironmen scored three runs in the top of the seventh for a come-from-behind 9 - 7 triumph over Bathurst Comets in an N.B. Junior Baseball League game played here last Wednesday. The game was called at the end of the 7th due to darkness.

Comets outhit Chatham 10 - 8 but the Ironmen delivered in the clutch.

Louis Godin started for the comets and took the loss with Yvon Ouellette relieving in the seventh. Godin fanned 5 and issued one free pass while Ouellette added a solo strike out. Roy Richard was the winner after he came in for starter Jim Irwin in the sixth.

Gary Dunn doubled and singled for the winners with Ed Daley adding a pair of singles. Barry Kyle paced the Comets with three singles while Brian O'Neill stroked a pair of safeties and Jean Luc Hachey doubled and singled. Dan Pitre's triple, a double by Yvon Ouellette and Ken MacKenzie's single accounted for the other Bathurst hits.

A Hospitality Sports Special

Hospitality Days, set for July 6 - 10 this year, is the ideal time for the men in the city to get together for the ever-popular tug-o-war event.

Last year, the powerful Hick's Construction team came out on top of an exciting haul against Doucet's Landscaping, a team which always provides stiff competition. a purse of $600 is up for grabs this year, so all are urged to begin plans now for the contest.

Training and special information are available from well-known sports enthusiast Denis Daigle, a local resident who is very much involved in this event each summer. Mr. Daigle is available at home, 546-2622, anytime for information. Coaches are asked to meet at the Exhibition Grounds Thursday night, June 9, for a brief meeting.

A special attraction in the makings this year is an all-girl tug-o-war team. High school girls will be hauling before the men's competition, again at the Exhibition Grounds.

Plan to be there, and good luck to all participants.

Mercer's 3-Hitter Sparks Sportsmen

Pete Mercer tossed a three-hitter and was backed by a 10 hit attack as Vic's Sportsmen downed St. Margarets' 21' Radar Base 8 - 5 at St. Margarets last Wednesday in Miramichi Valley Fastball League action.

SOME SLIP!

Even though normal conditions have returned, we're not about to shrug off this past winter's landslide with a casual "C'est la vie."
Not when it caused such major disruptions in our service to northeastern New Brunswick and the Gaspé Peninsula.

The land slip occurred near St. Fabien, P.Q., and forced us to close down the main line and re-route cars - that meant delays in delivering needed goods.

In the face of these problems, the patience and understanding of our freight customers were greatly appreciated.

The main line has now been restored and that means we're back on schedule to meet your production deadlines.

As Canada's largest distribution network, we serve all parts of the country with train service in and out of Eastern Canada every day. We are there whenever you need us and at competitive prices.

At CN, we're going all out to prove that we want your business - and that we take our responsibilities seriously.

CITY OF BATHURST
CALL FOR TENDERS
CONTRACT 46-225-77

Tenders will be accepted until 1400 hours, local time, June 23, 1977 for supply and installation of 3,950 feet of storm sewer, sizes 10 inch to 36 inch, 325 feet of 6" watermain; 590 feet of 8" sanitary sewer; 1,100 feet of road construction; and 380 feet of concrete sidewalk.

The tender must be accompanied by a certified cheque drawn from a Canadian chartered bank and made payable to the City of Bathurst in the amount of $15,000 or a bid bond of equivalent amount.

The tender shall be sealed and deposited in the Bid Deposit Box located in the main lobby of City Hall in Bathurst, New Brunswick at 256 St. Andrew Street.

The only tenders that shall be considered will be those submitted on the forms and in the special envelopes provided by the City. These forms may be obtained, along with plans and specifications for the works, from the undersigned on deposit of cash or certified cheque in the amount of $50.

Inquiries relative to the tender should be directed to J.G. Greenough, City Engineer, 256 St. Andrew Street, Bathurst, N.B., Telephone 546-6651.

The City does not commit itself to accept either the lowest or any one of the tenders received, nor to incur any obligation or cost of any sort of the tenderer(s).

NOTICE

NOTICE OF SALE BY TENDER
RE: Quincaillerie du Centre Ltee
PLACE CARAQUET
CARAQUET, N.B.

Sealed tenders, clearly marked on the envelope, "Tender Quincaillerie du Centre Ltee" and enclosing a certified cheque for 20 percent of the tender will be received at the office of G.L. Perkins, Receiver for the Royal Bank of Canada, 230 Main Street, Bathurst, New Brunswick, until Wednesday June 15, 1977 at 3:00 p.m. for the purchase of all the HARDWARE INVENTORY AND ASSETS of Quincaillerie du Centre Ltee, "en bloc"

LIST OF HARDWARE INVENTORY AND ASSETS
A complete list of the Hardware Inventory and Assets of Quincaillerie du Centre Ltee may be obtained upon request to G.L. Perkins, Receiver for the Royal Bank of Canada, 230 Main Street, Bathurst, New Brunswick, (506) 546-3396.

INSPECTION OF HARDWARE INVENTORY AND ASSETS
The Hardware Inventory and Assets may be inspected by appointment with G.L. Perkins, Receiver for the Royal Bank.

CONDITIONS OF SALE
Tenders will be accepted on the basis that the purchaser has inspected the inventory and assets and no warranty or condition is expressed or can be implied as to description, quantity, value, condition or in any manner whatsoever. The Purchaser shall remove the inventory and assets, within fifteen days at his own expense, free and clear of any claims against the Receiver.
All offers received are conditional upon the purchaser's obligation to pay over and above the amount of the purchase price, all taxes Federal and or Provincial exigible in connection with the sale of the assets. The highest or any tender will not necessarily be accepted.
All bids submitted constitute a firm offer and cannot be revoked. Once a bid has been accepted, the bidder will forfeit his deposit as liquidated damages if the sale has not been completed by him. A bidder will forfeit his deposit as liquidated damages if he withdraws his bid prior to receipt by him of notification of the successful bidder. The deposit accompanying a bid will be returned if the tender has not been accepted.

OPENING OF BIDS
All bidders are invited to attend at the office of the Receiver on Wednesday, June 15, 1977 at 3:00 p.m. at which time all bids received will be opened.

DATED at the City of Bathurst, New Brunswick, this 30th day of May, A.D., 1977.

Premiers Will Meet Next Week

The twenty-sixth session of the Council of Maritime Premiers will be held in the executive council chamber in Fredericton, New Brunswick, commencing at 9:30 a.m. Monday, June 13, and conclude with a press conference scheduled for noon Tuesday June 14. Premier Richard Hatfield will be chairman of the session.

The Council of Maritime Premiers will meet to consider a number of issues regarding higher education in the region including reports from the Maritime Provinces Higher Education Commission on proposed expansion of dental school facilities at Dalhousie University, future plans for the Maritime Forest Ranger School in Fredericton and matters related to the Atlantic Police Academy in Charlottetown.

The Maritime Provinces Transportation Committee will submit a report on various items for consideration regarding current regional transportation issues including proposed revisions to the national transportation act, port administration policy, new coastal trade legislation, highway strengthening program, passenger rationalization program and the status of current proposals for revisions to the freight subsidy program.

Status reports on various activities of the council, including negotiations with the federal government for an offshore resources agreement and energy-related matters, will also be presented during the session.

The premiers will examine some of the issues intended for discussion at the New England Governors Eastern Premiers Conference to be held in Digby, Nova Scotia on June 24 and 25.

Steady Increase In Membership Noted In Auxiliary Command

Mrs. Joyce Lockhart, president of the N.B. Auxiliary Command, Royal Canadian Legion, said Friday in Bathurst that membership had increased greatly and continues to increase in 1977.

Three new auxiliaries had been organized in the province since last year's convention, reported Mrs. Lockhart. The new groups were formed at the Tobique and Big Cove Reserves and at Green Point.

Mrs. Lockhart estimated membership will reach 7,000 by the end of this year.

Backing up her predictions during the opening business session of the Golden Anniversary Convention on Friday Morning was the report of the Secretary Mrs. Margaret Agnew, Moncton. She said 73 auxiliaries reporting out of 79 showed a membership of 5,495 in 1976 which, along with 267 life members totals 5,763.

Mrs. Agnew said she had received application forms during the year for 396 new members, 157 of which were submitted in 1977.

In her president's report, Mrs. Lockhart also reminded the accredited and fraternal delegates that the prime purpose of the Ladies Auxiliary is the welfare and benefit of veterans, their widows and dependents.

SEMINAR REPORT

Mrs. Vivienne Bishop of Perth-Andover, who reported on the holding of seminars in all eight districts in the province, said the amount of work done by the auxiliaries was "amazing" and the amount of money they raise and donate to assist the Royal Canadian Legion branches was "truly fantastic".

She said 66 out of 79 auxiliaries had been represented at the seminars for a total attendance of 542. Several recommendations arising out of the seminars were discussed and voted upon at Friday morning's session.

It was decided the N.B. Auxiliary Command would continue to meet in convention annually and the Command could not afford to hire a secretary-treasurer on a full time or a part time basis.

The morning session was chaired by Mrs. Bertha Henderson of Saint John, immediate past president. There were 66 auxiliaries represented and 382 registered to date.

Among the special guests attending the sessions were Ron Bedgood of Halifax, Dominion Command vice president; John Fortune of Blackville, provincial president and Ralph Ryne of Saint John, provincial secretary-treasurer, all representing the Royal Canadian Legion.

Mr. Bedgood mentioned the "tremendous turnout" for the convention and paid tribute to the longest serving auxiliary command in Canada. He noted for each one present, there were 17 at home and said he looked forward to the formation to the formation of an Auxiliary Command in Nova Scotia which would embrace all existing auxiliaries.

As provincial president of the Royal Canadian Legion, Mr. Fortune said he was "very impressed with the wonderful turnout" both at the business sessions and for the cenotaph parade, memorial service and official opening the previous evening. He said the Auxiliary was certainly a credit to the Royal Canadian Legion.

GIVEN RECOGNITION

Others who were recognized for their presence were Mrs. Joyce-Leclair, president of the Prince Edward Island Auxiliary Command; Mrs. Ruth Scott, president of the Newfoundland Auxiliary Command; Mrs. Majorie Sykes, representing the auxiliaries in Nova Scotia; Mrs. Clara Daley of Bathurst, honorary president; Mrs. James O'Brien of St. Stephen, provincial president 1936-1938; Mrs. Archie Kay, now of Deep River, Ontario, provincial president 1947-1948; and Rev. Ray A. Francis, padre of the host branch who took part in the cenotaph service.

Passed unanimously by the delegates was a royal resolution which will be forwarded to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II in recognition of her Silver Jubilee Year.

The Friday afternoon session, chaired by Mrs. Bishop as second vice president, dealt with executive minutes, correspondence, and other reports. Three resolutions will come before the assembly this morning, one of which suggests the formation of a senior members' club within an auxiliary if so desired.

Also coming before the convention will be the possible change of head dress in the Ladies' Auxiliary uniform.

Mrs. Betty MacDougall of Saint John reported on the Command's adopted veternas program. She said there were 29 adopted veterans at the Ridgewood Domiciliary Care Unit in Saint John and seven in the West Saint John Community Hospital.

SUPPORT IS NOTED

In the report of the special hospital committee, Legion Secretary-Treasurer Ralph Pyne thanked the Auxiliary branches and the Auxiliary Command for their support and especially for the donation of an organ valued at more than $2,000 to the Ridgewood Unit. The large donation was made in observance of the 50th anniversary of the N.B. Auxiliary Command.

Mr. Pyne also encouraged Auxiliary members to attend the annual Cedar Hill Field of Honor service to be held in Saint John this month.

The hostess Herman J. Good V.C. Branch Auxiliary made a presentation to Mrs. Mary Jane Lissen of Saint John Friday afternoon. Mrs. Lissen has been Dominion vice-president of the Silver Cross Wearers for three years. The presentation was made on behalf of the auxiliary by the president Mrs. Walter MacKay.

Following the afternoon session, a "happy hour" took place at the Legion Hall, St. Peter Avenue, starting at six o'clock, after which a buffet supper, given by the hostess auxiliary, was served at 7 p.m.

Entertainment for the evening was a "jig and whistle" variety function, winding up the second day of the Golden Anniversary convention.

Recreation-Related Problems Discussed

The N.B. Douncil on Recreation for the Disabled (Bathurst Region) met at the Bathurst Trade School on May 10 at 7 p.m. with the intention of trying to find solutions to some recreational needs.

Recreational needs had previously been identified by various organizations through the circulation of a questionaire. These needs included skilled voluntary help, assistance with funding, transportation, leadership workshops, premises for recreation, advice regarding new programs, adaptation to public buildings etc., integration with non-handicapped groups, integration with other handicapped groups, equipment for recreation, unskilled voluntary help, and help with communication (braille, sign language, etc.).

Priority was given to the need indicated by the greatest number of handicapped groups participating in the survey, that of skilled voluntary help.

Those present at the meeting were divided into three groups with one leader in each to take notes. The following format was used to try to find solutions to the problem of the lack of skilled voluntary help relating to recreation for the disabled: defining the problem, generating solutions, evaluating suggestions and forming a plan of action.

From the many ideas suggested, it was decided to organize a volunteer committee with the regional council designed to identify the needs of various member organizations for volunteers. The committee would then look into the training of special skills to volunteer and then recruit these volunteers.

The regional council also decided to study other recreational needs during the next few months and is looking for additional members who are willing to work on committees to find solutions of these needs. Any interested persons from service clubs or other organizations who may be able to help the cause are welcome.

The New Brunswick Council on Recreation for the disabled, in conjunction with the Canadian Council on Rehabilitation for the Disabled, is in the process of hiring two students to work in the Bathurst region on a thirteen-week summer project to help the handicapped in their quest for recreation.

The next meeting of the regional council will be held Thursday, June 9 at 7:30 at the Bathurst Trade School in Room 99. As many people as possible are urged to attend to help the council accomplish its important work.

MR. ROBBINS AND SON MARC.

GRATEFUL TO SHRINERS

A Bathurst youngster who was extremely happy to see and welcome the Shriners here May 27-28 was Marc Robbins. He is the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs Frank Robbins, 577 College St. Marc had his two legs crushed 8 years ago when a 1400-pound pipe rolled on them. He has been receiving tratments twice a year at the Shriners' Hospital in Montreal since his accident. Marc has two more years to go before his visits are completed. A special thank you is extended to the Shriners by Marc and his family for making their services available to them.

Give your child a chance to live. Keep both eyes on him when you're on a summer outing near water. This is a Red Cross Water safety tip.

NOTICE TO FISHERMEN

4 VWX Flounder Assistance Program

The Fisheries and Marine Service, Department of Fisheries and Environment, will implement an incentive program to encourage the taking of the unused 4 VWX Flounder quota and to reduce effort in the more favored areas.

Effective June 1, 1977, fishing enterprises will receive assistance in the amount of 1 cent per lb. on all first quality flounder (Plaice, Witch, Yellowtail, Winter Flounder) taken in ICNAF divisions 4VWX.

This plan is in addition to the normal groundfish assistance program. Fishing enterprises will not be required to submit separate applications, as payment will be based on the monthly applications submitted for the groundfish assistance program. All supporting documents must clearly identify flounder captured in ICNAF divisions 4 VWX. Applications for vessels over 25.5 gross tons must also be supported by a copy of all relevant log records which should be identical to the log record regularly submitted for statistical purposes.

All other guidelines pertaining to this program, such as quality, are identical to the existing groundfish assistance program.

MS Campaign 'Outstanding'

The 1977 MS Carnation Day fund drive by the Bathurst Chapter of the Multiple Sclerosis Society of Canada ended last week with a total of $1,495.000 contributed by Bathurst residents.

Miss Lucille Arseneau campaign chairman, said she considered the results outstanding. "That $1,495.00", she said, "means more hope for MS patients through greater research efforts."

Currently, she said, the Society is helping support a total of 38 research projects and fellowships, all of them investigating multiple sclerosis, a disease for which there is no known cause or cure.

Multiple sclerosis is a potentially disabling neurological disease which attacks the substance protecting the nerve fibres of the central nervous system. It can affect such functions as walking, vision, speaking and balance. Thousands of Canadians are afflicted with MS, and millions of others around the world.

Caraquet Park To Be Developed

One of four projects announced June 2 by Federal Fisheries Minister Romeo LeBlanc on behalf of Regional Economic Expansion Minister Marcel Lessard and Commerce and Development Minister Gerald Merrithew has plans for further development of Caraquet Industrial Park.

These plans will be prepared, at a cost of up to $8,500, by W. H. Crandall and Associates Ltd. of Moncton. The project follows a proposal of the Economic Expansion Commission of the Peninsula, which owns and administers Caraquet Industrial Park. The commission is the development agency which represents the communities of the peninsula region.

Funding for the project is being made available under the industrial sub-agreement of the Canada-New Brunswick General Development Agreement, under which the federal government pays 90 per cent of the cost.

Mine Workers Attend Workshop

Fifty officers, committeemen and stewards of Local 5285 United Steelworkers of America and workers at Brunswick Mines attended a two-day workshop at Danny's Motel in Bathurst recently.

Topics of the school were local union administration, grievance procedure and public relations. The workshop was designed to help union representatives on the job to better understand the collective agreement and to improve the company - union relationship in dealing with everyday problems.

Instructors were Norman Hebert from the Steelworkers' department of education, Toronto and Ed Levert, staff representative.

All delegates were given a certificate of achievement for successfully completing the course along with a briefcase bearing the union local emblem.

NBTel Reports Drop In Assistance Calls

Few New Brunswickers are being affected by NBTel's charging plan for number information.

Six-month statistics submitted to the New Brunswick Board of Commissioners of Public Utilities show that an average 1.5 per cent of NBTel customers are actually exceeding the limit of five free calls per month.

"A number of our customers have expressed concern about the plan," says W.H.R. Smith, vice-president, operations, "but the statistics show that very few are indeed being charged for the service. We've accomplished what we set out to do... reduce the cost of providing directory assistance in general while charging more of the costs to those who use the service extensively."

Figures compiled since October, 1976 show an average drop of 40 per cent in the number of calls to directory assistance. This reduction is expected to result in an approximate saving of $240,000 for 1977, thus assisting in holding down the general level of telephone rates.

Revenues from the charging program have been minimal since less than two per cent of NBTel customers have used the service enough to result in a charge.

The 40 per cent drop in calls translates to over 250,000 calls per month. In March of this year, NBTel directory assistance operators handled 362,369 requests for numbers. This compares with over 613,000 calls in March, 1976.

The charging program was introduced by the company last September on a one-year trial basis. Under the program, approved by the Public Utilities Board, each call to directory assistance operators in excess of five per month, per line, costs 15 cents.

More Money For Early Leavers

Traditionally, employees who belong to a company pension plan but leave before they are entitled to their employer contributions only recover their own contributions plus a paltry amount of interest. That small amount of interest - usually based on a return of four per cent per year - has come under increased attack, especially in the past few years when some pension funds have been earning twice that on their funds.

In response to this problem and in a radical departure from traditional pension philosophy, some companies (including Maclean-Hunter Ltd.) are boosting the interest paid on employee contributions. The new floating rates are pegged on the current rates of return either earned by the company's pension fund or provided by bank saving accounts, reports The Financial Post.

Industry sources say the trend to a floating interest rate is growing but is most prevalent in companies hiring predominantly younger people with a high turnover rate.

A Rival For Scrap Metal

Old cars and refrigerators will go on being collected and fed into furnaces to emerge as steel for new cars and refrigerators for many years to come. But scrap has a new rival that is likely to increase in importance. The rival goes under the unlikely name of sponge iron, a form of upgraded iron ore that can be fed directly into a mini-mill's electric furnace, writes Peter Foster in The Financial Post's special report on steel.

Mini mills are relatively small-scale steel making operations based on electric arc furnaces that use scrap as their main production charge. The major steel manufacturers usually have several of these furnaces, but some medium-sized companies also rely on electric furnaces.

These include Slater Steel, Lake Ontario Steel Co., Interprovincial Steel and Pipe Corp., Sidbec-Dosco (owned by the Quebec government) and QSP Ltd., the Quebec-based company struggling for financial survival. For the past ten years, this part of the industry has been looking at "directly reduced" sponge iron pellets as an alternative to scrap in their production of iron content that they can be fed directly into the electric furnace

Serious fluctuations in scrap prices and bouts over its future availability have provided the joint impetus to a search for an economic means of producing such sponge iron. Less refined pellets have been used in conventional steel making for years. As high quality sources of iron ore have become exhausted, the impetus to upgrade other forms of iron-bearing minerals has increased. The major breakthrough in upgrading pellets for use in conventional coke oven-blast furnace steel production was made 20 years ago

Gov't Seeking Better Liaison With Teachers

The Department of Education is seeking better liaison and greater consultation with New Brunswick's two teacher's associations

Education Minister Charles Gallagher, speaking to the annual general meeting of the New Brunswick Teachers' Association May 27, said a meeting had been held with representatives of the associations on May 24. He said the meeting was of a preliminary nature, and discussed in general terms the possibility of expanding the consultative process with teachers' school trustees, superintendents and other groups in education. The next meeting on June 16 will explore the subject more thoroughly

Mr. Gallagher said that teachers and other groups have already provided valuable consultation through their membership on such bodies as the provincial curriculum committee, the basic education committee, professional development board, and various task forces. He said the value of the consultative approach has been proven, and his department now wants to find ways to expand it.

The education minister told the teachers that each level of the education system is totally dependent on the other levels. "Obviously", he said, "we are all so intertwined and dependent on each other that we must function together smoothly, not as adversaries, but as complementary groups striving along parallel paths towards a common goal."

Mr. Gallagher quoted statistics from Information Canada that indicate the pupil retention rate in New Brunswick - the percentage of Grade 2 pupils who reach the last year of high school - increased from 42 per cent in 1965 - 66, to 61 per cent in 1974 - 75, the last year for which figures are available.

He said, "I find these statistics very encouraging - but still not good enough. Continuing effort is needed to bring the dropout rate below a third - below one-quarter, if possible. That is why we are expanding our career education programs on the broadest possible base. In this way we can make the educational experience truly meaningful to the pupils of today, and so interesting and important to them that they will stick with it, at least to the end of the secondary level."

FATHER AND SON NIGHT WELL ATTENDED EVENT

The First United Beaver Colony "A" held a father and son night at the Donald Eddy Hall May 30. Supper was served by the leaders and Beaver co-ordinator, Fran Gildart presented a Beaver crest to all Beavers and those swimming up to Cubs. They also received Beaver banners in remembrance of their Beaver days. One of the Beavers, Jonathan Scott, who is moving to Moncton, was presented with a Beaver mug. It was also his birthday and everyone sang Happy Birthday in his honor. After supper, outside games were enjoyed by the fathers and eager Beavers. In the above photo are some of the fathers and Beavers who attended the function

Many Reasons For Increased Mobility

As many as two and one half million Canadian families will change their place of residence during 1977 according to Tom Moran of Keystone Realty (1976) Limited, A.E. LePage Limited Coast to Coast Real Estate Service member servicing Northeastern New Brunswick.

Mr. Moran, who is responsible for the Bathurst Coast to Coast Real Estate and Corporate Relocation Services, said research indicates there are a number of reasons for the continued increase in mobility. "the shifting and shuffling of the Canadian population" can be attributed to political and personal pressures as well as business needs and job opportunities.

"Many businessmen", he observed, "now think it neither fashionable nor good business to stay on in one job for a lifetime."

Mr. Moran said there also has been a change in attitude during the past decade by rural Canadians. "The grass roots stay-on-the-farm philosophy seems to be a thing of the past. With better education readily available in rural areas, there are more opportunities open".

"Add to this a shorter work week, earlier retirement age, and only a few hours by air from Newfoundland to Victoria, and it's easy to see why Canada's population continues to shift."

MOBILITY HIGHLIGHTED

Evidence of the shifting population can be found in statistics compiled by the Coast to Coast Real Estate Service's Research Division, he said. "Our statistical survey base includes the total number of address changes of those families receiving family allowance benefits; the total number of new residential telephones connected by Bell Canada, and the total moves handled by Canada's five largest moving companies."

More than 1.3 million or 37 percent of all families receiving family allowance benefits moved last year. Of this total, 1,249,297 families relocated within the same province, while 64,443 families made inter-provincial moves. And Bell Canada's Residential Main Inward Movement statistics for 1976 show that Bell installed 1,180,951 residential telephones in Ontario and Quebec, which have an estimated total dwelling inventory of 4,724,996 units - indicating a mobility rate of about 25 percent.

Canada's five largest van lines handled a total of 76,878 moves last year, another indication of our increased mobility.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED

The majority of long distance moves fall under the category of corporate transfers, Mr. Moran said. "As a service to employees, and because of the complexities and problems involved in a move, many corporations now turn the entire move over to our sophisticated National Relocation Service."

We will supply consultation to the employee and the employer, handle sale of the property at the old location and also will provide assistance in finding housing at the new location.

It proves to be quite a challenge to help relocating people because they demand up-to-date informed material on the various markets. This is one of the reasons why we designed and distribute our quarterly Coast to Coast Housing Disparity Chart, Mr. Moran stated.

HOUSING CHART HELPS

Through this residential disparity chart, the relocating person or a corporation can overcome many problems in determining housing costs differentials and in the case of corporations, arrive at compensating costs for the employee transfer, Mr. Moran noted.

The chart is a general guide to average house prices in one city compared to the average price in another city based on similar properties in each city.

For instance, using the attached disparity chart as of March 31, a family being trans-

SUCCESSFUL WEIGHT LOSERS HONORED

Approximately 300 persons were on hand at the united church Centre on King George Highway, Newcastle, May 18 for an opening meeting of Weight Watchers International.

Lecturer for the evening was Marie Carrnel, trainer for the North Shore area. Also introduced was the franchise coordinator for Weight Watchers, Mary Homiciz, who lost a total of 100 pounds and maintained this weight loss for 7½ years. Mrs. Homiciz related her personal experiences from being overweight, and was presented with a medallion by Councillor John Creaghan on behalf of the Town of Newcastle.

Successful weight losers from Bathurst, Tabusintac, Robertville, Chatham and Newcastle classes were honoured during the evening for losses ranging from 48 to 135 pounds.

Many Mourn Mrs. C. Bernier

CARAQUET – The death of Mrs. Clarice Bernier occurred May 31 at Saint-Joseph Villa in Tracadie at the age of 91.

A daughter of the Late Augustin and Marie (Chiasson) Lanteigne of Caraquet, she was twice married. Her husband by her first marriage was Joseph Marcel Lanteigne and her second husband was Damase Bernier of Caraquet.

Surviving are two sons, Joachim of Centre Saint Simon and Antonio of Caraquet; three daughters, Mrs. Francois Gallien (Venerande) and Mrs. Simeon Theriault (Cecile), both of Caraquet and her adopted daughter, Mrs. Clifford Bell (Albina) of St. Leonard.

Four brothers, Onesime of New York, Carolusse of Montreal, and Theotime and Azade, both of Island River; one sister, Mrs. Abraham Chiasson (Hortense) of Island River; and a number of grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren also survive.

Mrs. Bernier rested at Racicot's Funeral Home, Caraquet.

The funeral was held at St. Peter in Chains Church in Caraquet Friday at 4 p.m. followed by burial in the parish cemetery.

SMOKE SCREEN

A wise man, who had a lawsuit pending, asked his attorney if it would be smart to send the judge a box of expensive cigars. "Definitely not," said the lawyer. "That's bribery and the judge would probably hold you in contempt of court. In addition, he would feel prejudiced against your case."

Soon after, the case came to court and the wise man won! "Looks like my little gift to the judge really brought results", he remarked to his attorney.

"You mean that in spite of my advice, you sent the judge a box of cigars?"

"Sure I did," boasted the wise man. "But I had them sent in the other fellow's name."

Remarkable Career Recorded In Book

By FRASER MacDOUGALL

Canadians of this and future generations can be grateful that Grattan O'Leary, in his 88th year and stricken with cancer (he died April 7, 1976), found the strength to record recollections of a remarkable career.

What a sparkling book resulted - Grattan O'Leary: Recollections of People, Press and Politics (Macmillan; 204 pages; $12.95) - written in the lively and graceful style that invariably distinguished the words that flowed from his typewriter and his tongue during the 65 years he observed, commented on, and vigorously participated in, Canadian political life.

One of the most intriguing chapters recalls his first 12 years, before he left his home at Perce in the Gaspe Peninsula in 1900 to make his own way in the world.

The all-too-brief chapter is a striking social history of the times in the Gaspe, and will ring a responsive chord in the memories of people who lived there and elsewhere in rural Canada up to and after World War I.

LEAVING HOME

O'Leary's formal education ended at the age of 12 when he went off to work in a sawmill, setting out to make his own way in the world as most boys of that age did in his day and for more than a decade thereafter.

Most other men getting that sort of start spent the rest of their lives on the treadmill of wasted hopes and realized ambitions. Not O'Leary.

"It turned out that destiny had other plans. The occasion was my going to sea as an engine-room helper on a newly built coastal ship." At $15 a month.

More sea jobs were followed by land-based labor-brewery worker in Saint John, lathe operator, clerk for a hardware dealer, salesclerk for a lumber firm.

The sea beckoned again, aboard a ship due to sail for South Africa. But that night the young O'Leary walked by the office of the Saint John Standard, a newspaper that supported the Conservatives, long the party of O'Leary's choice.

He went in to seek a job as a writer. "Have you done any reporting?" the editor asked.

"No," replied O'Leary, "but I'm a good Conservative". A trial story won him a job.

POLITICS A PASSION

Two years later, he was off to Ottawa for a job with The Journal. But his passion for politics was such that he headed straight for the Parliament Buildings on his arrival in Ottawa, letting the work wait until later.

He played an active role with The Journal from that day in 1911 until 1963, following his appointment to the Senate, when he retired as president and became editor emeritus.

But all the while, politics remained his abiding passion.

He fought hard for the Conservatives. He made countless speeches for the party himself and at times wrote speeches for its leading men although he abhorred the use of a text by any speaker. He ran unsuccessfully as a candidate in his native Gaspe in 1925. He was a combative partisan in the Senate.

Yet his political beliefs didn't blind his eyes to merits in people from other parties or to failings in those from his own. Liberal Prime Minister Sir Wilfred Laurier was his hero figure. He finds fault with some of his own.

FIRST MINISTERS

Some sample comments on prime ministers he observed:

Laurier: "Striking in appearance, a master of the soft answer, perfectly at home in both languages, he exemplified the best type of Canadianism. No one in my experience has touched him as an orator; he was the greatest I was privileged to hear in 60 years of the-mill politican. But he was a man of no system and ideology, only a man of instincts and observing Parliament."

Sir Robert Bordon: "Took his party from misty-eyed colonialism to robust Canadian nationalism."

Mackenzie King: "I liked the old scoundrel but... it wasn't the unity of Canda but the unity of the Liberal party that concerned him."

Arthur Meighen: (O'Leary's closest friend in politics): "His speeches were models of clarity and extemporaneous virtuosity. There was nothing accidental about it; when he rose to speak, the subject, whatever its nature, by long study and meditation was at his fingertips."

R.B. Bennett: "Meighen could run rings around him. In politics Bennett was a combination of Billy Graham and Jack the Ripper."

Louis St. Laurent: "Worthy to rank with any... He was a man of honor, supreme balance and utter realism."

John Diefenbaker: "Whatever may be said for or against him, was (and is) no run-of-

Bill Will Ban Non-Refillables

The government has introduced legislation that would allow for the banning of all non-refillable beverage containers in the province.

The beverage containers act was introduced in the Legislature Monday, May 30 by Environment Minister Fernand Dube.

The bill would authorize the minister to approve the type of containers for all beverages intended for human consumption. Drugs and medicines are not included.

It would also require retailers to collect a cash deposit on refillable containers and to refund the amount when the empty containers are returned.

Mr. Dube said outside the House that the legislation is aimed at eventually phasing out the use of non-refillable bottles. He said the government is consulting with the bottling industry to determine when the ban would take effect.

The legislation would also allow the government to regulate beverage cans, but Mr. Dube said there are no plans at this time to ban non-refillable cans.

The crackdown on non-refillable containers was among recommendations in the 1976 report of the Environment Council. Other provinces have banned non-refillable containers with an eye toward energy conservation.

Chicken Market To Be Studied

Agriculture and Rural Development Minister Malcolm MacLeod announced May 26 he has asked the Agricultural Resources Study to immediately undertake an examination of chicken marketing in New Brunswick.

Mr. MacLeod said certain questions have arisen during the last few months which if left unresolved would have potentially serious impact on the poultry industry in New Brunswick. Generally, these questions revolve around the entry of the province into a National Marketing Plan, the ensuring of an adequate supply of birds to the processing industry, and the closing of a poultry processing plant in Moncton.

Specifically, he said the Agricultural Resources Study will determine the size of the provincial market, the extent to which it is supplied from provincial and outside sources, present levels of production and processing, and present markets for processed birds.

The study also will examine production and marketing trends by regions of New Brunswick over the last decade.

In addition, it will be concerned with the proposed national marketing scheme, its potential effect on New Brunswick, and distribution of quotas within the Province.

The minister said this type of information is needed in the formulation of a balanced production and processing assessment. The study will present recommendations related to these matters.

Mr. MacLeod indicated he expected a report at an early date.

Laboratory In The Sky

A new space era has dawned. Tests being conducted in California this month on the first of a fleet of huge space gliders signal the start of an age in which the United States, with the assistance of Canada and Europe, will open to man the alien environment of outer space, writes Allan Bailey in The Financial Post.

Evoking romantic images of Stanley Kubrick's 2001: A Space Odyssey, astronauts and scientists will be routinely ferried to and from earth orbit to conduct experiments and projects that have the potential for touching, in some way, the lives of all of us. In the comfortable shirtsleeves environment of a compact space laboratory hundreds of miles above earth, scientists will assist existing unmanned satellites in the task of monitoring pollution, weather, and our diminishing water and agricultural resources, while others will be developing new materials and processes that may revolutionize science, medicine and technology.

One of the first flights of this orbiting laboratory would contain the first Canadian ever to fly in space. Dr. Richard Malcolm, head of the vestibular group at the Defense and Civil Institute of Environmental Medicine in Toronto, says he or his colleague, Dr. Kenneth Money, head of the institute's bioscience section, "are in the running to go up on the first flight." These Canadian scientists have proposed experiments aimed at investigating why spacemen become sick and disoriented in outer space.

This new epoch is based on a novel concept of space travel called the Space Shuttle Transportation System, developed some years ago by the U.S. National Aeronautics and Space Administration (Nasa). The Space Shuttle will drastically reduce the enormous cost of operating in space because not only is it a reusuable vehicle - up to 100 times - but it can carry a staggering 32½ tons of equipment in its mammoth cargo bay.

Observes 25th Anniversary

The 25th anniversary of Little Flower Council of the Catholic Women's League was celebrated Sunday, May 29, beginning with mass at 11 a.m. at St. Theresa Church in Bathurst, followed by a banquet at Danny's Colonial House.

The Girl Guides formed a guard of honor at the church entrance.

Rev. Cleo Hache, first director of the council, was present, as were two former directors, Rev. L. Vermeerch and the Rev. Vincent Hache, and the current council director, Rev. Yvon Boudreau.

St. Theresa's church choir, under the direction of Brian Melanson, added much to the con-celebrated mass. During communion, Mr. Melanson sang as an appropriate hymn his own composition, "In These Hands."

Scripture reading was by Mrs. Kenneth Frenette. The offering was taken by Mrs. Peggy Doucet, Mrs. Connie Doucet, Mrs. Pearl Pitre and Mrs. Margaret Doucet.

Father Vincent Hache delivered the homily.

During mass, Father Cleo Hache presented an inscription from His Holiness Pope Paul VI bearing his apostolic blessing, upon Little Flower Council. This was received by the president, Mrs. Aloysius Lavigne.

BANQUET GUESTS

President at the banquet was the president, Mrs. Lavigne. Other head table guests included Rev. C. Hachey, Rev. V. Hache, Rev. Yvon Boudreau; and guest speaker, Rev. T. G. Culligan; Mayor and Mrs. John A. Duffy; Mrs. F. J. Hay, national secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Edgar Normandeau, provincial secretary; and Mrs. Donald Irvine, Bathurst diocesan president.

Civic greetings were extended by Mayor Duffy whose words touched on the league motto, For God and Canada.

Mrs. Hay, with greetings from the national office, voiced her praise of the work and perseverance of the council throughout the 25 years. Her gift of an arrangement of large 'mums was later presented to Mrs. Jack Thibodeau, the first council president.

Mrs. Normandeau extended provincial greetings and wishes for the council's continuing success.

Mrs. Normandeau brought greetings from the diocesan level and an appropriate gift from the council.

Congratulatory messages were received from the neighboring councils. Mrs. W. G. Smith was impressive in expressing words of appreciation.

Seventeen members were presented with 25-year service pins by Father Boudreau.

A service pin was presented by Mrs. Hay to Mrs. William T. Lavigne, in recognition of her dedicated service to Little Flower Council.

An inscribed silver tray was presented to Mrs. Jack Thibodeau by Mrs. Danny DeGrace on behalf of the 17 25-year members.

The anniversary cake made by a member, was topped with a miniature statue of Our Lady of Good Counsel, set in a triple-row of tiny, colored roses.

COUNCIL HISTORY

A brief summary of the history of the council, compiled by Mrs. Jack Thibodeau, was read by Mrs. George Hussey.

Following are Excerpts from the history:

On May 25, 1952, 11 ladies gathered in St. Theresa's Parish Hall and the South Bathurst Sub-Division of the Catholic Women's League was formed. The late Mrs. C. T. Richard (Bea) was then the diocesan organizer.

On Oct. 13, 1958, the name was changed to Little Flower Parish Council and membership gradually increased. There are now 52 members and four honorary members.

The first executive comprised: Rev. Cleo Hache, director; Mrs. Jack Thibodeau, president; Mrs. Leo P. Doucet, 1st vice-president, Mrs. Doran Aubie, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. Eldon Melanson, 3rd vice-president; Miss Minnie Melanson, secretary, and Mrs. W. G. Smith, treasurer.

Two members, Mrs. Jack Thibodeau and Mrs. W. G. Smith, each served as president of the Bathurst Diocesan Council. Mrs. Aurele White has been secretary of the diocesan council and Mrs. Kenneth Frenette and Miss Helen Thibodeau each served as treasurer. Mrs. Danny DeGrace and many others have served as diocesan conveners.

A scrap book compiled by one of the members gives a complete history of the council and is available to members. This book has won recognition at diocesan and provincial conventions.

Little Flower Council has been hostess to two diocesan conventions, the first on May 4-5 1963 and later May 2-3 1970.

Three members have been presented with service pins for outstanding service.

The council takes part in many parish activities such as serving on church committees, and more recently, the Neighborhood Improvement Plan. The group has donated to Nepisiguit Centennial Library and one member is a member of the Library's board of directors. A member is also secretary of the board of directors of Villa Chaleur Inc. Members also assist in teaching Catechetics.

Mrs. Thibodeau's history outline concluded with words of appreciation to the 25-year-members for their perseverance and fine spirit of co-operation. She urged the younger members to co-operate and "get involved in some of the committees so as to live up to our motto."

A prayer of thanksgiving was voiced by Father Boudreau to bring the function to a close.

Thanks were extended also to the conveners of the happy celebration, Miss Helen Thibodeau, Chairman, Mrs. Clarence Blanchard and Mrs. John Cormier.

Bridge Shifts To Gowan Brae

Regular weekly sessions of the Bathurst Duplicate Bridge Club will shift to Gowan Brae Golf and Country Club for the summer months, starting Monday, June 20.

The next two bridge nights will take place as usual in the library of J. Gordon Chalmers School.

Summer starting times remain the same, Mondays at 7:30 p.m.

Don Betts (Dalhousie) and Ray Poirier were the high scorers at the club's May 30 session.

Robert Baker and Frank McDermott placed second followed by Mrs. Percy Wedge and Mrs. Douglas Shirley, third.

In the above average scoring bracket were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Picot and Mrs. J. A. Dube and Edgar Hachey.

Scheduled for the first club play at Gowan Brae on June 20 is the annual mixed pairs tournament.

Theology-Spiritual Growth Theme of Diocesan Meeting

Mrs. Margaret Murphy, delegate to the 1977 annual meeting of Anglican Church Women of the Diocese of Fredericton, reported briefly to members of the R.E.O. Branch of ACW at the group's recent semi-monthly meeting.

The diocesan meeting was held at Saint Luke's Church Hall in Saint John April 26-27.

Diocesan President Mrs. Owen Smith, Fredericton, chaired opening procedures.

The first day's sessions was in the form of a conference, concluding with a service of holy communion in St. Luke's, followed by a reception and time of fellowship in the hall.

The second day was devoted to reports and other business.

The theme of the opening day, Ourselves, Our Souls and Body, based on Romans 12:1-5, was introduced by Rt. Rev. H. L. Nutter, Bishop of Fredericton.

The guest speakers were members of the diocese who had attended the Ontario conference, "Theology '76" and their topics dealt with theology (the study of God in action) and spiritual growth.

Those present were told that theology deals with belief God and His Word, with worship, prayer, praise and Bible study.

Man must respond to God with his whole heart and mind. God speaks to man in Scriptures, through the prophets and through Jesus Christ. Man must listen, hear, understand -- and then act.

Mrs. Murphy said delegates were told of the importance to the Christian of spiritual growth which can be achieved through worship and regular church attendance, Bible study, prayer and meditation, and through regular attendance at holy communion.

Along with business and discussion on reports, the second day saw the election of the 1977-78 executive who include: Mrs. H. D. MacMackin, Saint John, president; Mrs. J. C. Pond, Saint John, vice-president; and Mrs. Burtt Smith, Fredericton, secretary-treasurer.

More Tips About Horse, Ponies

By Marguerite Morrison

When riding your horse, have him under control at all times. Let him pick his own steps on downhill terrain, and if climbing, do not ask too much of him. Lead him if the slope is too rough and steep, and let him stop to get his breath.

Let your horse rest slowly by walking him until he is dry when the ride is over. Remove the saddle after about five minutes. However, if it was a long, hot ride, loosen the cinch and leave the saddle on for about 20 minutes. This allows for a return of full circulation and will prevent a "scalded back". Never water your horse when he is hot. Wait at least an hour until he is cool and rested.

Use clean dry straw or sawdust for bedding. To prevent rheumatism, never allow your horse to lie on concrete or stone. Your shelter should be ventilated but not drafty.

When tying your horse, allow him enough rope to move his head, but no so much that he can get a foot across the rope. Never tie a slip knot around a horse's neck; learn the right tie knot from someone who knows and never tie a horse by the bridle reins.

Check your horse's health daily. If he has a lack of energy or appetite, dull coat, coughing, rubbing of the tail, or lameness, consult your veterinarian. Your horse is a faithful and willing friend. Use common sense at all times in handling him.

Church Services

In The Bathurst District

The following notices of service are printed as a courtesy of The Northern Light from information supplied by the churches concerned.

BIBLE DIGEST: "And David the king came and sat before the Lord, and said, Who am I, O Lord God, and what is mine house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?" 1 Chronicle 17 16

More time before the Lord is the universal need and the only avenue leading to unlimited power. "When ye seek me with all heart ye shall find me."

insights."

Lester Pearson: "His fault as a politician, if it was a fault, was his ability to place himself in the other person's position. He had all the tricks of a negotiator... It took him some time to adjust to the adversary system and to realize that Parliament was not the UN and that everything cannot be settled by negotiation."

Pierre Trudeau: "Was truly a child of the media. . . But Trudeau's style. . . hardly suffices for high unemployment or for the fact that one-third of Canada's population is under the poverty line."

Fraser MacDougall headed the Ottawa Bureau of Canadian Press for many years.

Rural Americans

One of every three Americans lives in a rural area. In addition, rural counties are home for about one-half of the nation's poor. More than 2.5 million rural families have incomes below the poverty level and another 1 million exist near poverty. The median income of rural workers is 20 per cent less than that of their urban counterparts.

Highlights Of Shriners' Spring Ceremonial Parade

Hospital Board Chairman Named

Health Minister Brenda Robertson has announced the appointment of a new chairman of the Campbellton Provincial Hospital's advisory board and new administrators for that hospital and the Provincial Hospital at Saint John.

Thomas Belliveau, acting chairman of the board of the Provincial Hospital, Campbellton since the death of former chairman Hector Arsenault has been confirmed as chairman.

The new administrator of the Campbellton Provincial Hospital will be Gilbert St. Onge, a native of Edmundston. Mr. St. Onge succeeds Theodore Czap who has been appointed the new administrator of the Saint John Provincial Hospital, effective immediately.

Mr. Belliveau, regional manager of Assumption Mutual Life Assurance Company, Campbellton, is a native of Scoudouc. He attended St. Joseph's College at Memramcook and the University of Moncton.

His previous experience includes nine years with Niagara Finance Company in various centres in the province. He is the organizer and manager of the Campbellton Majorettes. He has been associated with and was former president of La Societe Culturelle de la Chaleur. He is a past president of the Boy Scouts of Canada, diocese of Bathurst. Mr. Belliveau is married and has five children.

Mr. Czap has a diploma in hospital administration from University of Toronto and joined the department in June, 1973 as assistant administratur at the Provincial Hospital, Campbellton, assuming the post of administrator in Jan., 1975. He is married and has two children.

Mr. St. Onge has a Bachelor of Commerce degree from the University of Moncton and has studied Health Administratinn at the University of Montreal. He was assistant administrator at the Hotel Dieu at Edmundston from 1969 to 1975 and acting administrator for a short period in 1976 before continuing his education at the University of Montreal.

Drinking Age To Be Raised?

Premier Richard Hatfield told the Legislature last week that while there are no immediate plans to raise the legal drinking age to 21 from 19, the government is prepared to give the matter consideration.

Replying to questions by Norbert Theriault (L-Bay du Vin), who noted that a jury in Saint John had made such a recommendation in connection with a fatal motor vehicle mishap, Mr. Hatfield said the government has received some public input on the effects of a lower drinking age, but has not conducted a specific study on the possibility of raising the legal age.

The province reduced the drinking age in the summer of 1972.

One province, Saskatchewan, raised its drinking age to 20 from 19 after studies revealed an unusually high incidence of alcohol-related problems among young people.

Mrs. P. Hebert Dies In 75th Yr.

SHIPPEGAN — The death of Mrs. Philippe G. Hebert occurred May 30 at the Hotel-Dieu in Tracadie at the age of 74.

Mrs. Hebert was the former Marie-Alma Chiasson, a daughter of the late John L. and Clarice A. (Paulin) Chiasson. She was predeceased by her husband.

Surviving are one son, Yvon P. Hebert, at home; four brothers, Lavarie, Alvida, both of Saint Sauveur, Robert of Evangeline and Edgar of Chatham; three sisters, Mr. Arthur Savoie (Jeannette) of Chiasson Office and Mrs. Philorome Mallet (Obeline) and Mrs. Elmire Paulin, both of Ste-Marie - sur -Mer.

The funeral was held Thursday at Saint Jerome Church in Shippegan, followed by burial in the parish cemetery.

Urges Signing Of Agreement

Liberal MLA for Shippegan-les-Iles, Andre Robichaud, said May 30 the entire provincial fishery will suffer while negotiations on a federal-provincial agreement on the fisheries continue.

Mr. Robichaud was referring to talks between Ottawa and the Maritmes which have been ongoing for more than a year with no concrete results.

Fisheries Minister Omer Leger said during debate on his department's estimates the province would like to sign the six-year, $20-million agreement, but one can't be reached.

Mr. Robichaud asked if the delay results from the money involved or a disagreement over jurisdiction. With the 200-mile fishing limit in effect, the federal government "obviously" must set the policies and the province must agree with them.

Scandal Now Out In Open

Like a greased pig, kicking and squealing, the New Brunswick kickback scandal is wriggling out of the grip of the province's Conservative government, writes Philip Mathias from Fredericton in The Financial Post. Some aspects will come under close scrutiny in coming weeks before a judicial inquiry investigating publicly whether New Brunswick's Justice Department interfered in 1973 with an RCMP investigation into political kickbacks.

It's likely that, over the past four or five years, New Brunswick's Conservative Party has accumulated more than $5 million in political contributions and placed it in "numbered accounts" in Saint John, Moncton, and elsewhere. A large portion of the contributions has been in the form of kickbacks - payments made in return for receiving government contracts.

What turns up before the commission of inquiry and other proceedings may deal the provincial Conservative party a hard blow. The Conservative kickback mechanism in New Brunswick appears to be far-reaching, and apparently has been condoned by some even as high as cabinet level. Here are some characteristics, indicated by the two dozen or so cases that have come to light recently.

A kickback generally seems to be a basic condition of doing business with New Brunswick government departments and agencies, a condition that does not seem to be often waived. Even a grocer in Fredericton who supplies provisions to local jails is reported to have had to pay a kickback.

A kickback may be more important than low price or high-quality goods.

Party bagmen have extorted kickbacks from provincial firms not doing business with the government.

Brunswick Mining and Smelting Corp. Ltd. and Belledune Fertilizer have sponsored a study of lobster rate of growth in the Bay of Chaleur. This research programme is being conducted by Noranda Research Centre.

Approximately 2,000 lobsters have been tagged since 1973; the tag is a metal wire encased in plastic.

Since we wish to monitor the growth of these lobsters over the past winter, any fisherman who traps a tagged lobster is asked to send or bring it with its tag to the Technical Superintendent at either plant, who will pay the commercial value of the lobster, plus a reward of 5.00; the tag must not be removed from the lobster. We would appreciate receiving the lobsters alive.

Recovery of these lobsters is expected to be in the Bay area from Dalhousie to Petit Rocher.

Should anyone have no way of returning the lobsters to us, please, call us at either 522-2100 or 522-5250 and we will arrange to pick them up.

YOUR BUSINESS

Why Affluence Is A Dirty Word

By VINCENT EGAN
Business and Consumer Affairs Analyst
Thomson News Service

John Kenneth Galbraith is one of the best known economics ever to have come from Iona Station, Ont.

His reputation and public popularity, however, rest not only on his economics but also on his outstanding gifts of wit and style in his use of English, and on his mastery of the television medium - both almost unique among economists.

His TV fame has been greatly enhanced this year by a series, The Age of Uncertainty, produced with an apparently unlimited budget by various public broadcasting authorities (including the Canadian Broadcasting Corp.) and starring the former farm columnist of The St. Thomas Times - Journal.

Galbraith leaves his viewers and readers with the conviction that capitalism and its instrument, the modern corporation, are failures, and that the state must direct the economy - with, for instance, controls on incomes and prices.

Perhaps Galbraith's first big impression on the public consciousness was made with his best-selling 1958 book, The Affluent Society, on the theme of private affluence vs public squalor.

In it, he strikingly contrasted insurance-company palaces and run-down public hospitals, manicured private golf courses and littered public parks.

MOULDING OPINION

Today, with government spending accounting for some 43 per cent of Canada's Gross National Product and public office-holders enjoying high, inflation-proof incomes, his 1958 depiction of a starved public sector seems absurd to many.

Absurd or not, Galbraith's opinions have been unquestioningly accepted by a large part of the post-1958 generation, as reflected in the "zero growth" and "small is better" movements.

The result is a widely shared opposition to technology, to economic development, and to what are considered middle-class attitudes. An energy catastrophe is just around the corner, but large numbers of Canadians oppose any further energy development because it might generate some profit for the entrepreneurs.

Galbraith's message exploits everyone's self-image as a sensitive person, concerned about the environment and about the under-dog.

He leaves to other economists the disagreeable task (as one of them put it) of pointing out that man's most noble instincts cannot all be satisfied simultaneously, and that some choices must be made that necessarily reject claims that are seen as humanitarian by people of sensibility and compassion.

ONE-MAN CRUSADE

Milton Friedman, the 1976 Nobel Prize winner in economics, believes that Galbraith can best be understood as a missionary seeking converts, rather than as an economist.

In a new book, Friedman On Galbraith (just published by the Vancouver-based Fraser Institute at $3.95), the University of Chicago professor describes Galbraith as essentially a one-man crusade to guide governments in replacing private business and industry in the economy.

The Galbraith approach, Friedman contends, ignores the distinction between the economic market, in which people receive what they pay for, and the political market, in which the politician decides what to give them.

Let's grant that Galbraith has made a substantial contribution, in making a broader public aware of the fundamentals of economic thought, and - in particular - in illuminating the excesses of capitalism that lead to the 1929 crash and to the over-development of some industries in the 1950s.

But let's not forget, either, his use of his undoubted talents to propagate a single-sided view of the economic order. Proof that politicians and bureaucrats don't always know best is all around us.

N.B. Consumers Issued Warning

New Brunswick consumers are warned that they may encounter difficulties with respect to warranties when buying watches, calculators or television games manufactured by Unitrex of Canada Limited.

According to C. J. Dillon, assistant director of the provincial Consumer and Corporate Services Branch, several enquiries and complaints have already been received from New Brunswick consumers who have returned items to the company under the manufacturer's warranty plan and are now unable to recover them because of present company financial problems. Mr. Dillon said that the branch has contacted the Ontario Ministry of Consumer and Commercial Relations, and they have agreed to assist in returning items to New Brunswick consumers.

New Brunswick consumers should therefore contact one of the Provincial Consumer Offices, Fredericton (453-2659) Moncton (858-2526) or Saint John (658-2556) for further information on these products and the return of goods.

Since merchandise from this company is still on sale in many stores across the province, Mr. Dillon advises to check brand names and to ask retailers what warranties they are willing to supply.

Nothing Wrong

"There's nothing wrong with you," said the psychiatrist to the patient, "you're just as sane as I am."

"But doctor, it's these butterflies, they're all over me!" "Well, don't brush them off on me."

Pageant Finalists Have Varied Talents, Hobbies And Aspirations

On Wednesday evening, July 6, a panel of judges yet to be revealed will be honoured with the task of naming Miss Bathurst 1977, an event held in conjunction each year with Hospitality Days.

The Northern Light takes great pleasure in presenting the nine semi-finalists in this year's pageant who were chosen earlier in preliminary judging.

Shirley Picot is 5'4" tall with brown hair and blue eyes. She is 18 years of age, and enjoys singing, piano and biking. Shirley has been employed with the Royal Bank for the past year. Her favorite sports are volleyball and badminton, and she also enjoys singing with the Holy Family Church Choir.

Judy Hachey, 18, is a sports enthusiast who lists badminton, volleyball, jogging and biking among her chief interests. She graduated from high school this year, and plans to become a hair stylist. Judy, who is working at Plourde's Pharmacy for the summer, has brown hair, blue eyes and stands 5'7". Her hobbies include sewing and playing guitar.

Yvonne Landry, a student at the Bathurst School of Nursing, enjoys sewing, reading, knitting and dancing in addition to sports such as badminton, bicycling, skating and skiing. At 18, Yvonne belongs to a youth choir, and also babysits for a pastime. She has black hair and brown eyes.

Cindy Taylor graduated from high school this year, and is planning a business course in Fredericton for the fall. Fond of sports, 17-year-old Cindy likes softball, badminton and volleyball along with swimming and canoeing. She is 5'6" tall, has brown hair and blue eyes, and spends her leisure time horseback riding, painting and dancing. Cindy is working at Shoppers' Drug Mart for the summer months.

Line Losier has brown hair, green eyes and stands 5'4" tall. She is 19 years old and likes dancing, listening to music, reading and painting. Line is a second year student at the Bathurst School of Nursing and enjoys badminton, cycling, cross-country skiing, volleyball and swimming. She lists painting as her talent.

Carol Benoit graduated from high school this year, but plans to take a year off before attending university to study psychology or social services. She is 5'8" tall, with brown hair and hazel eyes, and enjoys volleyball and basketball in addition to sewing, cooking, jogging and skiing. Carol likes working with children, and will be doing just that during the summer.

Carmelle Gauvin is a 19-year-old student at the Bathurst School of Nursing. She likes to sew, knit, listen to music, play cards and read, and her favorite sports include badminton, bicycling, and cross-country skiing. Carmelle who is 5'2" tall and has brown hair and blue eyes, plans a career in nursing.

Monique Leger has blue eyes, brown hair and is 20 years of age. She graduated from high school this year, and plans to work in the fall. Monique, who is 5'5" tall, enjoys art, dancing, fishing and snowmobiling, and her favorite sports are volleyball and gymnastics.

Lee Ann Northrup, 18, is enrolled at present in a commercial course at the N.B. Community College. She enjoys sewing, reading and travelling, and bicycling, badminton, volleyball and swimming are her favorite sports. Lee Ann, who is 5'4" tall with brown hair and hazel eyes, plans to take a year's absence from school, then to enrol in a teacher's course majoring in secretarial science. She is currently employed at the Big D.

BATHURST TOURIST INFORMATION CENTRE OFFICIALLY OPENED

The Bathurst Tourist Information Centre has been operated for many years as a public service project of the Bathurst Jaycees. During 1976, the Centre was open from June 29 to September 1 with three hostesses receiving 1512 visiting parties. For 1977 through the efforts of Larry Chapman, president and Roger Bujold the Jaycees have been fortunate to receive a grant under the Young Canada Works Project. With these funds, they were able to hire a project manager, Ronald Vienneau and four hostesses. This will also enable the Centre to be open from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily for the period June 13 to September 5. The project is being administered this year by Brian Deacon, chairman, with the assistance of Morley Foran, Ron Doucet, Edmond Pitre and the other members of the Bathurst Jaycees. Mayor John A. Duffy, on behalf of the City of Bathurst, officially opened the Center for the 1977 season Monday.

Unilingual City Schools Meet Strong Opposition

A reported but not confirmed School Board proposal to adopt a unilingual system in District No. 4, is meeting with stiff opposition, at least in the city schools.

Meeting Tuesday night at Sacred Heart School, some 90 concerned parents who have children attending classes there, formed a committee to prepare a brief for presentation to the trustees at their next regular meeting June 23.

Apart from the many strong opinions expressed against the unilingual concept, the session was a generally amicable one. Tremendous communication and participation featured the discussions and nearly all those present signed a petition against the projected move. There were only two abstentions.

Sacred Heart School Principal Conrad Coughlan chaired the first part of the meeting. He stepped down, however, to be replaced by Peter Gummer, when the time came to select a committee of five to prepare the proposed brief.

Appointed were Peter Gummer as chairman, and Frank Grebenc, Mrs. Tim Buraglia, Mrs. Al Buzas and Linden Thurber.

SIMILAR IDEA

A meeting of parents of students attending South Bathurst School held Thursday night, June 9 also turned thumbs down to the unilingual school proposal, with an almost unanimous decision to petition the School Board to allow the present system to remain unchanged.

Only three of about 135 persons in attendance went against a motion to have the bilingual school remain as is, with grades one to six in both English and French, and junior high English classes.

Those in attendance, who signed a petition to be presented at the June 23 meeting of the board, questioned the wisdom of creating a division between the two language groups, a situation which has taken place in other school districts where the unilingual policy has been implemented.

School Principal Paul Ouellette and Nick Kovats, chairman of the parents' committee which made previous representation to the school board, co-chaired the session, which saw a good cross-section of parents and both language groups.

Representing the school board was Mrs. Joyce Mann, chairman of the committee which has been studying the reorganization of elementary and junior high schools in the city.

Although the reported reorganization of the schools was one of the topics at a meeting Tuesday night of Superior Home and School Assn., no firm stand was taken due to lack of knowledge of the situation. The association, however, intends to approach the School Board in this connection at the trustees next regular meeting June 23.

A brief and petition along the same lines will also be presented to the School Board June 23 by parents of children attending Mary Gosnell School and Assumption Academy in East Bathurst.

At a meeting held Monday night, June 13 in the basement of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, parents called for the total dismissal of the entire subject of unilingual schools. Of 155 persons in attendance, 136 were opposed to the concept, with only five in favor. The remainder abstained from voting.

The meeting, chaired by Walter Fournier, heard the text of a brief prepared by the Mary Gosnell Home and School Assn. and read by President George Robertson stating the group wanted no more discussion on the proposed change.

NBTA HONOR TEACHERS ON RETIREMENT

The New Brunswick Teaches Association, Branch 4, honored eight teachers who will retire at the end of June from School District No. 4 A banquet with entertainment supplied by the Candy Canes was held at Danny's Colonial House June 8. Guest speaker was Eugene McGinley, MLA for the City of Bathurst, and master of ceremonies was Fred Cormier, guidance Counsellor at Bathurst High School. Each retiring teacher received a corsage on arrival at the banquet and during the evening was presented with the traditional silver trays given by the Association. The presentations were made by the following principals: Emery Goguen, Bathurst High School; Albert Lavigne, Superior School; Douglas Henderson, Mary Gosnell School; Maurice Doucet, Holy Family School; and Gerald Godin, vice-principal at Assumption Academy.

Seated from the left are: Mrs. Marguerite Cumming, 30 years, BHS; Mrs. Edith Ellis, 34 years, BHS; and Mrs. Marina Smith, 34 years, Superior; standing: Mrs. Bernice Hinton, 22 years, Mary Gosnell; Sr. Paulette d'Entremont, 38 years, Holy Family; and Mrs. Evelyne Godin, Assumption Academy. Missing are: Mrs. Dorinda Armstrong, 37 years, BHS; and Mrs. Marguerite Kane, 23 years, J.G. Chalmers.

Press Attache To Minister

RAY DOUCET

A former Bathurst resident, Ray (Butch) Doucet, has recently been appointed press attache to Hon. Anthony Abbott, federal minister of Consumer and Corporate Affairs.

Mr. Doucet is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L.F. (Lug) Doucet, 156 St. Patrick St. His new duties involve advising the minister and the department on the use of informaiton relevant to both consumers and financial institutions.

Prior to entering the journalistic field, Mr. Doucet was a member of the teaching profession, in which capacity he completed an assignment as instructor in French at Sussex, N.B. High School.

Before assuming his present appointment, Mr. Doucet was associated with The Montreal Star, covering the labour front, principally. He was one of the most prolific by-line writers for that leading metropolitan daily.

In addition, Mr. Doucet was among the Star's 34-member Olympic coverage team which received numerous tributes for its work before and during the 1976 Summer Olympics. In this connection he received an "outstanding reporting" award from the Canadian Modern Pentathlon Association.

Canada Week June 25-July 1

Chairman of Bathurst's Canada Week Committee, Jim MacLaggan, told The Northern Light Tuesday that plans are progressing well for this year's observance, set for June 25 - July 1.

The highlight of Canada Week, which is celebrated nation-wide, will be a parade through city streets on Thursday evening, June 30. The procession will leave the LeBlanc Junior High School parking lot at 7:30 p.m., and make its way down St. Andrew Street, King Avenue and St. Patrick Street to the Cenotaph.

A short ceremony, featuring an address and proclamation by Major John A. Duffy and prayers by Rev. J. Emile Fournier and Rev. Reid Cooke will complete the evening's events.

Mr. MacLaggan noted the parade is open to youth groups, individuals, majorettes, bands, service clubs, etc. and he urged

Assignment In Africa Ended

Welcome visitors to the city at the present time are a former Bathurst resident, G. Leonard Fournier, his British-born wife Pamela and their daughter Jennifer.

Mr. Fournier, a barrister, etc., and his family, who now make their home at 53 Terrington Ave., Highcliffe-on-Sea, Christchurch, England, are on a six-week tour of Canada.

Their hosts have included friends in Stratford, Ottawa and Toronto, Ont., and in the Montreal and Bathurst areas they have been guests, respectively, of Mr. Fournier's sisters, Miss Mamie Fournier and Mrs. Laura Aube.

Mr. Fournier has spent the past six years in Central Africa, engaged in the legal department of the Malawi Government. Immediately before that assignment he practised his profession with a law firm in Bournemouth, England. He intends to return to the UK at the end of June, but his future plans are indefinite.

G. LEONARD FOURNIER

A sister of Mr. Fournier, Miss Genevieve Fournier, of the International Monetary Fund, Washington, D.C., arrived in Bathurst simultaneously. She too is visiting her sister, Mrs. Laura Aube, at 274 Munro St.

Toastmasters Mark Tenth Anniversary

An air of celebration was truly evident Monday, June 6th, as Toastmasters and guests joined together at Danny's Colonial House to commemorate the 10th Anniversary of the founding of Bathurst Toastmasters Club.

Club President William Cormier in eloquent fashion introduced honored head table guests who were Dr. and Mrs. Georges VanTassell, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Cormier, Otto Peter and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Dufresne.

A civic welcome from Mayor John A. Duffy who was unable to attend was extended in a letter read by President William Cormier.

The Toastmaster for the evening was Normand Dufresne who introduced Brian Jamieson, timer; Reynald Paulin, general evaluator; and Gilles Wilson, table topics master.

The meeting also marked the event of Bathurst Toastmasters Annual Table Topic Competition in which both present and past members participated in delivering an impromptu speech of two minutes on a subject which was chosen by the Table Topic Master.

The judging took place following these speeches through secret ballot by allowing each individual at the function to have a single vote to choose the favorite speaker of their choice.

Following the Table Topic Session, Toastmaster Normand Dufresne introduced Percy Cormier, the sole remaining member of the founding group, who shared with the audience memories of the establishment of the club.

The guest speaker, Dr. Georges C. VanTassell, Ph. D., C.A. was introduced by Marcel Goyette.

To complement the evening's festivities, Dr. VanTassell chose to speak on "The Key to Success in Public Speaking". The former professor of English and public speaking at Bathurst College showed his remarkable skills throughout his speech and fortified its context by quoting such renowned individuals as Francis Bacon, "Reading makes the full man, Writing makes the exact man, but speaking makes the ready man".

Dr. VanTassell mentioned highlights of his experiences while studying at Harvard University and unquestionably entertained, educated, but most of all, pleased all who were present.

A former Mayor of Bathurst, Mr. VanTassell, truly highlighted the evening's program with a fantastic address. His message was thoroughly enjoyed by all!

Hermann Derbuch thanked Dr. VanTassell for his words of wisdom and stated that all Toastmasters would strive for improvement. He terminated his remarks by quoting the late famous politician, Winston Churchill's "We shall never, never, never give up!"

Reynald Paulin, the General Evaluator for the evening, rated the activity and concluded with the results of the ballot for the Table Topic Competition.

For the second consecutive year, Hermann Derbuch was chosen as the most proficient speaker by all and was awarded the annual Table Topic Trophy by Otto Peter, Governor of Area 111 comprising the Newcastle and Bathurst districts. Additionally, Mr. Peter presented membership pins to new members Norman Dufresne and Marcel Goyette.

A special presentation was made by Mr. Peter to Percy Cormier, in recognition of ten years' membership with Bathurst Toastmasters (1967-1977).

Appropriate closing comments were made by President William Cormier who quoted Toastmaster's International President Robert W. Blakeley DTM, "When you wear your Toastmaster's pin, you are no longer just a face in the crowd, you are a Toastmaster."

For those individuals interested in joining Bathurst Toastmasters, regular meetings will reconvene following its summer recess on September 12th at Danny's Colonial House. An invitation is open to all. Further information is available from any of the Toastmasters mentioned in this article.

CITED FOR SERVICE

A well-known Bathurst woman, Mrs. Blanche Picot, wife of Dr. J. E. Picot, has been promoted to the rank of Serving Officer in the Order of St. John, a cause to which she has been dedicated for many years.

Mrs. Picot was accordingly invested by G. E. Beament, Chancellor of the Order of St. John in Canada, during ceremonies held May 28 in Legislative Assembly chambers in Fredericton.

It is almost 20 years since Mrs. Picot organized and served as superintendent of the original St. John Ambulance Nursing Division in Bathurst. This became the first group to win in the O'Brien Shield, annually awarded to the most efficient Division in the province.

Later, while residing in Fredericton, Mrs. Picot was named a Provincial Staff Officer. She is a holder of the Victoria Medal, emblematic of 12 years' efficient service to St. John Ambulance, and received a Priory Vote of Thanks in 1968.

Mrs. Picot's present connection with the organization is as vice-president of Bathurst Branch of St. John Ambulance Assn. This is a helping group whose objective is to spread the work and assist local Divisions in training and service.

TIPS AND TAKES

Mike Wilson, president of Bathurst Chamber of Commerce, has announced the appointment of Michael Gallagher, the local lawyer, as secretary-manager of the organization, effective immediately. . . . Marcel Coulombe, regional manager of corporate relations for Noranda Mines Ltd., Bathurst, named to the executive of the N.B. Branch, Canadian Manufacturers' Assn. . . . . Centennial Park Development Plan and Parkwood Project '77 among topics on the agenda for the next general meeting of the Parkwood Heights Home Owners' Assn. Its scheduled for Sun., June 19, in the basement of Our Lady of the Rosary Church. The arrival of the 13th grandchild of local residents Mr. and Mrs. Bert Carmichael at Chaleur General Hospital last Thursday, June 9, established a precedent for the family in that there were four generations hospitalized at the same time, three generations, in local hospital, and one in Saint John where Bert Carmichael has been receiving treatment for a month. His father, Daniel Carmichael of Archibald Settlement underwent eye surgery here last Thursday, and Bert's daughter Linda, (Mrs. William Young) delivered daughter Melissa Ann, weighing 7½ lbs. Mrs. Alton Smith, R.R. No.2, Bathurst, winner of The Northern Light's Atlantic Sweepstakes for June 8.

New Youth Club Holds First Activity Friday

A new youth club is set to begin operation soon in the city, with the first activity, a teen dance, to be held Friday, June 17 at the Bathurst Curling Club from 9 p.m. to 12 midnight.

"The New Earthopian Youth Club" as the organization will be known, is an enterprise designed to make Bathurst a better place in which to live.

The name is derived from the word "Utopia", an imaginary perfect nation with no war or poverty which sprang from the pen of Sir Thomas More of England in 1516 as a satirical account in Latin.

Since that time, Utopia has been known as a place where there is an absence of bad. And although the organizers of this new club are not promising a world where there is no hate, they feel the youth should make an effort to cope with world problems and to understand that people cannot appreciate good times if they haven't experienced any bad moments in their lives. The club's theme is not to encourage bad but to learn to accept it as a part of everyday life because it is essential in the appreciation of life.

Earthopian enterprises will stress the fact that man needs the challenge to face problems which are a part of life. Mankind has overcome many great problems, and shall overcome many more with the help of any force which has the capacity to love...as man himself does.

The first teen dance at the Curling Club is designed to recruit members for the city-wide club. Interested youth 15 years of age and over may fill out application forms, checking off his or her favorite interests, to allow for the formation of committees.

All budding musicians will be rounded up with a view to training them and forming bands. This talent will then be exported through the help of music teachers and other contacts in the area. Organizers are hopeful that Bathurst will soon gain a reputation as a city bursting with talent, and hopefully, talent scouts will also notice it.

Artists will also be promoted as the club will try to expose their creative works and get sales for them if possible. The artists may also work along with the musicians in designing posters, T-shirts, buttons, etc.

It is hoped to start a new youth magazine with the help of teens who are interested in writing. Plans also call for the writing of short plays for Bathurst Community Theatre or skits for amateur nights.

Babysitters may be interested in following a child care and guidance course to be given by the VON, Fire Marshall's office or other qualified teacher. Hopefully, a new babysitting agency for the community will be formed.

These are but a few of the advantages and opportunities awaiting members of the Earthopian Youth Club. There will also be something for photographers, singers, choirs, etc. - as many varied activities as there is interest in. The committees formed will help teenagers to play an active role in their society, create jobs and establish a well-organized youth club.

There will also be reductions in admission costs for club members to any Earthopian production, and possibly a 25 per cent reduction on record albums ordered through the club.

Organizers are even thinking along lines of clean-up campaigns "just for the fun of it." Imagine the bypass or Youghal Beach "spic and span."

With the co-operation of the Department of Youth, the City Police, Department of Parks and Recreation, the provincial government and citizens of Bathurst, the group is convinced that Bathurst youth will become an example for all surrounding communities.

Go, Bathurst, go.

Departing Lion "Roasted" By Colleagues

James DeWolfe, King Lion of the local club was thoroughly "Roasted" by club members and friends June 7.

The roasting of DeWolfe was the central point of a banquet and dance held at Danny's Colonial House.

Hal Winter, a director and past president of the Amherst, N.S. Lions Club was "Master" of the jovial gathering of Lions and friends from Bathurst, Dalhousie and Saint John. He explained, rather than a testimonial dinner for their energetic president, the club decided to follow the pattern of Dean Martin and roast him - mostly to hear Jim DeWolfe's sharp responses to the roasters' quips. "We only roast people we like" said te emcee.

Camille Roy, club member had witty, and high praise for Jim. Another new member Jean-Marc Albert poked good fun about Jim's bowling abilities. A long time member, Gus Higgins highlighted the DeWolfes' recent trip to Great Britain in a humorous way.

Another new member, Peter Brodka, said he came to praise "The King" and then proceeded to re-present the Lions charter, always thought to be misplaced by "The King".

Howard Ross, club secretary, excelled to length in ribbing the chief executive about his year's accomplishments and administration, and leadership abilities.

Eugene McGinley, MLA for the City of Bathurst, and past president of the club, was himself the brunt of a few quips and quotes which he took in the spirit of the evening. The politician paid tribute to the DeWolfes, saying Jim was candid, honest and forthright, and continued with some delightful niceties, enlightening the assembled Lions and friends with some funnies along with praise of Jim and family.

Lion McGinley also presented an appropriately inscribed plaque in appreciation of leadership to the local club. "Jim was always one to find time to get things done", he said.

Jim DeWolfe, has been a member of the Lions since 1966, joining shortly after moving to Bathurst, in a supervisory capacity with New Brunswick Telephone Company. He possesses incredible energy and during the past dozen years, has worked relentlessly in the community on various endeavours through the Lions and other spirited organizations.

Mr. DeWolfe has conducted a large number of defensive driving courses in the city, which made him the brunt of several good natured barbs concocted by the "Master" Hal Winter.

Among those in attendance for the "fun-evening" was the Lions' District Governor Ernest Best, Saint John; Deputy-District Governor, Ronald Daigle, and Zone-Chairman Guy Laviolette, both of Dalhousie.

Following his address to the gathering, the senior officer installed the 1977-78 slate of officers, namely, Cameron Brown, president; Gary Frye, 1st. vice-president; Edgar Lavigne, 2nd vice-president; Gary Dingee, 3rd vice-president; Colin Smith, secretary; Jean-Marc Albert, treasurer; Howard Ross, tail twister; Camille Roy, lion tamer; Harvey Norton, Phil Picot, Herb Scott and Hal Winter, directors.

Two new members, Peter Brodka, and Colin Smith were inducted into the club.

A toast to Lions International was proposed by Nathan (Gus) Higgins and responded to by the district officer. A tribute to the ladies was toasted by Harvey Norton. He also congratulated the Lionettes for their community work and contribution to the local club during the past year.

Mrs. Nathan Higgins, charter member of the Lionettes Club, expressed appreciation and presented a gift of china roses to Mary DeWolfe who responded with a witty theme comparable to that of her husband.

Mr. DeWolfe, transferred to the Moncton office of the New Brunswick Telephone Company this week, will be joined by his family in late summer. Their son Robert is in his final year in dentistry at Dalhousie University, Halifax; daughter Anne is in her first year at Mount Allison University; and Bathurst native, Susan, is a Grade six student at Superior School.

Following the "roasting", the King Lion expressed his appreciation with a few sharp, and witty comments, saying too, that he and his wife enjoyed the "roasting", particularly since it was done by Lions.

In conclusion, the president presented several members who chaired projects throughout the year, with certificates of appreciation, and expressed his gratitude to all members and to Lionette President Mary Winter.

Senior Citizens Clubs Can Relieve Loneliness

HUNTLY FERGUSON

Senior clubs are not reaching out to the lonely senior citizens. This was the general consensus reached at the annual meeting of the New Brunswick Senior Citizens Federation held June 6 - 8 in Saint John.

Senior citizens clubs are usually a good means of relieving the loneliness of old age and can do a good deal to combat loneliness and isolation, representatives of various clubs agreed.

Rev. Norman Estey, of Woodstock, who is president of the federation said many clubs have found transportation of members to various functions is a problem.

"Most clubs have transportation committees to deal with this problem", he said.

Mr Estey said his own club in Woodstock, the Forever Young Senior Citizens Club has such activities as weekly card and bingo games. The women do handiwork while the men do woodworking. Entertainment of various types is provided as well.

The federation also is facing other concerns on behalf of senior citizens, the president said. Among these are working for in-home programs rather than institutionalizing seniors; more help for those getting pension supplements to combat the cost of living; and getting more men interested in joining senior citizens clubs.

Huntly Ferguson, president of the Bathurst Golden Age Club, one of four clubs in the city, and a former provincial president, agreed with Mr. Estey that getting male members was a problem. He said he could not offer any solutions, however.

Transportation is a problem in Bathurst as well, said Mr Ferguson. "Our club did a survey in the city and found that transportation is needed by senior citizens to take them to doctors or out shopping. Seniors themselves could do more for each other, but it's hard to get the personal contact to find out who needs help.

"People are proud, too, you know, even if they are old, and they do not like to ask for help. It's a job to get to the people who are desolate and isolated", he said.

Mr. Ferguson said his club has purchased a bus which it uses for tours and to transport members to a certain extent. "We could use our bus more," he added.

His club operates a drop-in centre for seniors and meets every Tuesday so members can play cards and have refreshments.

The club purchased the bus through community donations from community work performed by the members.

"We would like to get seniors themselves more involved in visiting other shut-in seniors," he said. "The clubs can combat loneliness, but they could do more. The clubs should be more conscious of the problem."

Handicrafts are a big part of the activities of many senior citizens clubs, said Miss Ruth Harris, a member of Funday Bay Senior Citizens Club, and co-ordinator of zone four which runs from Sussex to St Stephen.

Miss Harris had gathered a display of various crafts at the convention including quilts, toys, woven articles, and such items as furniture for dollars made from clothespins and a sewing cabinet made of wood re-cycled from spools.

"Most clubs take bus tours, hold pot-luck suppers and food sales and have weekly social get-togethers. They remember members who are sick and who have birthdays and have other entertainment features as well."

Boudreau, Branch Tangle Over Crown Lands Issue

Debate over legislation designed to ensure long-term wood supplies developed Thursday into a row in the legislature between Natural Resources Minister Roland Boudreau and Liberal MLA for Nepisiguit Chaleur, backbencher, Frank Branch.

The exchange took place while committee-of-the-whole House was considering amendments to the Crown Lands Act.

Boudreau explained that the legislation would require wood-processing mills to obtain a permit from the government spelling out uses of wood received from Crown land cutting.

He said it is intended to co-ordinate wood supplies to the mill and prevent cases where a mill may expand its production without first conferring with the government.

The measure would help the mill in the long run, said Boudreau, because it would ensure that enough wood could be supplied to keep the operation viable.

"The forest is not like a field of potatoes", he said, pointing out that it takes 35 to 50 years for new trees to mature.

But some mills have expanded their production assuming there would be an infinite supply of wood and later discovered the government could not meet the demand without exceeding the annual allowable cut for the region.

Branch was not impressed and asked Boudreau to explain how he could have allowed "wholesale destruction" on Crown land in the Bathurst area through clear-cutting operations.

Boudreau said Branch was diverting to another topic not related to the legislation.

Branch persisted, demanding that the minister provide the House with a longterm projection on wood supply in light of the fact that "wood is being left to rot in the woods".

Boudreau countered that the Hatfield government is the first in New Brunswick ever to practice good forest management and was looking 50 years in the future, not just "one election to another" like Branch.

The two sparred for several more minutes, with Branch saying he "was afraid the minister was going to break his arm patting himself on the back."

Tourism Minister Fernand Dube interjected at one point that Branch's "mouth is wide open but we haven't heard anything yet."

After Branch repeatedly asked Boudreau to elaborate on the government's forest policy, Boudreau wondered whether Branch knew what he was talking about.

The purpose of the amendment is to guarantee long-term wood supply and "anybody who doesn't understand that doesn't understand anything", said Boudreau.

Finally Boudreau said that perhaps he did not express himself clearly enough in English, but before he could complete his sentence, Branch was back on his feet speaking French and urging Boudreau to debate the matter in French if he wanted.

Boudreau continued speaking English and told Branch that the largest clearcut section in Branch's riding involved 10,000 acres during the 1960s when the Robichaud government was in power.

The Hatfield government recognized the problem when Liberal administrations had not, Boudreau argued, and "you have the gall to tell us we have no planning."

Branch went on to discuss "white elephants in the forest," referring to Brunswick Mills, and said he had been told some wood cut on Crown land had been left in the forests for as long as four years.

Not true, replied Boudreau, and all wood stockpiled in the forests is being picked up now.

Later, Branch and Boudreau tangled again over amendments that update the minister's authority to transfer control of Crown lands.

Branch asked what would prevent Boudreau from "dishing out" Crown lands "to some of your friends."

Boudreau said Crown land cannot be sold without going to public auction or unless a land exchange was involved.

But Branch said an acre of Crown land in downtown Bathurst was sold for only $100, a price he considered far too low.

Boudreau replied that the land was sold to the City of Bathurst, a point disputed by Branch but never resolved before the debate wound down.

Last Rites For Mrs. E. Guignard

Rev. Leo Vienneau officiated at the funeral service for Mrs. Edward Guignard held at Christ the King Church in Allardville June 8 at 4 p.m.

The pallbearers were six grandsons, Ernest, Gerard, Donald, Gerald, Theodule and Isidore Guignard.

Interment was in the parish cemetery at Allardville.

ANGLERS RECEIVE SUNDAY MORNING SURPRISE

While enjoying the sport of fly-fishing on the Nepisiguit River June 12, Louis Melanson (left), 140 Firlotte Lane, and George J. Casey, 160 Youngs Lane, received the surprise of their life. Mr Melanson landed a nine-pound six ounce salmon followed by Mr. Casey who reeled one in weighing eight pounds ten ounces. Both men are members of the Nepisiguit Salmon Association and claim that this is the first time in many years salmon have come up the river so early in June. Usually it is the end of the same month.

Further Support For Seniors Contained In 15 Resolutions

Rev. Norman Estey of Woodstock was re-elected president of the New Brunswick Senior Citizens Federation at its annual meeting in Saint John June 6-8. Registrations were held Monday night, and elections took place Wednesday.

Other executive members include Alpha Martin, Edmunston, vice-president; Leola McKay, Moncton, secretary; and Leonard Arsenault, Richibucto, treasurer.

Directors are: Laurent Morin, Grand Falls; Ludger Bernard, Dalhousie; John Power, Campbellton, Beatrice Collins, Saint John; W.C. McCartney, St Stephen; and Talbot Carr of Garey. The board also includes immediate past president Charles Pelletier of Edmundston and honorary founding president John Gayne, Moncton.

Blair Bourgeois, Moncton, regional director of the Health and Welfare program New Horizons, addressed the group Wednesday morning. He said that any group of ten or more senior citizens, of whom the majority are retired, can apply for a New Horizons grant to establish a new program, or to enlarge an existing one.

Explaining that the program cannot pay for salaries, rent or certain transportation costs, he said the group was encouraged to bear permanent costs itself.

"Most projects funded are of a self-centred nature," he observed, asking senior citizens to consider using the federal money to fund projects like clothing and toy repair services for the needy, home visiting, meals on wheels, or services for handicapped children.

SEEK LONELY

"Some groups make a special effort to seek out the lonely. I would encourage you all to do the same thing," he said, noting that large numbers of senior citizens, particularly women, live alone and are reluctant to reach out to others.

Fifteen resolutions were passed during the convention. Among them, is a request that a woman's old age pension be continued after her husband dies.

At present, a 60-year-old woman receives an old age pension or can receive the pension if her husband is 65 years of age. If he dies, she loses her pension.

The federation wants the federal government to continue the widow's pension until she's entitled to the old age pension.

The organization is asking the federal government to supply a pension to people who are 60 years of age who have not been employed, such as a housewife.

Both levels of government are being asked to give a tax rebate on oil bills exceeding 1975 levels.

The organization, too, is asking that an old person living alone with a yearly income of $6,000 or less, be exempt from provincial and municipal taxes, so they can continue to live in their own homes.

The senior citizens want continued support from the provincial government for the Red Cross Friendly-Visiting Program, as well as a visiting nursing service for areas without the service at present.

Special transportation benefits for senior citizens are being urged and the provincial government is being asked to supply all prescribed drugs free of charge.

Resolutions also contain a clause asking for more free access to government information.

W. P. Chiasson Laid To Rest

Rev. Yvon Boudreau officiated at the funeral mass for Wilfred P. Chiasson held at St. Theresa Church June 7 at 4 p.m.

The pallbearers were Ronald Kinsman, Lionel Couture, Gilbert Chiasson, Albany Couture, Wilfred J. Chiasson and Albany Chiasson.

Burial was in the parish cemetery, King Avenue.

Those present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Chiasson, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred J. Chiasson, Boston, Mass.; Pte. Ronald Kinsman, CFB Shearwater, N.S.; Albany Chiasson, Toronto; Mrs. Albany Legacy, Campbellton, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Larocque, Shippegan.

Probably Right

A young man just out of school got a job in a bank. The first day he was there, the cashier tossed him a package of bills. "Count these and see if there are 100," was the order. The new employee started counting. He reached 75, stopped counting and threw the package into a drawer. "If it's right this far, it's probably right all the way," was his reasoning.

Tribute Paid Clarence Doucet

Rev. J. Emile Fournier officiated at the funeral mass for Clarence P. Doucet; held at Sacred Heart Cathedral June 10 at 11:00 a.m.

The epistle was read by Guy Perron. Mrs. Aloysius Lavigne was the soloist and Mrs. Linda Cripps was organist.

The pallbearers were Edward Savoy, Edward Robichaud, Ulric Doucet, Howard Scott, Hector Doucet and Edmond Robichaud.

Burial was in the parish cemetery, King Avenue.

Mr. Doucet, of 320 St. Andrew Street, died Tuesday evening at Chaleur General Hospital after an illness of nearly three weeks. He was 65.

Born in Bathurst, he was a son of the late Philip and Therese (Frenette) Doucet and was the last surviving member of his immediate family.

A painter by trade, Mr. Doucet was employed in earlier years with Consolidated-Bathurst Ltd. and later with W. J. Kent and Co. Ltd. He retired several years ago due to failing health.

Surviving are his wife, the former Edwige Leger; and one son Gerald of Bathurst. A daughter, Cecile, died four years ago.

Mr. Doucet rested at Elhatton's Funeral Home.

Those attending the funeral from out of town included Mr. and Mrs. Ludger Leger, Arvida, Que.; Miss Therese Leger RN, L'Assumption, Que; Mr. and Mrs. Jean-Baptist Lanteigne, Mrs. Richard Leger, Middle Caraquet; and Edward and Philippe Savoy, Pokemouche.

Delayed Action - Why?

In the spring of 1976 it was rumored that the City of Bathurst would be one of those benefiting under the federal decentralization policy whereby several government offices would be relocated in centres across the country.

Sure enough, in July 1977, Jean Chretien, then Treasury Board president, announced that a large, new building would be built in Bathurst to accommodate the central offices of the Unemployment Insurance Commission.

In the autumn of 1976 it was further announced that a site had been chosen. The new building would be located on the Boulevard, on reclaimed land owned by the City.

In January 1977, negotiations between the City and the Federal Government for the purchase of the required property began.

It is now mid-June. There have been no new announcements concerning the proposed UIC Building. What happened to it? How are the sale negotiations progressing? Who is representing us in these negotiations? Where does the project stand now? Is it stalemated on the bargaining table at City Hall? It is doomed to become, like our legendary arena, forever beyond our reach?

Or, more likely, will it go the way of our long lost airport: straight into the waiting arms of our neighbouring city where the powers that be are purportedly already preparing the welcome mat.

It is known that the proposed building will comprise some 150,000 square feet; will cost around $10,000,000; will employ between 500 and 600 people. The immediate and long-term benefits to the City are incalculable.

It is clearly the responsibility of the city fathers and the administration to promote and expedite this needed and wanted project which will provide an obvious stimulus to our less than buoyant economy and a lift to our dampened spirits.

It is time to get on with it. What is the hold up?

If the negotiating parties, both civic and federal, or either of them, cannot or will not bring their deliberations on the sale and purchase of the land to an immediate and reasonably acceptable conclusion; if they allow the whole project to stall and stagnate before it literally gets off the ground - what hope is there that we will ever see its completion.

Are we destined to be losers again?

Designed For Women

Do you drink before going to a party?
Do you drink to get through the day?
Do you always drink to the point of drunkenness?
Do you have trouble remembering all of what happened the night before?
Do you ever have a drink in the morning to "recover"?

If you answer YES to any of the above questions, you are no longer a social drinker. Do you want a new life? The first step to a new life is a desire to break away from alcohol forever. The second step is to join "Women for Sobriety, Inc." The third step is to learn your value as a person. The fourth step is to let others see how terrific you are. The fifth step is to enjoy life.

"Women For Sobriety, Inc." is for all women who drink: social drinkers, problem drinkers, alcoholics. The organization provides a program exclusively for women; a program that recognizes the special emotional needs of women.

The "Women For Sobriety" program serves as additional therapy to A.A. or as an alternative to A.A.

The organization was first started in the United States by Dr. Jean Kirkpatrick who spent 25 years of her life struggling with alcoholism. There is only one other group in Canada at present, in Montreal, Quebec.

Alcoholism treatment organized specifically for women is becoming increasingly essential in Northern New Brunswick. It is from this apparent need that Conato, Inc. has developed one such organization in Bathurst under the direction of the women's project.

The group works in weekly sessions during which the women discuss the handling and managing of their problems in relation to their individual and family lives.

Anyone wishing to express an interest in the group may feel free to attend any of the weekly meetings held at 7:00 at Conato, Inc., 340 Laurier St., Bathurst, N.B. or call 548-8678 for more information.

WINNER NAMED IN GROCERY SLIP CONTEST

A 16-cu. foot Admiral freezer was presented to Mrs. Victor Dugas, 2669 Miramichi Ave. by Charles Roy, sales representative for AMCA Food Brokers. The freezer, was supplied by Bernardin of Canada Ltd. to Jamieson's Save Easy. In order to become eligible, a customer is required to deposit his or her grocery slip into a special box on display in the store. The draw was held June 14 and the winner was a shopper at Jamieson's Save Easy East Bathurst.

AIB monitoring professionals

The Anti-Inflation Board AIB) has stepped up monitoring of professional firms and instituted an audit system to check their compliance with the controls program.

Although it is impossible to check every professional firm, the AIB anticipates that as many as 700 firms will have received audit attention by the end of June. Although some form of audit will continue for the life of the Board.

"The combination of our audit system and the fines the Administrator can levy, plus a desire in most cases to follow the guidelines, should ensure compliance from the professional community", says Reed Scowen, Director General of the AIB prices and profits branch.

To date, 215 professional firms have been reported to the Administrator for not properly complying with filing requirements of the regulations. The Administrator can levy fines ranging from $100 to $10,000 for failure to file or for non-compliance.

The audit system will verify, on a sample basis, the compliance reports of firms reporting under the guidelines. The Audit Services Bureau from the Department of Supply and Services, with as many as 40 auditors, is assisting the Board.

The AIB has also set up a special delinquent team to identify any firm subject to controls which is not filing. This team is charged with the responsibility of making sure a firm is truly delinquent and not merely inadvertently in error.

The Anti-Inflation guidelines require professional practitioners to file a report on professional fees and incomes each fiscal year. The 10 professionals covered by the AIB rules are: architects, chiropractors, consultants, dentists, engineers, lawyers and notaries, medical doctors, optometrists, public accountants and veterinarians.

NB Federation In Accord With Move

Grand Bay, N.B.
May 31, 1977

The following is a letter that has been sent to the Honourable Romeo LeBlanc, Minister of Fisheries and Environment, concerning higher fines and confiscation of equipment where persons are convicted of salmon poaching. As always, our federation is vitally interested in matters concerning this very valuable resource and we will continue to strive for its restoration to our rivers.

J.P. Perry, president,
N.B. Wildlife Federation

The New Brunswick Wildlife Federation is pleased to see your recent announcement for higher fines and the confiscating and forfeiting of equipment used by poachers of Atlantic Salmon. For some time now, our Federation has supported heavier penalties, as current sanctions have proved to have little effect.

We do hope that the proposed provisions will also apply to those who poach in the rivers and salmon pools and urge more intensive patrolling of salmon rivers.

We are disappointed however that consideration is being given to a limited commercial salmon fishery in 1978.

As we understand it, current biological data does not support an additional commercial fishery at this time. We are not convinced that additional pressure on returning salmon stocks will not have catastrophic results, and place us in the same position as we were in before the ban, thereby nullifying any gains that have been made.

We are pleased to see that there is federal-provincial cooperation in studying the Nepisiguit River system with a view to re-establishing salmon runs in that river which has such a high potential.

Unilingual System An Unpopular One

Bathurst, N.B.
June 13, 1977

After attending a local meeting for parents of East Bathurst school, children and other interested persons, I feel compelled to write this letter. I was both surprised and happy to discover that such a huge majority of both French and English parents are not in favor of unilingual schooling.

I realize that there are many aspects of language education that require attention, and I strongly approve of any changes that would improve a student's ability to learn a second language and create "equal opportunities" for children of both languages. Unfortunately some children presently attend unilingual schools and do not have the opportunity to socialize with students of a different language and culture.

I feel that the existing school problems will never be remedied by unilingualism. If anything, it would only create prejudice. If French and English children cannot attend school side by side, how can we expect the future generation to get along with and show respect towards each other?

We need only to listen to the radio and T.V. news or scan the newspaper headlines to understand that world-wide turmoil and hatred exist as a result of prejudice. The situations in Quebec and Ireland are two living examples. Do we want similar events to take place in our own city?

I hope that the strong opposition voiced by many people, will influence the decisions of the school board trustees, when they vote on the proposed school changes.

Is Spokesman For Legal Gun Owners

G. A. Lewis,
22 Broadway,
Kennebecasis Park,
Saint John, N.B.
E2H 1B2

I am writing this letter for the interest of all legal gun owners, in particular, competitive shooters and hunting people.

Once again those gentlemen in Ottawa have come up with a new Bill aimed at privately-owned guns which will only take its toll with the legal gun owners. This Bill is C-51. The bill is cleverly designed as a blueprint for the eventual elimination of most privately-owned guns in Canada. Even without Bill C-51 and in spite of the failure of Bill C-83, additional restrictions have been placed on legal gun owners. For example, a handgunner wishing to attend the National Matches must obtain a special permit aside from his regular restrictive permit. This special permit must show the times of day and the dates he she will be attending the National Matches as well as the location and the permit is only valid for that particular competition. Rifle shooters, you will be subjected to the same treatment and also you will have to purchase a permit costing $10.00 to even go out and purchase a hunting rifle. Bill C83 was bad legislation. Bill C51 is also bad legislation.

There were enough of us who opposed Bill C-83 to cause it to become defunt. We have to do the same thing again with Bill C-51.

The first reading of Bill C-51 was on April 20th, 1977. I don't know if the second reading has taken place but it is probable that Bill C-51 may be bulldozed through without adequate or reasonable study.

It is vitally important that YOU write or telephone your M.P. without delay requesting a copy of Bill C-51 and at the same time, ask him clearly to state his own views and position on Bill C-51. When you get your copy of the Bill, carefully study it. If you feel it is bad legislation, tell your M.P. immediately that bad legislation is totally unacceptable. Tell him that if he supports bad legislation he loses the support of all legitimate firearms owners in his constituency. Above everything else, make sure your M.P. knows your views and the views of your fellow firearms owners. He is well aware that you "X" at the ballot box may decide whether or not he is still on the job. By witholding your vote, you are hitting him where it hurts most.

It is absolutely essential that every M.P. in Canada be contacted in this manner. Remember, incidentally, that no postage is required on mail to The House of Commons. Also, constituents may telephone their M.P. collect.

Grant A. Lewis, Chairman
Programme Committee,
New Brunswick Handgun,
Committee.

Criticizes Lack Of Student Jobs

Bathurst, N.B.,
June 13, 1977

I would like to know why so many students can't get any work in Bathurst during their holidays.

There are men who are getting their Old Age Security Pension and or Veterans' Pensions who are holding down jobs while college students remain idle.

I do not find this right and fair and think the UIC should look into this situation.

Older men should stay home and enjoy their pensions and leave the jobs for the younger generation.

Unimpressed With Election Promise

Shippegan, N.B.
May 30, 1977

The re-elected mayor of Shippegan, Jean Chiasson, in his comments relating to the result of the civic elections held on May 9, said that the members of the new Town Council of Shippegan were the cream of the group. Obviously, he did not say whether it was sweet or sour cream. . .

He further stated or made it understood that he will have Shippegan on the map before the expiration of his fourth mandate. Don't worry, Mr. Mayor, Shippegan was on the map long before you were born and it will remain there.

What is the big idea of members of Shippegan's Board of Trade trying to induce, in error, the Hon. Minister of Fisheries, Romeo LeBlanc, by asking him to grant lobster fishermen a permit to fish on Sunday for the remaining lobster fishing season? Are they not aware that the minister, as a sworn officer of the Crown, has no power to grant such a permit without committing an infraction to another law in our code, the one respecting the Lord's Day and no one shall work on Sunday.

FOR DAY BROTHERS A LODGE NIGHT TO REMEMBER

On Monday evening, 13 June, it was "Day" - Night at Lodge St. John No. 27, Bathurst, N.B. The Worshipful Master of Lodge St. John, Wor. Bro. Roy A. Day was joined by two of his brothers, Wor. Bros. Warren D. Day and Robert U. Day along with a brother-in-law Wor. Bro. Arnold Jagoe in a communication of the Master Mason degree on two candidates, Bros. Gordon Graham and Roger Bujold.

Wor. Bro. Warren D. Day lives in Rawdon, Que., where he is a founding member of Centennial Lodge No. 135. This year, he is the Worshipful Master of Brown Lodge No. 24 at Farnham, Que. His career in Freemasonry has taken him through the Scottish Rite to a Noble in Karnak Temple, Quebec. He is a Past President of his Shrine Club and the Oriental Band. Wor. Bro. Day originally began in Campbellton Lodge No. 32 in 1937.

Wor. Bro. Robert U. Day is presently in Dartmouth, N.S. on assignment by the Federal Government but his home is in Ottawa, Ont. He is a Past Master of Acadia Lodge, Moncton and a Most Illustrious Past Grand Master of the Order of Royal and Select Masters, Grand Council of Ontario. His career in Freemasonry has taken him through both the York Rite and the Scottish Rite to a Noble in Philae Temple, Nova Scotia and Newfoundland. Wor. Bro. Day is a member of the International High-Noon Club of Sweden.

Wor. Bro. Arnold Jagoe is a Past Master of Campbellton Lodge.

Immediately following the opening of the Lodge, the brethren reaffirmed their allegiance to Her Majesty the Queen on the occasion of her Silver Jubilee the 25th Anniversary, and sang "God Save the Queen".

After the opening of Lodge, the three Wor. Bros. Day and Wor. Bro. Jagoe were introduced to the brethren present by the Immediate Past Master Wor. Bro. Murray E. Clouston and were given a warm welcome by the members.

Wor. Bro. Warren Day presented his brother Wor. Bro. Roy A. Day with a gavel. A silver plate suitably inscribed was affixed to the gavel.

There are five brethren of Lodge St. John who are serving in Grand Lodge this year; the Grand Master, Blake Oulton, the Grand Chaplain, Rev. Dr. R. C. Chalmers; the Grand Director of Ceremonies, M. E. Clouston; and Worshipful Master, Wor. Bro. R.A. Day who is a Grand Steward and Rt. Wor. Bro. C. Norman Scott who is a member of the Board of General Purposes as well as a member of the Ritual Committee.

Officers for the Degree were the Worshipful Master, Wor. Bro. R.A. Day; the Immediate P.M. Wor. Bro. M. E. Clouston; Chaplain, Rt. Wor. Bro. Edward T. Crowther who also presented the aprons to the two new brethren; Secretary, Rt. Wor. Bro. C. N. Scott; Treasurer, Bro. Cleveland A. Jagoe; Senior Warden, Bro. Stuart O. Norton; Junior Warden, Bro. Bryan Scott; Senior Deacon, John P. MacKay; Junior Deacon, Bro. John Farrell; Senior and Junior Stewards, Bros. Harry W. S. MacLean and Gerald A. Harris; Director of Ceremonies, Wor. Bro. C. Keith Dobson; Organist, Bro. Percy Bendell; Inner Guard, Bro. Bert Wallace; Tyler, Bro. Walter Davidson.

Wor. Bro. Carl P. Hocquard delivered a portion of the lecture and Wor. Bro. Kenneth Chalmers along with Bros. Wilfred Beaven and John Watling took part in the concluding ceremonies of the degree.

Visitors for the evening were Rt. Wor. Bro. John F. Clouston; District Deputy Grand Master Rt. Wor. Bro. Philip Stratton and Wor. Bro. Arnold Taylor from Newcastle. Bro. Arthur Preddy, The Royal Alexandra Lodge, Montreal East; and Bro. Richard Easton, Senior Steward of Sunbury Lodge, Fredericton Junction.

After the closing of Lodge a delicious lunch was served under the direction of the Junior Warden.

Lodge St. John will attend Divine Service at First United Church at 9:30 a.m., June 19. The Grand Chaplain, Rt. Wor. Bro. R. C. Chalmers will conduct the worship service.

Awareness Of Disability Is Aim Of Summer Project

Paula Doucet, a student in elementary education at the University of Moncton, and Rhonda Wishart, a graduate student in social work at Dalhousie University, are working for the summer for the N.B. Branch, Canadian Rehabilitation Council for the Disabled.

They are currently involved in determining the accessibility to handicapped persons of all public buildings in Bathurst. The public is often unaware of the barriers faced by individuals in wheelchairs or who are otherwise handicapped - i.e. flights of stairs, narrow aisles and doorways, small washrooms, curbs, cement steps, etc. - and Paula and Rhonda hope to increase this awareness through their summer project.

A booklet will be prepared as a guide to the handicapped indicating whether buildings are easily accessible or not. Managers of stores or buildings which meet the requirements of accessibility will be presented with a sticker to be displayed in the window, a symbol used internationally to denote accessibility to wheelchairs. The same study is also being conducted at present in Fredericton.

The girls also hope to raise public consciousness and understanding of the barriers erected to disabled persons by organizing "awareness days" in the city.

Integrate Two School Weeks

Holy Family School will hold a number of activities during Holy Family Week from June 20 to 24 inclusive.

Besides regular classes each day these will include activities such as arts and crafts, physical fitness programs, oratory finals (Grades 1, 2, 3, 4 poems) (Grades 5, 6, 7 speech pollution), ball games against the teachers, variety shows integrating both French and English students, films, etc.

On Friday June 24th, at 1:00 p.m. the crowning of Queen and King will take place (Grades 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7) followed by the presentation of trophy and medals.

Themes of each day for Holy Family Week are as follows:

Monday June 20 Holy Family Days; Tuesday, June 21 Fabulous Cities; Wednesday, June 22 Immersion; Thursday, June 23 Participation; and Friday, June 24 King and Queen Day.

The school will be open to parents both during regular classes and activities during the whole week.

NDP Meeting Set For City

Executive members of the provincial council of the New Brunswick New Democratic Party will gather in the city Saturday, June 18 for a one-day business meeting.

Set to begin at 1 p.m. at the Gloucester Motor Hotel, the meeting will open with reports from Party President James Aucoin and Leader John LaBoissiere of Rexton as well as from the treasurer and secretary.

A testimonial dinner and New Brunswick Federation of Labour convention booth are to be added features.

Part of the agenda will deal with the party's provincial policy workshop and its convention, results of the federal transportation hearings held recently, and liquified natural gas hearings.

New business will include the NDP federal convention, the fall provincial convention, the upcoming June policy seminar.

A press conference will follow the executive meeting.

At a meeting of the provincial council held recently in Woodstock, the NDP party strongly condemned the provincial government's intention to go ahead with the aerial spraying of the forests to control the budworm problem.

Coffee drinkers switching

Tea prices are going up, and industry officials blame supply shortages caused largely by soaring consumption in the Arab countries and Asia.

A package of 60 orange pekoe tea bags that used to cost $1.53 has been marked up to $1.89.

Since February, when 60 bags sold for $1.23, the retail price has gone up 54 per cent. And the tea leaves seem to promise more price increases to come.

The Anti-Inflation Board has no control over international prices.

The situation behind the tea-price spiral is different from the one that has pushed coffee prices recently. The price of coffee tripled on the retail market after a killing frost hit Brazil two years ago and commodity speculators bid up the price on international futures markets.

But there have been no natural disasters in tea-producing countries; in fact, supplies have increased steadily year after year. And there are no commodity futures markets in which speculators can make a killing.

Anxious to dispel rumors that they are profiteering, tea industry executives are quick to explain that the increases for their product are a result of worldwide demand outpacing supplies. Some of the demand is due to consumers switching from coffee to tea.

Royal Canadian Air Cadet
Squadron 640 Chaleur

This is the final article on 640 Chaleur Royal Canadian Air Cadet Squadron for the 1976-77 year.

On Saturday, June 11, the 640 Squadron competed in the annual North Shore Cadet Sports Rally at the base in Chatham. Local cadets participated in bowling, volleyball, floor hockey, swimming and rifle range competitions, and took top honors in the floor hockey event. 640 was also part of a parade through downtown Chatham. Meals were provided at the junior ranks mess hall by CFB.

The article New Wings has a long background. It was copied from "Vaportrails" in Miramichi Press which in turn came from Gander, Newfoundland in the early 1950s. Gander had borrowed the piece from Liverpool, England's "Youth in Uniform."

At the start of the cadet year in the fall, New Wings will be announcing the dates for registration of new recruits. Cadets must be between 13 and 19 years of age and should have social insurance numbers.

10,000 TREES PLANTED NEAR CITY'S WATERSHED

The 4th Annual Boy Scout Trees for Canada Program took place June 4 at the City Watershed (Old Golf Course) property. The event attracted over 250 boys, who, in turn, planted approximately 10,000 trees under a drizzly sky, ideal for the occasion.

Special thanks goes out to the following: Paul Tremblay, Trees for Canada co-ordinator; St. John Ambulance; Kenneth DeGrace and the Department of Natural Resources, Dominion Stores; Pop Shoppe; the media (press and radio); George Roy of Vachon Bakeries.

The public support for this project is also greatly appreciated. Those who have not yet been approached to honor their pledges are kindly urged to do so at their earliest convenience.

Interesting Statistics Revealed In Food Price Survey In City

The Consumers' Association of Canada, Bathurst Branch, carried out a food price survey in six local stores on June 3 and 4, 1977. In the selective list of items shown in the table below, Petrie's lower total cost is mainly due to meat and coffee prices.

Association President William Luff said the project was quite informative, and that it is planned to conduct similar surveys in the Bathurst area in future.

Well-KnownFigure MournedIn County

The death of Edward J. Whelton, a highly respected and well known resident of Black Rock, occurred June 7 at his home following an illness of about two months. He marked his 96th birthday on Jan. 4.

Born at Black Rock, he was a son of the late John and Hanora (Sisk) Whelton and was a lifelong resident of the community.

Mr. Whelton, whose ancestors came from Black Rock, County Cork in Ireland, carried on one of the largest and most successful farming operations in that part of Gloucester County and was a member of the third generation of Wheltons to do so.

Mr. Whelton served as school secretary in his district for many years and, in this capacity, was responsible for the operation of the school during an early and difficult period.

First and foremost in any activity which promoted progress in the church and community, Mr. Whelton was active in Canadian Red Cross Society work especially during the war years, the CMBA in earlier years, and the Agricultural Society in which he represented his area on many occasions at meetings of the N.B. Federation of Agriculture in Fredericton.

He was a staunch member and supporter of the Progressive Conservative Party.

Mr. Whelton possessed a keen memory, was active until his recent illness and remained mentally alert and interested in family and acquaintances until he died. He had a wide circle of friends and his home was a centre of hospitality.

His wife, the former Mary Thompson, died in 1958.

Surviving are eight daughters, Dorothy Whelton of Black Rock, Nina Whelton, New York City, Mrs. Harvey Wilbur (Mildred) of Bathurst, Mrs. Edmund Nickel (Nora) and Mrs. Wilfred Sisk (Helen) of Schenectady, N.Y., Mrs. Albert Landry (Caroline) and Mrs. Mary Lewis, both of Montreal and Mrs. Guy Riordon (Bernadine) of Pokeshaw.

Surviving also are nine sons, Bedford, Edward J. Jr. and John, all of Black Rock, Willard of Miami, Fla., George of Ottawa; Byron and Donald, both of Fort McMurray, Alta., Vincent J. of Bathurst; and Joseph C., Montreal; one brother, Wilfred of Black Rock; 50 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Mr. Whelton rested at LeGresley's Funeral Home, Grand Anse.

Rev. Edmond Ouellette, parish priest, Rev. T. J. McKendy of Douglastown and Rev. Everett Grant, Devon, officiated at the con-celebrated mass held at Saint Simon and Saint Jude Church in Grand Anse Friday at 4 p.m.

Rev. James Smith, Chatham Head Parish, Rev. J. Emile Fournier, pastor of Sacred Heart Cathedral, and Rev. Gregory Sampson, Holy Family Parish, Bathurst, were present in the sanctuary.

The homily was delivered by Father Ouellette. The epistle was read by a son, Vincent J. Whelton Q.C. Grandsons John Riordon of Riordon, and Melvin Lewis and Peter landry of Montreal were servers for the mass, and Percy Wilbur, eldest of the grandsons, acted as cross-bearer.

Four hymns, How Great Thou Art, Mother Dearest Mother Fairest, Hymn to Sacred Heart and Peace Prayer of Saint Francis were sung by a son John Whelton, and three grandchildren, Patrick Riordon and Mary Anne and Sheila Riordon, all of Riordon. The organist was Gerard Blanchard.

The honorary pallbearers were Donald Branch, Frank Branch, Duncan Campbell, Jackie Carey, Dave Chasson, Joe D. Clement, Arthur Cormier, Emery Cormier, Harry Driscoll, Havelock Goneau, Charlie Landry, John Murphy, Michael - Murty, Ed Nickel, Eddie O'Neil, Lawrence Riordon, Cletus Salter, Raymond Sisk, Jimmy Theriault, Stan Theriault, Dan Theriault, Douglas Whelton and Reginald Whelton.

The active pallbearers were six sons, Bedford, Edward, Byron, Donald, George and Joseph Whelton.

Burial followed in the parish cemetery.

All children, except Willard of Florida, along with wives, husbands and grandchildren were present for the largely attended funeral. Other relatives and friends came from various centres in the New England States, Alberta, Ontario, Quebec, Newfoundland, Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick.

Sitting Hears Request For Expanded Service

Not only do the City of Bathurst, the Bathurst and District Labor Council and Local 310 of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway, Transport and General Workers favor retaining present rail passenger service between Halifax and Montreal, but they are also asking for a connecting railliner to serve the Shippegan Peninsula communities.

The three briefs were presented in Bathurst June 8 to the Railway Transport Committee of the Canadian Transport Commission.

"By serving this area with a rail car service, considerable extra traffic could undoubtedly be generated," stated Bathurst Mayor John Duffy in reference to the outlying areas of Cara-

Funeral Friday At Campbellton

The death of Mrs. Donald MacLean (nee Marjorie Mair) occurred early this Wednesday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. H. Rogers (Mary), 380 St. Anne Street, where she had been residing for two years. She was 94.

Mrs. MacLean will be taken to her native Campbellton where she will rest at Maher's Funeral Home from 7 - 9:00 p.m. Thursday.

The funeral will be held at Knox Presbyterian Church, Campbellton Friday at 2:30 p.m. Burial will take place in the family plot.

Young Canada Works Programs Approved

The Minister of Manpower and Immigration, Bud Cullen, has announced the approval of two more Young Canada Works projects for the federal constituency of Gloucester, New Brunswick. One of the projects announced earlier has been granted additional funding.

Added to the 42 approved previously, project grants announced June 7 bring the federal contribution for this program to $335,114 in this constituency, leaving $18,886 for future approval.

The project "Social Service and Recreation for the Locality of Ste-Rose" will receive $5,500 to hire students in order to offer day-care centre services.

The project "Jeunesse et les loisirs", sponsored by Sheila's Local Services, will receive $8,500 to create five summer jobs, generating 55 man-weeks of work.

A fund increase of $3,000 will be added to the "Activites-Vacances a Shippegan" project's original grant.

The Young Canada Works Program is designed to reduce student summer unemployment by enabling established organizations to sponsor employment generating projects in areas of community need. The jobs should be designed to facilitate students' future access to the labour market by enabling them to test possible career interests and to obtain practical experience in a broad choice of fields.

Mother Dies At Moncton

The death of a former Belledune woman, Mrs. Johannah Margaret Waters, widow of Sydney S. Waters, occurred May 28 at Moncton City Hospital at the age of 96.

She was a daughter of the late John and Bridget (Murray) Furlotte and had resided in Moncton for a number of years.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Nap Melanson (Irene) of Bathurst; four sons, Willis and Charles, both of Montreal and Myron and Gordon, both of Moncton; one sister, Mrs. Percy Farr (Alice) of Winslow, Maine; ten grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Waters rested at Tuttle Brothers Funeral Home in Moncton.

The funeral service, conducted by Rev. J. K. Allaby, was held at Highfield Baptist Church, Moncton, on May 31st.

The hymns sung were Abide With Me and In The Garden. Rev. M. Roberts was the organist and Fred Lloyd was soloist.

The pallbearers were Russell Hope, James Brewster, Stan Pierce, John Higgins, Arnold LeBlanc and Wesley Steeves.

Committal service and interment was in Elmwood Cemetery.

Those attending from a distance included Willis Waters, Charles Waters, Montreal; Robert Brimsacle, Charlo; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Waters, Halifax; Mrs. Irene Melanson and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Melanson and family, Bathurst.

Oland's Softball League Results

Thurs., June 9

Nadeau's Poultry snapped a three-game losing streak scoring 7 runs in the 4th inning to down Murphy's Esso 13-8. Mario Doucet led Nadeau at the plate with a double and three singles. Jean-Guy Doucet was the top hitter for Murphy's driving in three runs with a triple, double and single. Norman Boudreau (1-1) took the win while Roger Martel (1-1) suffered the loss. The game was played at the College field.

Sunday, June 12

Wye Electric took sole possession of first place by squeezing by Pepsi Cola 6-4 in a game played at Coke's field. This was the fourth straight win for Wye, who have yet to lose. Winning pitcher was Gary Peters (3-0) with the loss going to Kenneth Hachey (2-1)

Wye Electric made it five in a row with their second win of the day, this time by edging Murphy's Esso 16 - 15. Murphy's blew an 8 - 0 lead by giving up 13 runs in the 2nd inning. Wye counted the winning run in the bottom of the seventh on two errors by Murphy's. Gary Peters (4-0) picked up his second win of the day while Roger Martel (1-2) was tagged with the loss. The game was played at the College field

The rainy weather didn't dampen the spirits of the crowd attending the Gowan Brae Opening Dinner and Dance on Saturday night. Over 250 dinners were served under the convenorship of Cheryl Morrison who had with her a helpful committee of Edythe Hatheway, Bernice Jardine, Mrs. Lou White, Mrs. Jean Coffyn, Sue Burns, Mae Arseneau, Muriel Calnan, Alice Crutchfield, and Ruth Byrne. Thank you for helping to make the opening a success.

Recently, on June 5, there was held, at Gowan Brae, a North Shore meeting consisting of 24 golfers from Restigouche, the Miramichi and our local club. The purpose of their getting together was to plan the 50th North Shore Tournament which will this year be hosted by the Miramichi. It consists of a team of 15 men and 10 women from each club and will be held on August 20th at the Miramichi Golf Club. Those attending the meeting also enjoyed a casserole dinner prepared by Pat Maher, Cheryl Morrison, Loretta Ratchford, Alice Lavigne and Edythe Hatheway.

At the June monthly meeting of Gowan Brae Ladies, among the topics discussed was the regulation regarding the attendance at luncheons of those who are not social members. The meeting went on record as stating that a local resident may only be a guest at two luncheons in one season, while out-of-town residents are welcome as guests any time. Co-conveners of the luncheons, Mrs. Lou White and Mrs. Doris LeBrocq, say that the list of convenors and workers for all the luncheons will be posted downstairs and upstairs. Remember, the luncheons begin on the first Wednesday in July and will be served from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m.

Ladies are invited to record a ringer score again this season. To convenience those who rarely get a chance to play more than 9 holes at a time, there will be two posters up this summer, one for 18 holes and one for 9 holes. But remember to sign your name on only one of them

Tennis Clinics Now Underway

Despite the rainy weather, the courts at the Mont C Tennis Club have been buzzing with activity. Membership cards are presently on sale.

The Adult Beginners' clinic appears to be a proven success. Registration was very encouraging and the club expects more applications. The clinic which began at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday evening will continue for ten lessons. For a successful clinic, those enrolled should try not to miss a lesson.

Volleyball

The Volleyball league, both mens and womens, should be getting underway in the very near future. The registration deadline is Saturday, June 18, and those wishing to enter a team should call Jim Smith at 548-2128 or Cliff Daigle at 546-4619 as soon as possible.

A few more details on the upcoming Ladies' Field Day on July 2. Tee-off time is 11:00 a.m. with a supper at 6:00 p.m. The fee is $7.00 and juniors with established handicaps are also welcomed to attend.

See you next week. . . .

LOCAL TEAM ENTERS SENIOR A COMPETITION

The Bathurst Dixie Lee - Dr. Pepper girls softball team has moved up from Intermediate to Senior "A" provincial competition this season after several successful years in the lower classification. The team's exhibition games scheduled last week and over the weekend were all rained out, but they'll try it again this week with home-and-home doubleheaders against Memramcook, last year's Senior A champions. The teams will play a doubleheader here at Coronation Park this Saturday with game times set for 1:30 and 3:30 p.m. Sunday they'll play in Memramcook with the same game times. Front row from left: Caroline Vanderheyden, Linda Doucet, Yvette Henry, Mary Farrell, Anne Bard, Lucy Legacy, Gemma Levesque; 2nd row: Marie Claire Hachey, Sue Arseneault, Yolande Boudreau, Nicole Roy, Solange Arseneau, Shirley Battah, Debbie Tingley; back row: Celine Jamieson, Manager; Marie Paule Doucet, Kathy Hayes, Debbie Perron and coach Ken Perron

Provincial '77 Race Postponed

Stock Car fans looking forward to the start of the season tonight at Danny's Speed-Bowl will have to wait another week as the big Provincial "77" 50 Lap feature has been postponed until next Wednesday, June 22.

The continued wet weather has played havoc with parking facilities and the track officials, after viewing the muddy condition of the parking lot and track infield yesterday, had little recourse but to postpone tonight's official opening program.

So the Provincial '77' has been re-scheduled for next Wednesday, June 22, with time trials set for 7:30 p.m. and racing commencing at 8:00 p.m.

The postponement could favor some of the drivers and owners of cars who felt their equipment just would not be ready in time for tonight's big event. They'll have another week to prepare for the season opener and this could mean several added entries by race time next week.

The program will include three Preliminaries, two Semi-Finals and wind up with the Provincial '77, the 50 lap feature.

Junior Girls Golfing News

BY ANITA SUNDARAM

The Junior Girls held their first golf meeting on Friday, June 10. The following officers were elected: President, Anne Adams; Treasurer, Lynn Marquis; Publicity, Anita Sundaram.

Events for the coming season were discussed, the first being the Father and Daughter or the Father and Son Tournament to be held on Sunday June 19.

Please note that the date of the Spaghetti Supper has been changed to June 30th. Tickets are available from the girls or at the bar.

The Provincial Ladies and Juniors tournament is being held at Riverside on July 23, 24 and 25th. All girls with handicaps may play. Those Juniors trying out for the team trials must have handicaps of 27 or less.

Mooseheads, Sox Suffer Bay Chaleur League Losses

Beresford Chalet Sportif registered their first win of the season and Green Point Remparts increased their undefeated streak to four as play resumed in the Bay of Chaleur League East division last night.

Beresford topped the winless Bathurst Notre Dame Red Sox 11 - 5 in Bathurst while the Remparts upset Bathurst Mooseheads 10 - 5 in Green Point.

Boudreau had relief help from Jean Godin in the seventh and between them they fanned 10, gave up 7 hits and didn't walk a man. Alvin Pitre started and suffered the Red Sox loss although he was relieved by Peter Ruddock in the 1st who in turn gave way to Robert Hachey in the sixth.

Hachey led the Red Sox at the plate with two homers - a solo smash in the second and a three run blast in the third. He also had a single. Albert Pitre singled twice while Peter Ruddock and Alvin Pitre also singled for the other Red Sox hits.

Remparts Win

Green Point Remparts exploded for four runs in the seventh and added a pair in the 8th on their way to stopping the Bathurst Mooseheads 10 - 5. They held a slim 4 - 3 lead before the seventh inning uprising highlighted by Roger Guitard's circuit clout.

Charles LeBlanc went the distance for the win limiting the potent Mooseheads to just eight hits. Loser Jim White also went the distance and gave up 13 hits. He fanned three and walked four.

Mooseheads continued to hit home runs but in this game the curcuit blasts came with nobody on base. Dave Ross and Ray Jean clubbed the solo smashes in the sixth and eighth innings respectively. Mike Brophy collected a pair of singles while Marc Hachey added a double to the Bathurst attack.

Future Games

The Mooseheads are not scheduled again until next Tuesday when they entertain Neguac Schooners while the Red Sox host Neguac tomorrow night and Tracadie plays in Beresford. Next Tuesday the Red Sox are in Beresford.

In a West division contest last night, Ron Morin sparked Dalhousie Dodgers to a 15 - 6 win at Tide Head driving in seven runs with a grand slam homer in the sixth, a double and two singles. John Harquail picked up the win while John Boudreau suffered the loss with relief from Bill Harvey and Murray Sturgeon.

Yaz Leads Star Voting

Veteran Carl Yastrzemski of Boston Red Sox is the leading vote-getter after two weeks of balloting for American League all-star players, the office of baseball commissioner Bowie Kuhn announced Monday.

The slugging Yastrzemski received 297,552 votes for one of three outfield positions.

Runnerup in the voting totals to date is Kansas City's third baseman, George Brett, with 285,136, followed by Minnesota's first baseman, Rod Carew with 272,174.

Boston's Carlton Fisk leads the catchers with 264,382, although Thurman Munson of New York Yankee is close behind with 248,001.

Moosehead Softball League Results

Weather played havoc with last week's schedule in the Moosehead Softball League as only two games were completed.

Last Thursday, June 9, Bathurst Machine Shop showed great hitting form and downed Pizza Delight, last year's champions, by a score of 21-11. Fred Theriault (2-0) was the winning pitcher in the game played at Riverview Park while Alvan DeSilva suffered the loss.

In the other game played last week, Pizza Delight suffered its second setback in a row as the Captain's Cabin team came through with an 11-10 win. The game was played Sunday afternoon at Centennial Park and marked the first win of the season for the Captain's Cabin.

Denis DeSilva picked up the win and evened his record at 1-1 while Alvan DeSilva suffered his second loss and now has a 1-2 won-loss record.

Standings in the four-team league are as follows:

Team
Bathurst Mach	2	0	4
Capt. Cabin	1	1	2
Pizza Delight	1	2	2
Alpines	0	1	0

Senior Tourney At St. Andrews

St. Andrew's Algonquin Golf and Country Club will be host of this year's Maritime Senior Men's Golf championships scheduled for Aug. 28-30.

Bill Scott of Fredericton, president of the N.B. Senior Men's Golf Association said in an interview Monday "nothing particularly big has been planned for the tournament."

He said the 28th, a Sunday will be a field day for the golfers with small prizes awarded for the practice round, which will be optional.

The 36-hole tourney will get underway the 29th, Mon. with 18 holes and conclude with 18 more on Tuesday, the 30th.

Tommy Stewart, of St. Andrews defending champion, is expected to be back for his eighth Seniors' title while other top contenders, Mac Lennox of Moncton and John Steele of Riverside are also expected to compete, Scott said.

The Maritime Senior Men's Golf Association will hold its annual Spring meeting in Halifax Friday and Saturday at the Lord Nelson Hotel.

Scott said plans for next year will be made at the time of the meeting.

Ellis Building, Thomas TV Post Labatt League Wins

Ellis Building Supplies gave up four runs in the seventh inning but hung on to defeat Cormier and Sons 9-7 Monday night in one of two games played in the Labatt Softball League. In the other contest, Thomas TV of Sand Hill outscored Rough Waters Save Easy 23-16.

Pat Murphy picked up the win for Ellis although he gave up 11 free passes while fanning a pair. Loser Ken MacParland was tagged for 15 hits including a solo homer by Jerry Pitre in the top of the sixth. Pitre also doubled for the winners while Marc Landry added a double and triple and Danny Hicks slammmed a pair of two-baggers and two singles. Ken Pitre led Cormier and Sons at the plate with a double and a single.

HOMERS GALORE!

Circuit clouts were the order of the day in Monday night's other game with Jerry Goodine of Thomas TV leading the way with three four-baggers. Darrel Daley picked up the win while Paul Hebert was tagged for the loss.

Hebert contributed a homer and three singles in a losing cause while Len Doucet clubbed a grand slam and a pair of singles for the losers.

NORMOE WINS

Normoe Sports of Beresford scored an easy 18-1 win over Cormier and Sons in the only Labatt League game played Sunday. Paul Branch tossed a solid six-hitter to record the win. He struck out two and issued 8 free passes but was able to bear down in the clutch. Loser Howard Lanteigne fanned one, walked seven and gave up 13 hits.

Bernie Allain was the big hitter for the winners with a pair of home runs and two doubles. Delphis Lavigne and Leonard Leger also homered for Normoe.

Louis Lavigne tagged Paul Branch for a pair of singles to lead Cormier and Sons at the plate.

Following is the remainder of the Labatt Softball League schedule for the month of June:

Thurs. June 30 - Normoe vs Save Easy.

Father & Son Golf Tourney Set For Sunday

The first club championship event of the season is scheduled at Gowan Brae Golf and Country Club this Sunday with the staging of the annual Father and Son golf tournament.

Father and Son teams planning to participate in this annual championship should list their names on the poster as soon as possible.

The F. P. Veniot Trophy will go to the low gross winners in the 18-hole competition while the Bernard Veniot Trophy will be awarded the low net winners.

Dave Gammon and son Blake captured the title in last year's event, breaking a three-year monopoly enjoyed by the Coulombe family.

Ben and Darrell Laszewski captured low net honors last year with a 66 and both of last year's champions are expected back to defend their titles.

Thirty-two Father and Son and-or Daughter teams participated in last year's tournament.

Moncton Cubs Whip Comets

Moncton Keeffe Cubs banged out 16 hits off three Bathurst pitchers on their way to a 17 - 1 win over the Comets in an N.B. Junior Baseball League contest played in Moncton Sunday night.

Meanwhile the Cubs limited the Comets to just two hits as winner Ron Kelly pitched no-hit ball and fanned 10 until he was relieved in the sixth by Tim Mollen who, in turn, gave way to Jeff Rinzler in the ninth.

Yvon Ouellette started for the Comets and lasted until the third when Yves Daigle took over. Ouellette came back in the sixth and Rod Comeau came on in the 8th to finish up.

Tim Mollen blasted a solo homer along with four singles to lead the Cub attack. Jeff Rinzler also singled four times while Moe Malenfant singled twice and doubled.

Barry Kyle and Yvon Ouellette both singled for the only Bathurst hits.

Weather Winner In Chaleur Loop

Bad weather came out the winner in the Bay Chaleur Baseball League over the weekend as five of six scheduled contests were either rained out or cancelled due to poor playing conditions. Four of the five rain-outs were in the Eastern division with one in the West.

The West division managed to get one game in last Friday when the Point La Nim Arrows whipped the Dodgers in Dalhousie by a score of 13 - 3.

Jim Reid picked up the win with relief from Duncan Reid in the sixth. They combined for an 8-hitter while fanning nine and walking four.

Clem Tremblay led the Arrows' 15-hit attack off loser Everett Lavigne and three other Dodger hurlers. Tremblay banged out two doubles and a single with Kevin Foran adding a double and three singles. Duncan Reid also singled twice for Point La Nim. John Harquail led the Dodger hitters with a pair of singles.

Play Tonight

Bathurst Mooseheads are scheduled to play in Green Point tonight, weather permitting, while tomorrow night, Notre Dame Red Sox host Neguac Schooners with Tracadie visiting Beresford.

Neither the Red Sox nor the Mooseheads are scheduled over the weekend but some of last week's postponed contests could be played.

Plan Visit To Acadian Site

The Canadian Council of the Blind Bathurst Club held its closing meeting and social function until the fall on June 6. at Villa Chaleur Residence President Mrs. Therese Levasseur was meeting chairman

Mrs. Joan Lavigne was installed as the new secretary, a vacancy created by the resignation of Mrs. Nathan Higgins

Plans for a bus trip to Acadian Village at Caraquet were finalized and the date set for July 2

Two university students engaged with the New Brunswick Council on Recreation for the Handicapped for the summer, attended the meeting

Following adjournment, a social rounded out the evening, with members of both the CCB and Villa Chaleur Clubs enjoying dancing, music and lunch

Entertaining music was provided by Clovis Comeau and group from Beresford, and by Yvon Brideau and Ed Kervin and son from Tracadie.

Ladies of the Villa Chaleur Club and Our Lady of Mount Carmel Council CWL provided and served lunch to bring the function to conclusion

The president expressed thanks to the Villa Chaleur administration for excellent hospitality

Chamber Supports CN's Bid For Improved Rail Service

(Editor's note: Following is the text of a brief presented Wednesday, June 8 by the Bathurst Chamber of Commerce to the Railway Transport Committee hearing in the city.)

The Bathurst Chamber of Commerce welcomes, with some reservations, this opportunity to express its concern on the present Canadian National rail service on the Halifax to Montreal route.

Any reservations that we may have stem from the fact that it appears the important decisions have already been made. Indeed, an editorial of the Halifax Herald, states that in light of the comments of Provincial and Federal leaders and committees, these hearings "cannot possibly be objective against such a background".

1) Realizing full well the scope of this committee's powers in conducting these hearings, the Chamber has decided to join in and hope that its recommendations will receive some consideration in resolving this important problem.

Historically, the present rail route through Bathurst established over 100 years ago was "by ordinary business standards... an undoubted failure". The old Intercolonial was built along the North Shore of this province for political and strategic reasons. However, as is the case today, "ordinary business standards are clearly inappropriate for gauging its success... An in instrument of national unity the Intercolonial was probably most effective".

2) It is with this in mind that the Chamber attacks the seemingly blind adherance to the "user pay" concept. The Chamber is not blind to the figures showing the deficits in rail passenger transportation in this region. Nor is the Chamber unaware of the recommendations of the Atlantic Region Inter Model Passenger Study which "promotes the idea that it would make economic sense to replace rail passenger service in this part of Canada with improved bus services."

3) However, if one of the objectives of the Transportation Assistance programs in the Atlantic area is "to ensure adequate transportation services for people of this region", then other considerations than purely economic ones must be dealt with. Once this approach is accepted, the word "subsidy" will lose some of its disfavour. The question then remains how much is to be given and to whom?

The Chamber supports the Canadian National Railway's submission asking for added funds to improve its services and agrees with its critique of the Federal-Provincial survey on passenger trends. The Chamber believes that rail services have always been popular in the Bathurst area and because of the poor highways and non-existant air service, its popularity is growing instead of declining. Indeed, when the rail service was interrupted this winter, widespread concern was expressed as to when eyerything would finally return to normal.

Notwithstanding the above, should the recommendations of the Atlantic Region Inter Model Passenger Study as prepared by the Federal-Provincial Committee on Atlantic region transportation be followed, the Bathurst Chamber of Commerce predictably endorses paragraph 6-5 which states "the best balance of services and cost under the rail consolidation approach would be the CN line via Bathurst. This route serves the largest existing rail passenger market in the region."

The Federal-Provincial Committee substantiates the above because the route through Bathurst has a relatively high propensity for rail travel and has the necessary projected population growth.

In addition, it is their opinion that improvements to the present bus and air travel services in the area would not greatly affect the use of the rail route. However, they do say that an improvement in the equipment might help keep any decline in passenger use from occurring along the line.

The Chamber believes the foregoing to be a proper assessment of the situation at Bathurst and the Northeast, especially on account of the lack of air service in this City.

As an alternative, a revised bus service would still meet with consumer reluctance on account of the distance to Montreal, the horrible state of the Northeastern New Brunswick highways and our harsh winters. We hope but don't really expect that Mr. Hatfield, in his presentation to you, went into sufficient detail on the problems of travelling by car in this part of the province.

In conclusion, we believe that our present level of services should be retained and made competitive. As far as the Bathurst region is concerned, the alternatives are not sufficient to placate us. Decent transportation is part of our Canadian birthright, and the withdrawal of such an important service as the rail passenger line can only lead to further alienation of a part of New Brunswick and a part of Canada.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Conflict of Interest

The Law Amendments Committee of the New Brunswick Legislature will receive submissions until July 15, 1977, with respect to the outline of Government policy pertaining to conflicts of interest effecting elected persons and appointed public servants.

The Conflict of interest paper deals with Legislative Assembly members, members of the Provincial Civil Service, appointees to Boards, Commissions and Government Agencies, Municipal Councillors and Municipal Employees.

Matters for consideration include financial interest, public contracts, prohibitions on fees and gifts, abuse of privileged information, appointment to public employment, holding compatible offices, and corrupt practices.

The Committee will consider to what extent spouses, and children shall be brought within the reach of rules relating to conflict of interest, involving elected officials.

The Committee will be pleased if persons and organizations interested in the problem of conflicts of interest of public officials and employees would communicate with the Committee.

Copies of the White paper may be procured from the office of the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly, Fredericton.

Submissions and requests to appear may be sent to:

INSTALLED AS GRAND LODGE CHAPLAIN

In a June 13 communication at St. John Lodge No. 27 F. and A.M., Bathurst, the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of New Brunswick, Most Wor. Bro. Blake A. Oulton (centre), called on the Grand Director of Ceremonies, Wor. Bro. M. E. Clouston to conduct Right Wor. Bro. Ralph C. Chalmers (right), to him for installation as Grand Chaplain of the Grand Lodge. Rt. Wor. Bro. R. C. Chalmers was elected to that office at a meeting of Grand Lodge held recently in Campbellton.

Tracadie Festival Gets Underway This Thursday

A pretty 18-year-old brunette from Sheila was crowned queen of Tracadie's Bitews Outdoors Festival Saturday, June 11 at the pre-festival Queen's Ball held at W.A. Losier High School.

Linda Sonier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olivier Sonier and a science student at Moncton University, was chosen from five contestants for the title. Five feet, six inches tall, the new queen enjoys music and dancing.

Named first princess was another Sheila girl, Gisele Gagnon, while second princess was Anne Bertrand of Tracadie. Other participants were Colette McLaughlin of St. Isidore and Jeanne-Mance Duguay of Portage River.

The festival itself gets underway on Thursday, June 16 with the official opening and a cabaret at W.A. Losier High.

The theme of the annual event is centred around the outdoors and is unique in that it stresses the enjoyment one can derive from nature.

President of this year's event, which is sponsored by the local fish and game association, is Elvy Robichaud. Festival grounds will again be Park LeRoyer on the Tracadie River.

The festival continues on Friday, June 17 with the setting up of camps on the grounds at both the LeRoyer Park and Val Comeau Provincial Park.

Friday night, a torch promenade and huge bonfire will take place at the river shore as well as a singalong with the Chorale LaFrance.

On Saturday, different workshops would include such sports as canoeing, scuba diving, archery, sailing and also on water safety and map and compass reading.

Following the workshops, there will be a canoe excursion, a car rally with the course to be divulged only upon departure, and a log rolling contest. All activities will be held at the Park LeRoyer.

A horse show gets under way at 6 p.m. on Saturday followed by a fun garden at the Stella Maris Arena in Sheila.

There will be deep sea fishing excursions on Sunday morning followed by a fourwheel drive excursion and mass on the festival grounds.

This will be followed by skeet shooting and the festival parade at 1:30 p.m.

Sunday afternoon will be highlighted by the Belvedere-sponsored canoe race, a 10-mile triangular course on the Tracadie River with prizes for this event to be $300 first prize, $200 second prize and $100 for the third place finisher.

At 5 p.m., a supper will be held at the Park LeRoyer grounds with the four-day festival to wrap up Sunday night with a western talent night and dance at the Stella Maris Arena.

There will be an information booth on the festival grounds this year, and other services will include barbecue and camping facilities adn a playground.

Social Aspects Of Convention Enjoyable For Senior Citizens

The New Bandon Chaleur (Contributed) Evening Stars senior citizens group were represented at the N.B. Senior Citizens Federation convention at Keddy's Motor Inn in Saint John June 6-8, by seven members.

Included in the group were Mrs. Myron Jennings, president, and Mrs. Elda Miller, delegate.

The most constructive and enjoyable trip was made aboard the Golden Age senior citizens' bus, with the congenial host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Huntly Ferguson, along with other members of the clubs in Bathurst.

The party left Bathurst on Monday, June 6, at 9 a.m., and although the weather was not too co-operative, we had a good journey and checked in at 3 p.m. Fundy Line Motel where, believe it or not, free tea, coffee and ice is provided to patrons of that establishment.

After registration proceedings at Keddy's at 7:30 p.m. we were welcomed to the exhibit theatre of artistic handicrafts which also included literature and photo displays. In the same area, we also attended an entertainment comprising films and musicals.

Later, a sing-song was held at convention headquarters where we had the pleasure of meeting old and new members of the senior citizens clubs from the different New Brunswick localities.

Following the banquet at 7 p.m. Tuesday when Health Minister Brenda Robertson was guest speaker, we were royally entertained by the Bows and Belles, a very talented group of dancers from the Saint John area, with their capable call, and music instrubtor.

Highlighting this festive evening was the federation lottery ticket drawing and two winners were reported to be from the Bathurst area.

Business sessions were capably conducted by the federation president, Rev. Norman Estey and the board of directors.

In the closing remarks pertaining to the federation, it was portrayed by Blair Bourgeois that through co-operation and mutual understanding, the federation remains strong. He stressed that the theme should be: What can I do to help?

Plan Combined Language Brief

The English Parents - Teachers Association regular meeting was held at Holy Family School on June 2.

At this meeting the hot lunch program which has just terminated was assessed and due to its success this year the parents will endeavour to obtain a similar program for the next school term.

Also discussed was the School Board's recent recommendation to have unilingual schools in the City of Bathurst. The decision of the parents was to discuss this matter further before making any recommendations.

In the meantime a liaison committee will be formed between the English Parent-Teachers Association and the French Parent-Teachers Association of Holy Family School in order to present a common brief to the School Board of District No. 4.

Meetings End For Season

A Chinese-style dinner held at the home of Carol Knowles celebrated the fifth anniversary of Xi Delta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi.

Organized by the social chairman, Judy Losier, the dinner was a complete success, with all members present. Two guests also attended the dinner and final meeting for the year, Ann Crozier and Lexie Martin, members from Kappa Chapter eligible to progress to Xi Delta.

The service calendar for the coming year was presented by Margo Greenough. Projects will include Theatre New Brunswick, a scholarship, bursary, school help project, music festival, International Endowment Fund and help to the recreation committee.

Ways and means chairman, Jane Richard, reported on proposed events such as a November coffee party, surprise box at each meeting and a bring-and-buy sale in October.

A social calendar was presented for the chapter's approval and will include a steak barbeque June 18 as the year-end party.

The first event in the fall season beginning day, will be a coffee party on Sept. 1st.

A gift was presented to Gwen MacKenzie who will be moving to Nova Scotia in August.

Program chairman, Mary Gavin, led the members in an open discussion on various women-related topics.

New VON Program Now In Effect

Bathurst Branch, V.O.N. recently started a new program of weekly visiting at the Denis Fournier Senior Citizen apartments at 145-155 Demeresque Street. In October an agreement was signed between New Brunswick Housing Corporation and V.O.N. to make these visits.

The emphasis is on prevention and health teaching. The program functions at two levels. First to maintain health and postponing and preventing chronic disease; and secondly to minimize the effects of established diseases, and preventing further damage.

The problem also aims to help the residents maintain their independence, encouraging them to do as much as possible for themselves.

The V.O.N. have also continued with their other nursing activities. During the months of April and May, 488 citizens of Bathurst have been seen. The nurses spent 162 hours in schools and 23 hours at Immunization Clinics. The visits included 18 to newborns, 14 post natal visits, and 421 to adults. Of these, 40 were paid in full, 116 in part and 271 were free. 61 were not chargeable.

These facts and figures were revealed at the regular meeting of the Branch held in the In service Training Room of Chaleur General Hospital Tuesday, June 14, at 7:30 p.m.

Although the V.O.N. does receive provincial grants for many of its activities, many are not funded. For this reason there is a fee per visit on some of the home visits. This is usually adjusted to the patient's means and no patient is ever refused because of inability to pay.

quet, Shippegan and Tracadie.

All agreed many of these 30,000 potential rail passengers in Lower Gloucester County must pay as much as $35 to taxi to the Bathurst station to board either the Scotian or the Ocean Limited.

The small private bus service in operation was scored as irregular and making poor connections with the trains.

Despite this relatively untapped passenger resource, the rail trip origins out of Bathurst for 1975, for instance, were 30,100.

This figure, mentioned by President Kevin O'Connell in the Bathurst and District Labor Council brief, was taken from the Atlantic Region Inter-Modal Passenger Study, a statistical study recently conducted by a federal-provincial committee.

"This was the highest average for the Atlantic Region," stated the Labor Council brief, "which shows the dependence that the region places on rail transportation."

"We feel that by incorporating a bus service or railliner service to connect these points to Bathurst, rail passenger origins out of the area would increase."

J.A. Corbin, representing Local 310 of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway, Transport and General Workers, had brought of the same point.

"The highway transportation system in Northeastern New Brunswick makes it extremely difficult for the elderly, the sick, and many others to travel any distances by either bus or car, and a rail passenger service would be a great asset."

"Further", Corbin continued, "the winters in Northeastern New Brunswick are extremely severe and on many days there is no road transportation due to servere storms and drifting conditions in Lower Gloucester County."

Corbin and Duffy both mentioned the creation of some 500 jobs when two divisions of the Unemployment Insurance Commission are brought to Bathurst as part of the federal government's decentralization scheme.

Corbin predicted many of these office workers would be French-speaking and would be coming into Bathurst from the Caraquet area. He suggested they could commute if a railliner service were established. The point was made the rails already existed.

Members of the Railway Transport Committee panel, including the chairman, D.H. Jones, Q.C., asked seveal questions on the Shippegan Peninsula passenger potential.

Corbin spoke of one man, in particular, who came into the Bathurst station destined for the Lower Gloucester area. He said the chap had to stay overnight at a hotel and then hitchhike the next day because there was no bus running.

The City of Bathurst brief declared the North Shore area was the heaviest per capita user of rail passenger service in the province or even the Maritimes, that existing passenger service was inadequate, and that alternative modes of travel were either poor or completely lacking.

The panel was told supplementary rail services which could expand existing demand were either lacking or poorly coordinated. Mayor Duffy predicted the passenger potential form Bathurst would be increasing markedly over the coming years with one large mine expanding, extensive mining exploration underway and at least one other mine seriously considering going into producton.

The city's brief also recommended a separate study be made of the usage levels of the Moncton-Montreal segment of the Halifax-Montreal operation in order to determine the loss, if any.

Again in reference to the Atlantic Region Inter-Modal passenger Study, the brief noted 62 per cent of the rail transportation origins were in the segment between Moncton and Campbellton.

The brief further recommended improved service be instituted for the North Shore-Moncton segment to provide "convenient frequency and timing."

It was stated the demand by Bathurst area residents was solidly based on government, economic and social grounds and the area was "poorly served" by other means of travel.

Mention was made of the fact that both road and air transportation were subsidized to a great extent.

The Labor Council brief also emphasized the need for "better and faster" rail service in the region, for upgrading existing equipment and track beds and for fares which would promote more use of an "energy conscious means of travel."

Close Shave

Stopping in an unfamiliar barber shop for a shave, the young bachelor took a fancy to the manicure girl and suggested dinner and a show that evening. "I don't think I ought to," was her shy reply. "I'm married." "Why don't you ask your husband," the lad suggested. "I'm sure he wouldn't object." "Ask him yourself," she shrugged. "He's shaving you!"

Appointments In The Diocese

A number of ecclesiastical changes in the Diocese of Bathurst have been announced by Bishop Edgar Godin:

Rev. Leo Vienneau, pastor of Christ the King Parish in Allardville has been named pastor of Saints Simon and Jude Parish in Grand-Anse, replacing Rev. Edmond Ouellette who has been named pastor at Pont Landry.

Rev. Ronald Roy, who was assistant priest at Our Lady of the Snows parish in Campbellton has been named pastor at Allardville.

Rev. Gerald Leger, C.J.M., former professor at Bathurst College, will be pastor at St. Theophile's Parish in Maisonnette, while Rev. Edgar Lavoie, C.J.M., former chaplain at the Hotel Dieu in Saint Basile, has been named pastor in Saint Anthony's Parish in Miscou, replacing Rev. Ubald Theriault who has been transferred to Saint Sauveur.

Rev. Lionel Comeau, who while being chancellor of the diocese was responsible for the Parish of Saint Bernadette in Saint Sauveur, has relinquished his functions as pastor, to become full-time chancellor.

Rev. Sylvio Doiron, c.s.c., former chaplain at the Universite de Moncton, will join the Diocesan Team for Spiritual Renewal at the Saint Joseph Retreat House in Bathurst.

Informative Report On Seminar Presented At CNIB Board Meeting

Rehabilitation services were commenced for three young persons in the Bathurst area registered as blind and with progressive eye conditions during the past three months, it was reported at the June 8 meeting of the Gloucester County Advisory Board, Canadian National Institute of the Blind.

A young man from Robertville is taking an eight-week rehabilitation course at the CNIB residence, Fundy Hall, Saint John, and another blind young man from Bathurst will take a similar course in September. Such training often leads to gainful employment.

The cost for accommodation and tuition is being paid for by the N.B. Senior Rehabilitation Department, it was stated.

The meeting, presided over by the board chairman Glendon Eddy was held at the Legion Hall. The institute was represented by A.A. "Tony" Boudreau, district administrator.

A young lady from St-Simon engaged in a two-year course toward the position of rehabilitation counsellor is doing very well, Mr. Boudreau said. Canada Manpower is paying 85 per cent of her training allowance and other expenses along with the remaining 15 per cent is being underwritten by the CNIB.

Mr. Boudreau reported two items in particular concerning a seminar on the prevention of blindness held in Halifax April 27 were of particular importance. These concerned amblyopia or lazy-eye, and rubella, or German measles.

Mr. Boudreau said some children may only use one eye because both eyes do not function together, and if nothing is done before the age of six, the result is usually one blind eye.

All children should have an eye check, either before or shortly after the age of four. This eye check could be done at clinics, or at home by the Public Health Nurses or the V.O.N., providing, of course, that these nurses know the proper technique for such evaluations.

Such a service would make it possible, no doubt, for many children to go through life using both of their eyes instead of one, the district administrator said.

In New Brunswick within the past couple of years, five children were born with multiple handicaps due to the rubella syndrome. This situation is brought about by German measles infection during the first eight weeks of pregnancy.

Rubella syndrome children may have as many as three handicaps including blindness, deafness and mental retardation.

There are 26 known deaf children due to rubella.

The immunization program in New Brunswick is effective, and it is being improved, Mr. Boudreau said. People may lose their immunity against

Modified Tax Bill Possible

The New Brunswick Government is expected to introduce a modified version of its earlier proposal for royalties and a revised mining tax in a new bill to the provincial legislature in the near future.

The bill is scheduled to be presented as a revision of the province's Mining Income Tax Act.

An earlier proposal called for the imposition of a royalty equal to 2 per cent of the net smelter returns and a revamped tax on earnings related to a company's investment base. The two companies affected by an introduction of mining royalties would be Brunswick Mining and Smelting Corp. and Heath Steele Mines.

It is understood that the government has modified its position on tax revisions and the royalty base following representations by the provincial mining industry and, notably, by Brunswick Mining and Smelting.

"The industry presented some good points.... there was quite a dialogue between government and industry," commented a senior provincial government official.

Air Operations To Be Expanded

From the Ottawa Bureau of The Northern Light

Air Bathurst Ltd. will be expanding its operations with federal approval for an aerial inspection, reconnaissance and advertising service.

The Canadian Transport Commission's air transport committee has given the company authority to operate the service in addition to its existing flying training and charter services.

The application by Air Bathurst Ltd. satisfied the committee that the company has the necessary finances, aircraft and facilities to provide the service.

Mrs. Kenneth Colpitts, Fredericton, and Mr. Hazen Knowles, Hamilton, Ont., spent last week visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Knowles, Sand Hill.

Canadian Tire Corps. purchased several trees and Manager Barry DeWolfe (left), assisted by Mr. Doucet and Couns. Lavoie, begins the planting.

BATHURST JAYCEES' TREE DAY A SUCCESS

The city is richer by over 200 trees (ash and maple), thanks to the general public and the City of Bathurst who purchased and planted the trees on both public and private properties.

"I thank the Jaycees who sponsored the event and the individuals who bought the trees, the Minister of Natural Resources Roland Boudreau for the brochures that were distributed, and city council, for supporting what I hope will be an annual event," stated Councillor Lavoie.

A report by the chairman is expected to be presented at the next city council meeting.

A sincere thank-you is expressed to Ronnie Doucet and members of his committee.

The first Bathurst Tree Planting Day which is hoped to be an annual event, was termed a success by Ronnie Doucet, chairman of the project, despite the cool weather.

The Jaycees, with the assistance of the Department of Natural Resources and City Council, decided to be sponsors of the project after being approached by Councillor Jean-Paul Lavoie. Also approving and giving their support, was the Bathurst Tree Commission.

County Project Wins Approval

Health and Welfare Minister Marc Lalonde has announced the approval of 44 projects in the Atlantic Provinces to be funded through his department's Health Activities Summer Employment Program for Students (HASEPS) at a cost of $232,171.

Under the terms of the program 120 post-secondary students in these provinces will obtain summer employment with the voluntary health and health-related organizations which have received funding HASEPS is a program of the Health Programs Branch of the Department of National Health and Welfare administered with the assistance of the Canadian Public Health Association.

A total of 61 project applications were received from the region of which 72 per cent were funded. The allocation of funds was based on population and regional student unemployment figures. Many worthwhile projects could not be funded due to the limitation of available funds.

Among projects approved for New Brunswick was the microfilming of patients' medical files at Caraquet's Hospital de l'Enfant Jesus at a cost of $6,267.

Weekly Prayer Meeting Report

The weekly English prayer meeting of the Peace, Joy and Love Prayer Community was held Monday at the House of Prayer, College Street.

The community was honored to have as its guest speaker, Mrs. Ursula Bleasdell, more familiarly known as "Babsy", a pioneer in charismatic renewal in Trinidad.

Mrs. Bleasdell led the group in praise and worship of "Our Lord, Jesus Christ."

The theme of the meeting evolved around the gifts of the Holy Spirit, and the teachings dwelled on excerpts taken from the prayers and invocations found in the breviary, whereby "we are called upon to praise and glorify the Lord and be free in His Spirit."

Readings were from Corinthians, chapter 12, and John, chapter 4.

Mass was celebrated by Rev. Gregory Sampson and Rev. Gregory Culligan.

Fellowship was enjoyed after the mass.

Bible reference: John 14: 25-26 – These things I have spoken to you while yet dwelling with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things, and bring to your mind whatever I have said to you.

Mr. Eddy announced that $18,000 was required to continue the many services to blind people and the work for prevention of blindness in the county.

It was reported that Dr. Alexandre Savoie would organize fund-raising campaign committees throughout the county with Mr. Boudreau in order to improve results.

The blitz in Bathurst was set for Sept. 27 and the campaign is under the chairmanship of Dr. Savoie and Mrs. F. J. Hay.

Present besides those already mentioned were the board secretary, Mrs. Lillian Beauchamp, Sister Edna DeGrace, Miss Gail Fellows, Mrs. Harper Smith, Jacques Chamberlain, Hugh Currie, Nick Dimitroff, Wilbur Elhatton, Rev. J. Emile Fournier, Harold Hicks, N.A. (Gus) Higgins, Kenneth Hussey, Yves LaPlante and Pius Theriault.

Still In Effect

In Pakistan, a new law requires that the value of the dowry and wedding gifts given newlyweds cannot total more than $500, under pain of a $1,000 fine and a year in prison. Meanwhile, Greek dowries can be anything from a small olive grove on the edge of the bride's village to high-priced real estate in Athens. The dowry is entrenched in 32 civil codes in Greece, and current moves to abolish it are highly controversial.

ASSUMPTION ACADEMY DRAMA NIGHT A SUCCESS

Grade 8 and 9 students of Assumption Academy held their annual Drama Night in the auditorium of the school on Monday evening, June 6

Two plays were presented - grade 8 doing a three-act melodrama, "Mumbo-Jumbo", and grade 9 a three-act comedy, Donald Payton's "Rest Assured"

Both the audience and judges were enthralled and astounded at the work produced by these junior high students, under the direction of their English teacher, Mrs. Veronica Stever

Individual trophies were presented in four categories. The best supporting actress trophy went to Laura Anne Payne (grade 9), for her role as Mildred, the maid, the "Rest Assured". Best supporting actor was Danny Lanteigne (grade 8), for Dr. Amahandra in "Mumbo-Jumbo". Best Actress was Sheila Sivret as Jessica in "Rest Assured". Sheila was also awarded, the best actress trophy last year when she played Emmy in "A-Feudin' Over Yonder". Best actor was Gary Legacy as the little Italian, Luigi, in "Rest Assured"

The best play trophy, presented by the principal, Brother Jean-Marc Tennier, went to grade 9 for "Rest Assured". These same students captured the best play trophy last year, as well, for "A-Feudin' Over Yonder"

The successful evening concluded with the students, for the third consecutive year, presenting their teacher, Mrs. Stever with a beautiful bouquet of pink roses in appreciation of her work and devotion to them

Mrs. Stever expressed her thanks to the students, but stressed that they, themselves, are the real winners

Student hostess of the evening, Laurie Heckel (grade 8), thanked the judges, Glen Glazier, Silvana Bosca, Donald Brown and Vaughn Boyle for their comments of encouragement to students whom they consider possess "great potential in the field of drama"

More Volunteer Workers Needed

The local Red Cross Friendly Visiting Committee held its regular monthly meeting in the Red Cross Room of the Courthouse on Wednesday, May 18.

In attendance was Miss Sally Miller, R.N., from the Red Cross Division office in Saint John, who is co-ordinator for the Friendly Visiting Program in New Brunswick. Miss Miller offered helpful suggestions for the voluntary operation of the project in the Bathurst area

Chairman of the local committee, Rev. Dr. E.R. Woodside, presided, and Mrs. Mildred Hatheway acted as secretary. Representatives from social welfare agencies were also in attendance and all joined in the interesting and informative discussion revolving around the Friendly Visiting Program

During the winter months and continuing through until the end of June, it has been possible, with the aid of an LIP grant, to engage a staff of four persons, a supervisor and three field workers, to set up the organization of volunteer visitors who become friends of senior citizens living alone in the community

To date, some 256 referrals have been received at the office on St. Patrick Street. These referrals have come from various sources, including the clergy, doctors, social workers, friends, relatives, etc. Of these, 180 senior citizens are already receiving visits from 50 volunteers and the present staff

More volunteers are needed in order for all those in need of help and friendship to be served, especially after the LIP grant expires at the end of June. Individuals, service club, church organizations, etc. are urged to give this further and continued support in order that many senior citizens who need help to maintain their own homes, independence and a happier way of life may receive this type of loving service

Maritimes Will Bear The Brunt

Despite our distinct ethnic image, the people of the Atlantic Provinces are probably the most resolutely Canadian of Canadians, writes Alden Nowlan in an essay written for the Atlantic Canada section of The Financial Post's Report on the Nation

This isn't as paradoxical as it may sound. We look to Canada in almost the same way as the last tattered shreds of the Empire look to Britain. Like the Falkland Islanders and the inhabitants of Gibraltar, we fear any conceivable change in our status would leave us worse off then we already are

Ever since Nov. 15 we've felt like small children who have overheard their parents talking about divorce. Ask anyone in the Atlantic Provinces if he believes Quebec will separate and he'll almost certainly answer "no", but there won't be much conviction in his voice. In this part of the country we're in the habit of expecting the worst

The consensus here is that if Quebec leaves, Canada will disintegrate. Everybody - barber, cabbie, senator - points to Bangladesh as an example of what happens to a country that's geographically bisected. Economically and culturally, the comparison is absurd - but maps are highly potent symbols. Color Quebec blue and the other provinces pink and you'll have set up a barrier more effective than a line of customs houses

Sheltered Workshops Favored By Minister

The importance of sheltered workshops for the mentally retarded was stressed May 27 by Social Services minister Leslie Hull, who said a system of grants to assist in the operation of such sheltered workshops had been approved.

Those vital dollars should begin flowing into your organization by the end of July," he said.

Speaking at the annual meeting of the Canadian Association for the Mentally Retarded, in Moncton, Mr. Hull had high praise for the association and its accomplishments.

"CAMR is growing," said the minister, "not only in size but in community stature; in the nature and scope of its activities and in its capacity for planning."

He noted that the focus of CAMR activities seemed to be shifting gradually. There is more emphasis on the family support services where handicapped children are involved, he said.

"CAMR is entering the sphere of what organizational writers call the Third Sector; that organizational activity which is not profit oriented nor government, but rather non-profit voluntary service sector."

He spoke of CAMR goals as aimed at increasingly normalized life styles for the mentally retarded, and with the operation founded on a base of voluntary support.

"Your operating style reflects a co-operative approach and evidences a degree of convergence with like-minded voluntary and government service sectors," he said. He warned the association to be cautious of the challenges which lie ahead.

"CAMR is really about 'Marketing Quality of Life Issues' for the mentally retarded," he said. "You have a large and, for the most part, uninformed market place within which to work."

The continuing success of the association, he said, depends upon its ability to find new purposes and on its ability to meet new needs; in knowing the market and guiding available resources into areas of most urgent need.

Mr. Hull said he was instructing his department to engage in planning with CAMR within general policy guidelines of the inter-departmental committee on mental retardation, which will be supportive of association goals, of its operating style and of the base of community volunteer support.

"Additionally, where we can, we want to assist CAMR to further develop its capacity to research, plan and control for its resources," he said.

The first phase of the sheltered workshop program, said the minister, will consist of a grants program to the operating sheltered workshops in the province to assist with operating costs in 1977 - 78.

"Our intention is to develop a proposal which will distribute grants in an equitable manner, to the workshops", said Mr. Hull. "This requires, as you know, considerable study of the operating budgets of the workshops in the province.

Gov't Aid To Senior Citizens Substantial

Social programs must be flexible and always subject to change, Health Minister Brenda Robertson said in Saint John June 7.

Addressing the annual meeting of the New Brunswick Senior Citizens Federation, Mrs. Robertson said social programs have to be developed slowly "for if we develop policies and programs too quickly in the social area, we end up with more problems that those with which we started.

"We must always be innovating, always looking for better ways of providing," she added.

The minister reviewed the role government agencies have played in social services development in the 1970s, noting in particular the work accomplished by the Senior Citizens Bureau.

The bureau, since its inception in 1974, she pointed out, has allocated nearly $150,000 in grants to senior citizens and golden age clubs in the province. In addition, over $51,000 has been provided towards the cost of the Red Cross Friendly Visiting Program over the past two years, as well as $79,000 for the seniors' day care project at the Kenneth Spencer Memorial Home.

Financial and technical assistance has been given as well to the Saint John Senior Citizens Inc. for their hot meal program. The bureau has also been helping the federation to defray salary and travel expenses for its executive director.

The three main objectives of the bureau, Mrs. Robertson pointed out are to ensure the provision of social needs of senior citizens by establishing support and advocay services which facilitate the maintenance of independence, dignity, self-respect and self-worth of the senior citizens.

Mrs. Robertson urged the federation's members to consider what the government should do in the future to help its senior citizens.

"Without thoughtful assessments, without thoughtful recommendations from those who live the problems, solutions will be wanting," she said. "You have responded well in the past and your future participation is necessary if collectively we are to succeed."

Man And Wife Die In Collision

A two-car head-on collision late June 8 at Notre Dame des Erables, near Caraquet, claimed the lives of two elderly people and resulted in three other persons being admitted to hospital.

Dead from injuries are Henri Roy, 72, driver of one of the vehicles, and his wife, Winnifred (nee Legere), both of Trudel.

Two other passengers in the same car, Germaine Robichaud and Anita Godin, both of Paquetville, and Leonard Arsenault, 22, of Rang-St-Georges, driver of the second car, were taken to hospital in Caraquet where they were treated for minor injuries.

Mr. Roy was a son of the late Jim and Vitaline (nee Cormier) Roy of Petit Rocher and Maisonnette respectively. His wife was a daughter of the late Pierre and Elise (nee Boudreau) Legere, natives of Trudel and Paquetville. Pierre Legere's wife by a second marriage was Marie Noel.

They are survived by three sons, Ernest of Grand Anse, Jean-Paul and Odilon, both of Trudel; five daughters, Mrs. Richard Theriault (Rose-Anna) of Bertrand; Mrs. Therese Saucier of Van Buren, Maine, Mrs. Isidore Cormier (Adrienne) of Moncton, Mrs. Lorenzo Cormier (Emilienne) of Grand Anse and Mrs. Emile Albert (Evangeline) of Saint John; 30 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Mr. Roy also is survived by one brother, Leon of Juniper; and two sisters, Mrs. Marianne Hache of Robertville and Mrs. Patrice Vautour (Ida) of Trudel.

Four sisters of Mrs. Roy, Mrs. Gerard Dumont (Laura) and Mrs. Raymond Theriault (Leontine), both of Montreal, Mrs. Omer M. Theriault (Leda) of Trudel and Mrs. Leonard Theriault (Stella) of Burnsville, also five brothers, Livain, Aime, Albert, Victor, and Alban; and a half-sister, Argentine also survive.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy rested at LeGresley's Funeral Home, Paquetville.

The double funeral was held at St. Augustine Church Sunday at 11 a.m., followed by burial in the parish cemetery at Paquetville.

Cabinet Tour Almost $7,200

The tour of cabinet ministers through the northeastern part of New Brunswick earlier this year cost taxpayers $7,170.20 plus some car expenses, Treasury Board Chairman Jean-Maurice Simard told the Legislature last week.

He gave the answer in reply to a question posed previously by a member of the opposition.

"There might have been some car expenses incurred by the ministers and staff and charged to their respective departments", Mr. Simard said, "but for hotel bills and advertising in the papers and on radio, total expenditures comes to $7,170.20, of which $4,969.99 will be charged to various departments and $2,200.21 absorbed by Treasury Board."

Tree Nursery For Belledune

The government's plans to purchase 15 acres of land in the Belledune area for a tree nursery has come under fire in the Legislature.

Natural Resources Minister Roland Boudreau said Monday the province has taken an option on the land for $20,000 and plans to have the six-million tree nursery in operation this year.

But Alan Graham (L-Kent Centre) said he could not understand why the government chose to buy land for the nursery when it owns nearly 12 million acres of Crown land in the province.

Mr. Boudreau said the land was selected because of its location close to Belledune "where people could see it" and because other government owned sites were considered unacceptable.

Mr. Graham countered that if the minister wanted the nursery to be visible, he could have picked from any number of sites along the new Highway 11, 90 per cent of which he said are on Crown land.

The minister said the department checked the possibility of locating the nursery on Crown land, but was told it would take three years for the power commission to service any of the proposed sites.

He also said the price was reasonable considering some land in the Belledune area sells for $4,000 to $5,000 an acre.

Mr. Graham said he realized Mr. Boudreau would want a nursery located in his own riding of Nigadoo-Chaleur, but wondered whether the proposed site was too close to the Brunswick Mines smelter "where nothing grows for two miles around."

Mr. Boudreau said that would be no problem - the nursery will be about three or four miles from the smelter.

Had Taught At Youghal School

Rev. T. J. McKendy, Douglastown, and Rev. Maurice Leger, pastor, officiated at the con-celebrated funeral mass for Mrs. Charles Connors held at Our Lady of Mercy Church, Pointe du Chene, June 8 at 2:30 p.m. Msgr. F. Bourgeois was in the sanctuary.

The pallbearers were six grandsons, Charles and Kevin McKendy of Bathurst, Charles Connors, Kevin Leonard, and Michael and James Hickey.

Interment was in St. Joseph's Cemetery, Shediac.

Mrs. Connors of Shediac, died June 6 at Moncton Hospital after a brief illness. She was 86.

Born at South Branch, Kent County, she was the former Stella Burns, a daughter of the late James and Mary (Collins) Burns. She was the last surviving member of her immediate family.

Mrs. Connors was a graduate of Provincial Normal School in Fredericton and taught in Southern New Brunswick centres and at the Youghal School here during the 1914-15 term.

She attended Our Lady of Mercy Church in Pointe du Chene and was a member of the Third Order of St. Francis.

As a centennial year project, Mrs. Connors made contact through letters with the majority of her former pupils whose names she had worked into a special quilt some years earlier. She received many replies, and they came from every province in Canada.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Mary Leonard and Mrs. Vincent Hickey (Rita), both of Shediac, and Mrs. Arthur McKendy (Bernadette) of Bathurst, a son, Joseph, with whom she resided, several nieces and nepehews; 22 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Connors rested at Frenette's Funeral Home in Shediac.

All members of the Arthur McKendy family attended the funeral. Among those who called to pay their respects at the funeral home was Sister Claudette LeBlanc, also of Bathurst.

Pentecost Is Celebrated By Prayer Groups

A large gathering of French prayer group members met in the chapel on the N.B. Community College campus chapel to celebrate the feast of Pentecost (birthday of the church). Prayers and sharing lasted until noon, and following a luncheon at the House of Prayer gymnasium, members enjoyed a period of private prayer in the chapel where the Blessed Sacrament was exposed.

Members of the Peace, Joy and Love Prayer Community then met at the House of Prayer for a prayer meeting attended by Ursula Bleasdell of Trinidad who addressed the gathering.

The English and French groups then combined in the chapel for celebration of the Mass of the Pentecost, concelebrated by Fr. David Boudreau, Father Landry and Father Jules. Members from Tracadie, Dalhousie, Campbellton, Charlo, St. Isidore, Beresford, Caraquet, Robertville, Petit Rocher and Surrounding communities were treated to a second lunch at the House of Prayer before leaving for

Teammates Act As Pallbearers

Rev R. A. Francis conducted funeral and committal services for Stafford E. (Buster) Martin held at Elhatton's Funeral Home June 8 at 11 a.m.

All pallbearers were former Bathurst Papermakers team members and local sports figures.

The honorary pallbearers were Howard Harper, A. K. (Brub) Schryer, Emile Pitre, Mario Bosca, Gerald (Hawk) Chiasson, Ralph Burns and Ken White.

The active pallbearers were Kenneth Babin, Fred MacKay, Clifford (Clip) Kennah, Blair Chamberlain, Chester (Chet) Stothart and H.B. (Hum) Hicks.

A Legion service was conducted at the funeral home Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. by Harry W. S. MacLean.

Burial was in Highland View Cemetery, Bridge Street.

Those attending from out of town points were Mr. and Mrs. George J. Young, Bedford Basin, N.S.; and hockey player friends from the Miramichi area and other North Shore centres.

SANB Plans Provincial Convention

The annual meeting of the New Brunswick Acadian Society gave its approval over the weekend to plans for a convention of all Acadians in the province within two years to define available political options and assure participation in constitutional debate.

About 400 delegates who attended the sessions held Saturday and Sunday agreed that attempts should be made to arrive at a concensus on the political, economic, social, linguistic and cultural objectives to be followed in the next few years.

Delegates voted unanimously to accept the idea that New Brunswick Acadians recognize themselves as a "found people" who want to participate in the constitutional debate. The decision was adopted without debate or opposition.

The participants gave the society a mandate to prepare a working paper containing the political options for the convention.

The society was also given a mandate to make convention preparations a priority for the coming year and it will ask the national society of Acadians to make this its priority as well.

Jean-Maurice Simard, president of the provincial treasury board, participated in the meeting along with Youth, Recreation and Cultural Resources Minister Jean-Pierre Ouellet, and many other members of the Legislature.

Mr. Simard said politicians want a part in the constitutional debate and it is possible that the Legislature will name a committee to clear the way for a debate.

Mr. Simard also proposed that the Legislature create, before the end of the present session, a special committee comprising an equal number of Acadian and English members to examine the constitutional question.

Another decision, which was approved by the Treasury Board chairman, called on the provincial government to propose a charter guaranteeing French and English rights in the province.

Delegates also requested the society create a committee made up of representatives from different fields of the Acadian community in order to create and Acadian economic council.

Unable to attend were the following sons and daughters: Mrs. Alphonse Gagnon, Moncton; Robert Pitre, Ottawa, and Jean Maurice Pitre, serving with the Canadian Armed Forces in Victoria, B.C.

The Leonard Martels have four children, Nicole, Louise, Yves and Daniel.

There were six children and their families which include 16 grandchildren and one great-grandchild present.

Many lovely gifts and souvenirs of the occasion as well as money were received.

Mr. and Mrs. Pitre left the following Monday to spend a vacation with their daughter, Mrs. Gagnon and Mrs. Gagnon in Moncton two days in Saint John as guests of Mrs. Pitre's only brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Allard Dugas, and several days at Granby, Que., with son Leonard and family.

Group Makes Disbursements

The final spring meeting of R.E.O. Branch of the Anglican Church Women of St. George's Anglican Church was held May 18 with nine members and one guest present.

The group met at Danny's for dinner at seven o'clock and proceeded to the R.E.O. Centre for their meeting, which opened with a prayer led by the president, Donna Baker.

Hazel Carroll conducted roll call and Kathy Brown read the minutes which were adopted.

The president reported that $76 had been realized at the spring rummage sale. The treasurer's report showed a substantial balance on hand.

In old business, cards and expressions of thanks from two parish members who had received flowers and baby gifts were read.

The semi-annual disbursement of funds took place with donations allocated to Anglican World Mission, Primate's World Relief and Development Fund, Our Fair Share, missionary work in Brazil, church bulletins, Extra-dent-a-Day Fund and ACW administration costs.

Total disbursements totalled $151.75.

The group was informed that the autumn meeting of the Chatham Deanery would take place at New Bandon in September.

With reference to Dominion Store sales slips, Mrs. Baker was authorized to buy stacking tables for the branch.

The final item of business concerned a detailed and interesting report of the annual ACW meeting held in Saint John this past April.

The report was presented by the R.E.O.'s delegate, Margaret Murphy, the details of which already were noted in the local newspaper.

Theme of the annual conference was "Ourselves, Our Souls And Bodies" and the theme speaker the first day was Bishop H. L. Nutter.

Another conference highlight was the panel discussion on Theology '76 by a number of lay and clerical delegates from the Diocese of Fredericton who had attended this conference held in London, Ont.

Mrs. Murphy was thanked for her presentation, after which the meeting was declared adjourned by the president.

Convention Here In 1978

The regular monthly meeting of Sacred Heart Council Catholic Women's League of Canada was held at Sacred Heart Convent June 6.

Chaired by the president, Mrs. Dorothy Veniot, the meeting opened with league prayers led by Rev. J. E. Fournier, council director.

The recording secretary, Mrs. Rollande Furlotte read the minutes. The treasurer's and conveners' reports were heard.

A reception for first communicants and their parents was reported upon and said to have been much enjoyed.

Holy Hour on May 18 was well attended by members as well as other parishioners. Many members also attended an evening of recollection held at the monastery of the Capuchin Fathers.

Mrs. Veniot reported on the provincial CWL convention in Moncton June 3 - 5 which she had attended. She said the 1978 convention will be held in Bathurst June 2 - 4, and would be hostessed by Holy Family, Our Lady of the Rosary and Sacred Heart Councils.

The national secretary-treasurer Mrs. F. J. Hay reported that a successful pro-life day was held in May.

Plans for the annual harvest supper were discussed and the date set was October 22.

It was reported that notices concerning a CWL scholarship available to graduates have been posted in local schools.

The next regular meeting will be held Monday, Sept. 12.

Following adjournment, a light lunch was served.

Submitted For Approval

Members of Chi Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, attended their closing meetings until fall at the home of Celia Jamieson. Several guests were present, being potential members.

Ways and means as well as service committees presented projects planned for the coming year for approval of the members.

Two members, Glara Goguen and Celia Jamieson will be attending the Beta Sigma Phi convention at Sebasco, Maine, June 3 - 5 inclusive.

Program for the evening was in charge of Sandra Pentland who gave a short talk on poetry, followed by a quiz, and by Madonna McManus who spoke on her recent visit to Nassau in the Bahamas.

The members learned that the Bahamas had gained independence in 1973, after being a British crown colony for 250 years. The climate is semi-tropical and its people are English-speaking.

Following the meeting, lunch was served by the hostess.

Hospital Auxiliaries Appreciated By C.H.A.

A report on the Canadian Hospital Auxiliary meeting held May 10 - 13 was heard by members of the Chaleur General Hospital Ladies Auxiliary at its regular monthly meeting May 25.

The report, following general business, was given by the auxiliary president, Mrs. Dorothy Cyr, and Mrs. Colin Smith, secretary, who had attended the national meeting.

It was noted that the Canadian president is a New Brunswicker, Mrs. Marjorie Crawford of Sackville, and that nine members from different New Brunswick auxiliaries attended.

There are 333 auxiliaries from across Canada belonging to the C.A.H.A. and a total of 18,000 members.

Volunteer hours in the hospital amounted to 501,000 in adult work and 25,000 hours from the junior volunteers. Amount of money raised by the auxiliaries in six provinces was $2,272,952.66 during 1976.

Members were made aware of the National Education Fund available for leadership training, etc. New Brunswick already has taken advantage of this fund in sponsoring a "Well Woman Clinic" in Sackville, N.B. this past January, it was reported.

Reports were submitted by the provincial presidents as well as by all officers and committee heads.

C.H.A. SET-UP

The set-up of the Canadian Hospital Association was explained in detail, as were its functions by W. Killpatrick, executive director of Moncton City Hospital.

Mr. Killpatrick is treasurer of C.H.A. whose main function is to represent hospitals as well as hospital associations at the level of the Federal Government. As this could not be done adequately from Toronto, the C.H.A. now is in the process of moving its offices to Ottawa.

The ladies also had an opportunity of hearing Hon. Marc Lalonde address the CHA at their banquet.

Both gentlemen expressed words of appreciation to the auxiliary for having been chosen to attend the C.A.H.A. meeting in Quebec City and learning about auxiliaries across Canada, their achievements and their problems, as well as "meeting such nice people."

At the conclusion of Chaleur's auxiliary meeting, Mrs. S. Kennah, hospital representative, demonstrated to the ladies the program being set up to teach patients concerning diabetic and other programs, together with the side projects, which is made available with the donation of $500 given by the auxiliary last month.

Following adjournment, coffee and small cakes were served, a courtesy of the hospital.

REWARD

Brunswick Mining and Smelting Corp. Ltd. and Belledune Fertilizer have sponsored a study of lobster rate of growth in the Bay of Chaleur. This research programme is being conducted by Noranda Research Centre.

Approximately 2,000 lobsters have been tagged since 1973; the tag is a metal wire encased in plastic.

Since we wish to monitor the growth of these lobsters over the past winter, any fisherman who traps a tagged lobster is asked to send or bring it with its tag to the Technical Superintendent at either plant, who will pay the commercial value of the lobster, plus a reward of 5.00; the tag must not be removed from the lobster. We would appreciate receiving the lobsters alive.

Recovery of these lobsters is expected to be in the Bay area from Dalhousie to Petit Rocher.

Should anyone have no way of returning the lobsters to us, please, call us at either 522-2100 or 522-5250 and we will arrange to pick them up.

Wreath-Laying Ceremony Opens Convention

A wreath-laying ceremony took place here June 2, in the evening following a parade which initiated the 50th anniversary convention of New Brunswick Auxiliary Command, Royal Canadian Legion. Placing the wreaths at the cenotaph on St. patrick Street were Ron Bedgood, Halifax, Dominion vice-president, Royal Canadian Legion, left, Provincial Command President Mrs. Joyce Lockhart of Moncton and John Fortune, Blackville, president of N.B. Legion Command. The three-day convention ended on Saturday.

Plan Nutrition Course For September Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of South Teteagouche Women's Institute Branch, chaired by the president, Mrs. Ian Oliver, was held at the home of Mrs. Willard Payne.

The singing of O Canada, followed by the Club Women's Creed and singing of The Queen opened the meeting Mrs. Gaius Colpitts was pianist.

Mrs. John Foley read the thought for the month: They say that one in every four people is unbalanced. That about your three closest friends. If they seem okay, then you are in trouble.

Roll call showed 12 members present. One came later. There were two visitors.

It was decided that for a few months, roll call would be answered by a donation of one dollar, in order to set up a fund to supply the kitchen in the new hall.

The minutes were approved and treasurer Mrs. Alton Smith gave her report which was adopted, after being seconded by Mrs. Fred Walshe.

Mrs. Willard Payne reported cook book sales were going very well and several more were sold at the meeting.

An unsightly collection of garbage was reported by Mrs. Gerald Imhoff and the secretary was asked to write the Board of Health or Department of Environment in this respect.

It was decided there would be no meetings during July and August, and that any business arising during this time would be taken care of by the executive.

The president reported on a conversation she had with Miss Huberte Leger, the district economist, regarding a course on nutrition she would give the members. It was decided this would take place at the September meeting.

District W.I. President Mrs. Willard Payne informed the group that the district convention will be held at Danny's Colonial House on June 14 when the S. Tetagouche W.I. will be responsible for the Memorial Service with Mrs. G. Colpitts and Mrs. Kenneth Vance in charge.

Mrs. Alton Smith, delegate to the provincial WI convention at Fredericton, gave an excellent report of all activities. It was learned the per capita assessment of $1.25 per member had been upped to $1.75 and a subscription to the W.I. magazine, Home and Country now is $1.

Mrs. Smith also had purchased a copy of "The Quilt Book" for the branch. She said the sale table at the convention had realized $454 for the "home fund".

Mrs. Kenneth Ward was asked to obtain the new Regal catalogues.

Committees reported and new ones named were: sick and visiting, Mrs. Joseph Smyth and Mrs. Willard Payne; lunch, Mrs. Pat Foley, Mrs. Fred Walshe and Mrs. Gordon MacIntosh.

It was noted that September is "visitor month" and in conjunction with this, each member may bring a guest to the meeting.

Mrs. Kenneth Vance, citizenship convener, read an interesting article on The Queen's Jubilee.

Mrs. Smith reported she had given all necessary material and photos to the proper person to have the life memberships taken care of and a committee was chosen to take care of this matter.

The meeting closed with members repeating the Institute Ode after which lunch was served by the hostess, along with Mrs. Jean Claude Pitre and Mrs. I. Oliver.

IS IT SAFE?....

Are you afraid to eat food from a frozen can?

A single freezing and thawing won't affect the safety of canned food unless the seal has been broken.

The contents of a sealed can can expand during freezing and this causes the ends of the can to expand. This bulge should disappear once the can is thawed, because there is a vacuum inside the can. If the bulge does not disappear, it means air has gotten inside the can, and therefore the seal has been broken. In this case, the contents will not keep.

When canned foods are frozen, slight changes in texture sometimes occur. Creamy foods may curdle or separate after they have been frozen, but heating usually brings back the original consistency. These texture changes do not alter safety.

It is safe to leave food in the opened can as long as the can is stored in the refrigerator. Some acid foods left in the can may develop a metallic taste after being in the refrigerator for a while. This is due to the acid in the food dissolving a little iron from the can. The metal is not harmful, but some people may not like the taste. Therefore if an acid product, such as canned tomatoes or grapefruit juices, will not be used in a short time, it might be wise to keep it in a glass jar or other container instead of the can.

The discoloration sometimes seen in the liner of an opened can is harmless. The discoloration is caused when certain foods give off sulphur during processing.

An etched effect may be seen on the inside of cans, especially those which contain fruit juices. This isn't harmful either, as it is caused by the acid in the juice.

PROSE CORNER

(Ed's Note: A series of compositions written by Grade 5 students of Mary Gosnell School, concerning their trip to a Red Cross Youth picnic and several provincial points of interest, will be published in forth-coming editions of The Northern Light. The first two articles to be printed were drawn at random at the school and this "draw" policy of one or two each week will be continued.)

AN UNFORGETTABLE DAY
(By Karen Daley)

Because of Red Cross Youth, the Grade five students of Mary Gosnell School spent a very enjoyable day in Sussex.

The fee to become members of Red Cross Youth is five dollars per class. The reason for Red Cross Youth is to help the needy people and to spread peace and happiness throughout the land.

On Jan. 22, we received an invitation to the World Day Picnic in Sussex. It was because we were members of Red Cross and because we had completed three projects.

After we had the invitation, we needed permission from the School Board before we could go. The officials of the school board finally agreed to let us go, so we decided to start making plans.

In order to arrive in Sussex at 10 a.m., we had to leave the school at 5:30 in the morning. We also needed a bus to get there which would cost us $300.

Instead of each student paying $10, we decided to have sales and "slave day" to raise money. By doing that, we raised enough money so that each student had to pay only five dollars.

We were going to stop on the way home to cook hot dogs for supper, but, fortunately, the Home and School Association came up with enough money so that we all could eat at MacDonald's.

At the picnic there would be lots of people, so we needed some supervisors to keep watch over the children. There were seven supervisors to watch one class, among 2,400 children.

In the morning we had to get out of bed around 4:30 in order to leave the school at 5:30. We took our pillows with us in case we felt like sleeping on the bus.

We left the school on schedule to start our long trip to Sussex. We had a nice drive and it was lots of fun. We sang songs, teased the bus driver, and some fell asleep.

We lined up by Orville Street and waited for the parade to begin. There were 34 countries represented in the parade. Some had fancy outfits and it was really eye-catching. We all walked for a mile.

There was a man there from CHSJ-TV, and he was filming some of the classes. The next day we were on T.V.

After the parade, we all went and sat in a big field. Up at the front of the field there was a stand. One person from every class had to go up on the stand and tell everything that his or her class did for the Red Cross. We also sang two songs.

Allan Scott is the vice-president and he got up on the stand and told about everything the grade 5 of Mary Gosnell did to help Red Cross.

After the ceremony was over, we all ate our lunch. Ice cream and milk were supplied there. If anybody wanted anything more, they had to bring it themselves.

On our way home we stopped in at Animaland. There were lots of animals there. They were made out of mortar by a famous sculptor who is very good at his job.

After we went to Animaland, we went to Magnetic Hill. The bus driver drove the bus down the hill, shut off the motor, and it just rolled back up. Then we saw the water running up hill so we knew that the bus really rolled down hill.

Then we went to a wildlife park where there were all kinds of animals, but there they were real. One of the animals that I liked best was the Artic fox. It was all fluffy and white.

We stopped in at MacDonald's and had a lovely meal. We had milkshakes, fries and big macs. It was very good too.

At six o'clock, we left MacDonald's and started for home. The end of one happy day was soon to come.

I think that the most enjoyable part was when we went to Animaland. It was fun to play on all the animals that were there.

The part I didn't like was going home. I hated to leave because it was so much fun for me.

The day in Sussex was lots of fun and I would surely love to go again.

Nepisiguit WI Plans For Convention Panel

President Mrs. Herman Sealy chaired the June 2 meeting of the Nepisiguit Women's Institute Branch held at the home of Mrs. Walter Robertson.

Opening procedures were: singing of Institute Ode, repetition of Mary Stewart Collect, salutation of the flag and singing of God Save the Queen.

Roll call was answered by 12 members giving the name of a favorite hymn. The minutes read by the secretary Mrs. Walter Robertson were approved. Treasurer Mrs. Thomas Good submitted the financial report which was accepted, on her motion seconded by Mrs. George Gander.

Correspondence read and discussed included a letter from Mrs. Minnie Nevers concerning the anniversary of the W.I. Home at Sackville in May, 1978. It was decided to discuss this further at the August meeting.

Plans for the District W.I. convention June 14 at Danny's were made. The Nepisiguit branch will be responsible for the refreshment table and Mrs. Herbert Branch and Mrs. Sadie Morrison were appointed in charge of the project.

Convention exhibits are: fudge, half-type apron and knitted hat.

Mrs. Florrie Ronalds was named delegate to the convention. Mrs. Herman Sealy was made responsible for obtaining questions from the branch for a panel on Family Court, to be conducted by local lawyer, John J. Richard.

Mrs. H. Sealy invited the executive members to her home on May 18 to prepare the program for the remainder of the year.

Mrs. F. G. Comeau suggested notice of meetings be noted regularly in the BM and S Bulletin.

Mrs. H. Branch, delegate to the provincial W.I. convention at Fredericton May 16 - 18, gave an inspiring report. The convention theme was "Conservation towards a saving society."

A vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Branch for her excellent report, following motion of Mrs. Gander, seconded by Mrs. Hugh McCrea.

Mrs. H. Branch and Mrs. W. Robertson were appointed on the program committee for the July 7th meeting.

For the June program, Mrs. Sadie Morrison read an article entitled, Our Daily Task. Mrs. F. Ronalds, whose topic was Memories, spoke about the first Women's Institute meeting at Stoney Creek, Ont.

Pennies for Friendship money was collected by Mrs. McCrea.

Mrs. Clinton Glendenning invited members to her cottage at Janeville for the July meeting at which the hostesses will be Mrs. Glendenning and Mrs. F. Ronalds.

The meeting adjourned on motion of Mrs. Glendenning, seconded by Mrs. Alice Branch, after which lunch was served by the appointed committee.

K. WARREN GAUVIN

Graduates In Physiotherapy

Kathryn Warren Gauvin received a diploma in physiotherapy, with distinction, from Dalhousie University, at convocation held at Halifax May 13. She was also awarded the Tuberculosis Association Society prize.

At present, Mrs. Gauvin is interning in Winnipeg and Regina for a five-month period before returning to New Brunswick.

A 1973 honors graduate of Bathurst High School, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Warren, 910 O'Neil Drive.

CWL Meets At Jacquet River

President Mrs. Luella Roy chaired the June 1st meeting of St. Gabriel Council Catholic Women's League. Roll call showed 13 members present.

The meeting opened with the league prayer led by the council director, Rev. G. Parent.

The treasurer, Miss E. Lejeune, presented Father Parent with a cheque for the church fund. A letter from Arthur Hickey noted he had audited the treasurer's books and found them satisfactory.

It was noted tickets are on sale on the lottery of an appliqued hand-worked quilt to be drawn at the annual bazaar July 3.

Membership dues were turned in and 66 membership cards were issued, it was reported.

Sick and shut-in convener, Pat McGregor reported sending 15 get-well cards and two sympathy cards. She also said two holy mass intentions were given for deceased parishioners.

Following adjournment with prayers, Father Parent gave a summary on the different chapters taken from the book, Vatican II, which he had explained to members during past meetings.

Refreshments were served by Bea Lejeune.

First Visit In 14 Years

Among guests attending a wedding here in the family were several who had not visited their native Bathurst area for a number of years.

These particular people, all of Montreal, were in the city for the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Gervais Doucet (nee Christine Godin) which took place June 4 at Our Lady of the Rosary Church.

It had been 14 years since Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Boudreau had seen many of his local relatives and six years since his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jean-Paul Boudreau had travelled to New Brunswick.

Their sister Pauline (Mrs Jean-Guy Ouellet), and their mother Mrs. Eva Boudreau, also wedding guests, are annual summer visitors to Bathurst and vicinity.

Dedicated Service Of Many Promoted Legion Auxiliary

When the Ladies Auxiliary of Herman J. Good V.C. Branch No. 18 Royal Canadian Legion was formed 37 years ago (at that time the Legion here was known as Gloucester Branch No. 18), the first president elected at the meeting on Sept 18, 1945 was the late Mrs Chesley G. Eddy

Besides Mrs. Eddy, the following were present to form the charter members: Mrs Etta Andrews (deceased), Mrs Alice Arseneau, Miss Peggy Burke (deceased), Mrs Riordon Cripps (deceased), Mrs John Hinton, Mrs. Mary Ann Hornibrook (deceased), Mrs. Laura Kerr, Mrs. Ethel Luke (deceased), Mrs. Elizabeth Mean, Mrs. Mary Oliver, Mrs Mildred Rogers (deceased), Mrs. Sarah Shirley, Mrs. Eva Young, Mrs. Margaret Watson Mrs. Celina White and Miss Laura Willett. It will be noted that Mrs. Alice Arseneau died in Toronto May 23 of this year.

Awarded life memberships during the intervening 37 years were the following: Mrs. Waldo Bosca, Mrs. Cecil Hornibrook and Mrs. Gilchrist MacDonald, all deceased; Mrs. Harry Mean, Mrs. John Hinton, Mrs. Howard Luke, Mrs. Margaret Watson, Mrs. Robert Young, Mrs. Fenton Daley, Mrs. Bert Wallace and Mrs. Carl Hocquard.

The auxiliary has been served by 22 presidents, five of whom are deceased. They are: Mrs. C. Eddy, Mrs. R. Cripps, Mrs. C. Hornibrook, Mrs. W Bosca and Mrs. William R Manning

The 17 presidents who have headed the auxiliary including the current executive head, Mrs. Walter MacKay are: Mrs. Allan Spear, Mrs. J. Hinton, Mrs. Samuel Aube, Mrs. F Daley, Mrs. Bert Wallace, Mrs. Mario Bosca, Mrs. Anthony Van der Pluijm, Mrs. Jack Pettigrew, Mrs. William Oliver, Mrs. Henrik Wesenberg, Mrs. Carl Hocquard, Mrs. Leo Howell, Mrs. Nathan A. Higgins, Mrs. Patrick E. McLaughlin, Mrs. Howard Pettigrew and Mrs. Vernon Taylor

Members of the auxiliary in Bathurst also have served on the provincial executive organization

Currently, Mrs. Fenton Daley is the honorary president of the Provincial Command Legion Auxiliary

Mrs. Daley, Mrs B. Wallace and Mrs. N. A. Higgins all are past provincial presidents and Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. Higgins and Mrs. John Gillis are past provincial secretaries

Past councillors on auxiliary command include: Mrs. Cecil Hornibrook (deceased), Mrs. Sam Aube, Mrs. Wallace and Mrs. MacKay

All presidents of the auxiliary, along with the dedicated co-operation of their officers, committees and members, have contributed to the successful growth of the organization in Bathurst

The auxiliary as a whole also contributes towards the community in direct projects as well as offers beneficial influences in various indirect ways, all too numerous to mention.

Members who have served and continue to work within auxiliary command have made and now make their service a provincial contribution

SUSAN COLPITTS

Receives B.Sc. In Pharmacy

A former Bathurst young woman, Susan Gayle Colpitts, was awarded a Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy degree from Dalhousie University at graduation exercises held in Halifax May 13

The daughter of Mr and Mrs Kenneth Colpitts, 54 Parklyn Court, Fredericton. Miss Colpitts began her education here at Holy Family School and Bathurst High School. She graduated from Fredericton High School in 1973

Miss Colpitts has accepted a position with Gorham's Drug Store, Campbellton, commencing in early July

Guide Flag Funds Raised

Holy Family Council Catholic Women's League attended a mass for their intentions, prior to their regular monthly meeting held in the council room May 4

Meeting chairman was Ardith Russell, president, who introduced a new member who was warmly welcomed by the council

Routine business procedures include reading of the minutes and treasurer's reports which were adopted. Get well wishes were voiced for the treasurer, Mrs. Bernice Davidson, who is a patient in hospital

The president outlined highlights of the Bathurst Diocesan convention which proved an educational event for all who attended it

Members agreed to collect at the church doors after each mass, on the delegated Sundays, in support of Pro-Life Day. Mrs. Eugene Roussy is in charge of this project

Plans for the mother and daughter Brownie banquet, under the chairmanship of Mrs Emily Doucet, were finalized

A suggestion of Mrs Harvey Wilbur that members sell religious calendars was found agreeable to the council

Many members pledged to attend a holy hour of devotion for the propagation of vocations. Mrs. Russell was appointed delegate to the provincial CWL meeting at Moncton and Mrs. Roussy as alternate.

Mrs. Lucy Jarratt, in charge of the committee to raise money to purchase a new flag for the Girl Guide Company the council sponsors, reported the project was completed. The required amount was raised through a drawing on a child's knitted outfit which Mrs. Jarratt had contributed.

Council voted on a donation for Father O Parker in appreciation of his past work for the Catholic Women's League.

Need Brownie, Guide Uniforms

A pot-luck supper will be held for the East Bathurst Guides and Brownies and their parents Sunday, June 19, starting at 5 p.m.

The function will be held in the basement of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, East Bathurst.

Parents are asked to bring their favorite dish. The Guides and Brownies must wear their uniforms.

Persons having used Guide or Brownie uniforms on hand which they would like to donate to the East Bathurst Parents Association, are asked to please contact Mrs. Jeannine Vienneau at 548-8287. These will be repaired and sold for a minimum price to the Guides and Brownies.

Birthdays Celebrated

Miss Darlene Lavigne entertained a number of friends on the occasion of her fourth birthday June 7, at the home of her parents, Coun. and Mrs. Albert Lavigne, 550 Payne Court.

Present for the function were Tracy Guignard, Christopher, Jenny Lynn and Lanya Lavigne, Line Gallant, Cindy Chamberlain, Denise and Paul Chamberlain, Pauline Vienneau, Ryan and Natasha Carroll, Steven and Michael Lavigne, Lise and Mark Godin as well as Nicole Plourde from Allardville.

The previous Friday, June 3, a number of the group travelled to Allardville for the third birthday of Nicole Plourde the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donat Plourde.

Due to the prevailing rainy weather, both functions took place in the homes and indoor games and contests were a part of the entertainment.

Social And Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Rooney, Saint John, are expected to arrive Saturday to spend a week visiting their daughter, Mrs. Michael Landry, Mr. Landry and family, Hennessy Street.

Mrs. Bert Carmichael was the recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gibson, Saint John, while visiting Mr. Carmichael who has been receiving back treatment at the Ridgewood Rehabilitation Centre there for the past month.

Mr. and Mrs. James De Wolfe have returned from a three-week vacation in Great Britain, while there, they engaged in a 11-day coach tour through England, Scotland and Wales, spending the remaining time in London, and in Surrey where they visited Mr. and Mrs. John Pierce. Squadron Leader Pierce of the R.A.F. (retired) who took his basic flying training in Canada, was stationed for a while in Moncton and was a friend of Mrs. DeWolfe's family.

Mrs. F. Cormier Dies Suddenly

The death of Mrs. Theresa M. Cormier, widow of Felix Cormier, occurred at Chaleur General Hospital on June 10, the day of her 87th birthday, after becoming ill earlier in the evening.

Born at Pointe Verte, she was a daughter of the late Thomas and Elizabeth (Doran) Comeau and was the last surviving member of her immediate family.

Mrs. Cormier had resided in Bathurst since 1922 and was active in church work during her younger years. Her husband died in 1959.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Martina Morrison of Noranda, Que.; four sons, John of Kirkland Lake, Ont., Leo and Richard, both of Bathurst and Edward of Salmon Beach; 27 grandchildren and over 40 great-grandchildren.

A daughter, Yvonne, died in childhood in 1933 and a son, Alphonse of Red Rock, Ont., died in 1975.

Mrs. Cormier rested at Elhatton's Funeral Home.

Rev. J. Emile Fournier, Rev. Cleo J. Hache and Rev. L. Arseneau officiated at a concelebrated mass held at Sacred Heart Cathedral Monday at 4 p.m.

Members of Bathurst Fire Brigade formed a guard of honor at the funeral home and church.

The pallbearers, all grandsons, were Brian McElligott, Ronald, David, Maurice, Henry and Richard Cormier.

Interment was in the parish cemetery, King Avenue.

Those attending from out of town included Mr. and Mrs. Peter Harmatiuk, Richard Cormier, Red Rock, Ont.; Henry Cormier, Thunder Bay, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bernier, Waterville, Me.; Mrs. Martina Morrison, Noranda, Que.; Brian McElligott, Ormstown, Que.; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Thomas and family, Tracadie; Mr. and Mrs. Alphose Comeau, Dalhousie; Mr. and Mrs. Zoel Comeau, Charlo; B.J.D. Oliver and Ralph Hicks, Fredericton, representatives of N.B. Liquor Corp., and several representatives of liquor stores in the Northeast District as well as relatives and friends from various North Shore centres.

A grandson from Bathurst, Richard Cormier, was unable to be present, due to being hospitalized in Montreal for surgery.

Season Busy For Kinettes

Bathurst Kinette Club members have been very active throughout the spring season, it was noted at their recent meeting.

The rummage sale held in April proved a successful project. Unsold clothing was donated to the People's Distribution Centre, King Avenue.

The Kinettes catered to two dinner meetings for the Bathurst Kinsmen Club during May and June.

Election night was held May 4 and the following officers were elected for 1977-78.:

Linda Kenny, president; Aurea Poirier, vice-president; Lucille Desjardins, secretary; Jane Branch, treasurer; Claudette Boudreau, registrar, Elizabeth Chiasson and Sarah Landry, directors.

Installations and the official turning-over of the books will be held jointly with the Kinsmen Club June 20 at Danny's.

Kinettes donated a slide projector set to the Flowers of Hope Training Centre and also made donations to the Kinsmen national building fund and Cystic Fibrosis Assn.

Members continued to chauffeur members of the Canadian Council of the Blind Bathurst Club to functions on request.

The club hosted the Newcastle Kinette Club for a social evening on May 18 and returned the visit June 8 at Newcastle.

The closing meeting of the year will be held Wednesday, June 15 at the Youghal Beach cottage of Jean Kenny, where annual reports will be presented. The "Kinette of the Year" will be elected and "secret pals" will be revealed.

YOUR BUSINESS

British Celebrate The Good Life

By VINCENT EGAN
Business and Consumer Affairs Analyst
Thomson News Service

Jubilees are a time for celebrating, and the British - as any TV viewer has surely been noticing - are wholeheartedly celebrating the 25th years of the reign of Elizabeth II.

Celebrations are one of the things that the British do best. The jubilee pageantry demonstrates not only a deep loyalty to the Crown and a strong feeling for tradition (a repository of wisdom that other nations too often neglect). It also illustrates the high priority that Britons place on leisure.

Officially, Monday and Tuesday were declared holidays to mark the jubilee. Unofficially, large numbers of Britons decided to get an early start on the four-day weekend by not working part or all of the preceding Friday.

(City streets, highways and motorways leading out of cities were jammed with traffic that day, as I can confirm from first-hand experience.)

No one begrudges the British their "hols." But a visitor would look in vain for any hint of concern about the continuing British economic crisis, or about the energy shortage (Gasoline costs the equivalent of $1.50 to $1.65 a gallon, but the high price has no visible impact on consumption.)

HOW IT WAS

The twenty-fifth anniversary naturally turns one's thoughts toward a review of the economic developments that have occurred since 1952.

On June 7 of that year (a Saturday), The times of London had this headline: England's Struggle. It turned out to be an account of a cricket match between India and England, won by England.

The newspapers also reported, less prominently, that a socialist politician named Harold Wilson had warned of a simultaneous financial and unemployment crisis, and another parliamentarian had said "too many people seem to think the world owes them a living."

That statement, to be heard over and over, wasn't simply hyperbole. Although they wouldn't put it in those words, many Britons did - and do - feel that their individual financial security should be the responsibility of the state.

Governments, in response, have gone far to meet that expectation, with a comprehensive (if badly over-burdened) National Health Service, extensive public housing, a state education system and generous pensions.

Social security on such a grand scale has given Britons a peace of mind that they never enjoyed before - but at the price of a drastic drop in the value of the pound sterling, a chronic foreign-trade deficit, and a sharp decline in international influence.

UNIQUE PRIORITIES

What outsiders have difficulty in grasping, perhaps, is the fact that the British have priorities - security, leisure, class standing - that they cherish as deeply as, for example, West Germans cherish productivity or the Japanese cherish innovation.

It gradually dawns on an outsider, too, that the British economy has its unique character. Just as the British drive on the left, so does the British marketplace appear to be (turned around: It is the consumer who caters to the supplier, not the reverse.

This may be the legacy of wartime and postwar supply shortages, or it may represent the triumph of socialism over private enterprise--

But it is apparent throughout the market system - in the deference shown by consumers of all types of goods and services, and in the arbitrary conditions and hours that merchants and suppliers of service impose upon their customers.

To an outsider, that may resemble life through a looking glass.

To the British, however, it means the good life - a life that calls for celebrating.

YOUR WEEK AHEAD By DAMIS

Forecast Period
June 26 - July 2

ARIES Mar. 21-Apr. 19 — Frustration and concern over money problems creates conflict. Why not delay action till tensions ease.

TAURUS Apr. 20-May 20 — Restlessness prevails. Channel your high energy into projects requiring physical exertion. Improve health thru exercise.

GEMINI May 21-June 20 — Investigative activities may be carried on behind the scenes in order to avoid opposition. Frustration and aggravation makes the workload heavy.

MOONCHILD June 21-July 22 — Conflict or disagreement with friends could lead to costly errors in groups or organizations. Be wary of risky enterprises.

LEO July 23-Aug. 22 — You are determined to get a promotion and can do just that by putting a little more energy into the job.

VIRGO Aug. 23-Sept. 22 — Caution is advised while traveling. You could find yourself in a demonstration or conflict that is none of your concern.

LIBRA Sept. 23-Oct. 22 — As with Virgo, don't expose yourself to situations of potential violence. You could find yourself involved more than you bargained for.

SCORPIO Oct. 23-Nov. 21 — Avoid disagreements with superiors, mate, or partner, and do not become drawn into such. This week brings much business activity.

SAGITTARIUS Nov. 22-Dec. 21 — Be careful on the job. If you use tools or machinery handle with care. A great deal is accomplished this week.

CAPRICORN Dec. 22-Jan. 19 — Physical activity provides much pleasure. Violent horseplay could bring hurt!

AQUARIUS Jan. 20-Feb. 18 — Homelife may be a little upsetting. But then...it's these unexpected happenings that add zing to the ordinary.

PISCES Feb. 19-Mar. 20 — Drive with care. This could be the week you are presented with a citation from the cop on patrol.

Sports Report Is Presented

A report by the provincial sports co-ordinator, Mrs. Mary Watling of Chatham, was given at the recent annual meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary, N.B. Command, Royal Canadian Legion held in Bathurst.

The report brought delegates up to date on curling, darts and bowling on the provincial competition level.

The provincial dart shoot was held at Kennebecasis Branch No. 58 with eight districts represented: Miramichi, Bathurst, Shediac, Kennebecasis, Jarvis Bay, Beaver Brook, Woodstock and Milltown.

Winners of the shoot the Shediac team, with Kennebecasis ending in runner-up position. Next year's tournament will be hosted by Shediac.

A McAdam rink won the provincial auxiliary championship in the 10-team bonspiel held at Woodstock Curling Club. Entries were from Moncton, McAdam, Chipman, Woodstock, Hartland, Fredericton, Edmundston, Perth-Andover, Hampton and Cross Creek.

Runner-up honors were captured by a Chipman quartet.

The Edmundston Curling rink will be the scene of the 1978 play-offs.

The annual bowling tournament was played at the Marysville Bowling Alleys with Oromocto members officiating as the hostess auxiliary.

The 15 teams entered included Marysville, Oromocto, Fredericton, Sackville, Shediac, Moncton, Bathurst, Sussex, Minto, Campbellton, Edmundston, Newcastle, Chatham, Napadogan and Salisbury.

Tournament honors were captured by Fredericton with 93 points, followed by Oromocto to 86, Napadogan, with 10 points, received the consolation award.

The 1978 tournament will be held in Fredericton.

Following each play-off, the respective annual banquets took place and trophies were presented.

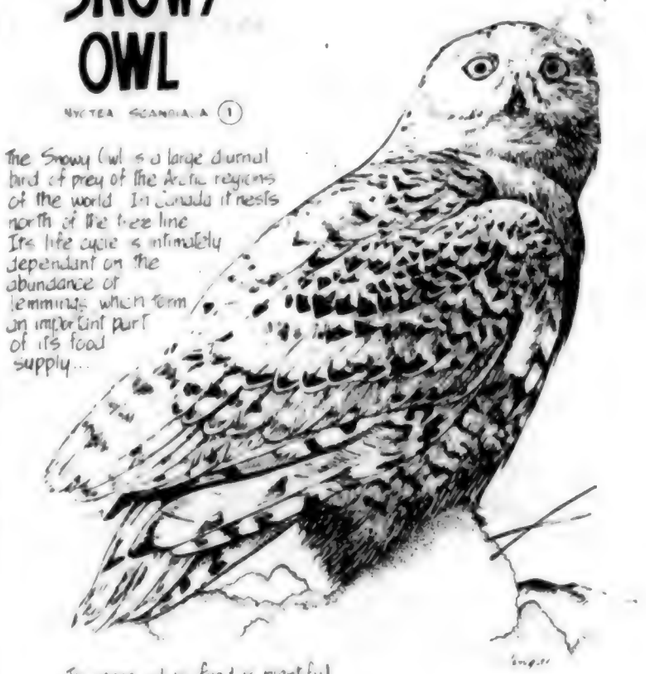
SNOWY OWL

NYCTEA SCANDIACA (1)



The Snowy Owl is a large diurnal bird of prey of the Arctic regions of the world. In Canada it nests north of the tree line. Its life cycle is intimately dependant on the abundance of lemmings which form an important part of its food supply...

In years when food is plentiful the Snowy Owl reproduces. In years of scarcity nesting does not take place and the birds wander off to the south. These cycles occur every 4 or 5 years.

Society Review Now Available

The Nicholas-Denys Historical Society, founded in 1969, is dedicated to the history of Northeastern New Brunswick.

Since 1970, the society has been publishing a historical review containing many items of historical value to the region. The society also operates a research centre at College de Jesus Marie in Shippegan where historical documents, photographs and microfilm are kept for consultation by local historians.

The latest issue of the review is just off the press and contains two articles written by Eloi DeGrace of Bathurst and Msgr. Donat Robichaud of Beresford.

Mr. DeGrace's article is dedicated to the United Church building and cemetry in Shippegan and shows the importance of this historical site.

Msgr. Donat Robichaud, a well-known historian, is the author of a history of Shippegan published last fall. In this issue,

PTE. DAVIDSON

PTE. BABIN

BEGIN ELECTRONICS COURSE

Two young Bathurst men graduated from the three - month basic training course at Canadian Armed Forces Base Cornwallis, Nova Scotia, during impressive ceremonies held May 26.

The graduates are Pte. R. Gary Babin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Babin, 1330 Youghal Drive, and Ross S. Davidson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Davidson, 588 Stout Court.

Pte. Babin, a graduate of Bathurst High School, won runner-up honors for recruit in the platoon. Pte. Davidson who is also a BHS graduate, merited the top award as best marksman.

Privates Davidson and Babin left the day following graduation ceremonies for CFB Kingston, Ont., to commence a course in electronics.

Present from Bathurst for the graduation were Mr. and Mrs. K. Babin, Peter and Linda Babin, and Mr. and Mrs. L. Davidson.

Another young Bathurst High graduate, Peter Blackmore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jed J. Blackmore, 380 Evangeline Dr., graduated the previous week, May 19, from Base Cornwallis.

Public Invited To Tour Plant

The New Brunswick Electric Power Commission has extended an invitation to the public to visit the site of eastern Canada's first nuclear generating station at Point Lepreau. The public is welcome to visit the information centre and reception area, and take weekend bus tours of the construction site.

The information centre at Point Lepreau is open seven days a week 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. from June 4 through Labour Day. The Saturday-Sunday bus tours operate from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and take about a half hour. The tours are free.

Construction at Point Lepreau is reported to be well advanced. After more than two years of construction that started in 1975, a number of major contracts are nearing completion and the overall project is taking on recognizable shape.

The 166-foot reactor building dominates the site. Rising next to the reactor building is the structural steel frame of the turbine building which will reach an eventual 178 feet. Structural steel is also being placed for the service building and turbine auxiliary bay.

Nearly 900 construction personnel are employed on 15 major on-site contracts. This number is expected to increase to well over 1000 by mid-summer as a number of major contracts are awarded.

Guides will be available.

The information centre contains a variety of displays - photos, diagrams, working models - designed to explain how the power of the atom is harnessed to produce electricity. Brochures will also be available for the general public explaining NB Power operations and generating systems.

For those visitors who want to enjoy a closer view of new Brunswick's Fundy coast from Point Lepreau, they can follow a short path from the reception area to a scenic lookout.

Access to the reception area and information centre parking facilities and construction site is off Route 1 - linking St. Stephen and Saint John - and on to Route 790. Once on Route 790 signs will direct visitors to the site.

Dies In Florida Burial In City

The death of Rene O Boucher, a one-time resident of Bathurst, occurred suddenly Feb. 17 at his residence at Fort Walton Beach, Florida. He was 72.

His wife, the former Regina Boyle of North Teteagouche predeceased him in 1958.

A native of Arichat, N.S., Mr Boucher was a retired Royal Bank of Canada Bank manager. He had lived in Bathurst a number of years ago and lived in Buctouche for many years.

Surviving are one son, William of Moncton; one daughter, Mrs Harold Noble (Ann) of Fort Walton Beach, and five grandchildren.

Surviving also are two sisters, Mrs Stella McCloud of Calgary, Alta and Sister Denise, Tampa, Fla; two brothers, Berchmans of Edmundston and Amedee of New York.

The funeral was followed by cremation at Pensacola, Fla.

Mr Boucher's ashes were interred here in the family plot in Our Lady of the Rosary Church parish cemetery, St Peter Avenue on May 28. Graveside prayers were conducted by Rev. J. W. Roche, parish priest.

Tribute Paid Alain Poirier

GRAND ANSE — The death of Alain Poirier, 18-year-old son of Heliodore and Juliette (Degruchy) Poirier of Grand Anse, occurred June 5 in Montreal.

Surviving besides his parents are two brothers, Yves and Luc at home and one sister, Mrs Gerald Thibault (Sylvie) of Montreal.

Mr Poirier rested at LeGresley's Funeral Home, Grand Anse.

The funeral was held at St Simon and St. Jude Church in Grand Anse Thursday at 4 p.m.

Burial followed in the parish cemetery.

Town Names Committees

The first regular monthly meeting of the new Tracadie Town Council held Thursday, June 9 saw the appointment of various council committees.

Committees, and their chairmen, are as follows:

Finance - Gerard LaPlante (Chairman), Reginald Basque, Andre Morais.

Administration - Andre Morais (chair), Gerard LaPlante, Reginald Basque.

Public Works - Reginald Basque (chair), Michel McLaughlin, George McLaughlin.

Safety - Victor Luce (chair), Michel McLaughlin, Camille Ferguson.

Industry and Tourism - Michel McLaughlin (chair), George McLaughlin, Camille Ferguson, Elvy Robichaud.

Recreation - Elvy Robichaud (chair), Andre Morais, Camille Ferguson.

A special committee established by council under the chairmanship of George McLaughlin will deal specifically with air cadets in the municipality. Other members of the special committee are Camille Ferguson and Elvy Robichaud.

Mayor Henri Thomas, who chaired the session, announced that councillor Ferard LaPlante will resume his post as Tracadie's deputy mayor.

ShippeganMember HandedSuspension

Refusal to withdraw a remark made in the Legislature Friday, June 10 has resulted in a two-day suspension for Andre Robichaud, Liberal member for the riding of Shippegan-Les-Isles.

Mr. Robichaud was handed the suspension because he refused to withdraw the word "scab" which he used in discussing the issue of whether school boards should be allowed to replace unionized custodial workers with private contractors. It was the first time in several years that a member of the house has been suspended on a ruling by the speaker.

Mr. Robichaud persisted in using the word although the speaker said it was offensive to the house. Finally, Mr. Woodroffe "named" him. After a member has been named, a motion may be introduced calling for his dismissal for a period of up to two weeks.

Premier Richard Hatfield introduced a motion that Mr. Robichaud be suspended for two days. The motion passed in a vote along straight party lines, and Mr. Woodroffe asked Mr. Robichaud to withdraw from the legislative chamber.

"I don't think I have to", said Mr Robichaud. Mr. Woodroffe called the Sergeant-at-Arms, Leo McNulty. Mr. Robichaud offered no physical resistence, but became the first member since the late 1950s to be escorted out of the chamber by the sergeant-at-arms.

Later, Mr. Robichaud reappeared in the balcony above the legislative chamber which is intended for the general public.

The incident was another in a series of developments in an opposition campaign on behalf of the province's 3,000 non-teaching school board employees.

During the June 9 question period, Mr. Robichaud said he felt the government was encouraging school boards to hire scabs. Mr. Woodroffe said he considered the word most offensive to the house and ruled the question out of order.

Mr. Robichaud said he totally disagreed with the ruling, but the matter was dropped for the time being.

On the following morning, Mr. Robichaud read from a dictionary the definition of scab - a worker who does not belong to a union and does work which is normally done by union workers. He said he did not accept the speaker's ruling that the word was offensive.

Mr. Woodroffe said he stayed with his ruling, and Mr. Robichaud had no choice but to accept it. However, he did not appear to wish a confrontation on the question, and made as if to pass on to other matters.

But Mr. Robichaud said, "If I don't accept the ruling does it stay like that?"

"Do you respect the chair?" Mr. Woodroffe asked. Mr. Robichaud was silent.

"I have made a ruling and you have no choice but to accept it unless you appeal to the house."

Mr. Robichaud said he wanted to appeal but Mr. Woodroffe said he thought it would be a waste of time.

Again it seemed the issue had been dropped as discussion turned to other matters. But some time later, the Shippegan member asked the premier if it was still the government's intention to hire scabs to destroy the union of non-teaching workers.

Mr. Woodroffe asked Mr. Robichaud to withdraw the word and told him if he did not withdraw, he would be named to the house.

Mr. Robichaud said, "Mr Speaker, I know you ruled and I appealed your ruling and asked for a decision of the house not very long ago, but no action was taken on it. I think that was my privilege and I humbly submit that it should have been done. I still go according to the dictionary. I don't accept that ruling, I appeal it and ask for a division of the house."

"Mr. Robichaud, you refuse to withdraw?"

"Yes".

"Hon. member for Shippegan les-Isles, I name you to the house". Mr. Woodroffe stated.

the review deals with the adventures of the miller of Beresford, Athanase Boudreau. This man escaped the deportation of 1755 and went to Quebec, returning to New Brunswick many years later and settling in Beresford where he worked as a miller and blacksmith.

Many readers will certainly enjoy the legends from Robertville as well which Sister Rita Cormier collected from Wilfred Cormier in 1976.

The review is now available at Book Village in Bathurst at $2.50 per issue.

NBEPC Capital Works Program Is Revealed

The New Brunswick Electric Power Commission has budgeted nearly $292 million in the current fiscal year for its capital works program.

Commission Chairman Bill Cockburn said May 30, "The largest single item is for ongoing work at the Point Lepreau Generating Station."

Over $45.5 million has been budgeted for work at conventional thermal generating stations, including $43 million for Unit No. 2 at the Dalhousie generating station. An additional $2 million has been budgeted to complete work at the Coleson Cove project. Over one-half million dollars will also be spent for various capital projects upgrading existing thermal stations.

An amount of $8.3 million has been earmarked in the budget for this year's workload at the Mactaquac generating station. Work underway on the installation of units 5 and 6 will be stepped up considerably under this budget.

Just under $16,320,000 will be spent on transmission line construction in 1977-78, including $6 million for the 345,000 volt line from Coleson Cove to Salisbury. The 138,000 volt line from the Moncton terminal to Buctouche and St. Louis will require $1,500,000 and $1,889,000 has been budgeted for line extensions on Deer Island and Campobello Island and the submarine cable from Campobello to Grand Manan.

During the 1977-78 period investigative studies will continue on Fundy Tidal Power and the Maritime Energy Corporation. Varying amounts have also been budgeted for studies of Green River, the Grand Falls redevelopment and Dickey Lincoln School project. Development study of peat moss for thermal generation and studies to improve generation at headponds and possible pumped storage projects at Tobique and other locations have also been allocated funds in the budget.

Cockburn pointed out that each item in the budget was carefully studied in terms of customer needs in the coming years. Although the budget is the largest in the commission's history it is still extremely modest in the face of load growth being experienced at all levels throughout the province.

Cockburn added that the year just completed on March 31, 1977 was an extremely busy one for the commission. Although financial statistics are not yet available, sales of energy in the province totalled nearly 6.5 billion kilowatt-hours, an increase of over 15 per cent of that of the preceding year. Cockburn also said a net increase of 7,281 customers were added to the system, approximately 6,600 of them being residential customers. Energy use increased in each category of sale within the province over the previous year; residential by 16.4 per cent, general service or commercial by 7.2 per cent and industrial power by 18.7 per cent.

Details On Uranium Program Available

Maps, profiles and data compiled under the Canada - New Brunswick Uranium Reconnaissance program are available to the public from the Department of Natural Resources, in the Centennial building, Fredericton, Natural Resources Minister Roland C. Boudreau announced May 31.

This data is also available at the libraries of the Geological Survey of Canada, the southern regional office of the department, content of stream sediments in Charlotte and parts of Saint John, King, Queens, Sunbury, ment of Natural Resources, Sussex, the northern regional office in Bathurst, and the Public Service Centre, Ontario Ministry of Natural Resources, Whitney Block, Queens Park, Toronto.

In addition, said the minister, maps showing the uranium York and Carleton counties will be available at the same locations.

Airborne gamma-ray spectrometer data were acquired over an area of approximately 55,000 square kilometers in New Brunswick during the summer of 1976 with flight lines located at 5 kilometer spacing, said the minister. The field operations and the compilation of maps and profiles were carried out under a contract supervised and monitored by the Radiation Methods Section, Geological Survey of Canada.

The information, released jointly by the federal Minister of Regional Economic Expansion, Marcel Lessard, Energy, Mines and Resources Minister, A. W. Gillespie and Boudreau, is designed to stimulate uranium and related mineral prospecting within the province.

Funding is borne by all three departments, with 80 per cent of the province's share paid by DREE under the Minerals and

Region Included In N.B. Health Survey

Residents of six New Brunswick communities have been selected to take part in a pilot study being held in advance of the nation-wide Canada Health Survey.

The study, being conducted from June 20 to July 5 and July 18 -29, will involve 144 households in Saint John, Fredericton, Chatham and rural areas near Bathurst, Hartland and between Moncton and Sussex. Households have been chosen at random by Statistics Canada which is co-sponsoring the survey with the Department of National Health and Welfare.

A simulation of the Canada Health Survey which begins in 1978, the New Brunswick test includes all the elements of the survey. An interviewer will visit each household and complete a general questionnaire about its members, their health and use of health care facilities. Each member of the household over 15 years of age will be asked to complete a confidential, self-administered questionnaire focussing on the lifestyle areas of exercise, smoking, alcohol use and driving.

In one-third of the households, a second visit will be made a few days later, by appointment. On this visit, a nurse will accompany the interviewer and will conduct a series of physical measures and tests. These involve measurements for height, weight, skinfold thickness, and blood pressure, taking blood samples to assess immunity and other risk factors, and administering the Canadian Home Fitness Test which measures heart-lung efficiency. Every member of the household will be asked to participate in this physical measures test; all measurements will be taken in the home. Results of the tests will be mailed to participants and, with their concurrence, to their family doctors.

The Canada Health Survey is being developed to obtain better data on the health status and risk exposure of the Canadian population and to complement existing information which now comes primarily from vital statistics and medical care records. Provincial and federal governments, professional associations and university researchers will be using the information for health planning purposes. Approximately 12,000 homes -- 40,000 individuals -- will be visited each year once the on-going survey begins next year.

The Canada Health Survey is unique among similar studies in its content and design. While surveys undertaken by other countries focus on morbidity and health care delivery, the Canadian study places more emphasis on lifestyle and positive health. It is also more extensive and convenient, using interviews and physical measurements obtained from participants at their place of residence. Other studies require participants to visit a survey clinic or, if conducted in the home, use only an interview to procure information.

New Minister Changes Tune

Joseph Guay, in his days as Government Whip in the Commons, was known to his parliamentary colleagues as Mr. No. He was one of the handful of Liberals designated to shout "no" to deny the Opposition the unanimous consent required for certain motions. The leather-lunged Guay got to perform this task just about every day, since the government rarely agrees to Oppositions motions.

The way things are going, Mr. No could be renamed Mr. I'll-Let-You-Know, writes The Financial Post. Last month, the former shoe merchant from St. Boniface, Man., was appointed minister of state responsible for multiculturalism. It's no secret that the main reason Guay is in the Cabinet is that he's from Manitoba, where Liberals are scarce.

His obvious unfamiliarity with his new portfolio has made him an easy target for Opposition MPs during the daily question period in the Commons. Hardly a day goes by when Guay isn't asked about some aspect of multi-culturalism policy, and he invariably tries to dodge the question.

One of his chief tormentors, Conservative Steven Paproski, asked Guay recently to tell the Commons what new programs he was planning as minister. Guay said he would give his reply in writing because there wasn't time in the question period format to do it verbally.

"It will only take 20 seconds", Paproski replied. Fellow Tory Ray Hnatyshyn interjected: "If you tell him everything you know, it will only take five seconds."

Mrs. A. Frigault Mourned By Many

LOWER CARAQUET — The death of the former Lorette Leger, widow of the late Henri P.N. Lanteigne by her first marriage, and of Alfred Frigault of Lower Caraquet by a second marriage, occurred June 4 at her residence at the age of 79.

She was a daughter of the late Prospere and Christine (Lanteigne) Leger of Lower Caraquet.

Surviving besides her husband, A. Frigault, are five daughters and two sons of her first marriage, Mrs. Gerald Friolet (Amanda) and Mrs. Aurele X Lanteigne (Liliane), both of Lower Caraquet, Mrs. Eugene Robichaud of St. Jean-Iberville, Que., Mrs. Lawrence Battah (Noella) of St. Leolin and Mrs. Nicholas Leger (Jeanne d'Arc) of Toronto, and Pascal of Lower Caraquet and Aurelien of Caraquet, 46 grandchildren and 30 great-grandchildren.

She also leaves to mourn two daughters and eight sons by her second marriage: Mrs. Roland Levesque (Florentide) of St. Andre, Brownburg, Mrs. Gilbert Rioux (Gretta) of l'Ile d'Orlean, Que., Alyre of Moncton, Emilio of Valleyfield, Que., Laurie and Auredore of Brownsburg, Que., Dismas of Toronto, Donatien of St. Stephen, Normine of Sault Ste-Marie and Evangeliste of Caraquet, as well as one brother, Nazaire Leger of Allardville.

Mrs. Frigault rested at Racicot's Funeral Home, Caraquet.

The funeral was held at St. Paul's Church, Caraquet, Tuesday at 7 p.m. Interment was in the adjoining parish cemetery.

Canada Presented As Collection Of Regions

By MICHAEL WALKER

The spectre of Quebec separation, although in itself a potentially disastrous force for Canada's development, has had the positive effect of causing Canadians to think clearly and carefully about the concept of national unity.

One of the consequences has been the re-emergence of strong regional sentiments similar to those that characterized the era in which Canada was born.

A timely and important contribution to this process of national re-think is provided by Canada and the Burden of Unity (Macmillan, 188 pages, $12.95 cloth, $6.95 paper), a collection of historical essays by seven professors, edited by David Jay Bercuson of the University of Calgary. In spite of its title, the book has almost nothing to say about the Quebec question.

The central theme of the book is to demonstrate that Canada is fundamentally a collection of regions, and that diversity of needs and interests rather than singleminded national purpose is the fact of Canadian nationhood.

While this notion of the Canadian mosiac is not a new one, the extent to which the existing "unity" has been artifically constructed to serve central Canada's economic requirements will probably come as a surprise to many readers.

In this book the East and the West of Canada are viewed as hinterlands providing raw materials and markets for the manufacturing industries of central Canada.

NATIONAL POLICY

Representing a kind of neo-colonialism, what has been called the National Policy is here seen as a tool of "a mercantile elite, with support from a small core of Canadian and American industrial capitalists". The National Tariff Policy (adopted as a result of the Depression of 1879) and national freight rate structure are seen as the instruments for the economic subjugation of the resource hinterland to the industrialized metropolis.

In attempting to assess the arguments in the book one wavers from the belief that they are the product of paranoia to an uncomfortable feeling that the authors have hit the spike on the head.

For example, the authors remind the reader that the Parliament of Canada can in principle sit as a duly constituted body and vote on any issue without a single representative of Canadians west of Ontario or east of Quebec.

That, together with the fact that the Senate, intended as the watchdog of regional interests, has proved both figuratively and literally to be a rather toothless legislative instrument, lends credence to the central-Canada colonialism hypothesis.

Four of the essays are concerned with the Maritime provinces and together they provide an interesting insight into the historical backdrop against which current regionalist sentiments must be viewed. In the context of these essays, regionalism is not revealed as a negative divisive force but rather as a positive, constructive concern for the special needs of regions that is essential to a strong, unified nation.

WEAKER REGIONS

The consensus of opinion in these essays is that the interests of unity have not been well served historically by the tariff and railway policies of the Federal government inasmuch as they have produced a weaker Maritime region. Moreover, these difficulties persist.

There is no consideration of the very rich history of the internal struggle that preceded Newfoundland's joining Confederation. Likewise, British Columbia receives only passing mention - which is unfortunate given the current resurgence of separatist sentiments in that province.

Two essays on Western Canada principally the prairie provinces - provide interesting analyses of the evaluation of a national transport policy that always has been and remains the major bone of west-east contention.

The conclusion, that the solution is a "well defined and rational western transportation policy, backed by provincial governments willing and able to act on their own if necessary," raises more questions than it answers about the role of the central government in a unified federation.

FORGOTTEN CHILD

The evaluation of Western politics has tended to amplify the built-in central-Canada bias of the electoral system. Westerners have consistently backed opposition parties, and have in recent years excluded themselves and their region from the ranks of the governing Liberal party.

This development and the consequent forgotten-child position of the West has in turn enhanced western isolation and resentment.

Perhaps reflecting its concern with the fragmentation of regionalism, the book is not well integrated. It spans a considerable range of ideas, history and regions. However, the book's editor does provide a good introduction which, if read in conjunction with the essays, provides a reasonable linkage between the topics covered.

Undoubtedly, many readers will find the anti-national thrust of this book disquieting, but, whatever their predelictions, readers cannot help but have a different perception of the national unity issue when they have finished.

Typical Investor

According to a recent survey, the typical New York Stock Exchange share owner is 53 years old, has an annual household income of $19,000 and owns a portfolio worth $10,000. Women shareholders outnumber men by a slight margin, though men own considerably more shares with a much greater market value. Approximately 40 per cent of the Exchange's shareholders are retirees, housewives and unemployed adults.

WINS CAMPER WITH ALL THE TRIMMINGS

THE NEW LOOK AT KENT'S SUPERMARKET

Renovations of the interior at Kent's Supermarket have improved shopping facilities tremendously. Four new checkouts were installed at the Main Street entrance allowing improved service for customers. The meat and produce departments were also the victims of a complete change, receiving new and modernized refregerating units.

Landings Top 1976 Figures

Figures released June 9 by Fisheries Minister Omer Leger show that New Brunswick's commercial fishermen landed 2,857.6 metric tons valued at $1,322,572 from January to March this year. The figures represent an 11 percent increase in value and a 15 percent increase in average price over the same period last year. The volume was down four percent.

Ground fish catches were up by volume and value by 34.3 and 31.1 percent respectively. The average price of codfish remained constant.

The pelagics and estuary landings registered a four percent decrease in volume. However, the volume and the average price accounted an increase of 13 and 18 percent respectively.

Mollusks decreased in volume and value by 25 and 26 percent respectively, although the average price remained at the same level.

Crustacean catches decreased in volume and value by 30 and 5 percent respectively, but were up 46 percent in average price. Only figures for lobster landings are available for crustaceans.

Within the miscellaneous category of landings, only herring scale statistics are presently available. They show an increase in volume and value of 90 and 81 percent respectively and 100 percent increase in the average price.

March landings showed a substantial decrease over the same period last year. It resulted from the late break up of ice this spring.

Statistics on the volume, value and average price of landings are supplied by Environment Canada's fisheries and marine branch, while those indicating percentage increase or decrease were compiled by the provincial department of fisheries.

Federation Calls For Improved Rail Service

In a submission to the final New Brunswick hearing of the Railway Transport Committee in Campbellton June 10, the New Brunswick Federation of Labour has called for "serious and innovative efforts" on the part of the federal government to expand upon and improve the existing level of railway - passenger services in the Maritimes.

"...the federal provincial agreement that improved passenger transportation can best be achieved by providing special assistance for upgrading bus and air services followed by changes to existing rail services is totally unacceptable to ourselves," stated the Federation in its submission.

Expressing strong opposition to any move to further reduce railway-passenger services in the Maritimes, the NBFL argued "Rail transport, more so than bus auto and air transportation, offers a more favourable mode of travel in terms of average family finances ecology, fuel consumption and environmental factors."

Safety, weather and social and economic considerations also warrant increased promotion and expenditures in relation to rail services, suggested the Federation.

The 46,000 member labour body sharply criticized what it called "pre-judging" of hearing results and cited several events which it suggested seem to have predetermined that a reduction in existing passenger-train services in the Maritimes was justified regardless of the findings of the RTC.

Its criticisms included:
- a directive by federal Minister of Transport, Otto Lang, for the guidance of the Canadian Transport Commission that there should be a basic single network of rail passenger services across Canada;
- the federal provincial agreement to upgrade region bus and air services at the expense of rail passenger services;
- late public release of the Atlantic Region Inter-Modal Passenger Study;
- Disclosure of federal plans to provide $125 million in highway and transport support to the Atlantic Provinces;
- announcement of the CTC preferred plan for one transcontinental train daily in western Canada.

The NBFL in its submission charged that "the history of railway-passenger transportation services in Atlantic Canada has been one of neglect and deliberate downgrading in the interests of air and auto travel.

"Managerial decision-making, both on the part of the railways and government, has long encouraged and supported inadequacies in rail passenger operations as a matter of policy," stated the brief.

It suggested the railways were anxious to unload their responsibilities for passenger services and government was slow to accept that railway-passenger subsidies are inevitable if residents of Western and Eastern Canada are to have available to them a level of transportation services approaching that of Central Canada.

"The recent federal decision to subsidize 100 per cent of rail passenger losses hinges on a reduction in the level of service thereby aptly demonstrating government's unwillingness to invest the level of funds required to expand and improve upon existing railway-passenger services," observed the brief.

The Federation accused the railway companies and government of being reluctant to upgrade rail passenger services at the same time vast sums of public money are being channeled directly and indirectly into air and highway travel.

"... It is hardly possible to improve service without vastly increasing costs, especially in the form of capital investment for badly needed new equipment," declared the NBFL in arguing for improved rail passenger services.

The brief also reserved extensive criticism for the federal provincial Atlantic Region Inter-Modal Passenger Study stating, "....we find it to be short on facts and based largely on questionable assumptions and estimates."

"The use of pre-1976 statistics which the railways themselves concede to be unreflective of current ridership trends heighten the dubiousness of the Study's findings," noted the Federation in reference in the Study to the economic impact of any reduction in rail passenger services, the NBFL claimed large numbers of workers would be affected at a time of record high unemployment and that the affects on the area's economy would be "catastrophic" were existing rail services reduced to one daily transcontinental train.

"In terms of wages for train crews, catering and customer services personnel, and station employees the annual expenditure involved is approximately $14 million," stated the brief. "Of this amount, we estimate approximately $9 million would be lost to the area economy."

"And this is to say nothing of the additional train maintenance, clerical and supervisory jobs that would be affected, as well as the indirect spin-off affect on local railway centered economies," it added.

Among specific recommendations put forth by the Federation relating to improvement of existing railway transportation services were:
- the early introduction of new, high-speed train equipment;
- increased emphasis and expenditures on the maintenance and improvement of rail passenger tracks;
- coordination and improvement of regional bus services to complement train travel;
- the introduction of a rail fare structure more competitive with air and bus services;
- continued location of stations in downtown areas and re-location of bus stations to adjacent localities to facilitate bus-train through travel.

Congratulations

A college freshman wrote his father to announce that he'd landed a part in the school play. "I play a man who's been married for 24 years," the student wrote. "Congratulations, son," his father wrote back. "Keep up the good work and next year maybe they'll give you a speaking part."

Gov't Publication An Idea Generator

By STEWART MacLEOD
Ottawa Bureau
Thomson News Service

If the federal government wouldn't inundate us with so much written material, perhaps I could keep abreast of such helpful publications as "Thirty-six Ways To Put Bilingualism To Work For You"

But it's impossible to devote attention to these books when one is desperately trying to concentrate on that $33,000 contract for "technical assistance to the Canadian organization for the simplification of trade procedures in the refining and implementation of the trades system".

Now, several months after "Thirty-six Ways to Pub Bilingualism To Work For You" has been published, I am determined to push everything else aside and read it from cover to cover. Because, despite my difficulty with English, I have always had this incurable fascination with language books.

This interest stems from my introduction to second-language phrase books, in this case German-English phrases designed to help Germans on their first trip to London. The first useful phrase I spotted was, "I want bail".

Later, I came across a Flemish-English phrase book for the benefit of Belgians in England. And a suggested useful phrase was this aside: "Lo, I fear our coach has been struck by lightning." As a matter of fact, few phrase books contain useful sentences - at least you can never find them when you need them.

VERY SIMPLE

This new government publication, prepared in co-operation with the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, doesn't specialize in phrases. It is meant as a guide for businesses operating in areas where two languages are spoken. It's a slick publication, all 35 pages of it, with brilliant color photographs, but like many government booklets it tends to be a bit simplistic.

For instance, firms already operating in two languages, are probably already aware that "as a general rule, you should write your customers in their own language".

And: "When preparing French correspondence, it is important to use a typewriter equipped with the various French accents."

Another suggestion that only government could invent: "Make sure your translation work is undertaken by a person competent in that field".

Helpful hints just roll out. "Communicating in both languages gives customers better service and increases a company's share of the potential market".

Hear, hear.

I haven't been able to determine just how much it cost to produce the 30,000 copies of this document, but certain phrases give me the impression the job could have been done more effectively by the authors of that Flemish-English book.

MAKES SENSE

"In a bilingual area, to be effective, signs should be bilingual...."

Without being presumptious, I feel I could have authored that providing I had an hour or so to think about it. And for a small additional fee I could have matched this little nugget of logic in the book: "If you are going to have bilingual signs, it makes common sense to have them properly produced."

Hear, hear.

Another one that won't find any disagreement involves advertising.

"If you want to get your message to both language groups, it has to be produced in English and French."

The authors even pose questions for the benefit of businessmen who can't think of their own.

"A frequent question is: What language should be given priority in the presentation of a company name? The answer is usually to give both languages equal importance. That is the ideal solution."

Yes. I think I'll add this language book to my collection. While it lacks the flair of the Flemish-English phrase book, it has an endearing basic quality that's worth preserving. And, as its authors say, its purpose is "to act as an idea generator".

I want to see how long it will take me to generate my first idea.

FOR BATHURST YACHT CLUB, A MISSION ACCOMPLISHED

These "before" and "after" pictures speak for themselves and represent the successful completion of an ambitious project undertaken by Bathurst Yacht Club.

Dating back to July, 1976, the story unfolds as follows:

After waiting two years for a concrete answer from government sources, who, at one time, offered to match dollar for dollar on a proposed marina, and finally being turned down, members of Bathurst Yacht Club decided to take the situation into their own hands.

Determined to see the end of these unsightly and inadequate conditions, they awarded a contract for rebuilding the wharf part of their property to a Caraquet firm, Comeau and Savoie.

Part of the work was completed last year and the remainder this season. The overall cost, $50,000 in round figures, was covered from accumulated club funds.

The sporting facility is generally considered an asset to Bathurst as a recreational pursuit, and those responsible for the renovations to the dock are being commended for their initiative.

In addition, the vessels moored in the surrounding waters provide a picturesque complement to the landscape in this particular section of Downtown Bathurst.

The clubhouse itself, also ideally located on property owned by Consolidated Bathurst, is well-appointed after renovations representing an investment of almost $20,000. Membership is well over the 300 mark and growing, and more than 125 boats are affiliated with the organization.

In passing, it is only fair to say that the club's principal benefactor has been the local paper company, which granted a 15-year renewable lease at the nominal sum of $1.00 per year. Without such a consideration, Bathurst Yacht Club would never have become a reality.

NEW QUARTERS

Bathurst Labour Unions Assn. Inc., through its president, Kevin O'Connell, has confirmed the purchase of the former Save-Easy building at South Bathurst from Atlantic Wholesalers Ltd.

Since their former location on St. Patrick St. was destroyed by fire in March 1975, the association has been without permanent quarters. The recent acquisition, after considerable search and research, will now adequately fill this need.

Purchase price of the property has not been revealed but after an undisclosed down payment a mortgage in the amount of $85,000 remains. A renovation program totalling approximately $20,000 is now in progress.

The new facilities are described as a great improvement over the old. Included are two large meeting rooms separated by folding doors, a conference or board room, and dart and card rooms. There are also bar and club accommodations and lots of off the street parking space.

Expected to be in actual operation within a month, the Labor Temple, as it is familiarly known will be open to women members in future, a drastic change from past policy.

FIRST ON AGENDA

Coincident with his recent re-election to office, Mayor John A. Duffy introduced a new procedure at city council meetings: all sessions open with prayer.

The mayor himself was the first to ask the blessing and this pattern will be followed at consecutive meetings, each and every councillor around the table officiating in turn.

His Worship said he was

Police To Handle Morality Question

The "low standard of morality" at a local beverage room which was protested by Rev. W.M. Loader of the Evangel Pentecostal Tabernacle at Monday's City Council meeting will be investigated by the City Police Department.

In a letter to council which was accompanied by a 54-name petition, Rev. Loader scored the form of entertainment at La Flamme Beverage Room, and called upon council's aid in taking some action which would discourage other similar businesses from opening.

Questioned by Councillor Hilaire Brideau, City Manager Pierre Marquis said he had no knowledge of any complaints to date, and added the city may be able to take action under the Municipalities Act.

However, Coun. Douglas Williamson said he had been contacted regarding the situation, as were Mayor John Duffy and Police Chief David Camp. "Inspectors are currently in and out of that establishment like flies", he noted, "but they can do nothing unless the liquor licence rules are violated. We should direct citizens to make their objections known to the Liquor Licencing Board and maybe then something can be done."

Coun. Joe MacNeil, on the other hand, felt the minimum drinking age of 19 would automatically prevent young people from viewing such shows, and he stated council "can't dictate to people what they can or cannot see. It's their choice."

Councillor Hugh Campbell made a motion to have the police department prepare a report on the problem, which suggestion was approved unanimously.

Provincial Funding For Roads, Water, Sewage

The City of Bathurst will receive approximately $165,000 in 1977 for improvements to provincially designated highways in the municipality.

A letter from Transportation Minister W.G. Bishop read at Monday's council meeting informed councillors that about $115,000 is destined for recap on Route 134 from the Tetea-gouche River to the northern city limits, and approximately $50,000 for base on Route 8 proceeding in a southerly direction from the junction of Route 11.

These two areas were considered to be top priority in the municipality, and council was requested to submit plans and specifications, which must be approved by the department.

GRANT INSUFFICIENT

In a second communication from Municipal Affairs Minister Horace Smith, council learned the city will receive $100,000 as a stimulation grant for the 1977-78 fiscal year.

Mr. Smith pointed out that if the amount is not sufficient, the city should apply to the Municipal Capital Borrowing Board for permission to borrow the remainder. The minister also asked for project plans and specifications as soon as possible so that work could begin in the near future.

While councillors expressed some disappointment in the amount of the grant, the letter was accepted by council.

City Manager Pierre Marquis explained the money was to have gone toward the installation of water and sewage on Rough Waters Drive from Payne Court to the Bypass and on Bridge Street to Little Brook Subdivision. However, to keep the rate down to $15.25 per foot frontage, the city would need a grant of $300,000. Mr. Marquis said the administration would review the situation to determine how much work can be done and return to council with a full report.

Who Decides On Street Names

The authority to name streets in newly-developed subdivisions in the city was the topic of some discussion Monday evening at the regular session of Bathurst City Council.

The subject arose out of a draft resolution dealing with the naming of streets in Jamieson Subdivision in Hachey Ward.

Asked by Councillor Joe MacNeil who had the authority to name the streets in question, City Engineer Geoff Greenough said the Planning Advisory Committee usually recommended the names, although council has final approval. He added subdivision plans cannot be approved without street names.

Coun. James MacLaggan, who is a member of the Planning Advisory Committee, remarked the committee would rather not deal with street-names whatsoever. However, he reminded council that the plan could not be approved without names, and he felt the resolution should be passed rather than delay the project.

Coun. MacNeil, however, pointed to the custom of naming streets after former mayors and councillors. "I don't see any mayor's or councillor's name here".

Taken to a vote, council decided 5 - 2 in favor of passing the plan immediately. Councillors Doug Williamson and MacNeil were against the motion, while Couns. Ken Frenette, Albert Lavigne, Hugh Campbell, Hilaire Brideau and Jim MacLaggan approved the motion.

Students Seek Accommodation

Bathurst citizens are being urged to open their homes to students attending the N.B. Community College in order to accommodate the increasing enrollment at the institution.

In a letter to City Council read Monday night, Pauline Pelletier-Badman, liaison officer for the college, announced a new program in technology for the coming year, which

Harbor Is Labelled Ecological Tragedy

From the Ottawa Bureau of The Northern Light

Caraquet Harbour was described as an ecological tragedy at a recent meeting of the standing Commons' committee on fisheries and forestry.

The director of the environment department's land directorate in the Atlantic Region, Gordon Beanlands, singled it out as an excellent example of how pollution has destroyed the local shellfish industry.

It has been estimated that the oyster beds of Caraquet, if clean, could yield an income for residents approaching $1-million annually. The bay contains very productive oyster beds, he explained, but is also "the recipient for contaminants from commercial developments, two sewage treatment plants, two fish plants, ribbon cottage developments, a large number of boats, and for good measure, a major piggery."

"Is it any wonder that most of the oysters in Caraquet are not fit for human consumption?" he asked the committee. "It is not difficult to understand why virtually every major populated estuary and harbor is closed to shellfish harvesting."

The entire Maritime region from the inshore shellfish industry totals $1.2 million annually "a mere fraction of the potential value of the resource."

There are now 214 shellfish closure areas in the Maritime provinces.

Mr. Beanlands described the deterioration of coastal water quality as the most chronic disorder in the Atlantic provinces.

That includes, he added, the degradation of beaches by dredging and sand and gravel removal.

As an example he pointed to Tracadie Harbour where the entrance was dredged in 1963 and since then has lost about 50 per cent of its recreation capacity.

"The beach is expected to recede a further 100 feet before the system is once again stabilized," Mr. Beanlands said. "This particular beach used to accommodate about 115,000 visitors per year, and represented one of the best recreation areas in the region. Today it is a mess."

Meanwhile, he added, the harbor is gradually filling with sand, which is moving in from the dredged channel, yet Tracadie is not an isolated case, he said. About 80 dredging permits were issued under the federal Ocean Dumping Control Act during 1976 and already in 1977 more than 100 have been approved.

Much of the material that is dredged has been found to contain high levels of oil and PCBs, Mr. Beanlands said, "further evidence of the chronic water quality.

GRADUATE FROM BUSINESS TECHNOLOGY COURSE

Nine students graduated from the Business Technology Division at the N.B. Community College June 19. The two-year course was conducted by Romeo Doucet, head of the accounting department. Other instructors for the course were Robert Roy (accounting), Paul Perry (administration), Ginette Vienneau (statistics); Sheila Harper (English), Theophane Blanchard (French); and Maurice Roy (data processing). Sunday's program began with a mass celebrated at the campus chapel by Rev. Achille Maillet. The graduation ceremony was presided over by Gerard Raymond, vice-principal. Guest speaker was Richard Savoie and valedictorian was Therese Roy. Closing remarks were by Hector Sonier, director at the college. A light lunch was served to the graduates and guests at the end of the program. Front row from the left are: Collette Theriault, Allardville, Jeanne Bertin, Allardville, Therese Roy, Beresford, and Collette Morais-Fortin, Bathurst; back row: Lorne Losier, Tracadie; Gisele Basque, Tracadie; Lucille Hachey, Petit Rocher; Anne Chiasson Bathurst and Jean-Guy Gallien, Haut St-Simon.

City Teens To Enjoy Full Slate Of Events

Concerts, canoe races, coffee shops and a "gong show" are but a few of the activities in store for the teenage set during Hospitality Days, to be held this year July 6 - 10.

The first teen-oriented event in connection with the annual summer celebration is actually a pre-festival activity. On Monday evening, July 4 at 7:30 p.m., the teen commission, captained by chairman Miles Meagher, will take on the Bathurst Police Force in what has been described as "the most entertaining basketball game ever to hit Bathurst", to be played at the Bathurst High School gym.

On Wednesday, July 6, a "Good Time Travelling Show" featuring the ever-popular Finnigan will give teens a taste of the good times at Bathurst Arena, beginning at 8:30 p.m.

Thursday at 12 noon will see the debut of what could turn out to be the most enjoyable event of the entire festival as far as teens are concerned. The teen commission has reserved the downtown bandstand for a gong show to be held over a period of three days, with the final judging and presentation of the grand prize set for noon Saturday.

Patterned after the hilarious television program of the same name, the local show is open to all. Three judges will be on hand to lower the boom on contestants, and a master of ceremonies will make an effort to keep some semblance of order.

Canoe-racing follows at the Yacht Club at 2 p.m., and teens can enjoy a coffee shop with a local group, Wayward Wind, at 7:30 p.m. Thursday evening.

At 7 p.m. Friday, coffee shop entertainment will be Maytricks, followed at 7:30 p.m. by a presentation of the three-act comedy Harvey at Nepisiguit High School auditorium by Bathurst Community Theatre Inc.

All teens are invited to take part in the car wash at LeBlanc Junior High Parking lot at 10 a.m. Saturday, and to take in some disco dancing at the coffee shop at 7 that evening. Also at 7 p.m., Community Theatre will stage its second production of the festival, the title of which is to be announced.

On the final day of the festival, teens can enjoy a picnic at the LeBlanc Junior High parking lot at 2 p.m. "Little Woodstock", as the closing teen dance is being called, will feature several bands from the area and will be held in conjunction with the giant fireworks. Full canteen service will be available at this event, an outdoor activity to be held in the junior high parking lot as well.

Council Won't Purchase Land

A draft resolution which recommended approval of an agreement between the city and the executor of the Gordon Carter estate, Guy Branch, was rejected Monday evening at the regular meeting of Bathurst City Council.

The agreement called for the purchase of 6375 square feet of land off Riverside Drive for the sum of $5,000. In addition, the contract would allow Mr. Branch's livestock to drink from the brook indefinitely.

Councillor for Kent Ward, Joe MacNeil, felt the price, about 60 cents per foot, was very high, and he wondered whether the city would be responsible for the cattle since the water would then be on city land. He felt the city should investigate the possibility of damage suits before agreeing to the proposal.

Voting in favor of the motion to adopt the resolution were Couns. Hilaire Brideau and Douglas Williamson. Against were Couns. Hugh Campbell, Albert Lavigne, Jim MacLaggan, Ken Frenette and MacNeil.

Mayor John A. Duffy and Coun. Robert Hodgins were not in attendance. Deputy Mayor Jean Paul Lavoie very capably chaired the meeting in the mayor's absence.

Council Discusses NIP, RRAP Programs

A letter from the president of the New Brunswick Housing Corporation regarding the continuation of the Neighbourhood Improvement Program beyond 1978 was read at the regular City Council meeting Monday.

The communication was in response to inquiries raised earlier this year as to the extension and continuation of the program.

President K. C. Scott noted that both matters concerned federal policy, and he assured council that N.B.H.C had made application to Ottawa for NIP extensions.

"The Province has not designated new NIP areas due to budgetary restrictions", said Mr. Scott, "but N.B.H.C supports the program and will recommend new NIP areas when our current commitments are fulfilled."

It was recommended the letter be filed until new NIP applications are required in 1978. In the meantime, Mr. Marquis said, the city is awaiting approval of the final stages of the program in Ryan Ward.

Also in connection with NIP, a slight misunderstanding regarding federal support for the Urban Residential Rehabilitation Assistance Program was cleared up in a letter from the manager of the Fredericton Office, Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation.

C. G. Leclerc assured City Council that RRAP entitlements for municipalities with NIP programs will continue until the necessary housing rehabilitation in these areas is completed.

The Fredericton official noted, however, that the RRAP program is affected by current fiscal restraints and he advised council to distribute the fund allocation with the objective of maintaining program activity throughout the year, ensuring an even flow of work.

City Manager Pierre Marquis told councillors the $300,000 in RRAP are being fully utilized and the program would be maintained to its full effect until the end of the year.

Drama Group Is Commended

The "wonderful drama work" being carried out by Bathurst Community Theatre Inc. received a note of praise from Coun. Doug Williamson Monday, who felt the group merited some help from the city.

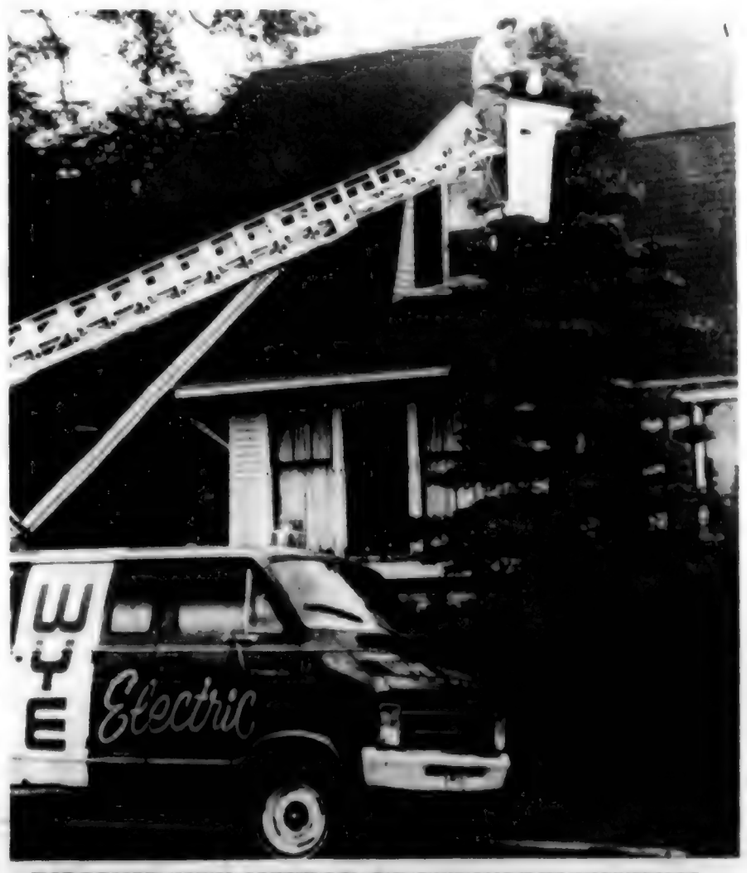
"At present", he told fellow councillors, "they are using private homes which are totally inadequate for this purpose. In the past we have rented the Community College gymnasium for sports events, so why not for this group?

"They contributed over $3,000 to the CAMR Flowers of Hope Training School last year out of proceeds from Jesus Christ Superstar, a highly commendable gesture."

City Manager P.C. Marquis said he would contact the head of the drama group to see what arrangements can be made.

In other council business, a report by City Engineer Geoff Greenough stated results from a traffic survey at the intersection of Murray Avenue and King Street indicate there is insufficient traffic to warrant signal lights. However, Mr. Greenough said, the department is working on a solution to eliminate the dangerous knoll at the intersection.

Council decided against participating in Community Forum Canada, a non-profit project sponsored by the Institute of Cultural Affairs and dealing with the human factor in world development. Councillors noted there were no monetary provisions made for such an undertaking in this year's budget.



DISCOVER NEW METHOD OF BUDWORM CONTROL

Spraying a beautiful blue spruce near his home at the corner of Murray Ave. and St. Patrick St. against the raves of budworm last Sunday afternoon, Terry Lenihan was having difficulty in reaching the higher branches. Just then Freddie Audet and his Wye Electric truck equipped with hydraulic bucket happened along and the problem was solved in short order. The barrister-turned-silviculturist was elevated to the proper height, the upper reaches of the tree thoroughly doused with insecticide and hopefully saved from the current infestation. Mr. Audet had performed a good deed, Lenihan and Co. were grateful for the boost to the top of the tree as well as to their morale and all concerned have been happy over the incident ever since. Moral of the story: The time is now ripe for it and other citizens can protect their coniferous foliage with the idea of preserving its life and growth and the city's beauty by applying the proper chemical

STUDENTS AT HOLY FAMILY SCHOOL ENJOY WEEK OF ACTIVITIES

Holy Family School chose June 20 - 24 as their Holy Family Week. A number of projects and activities are planned for the five days. A King and Queen was chosen to represent each class and the school's official Royal Couple will be named Friday afternoon. In photo the students line-up for track and field events.

YOUNGSTERS DISCOVER BOTTLED MESSAGE

A message in a liquor bottle, dated April 21, 1977, ended up at Beresford Beach June 18. The discovery was made by Marc and Denise Imbeault, nine and seven years old respectively. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvio Imbeault, Beresford. The words written on a receipt from "Traverse Matane-Godbout Ltee., were as follows: "21 avril, 1977, M.V. Sieur d'Amours, Gino Beaudoin, 1525 Mal. Fils, Quebec City, G1J-4H8", and asked the finder to report the recovery. The young Imbeaults plan to do just that, via a copy of this week's Northern Light.

Invite Special Chez les Dames

C'est à la salle Colonial chez Danny's que se tenait le dernier souper de la saison des Dames d'Acadie de Bathurst.

Bernadette Fongemie souhaita la bienvenue et Armelle Brideau fit la lecture du procès-verbal. La conférence éclair fut donnée par Maryvonne Eddy. Elle traitait de l'équalité des sexes entre enfants dans une famille.

Gilles Chamberland, secretaire de l'association touristique du Nord-Est était notre conférencier invité. Il nous parla des beautés du Nord-Est et nous fit voir une série de diapositives ayant pour titre "En route de l'Acadie".

Les Dames d'Acadie organise une maternelle pour septembre prochain pour les enfants de la subdivision Dawson. Cette maternelle sera situé au Kinsmen Community Centre. Les profits de la cave à vin iront au bon fonctionnement de la maternelle.

Quelques contributions ont été accordés à de différentes organisations, tel que pour le centre d'accueil de la croix rouge et pour défrayer les dépenses pour une semaine au camp Ictus à un enfant défavorisé.

Random City Council Notes

(June 20 Session)

Negotiations with the two civic-unions are progressing well according to City Manager Pierre Marquis. There is no agreement as yet, but the two sides are close and are awaiting the appointment of a conciliator by the Province.

Parents of children who own bicycles were requested by Coun. Hilaire Brideau to explain the rules of the road to the youngsters before a serious accident or fatality takes place on city streets.

Rev. Reid Cooke of Bayview United Baptist Church was given permission to hold an outdoor church service at Coronation Park on Sunday, June 26.

Council okayed a resolution which allows for two more connections to sewage disposal facilities on Grove Hill Subdivision.

Councillors declined an invitation from the Town of Oromocto to participate in its annual canoe race set for Sunday, June 26.

Approval was given to a plan for Westmount Heights Subdivision Phase I, located off Sunset Drive and being developed by A. E. Roy Realty Ltd.

Council agreed to purchase a parcel of land measuring 6,000 square feet from Elzear Poirier Jr. and Delima Imbeault at a cost of $500.

RETURNS HOME

Mrs. Helen Sanders and Mrs. Eunice Good have returned to Sacramento, Calif. after spending some time with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Murchie Bell, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bell, and also with relatives and friends in the Upshore and Campbellton area.

Rambling

disappointed that none of the news media had seen fit to mention that the invocation had been placed first and foremost on the regular agenda.

"With all the problems we have facing us, we need all the help we can get, including that of the Almighty", noted Mayor Duffy.

LEAVING CITY

Doug Baker has been transferred to the Moncton office of Thorne, Riddell and Co., after 9 years in Bathurst, and he and his family plan to take up permanent residence in the hub before school opens in September.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Baker have been active in church, club and community work and will be much missed on the local scene. In addition, the latter's departure will create a vacancy on the School Board of Dist. No. 4.

Mr. Baker, incidentally, was elected to the N.B. Institute of Chartered Accountants at that group's annual convention in Fredericton Saturday.

TO ERR IS HUMAN

Gerald Godin, who presented his mother, Mrs. Evelyne Godin with a silver tray in honor of her retirement from the teaching staff of Assumption Academy, is vice-principal of South Bathurst School. He is not associated with Assumption Academy as inadvertently stated in error in last week's Northern Light.

By the same token, it bears repetition that Jean-Guy Arseneau, Petit Rocher, was the winner of four sleeping bags, two chairs, a charcoal unit with accessories and a camper's cooking and utility set. He was awarded these items by virtue of his purchase of a camper trailer at Northeast Homes Ltd., it should have been explained, however.

TIPS AND TAKES

J. William (Bill) Gallagher, younger son of the R. J. (Dick) Gallaghers, admitted to the bar of the Province of Alberta on June 17. He's associated with the firm of Cox, Goss and MacNamara, and located in Calgary. . . Sgt. Lionel Frenette, who is retiring this month after 23 years distinguished service with the City Police Force for health reasons, feted Tuesday night by his colleagues. . . Roger Clinch appointed principal of Chalmers School replacing Rheese Dickie, who is joining the faculty of Bathurst High. . . Famous last words: returning from Toronto recently, Mayor John Duffy congratulated the crew of the EPA aircraft which brought him from Montreal to Chatham for an excellent flight. After they thanked him for the compliment, His Worship added this reservation: "Only you should be landing in Bathurst instead". . . Hilaire Brideau has recently ended a 2-year term as president of Bathurst Curling Club and it would be an understatement to say the organization made great strides in every way under his able direction, guidance and jurisdiction. . . Terry Lenihan, who is in charge of the Festival Parade for the 3rd consecutive year, reminds businesses and organizations that July 10 is not too far away and it's time to start preparing floats. There were 50 entries in 1975 and a drop to 43 in 1976. He is looking for 100 this time around. . .

Learning the hard way: one early resident of the Youghal Beach summer colony was unagreeably surprised recently. On returning to the cottage which she had left alone and unlocked while calling on a neighbour, she discovered a new and expensive stereo had been removed from the premises by a person or persons yet unknown. . . Small World Dept.: Two senior business executives, both originally from Bathurst and in the same age group, had a chance meeting in Vancouver not too long ago. John McKendy of National Trust was looking down into the same street from his upper storey office window. At the exact moment, Jack Shirley, of Bowater Canadian Ltd., Montreal, was looking up. As a result the pair had lunch together and an opportunity to compare notes about the present and reminisce over earlier days in the old hometown. . . Dora Noel, 1471 King St., Bathurst, winner of The Northern Light's Atlantic Sweepstakes for June 15. . . Registration for summer swimming under City Recreation Dept. jurisdiction schedule for the BHS Pool from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mon. to Thurs., June 27 to 30. The program, being launched July 1, includes Red Cross training, adult instructions and diving instructions. . . Mrs. Chris Daigle named assistant manager at Sears. . . Yolande Losier of Chaleur General Hospital's Outpatient Dept. appointed by the Canadian Diabetic Assn. as representative for N.B. of the Professional Health Workers Assn. . . Francis L. Albert, Caraquet, approximately $11,000 richer after the June 19 Loto Canada. He was one of 9 people in a pool which won one of the $100,000 prizes.

The other 8 are friends in Arvida, Que. . . A last-minute change of plans by Monsieur Bernard of Paris has set Zeller's Rapid Curler demonstration forward to June 28, 29 and 30 instead of the dates stated in the firm's ad in this week's issue.

STUDENTS

begins in September.

Courses consist of civil technology with the options of building construction and structural or highway and municipal in the second year, and a third option, municipal administration, will be offered to second-year students in Business Administration.

Mrs. Pelletier-Badman was optimistic for the future of the college, noting the number of courses is increasing, and she stated a total of 300 students are registered for fall instruction.

The liaison officer noted, however, that the campus does not have student residences, and she appealed to citizens to provide accommodations.

"We solicit those interested to bring some modification to their homes in order that they may house our students in either rooms, room and board or apartments", Mrs. Pelletier-Badman stated.

Population Figure Up

The final population count for the City of Bathurst as tabulated in the June 1, 1976 census stands at 16,301, City Councillors learned Monday.

The figure, although down from 16,674 in 1971, is an increase of about 250 from the figures received earlier this year.

Hachey Ward Councillor Albert Lavigne noted the population decrease "coincides with the change in the provincial tax structure and was to be expected."

In other business, a letter from the president of the New Brunswick Building Trades Council, James Renouf of Campbellton, called upon the business community in the province to make a serious effort to employ union workers in local construction projects.

"We have noticed a decline in the number of businesses who employ union workers", said Mr. Renouf," and it is having an effect on the economy. Some merchants and business people practice discrimination against union workers, and if this continues, we'll have no alternative but to institute a boycott by all local unions, labor councils and the N.B. Federation of Labour against these business establishments".

"We are resolved to take a much more militant stand against these practices in order to protect the interests of our members", the letter concluded.

THE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS OF PUBLIC UTILITIES OF NEW BRUNSWICK

NOTICE

IN THE MATTER OF AN APPLICATION OF THE NEW BRUNSWICK TELEPHONE COMPANY, LIMITED FOR APPROVAL OF CERTAIN RATES AND CHARGES FOR TELEPHONE SERVICE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT The New Brunswick Telephone Company, Limited (the "Company") has applied to this Board for approval of increased rates and charges for certain of its services estimated to yield to the Company in 1977, sufficient additional revenue to offset the additional taxes accruing against the Company as a result of recently announced changes in the tax policy of the Government of the Province of New Brunswick.

A Public Hearing on the Company's Application for approval of such increased rates and charges will be held on Wednesday, the 13th day of July, 1977, commencing at 9:30 o'clock in the forenoon (A.D.T.) at the Board Room of the Board of Commissioners of Public Utilities (Room 301) in the Provincial Building, 110 Charlotte Street, Saint John.

The increased rates and charges for which the Company has requested approval are on file at the office of the Board at 110 Charlotte Street, Saint John and at the business offices of the Company at the following locations:

270 King Avenue, Bathurst
13 Andrew Street, Campbellton
32 St. Francis Street, Edmundston
4th Floor, Kings Place, Fredericton
22 Prince William Street, Saint John
Mary Street, Newcastle
Water Street, St. Stephen
Main Street, Woodstock
Highfield Square, Moncton

and may be inspected at any such location by any person interested therein.

Persons intending to attend the Hearing on the Application and make representations either against, in support of, or in modification of the Application, should indicate such intention to the undersigned secretary of this Board and should provide to this Board, no later than July 4, 1977, a written statement, with reasons, of the position they intend to take with respect to the Application.

SCHOLARSHIPS PRESENTED BY STUDENT COUNCIL

Two South Bathurst School students were awarded cheques by the student council to help defray their costs of attending sports camps at the University of New Brunswick this summer. Derrick Daley (left), president of the student council presented cheques to Kim Wilbur and Karen Blanchard, June 20. Miss Blanchard will attend volleyball camp while Miss Wilbur is enrolled at basketball camp.

"B" COMPANY RETAINS TROPHY

On Sunday, June 5, "B" Company 2RNBR (NS) won the Regimental Sergeant Major's Trophy for the second year in a row. The trophy is offered annually at the D Day Parade, which was held this year at Newcastle.

The procession was held from the Newcastle Armoury to the Cenotaph in Kings Square. Preceeding the parade, the troops of the regiment attended a church service held at St. Mary's Catholic Church, George Street.

Prior to the actual presentation of the trophy, a series of tests were administered to determine the winner. To gain the trophy, which was given last year in honor of those men who have been regimental sergeant majors of past and present militia units, the winning company must accumulate the most merit points. Merit points are gained through the number of troops each company puts out on batallion, annual shooting competitions and those present for summer camps, along with tests administered on D Day. These tests consist of contests of brute strength, steel nerves, courage, patience, accuracy, speed and mental ability.

The actual program had to be shortened somewhat, and some aspects were dropped, due to inclement weather, but at the end of the afternoon, "B" coy came out the overall winner with 45 points over its nearest rival.

The trophy was presented to Company Sergeant Major W. O. G G (Graham) Wiseman by W O D.J. (Donat) LeCouffe who filled in for C.W.O. A. J. (Allison) Furlotte; who was unable to attend.

City Chosen For Convention

The 30th annual meeting of the Brunswick Credit Union Federation was held in Bathurst on the 17th and 18th of June.

Included in the regular order of business were elections to the board of directors. Adrian English of Nelson Miramichi, and Archie Donald of Blackville were re-elected for three-year terms; Roy Mackin of Saint John was elected for his first three-year term; George Greek of Moncton, president of the federation chaired the meeting.

Delegates included representatives from most of the 48 credit unions in New Brunswick along with a large number of visitors.

Dr. Martin Legere of La Federation des Caisses Populaires, Donald Boudreau, registrar of Credit Unions, as well as visitors from other provincial federations were among the special guests.

The Brunswick Credit Union Federation is made up of 48 credit unions having assets of over $27,000,000.00.

Social and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Brideau and their four daughters and one son, have taken up residence at 278 Lavigne Street. They are formerly of Chatham, N.B.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Block, and young daughter, formerly of Saskatoon, Sask., are residing at 1066 Nicholas Denys. Mr. Block is a fertilizer plant supervisor.

Mrs. Guy Smith and little son Barry of Sudbury, Ont., Mrs. Stephen Morgan, London, Ont., Mr. and Mrs. David Constable, Fredericton and Clary Wilbur, St. John, N.B. visited their mother Mrs. Mildred Wilbur on Queen Street recently, while here for the funeral of their grandfather, Mr. Edward Whelton of Black Rock. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Joapeh Sisk of Fredericton, N.B.

Miss Jayne Bird of St. John spent a weekend recently visiting at the home of Mrs. Mildred Wilbur, Queen Street.

War Veteran, Mill Worker

A well-known and highly regarded Bathurst resident for his lifetime, William J. Garrett died June 17 in Chaleur General Hospital after six months' illness. He was 81.

Born in Bathurst, Mr. Garrett was a son of the late John and Helen (Aube) Garrett. He was a longterm employee of Consolidated-Bathurst Ltd., retiring in 1963 after 45 years' service, and a member of the company's Quarter-Century Club.

Mr. Garrett served with the Canadian Forces during the First World War and was a life member of Herman J. Good Branch No. 18 Royal Canadian Legion.

Surviving Mr. Garrett are his wife, the former Mary Helena Lavigne; six sons, Arthur, Percy, Robert and Herbert (Joe), all of Bathurst; John, Toronto; and William, Jr., Montreal; five daughters, Mrs. Gerard Boucher (Theresa), Mrs. Wilson Kennedy (Eileen), Mrs. Thomas Hunter (Eleanor), and Mrs. Gino Cavicchiolo (Helena), all of Bathurst, and Mrs. Graham Good (Rose-Marie), Oromocto, N.B.; one brother, Vincent Garrett, Bathurst; 26 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

WM. J. GARRETT

Mr. Garrett rested at Elhatton's Funeral Home, where a Canadian Legion memorial service was conducted at 7:30 p.m. June 18 by Harry W. S. MacLean.

The funeral was held to Sacred Heart Cathedral at 11:00 a.m. June 20, Rev. Yvon Boudreau officiating.

Honorary pallbearers were Frank O'Toole, Blake Oulton, Henry Godin, Murray Watson, Leonard Lavigne, Henry White, Harper Jennings, Gordon Moody, Allan Ferguson, Sr., George Duval, Jr., Philias Landry, Bernard Kane, John Lavigne and Raymond Blanchard.

The active bearers were five sons-in-law, Gerald Boucher, Graham Good, Thomas Hunter, Gino Cavicchiolo, Wilson Kennedy, and a grandson, William Boucher. Interment was in Sacred Heart Cemetery, Burns Drive.

Thsoe from out of town here for the funeral included Miss Bertha Lavigne, Montreal; Mrs. Bea Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Melanson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cox, Mrs. Patricia Johnson, all of Saint John; Mr. and Mrs. Graham Good, Oromocto; Frank MacDonald, Moncton; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Matchett, Newcastle.

Is Awarded Science Degree

Among those receiving diplomas at the McGill University spring convocation held at Place des Arts in Montreal recently was Roger Bertin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Bertin of 433 Varrily Street.

A 1970 graduate of LeBlanc High School, Mr. Bertin also attended Le College de Bathurst during the 1971-72 term. The following two years were spent at le College Bois-de-Boulogne, Montreal, where he obtained a Diploma of Collegiate Studies in the health sciences.

From McGill, Mr. Bertin received a Bachelor of Science degree with a major in anatomical science. He received $3,000 for each of his final years at the university for participating in the interprovincial monitor program.

Mr. Bertin has accepted a position as a medical representative for Beckman Instruments Inc. in Quebec and will pursue training in such centres as Montreal, Toronto, Chicago, Los Angeles and Palo Alto, California.

ROGER BERTIN

Mr. Bertin is married to the former Nicole Doiron, a final-year student in the nutrition department at the University of Montreal.

Appointed To Regional Post

At the annual meeting of the Atlantic Region Jaycees, L. W. (Bill) Comeau, past president of the Bathurst Jaycees, was elected as Regional Director, responsible for the Bathurst, Campbellton and Miramichi Units.

The Bathurst Unit won the award for extension and membership growth in the Atlantic region. It was also runner-up to St. John's, Newfoundland as the outstanding unit.

BILL COMEAU

Spent Long Life Close To Nature

The death of William Gray, of Brunswick Mines Road, occurred Sunday, June 19, at Chaleur General Hospital after an illness of three weeks. He was 88.

Born at Big River, he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William (Jane Glazier) Gray.

He was a trapper and a river guide in his younger days. Later he worked at Consolidated Bathurst Limited as foreman on the rail line to the company's power plant. He was finally a game warden with the Department of Natural Resources until retirement.

His wife, the former Stella Thibodeau, died in 1962.

Mr. Gray is survived by five sons, Albert, Leo, Irving, Norman and Arnold Gray, all of the Bathurst area; six daughters, Mrs. Dale Roy (Leona) of Vancouver, Mrs. Ross Bulmer (Doris) of Sudbury, Ont.; Mrs. Urban Godin (Laura) of Moncton; Mrs. Wilfred McGrath (Ruby) of Bathurst, Mrs. Severe Duguay (Theresa) and Mrs. Viola Belanger, both of the Bathurst area; two brothers, Ben and George Gray, both of Bathurst; one sister, Agnes of New York; 67 grandchildren, many great-grandchildren.

WILLIAM GRAY

The funeral mass was celebrated Tuesday at 4 p.m. at St. Theresa's Roman Catholic Church by Rev. Yvon Boudreau. Interment was in the parish cemetery on King Avenue.

Pallbearers were the deceased's five sons and his brother George.

Attending the funeral from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Ross Bulmer, Sudbury, Ont., and Mrs. Urban Godin, Moncton.

Incident Is Investigated

Bathurst RCMP are questioning three suspects following the attempted theft of dynamite from a Brunswick Mines company site Sunday night, June 19.

A spokesman for the local detachment said the three were taken into custody at about 9:30 p.m., about a half-hour after a security guard noticed suspicious activity near a mill-owned facility.

RCMP set up roadblocks, picking up the three in Allardville.

KENT HOMES AND HEARTHSTONE HOMES

MARC CHIASSON

Kent Homes and Hearthstone Homes jointly announced today the appointment of Marc Chiasson as Sales Representative in Northern New Brunswick. Mr. Chiasson's territory will extend from Grand Anse in Gloucester County to Grand Falls in Victoria County and will also include the Gaspe Coast. Prior to his appointment, Mr. Chiasson worked for several years as a real estate salesman and agent. Doubtful Decision

After a lapse of almost twenty years, a member has been "named" in the New Brunswick Legislative Assembly and it was a Gloucester representative at that who claims this unenviable distinction.

To be "named" means that a member has been acting in an unsuitable manner and another member may introduce a motion calling for his or her suspension for a period of up to two weeks.

When Andre Robichaud was "named" recently, however, there arose a great deal of doubt. Now Mr. Robichaud is known as one of the most lively and outspoken members of the present legislature, but people like him are needed, within reason, of course, to break the monotony of the house and to prod the party in power.

The doubt we are talking about centres on the speaker who "named" our Andy for using the word "Scab" in referring to personnel hired to replace unionized custodial workers who are in a contract dispute with the government. Mr. Robichaud, incidentally, has labour union ties.

The speaker considered the word "scab" offensive and not proper use for the House. The question is: what source did the speaker use in determining the quality of language used in the Legislative Assembly?

Encyclopedia Britannica Dictionary, Webster's and the Concise Oxford Dictionary are all in agreement that "scab" may be used as Andre Robichaud used it. Moreover, not one of these sources cites the word as offensive, slang, colloquial or improper when used by members of a legislative assembly.

It is ironic that so much vile language used in the House is acceptable and yet an issue is made out of an acceptable word. The decision against Mr. Robichaud is therefore questionable.

In addition it is another instance of sound dictionary usage losing out to the common and the vulgar.

Perhaps we should not blame the schools completely for the lack of good usage and wide vocabulary among our youth

Canada Week

Taking Canada for granted is one of our national pastimes, that and discussing the weather, the latest sports scores and what's for supper

It is no secret that Canadians are apathetic, at least on the surface, when it comes to expressing ourselves about Canada. But that is changing.

Canada Week 1977 is the eighth consecutive year that Canadians from coast to coast and in the NorthWest Territories will be celebrating all things Canadian. Through the happy observances of Canada Week we are forging a new kind, a healthy kind, of nationalism. A unity out of diversity.

Last year Canadians in about one thousand communities all across this great land participated in hundreds of activities in celebration of Canada. This phenomenon must surely represent one of the greatest grass roots efforts by thousands of volunteers from one end of the country to the other. The spirit that motivates these people is as diverse as the activities of Canada Week itself.

To some, it is fostering pride. Pride in the accomplishments of their community and the country. To others, it is a time to remember. To reflect on our cultural heritage and diversity. A time to show off the skills and the culture our ancestors brought to this country.

Or it is time to meet others, from neighbours to people across town or across the country. A time to realize that there are things which bind us together as Canadians.

To others, it is a celebration. A party, a time to set aside the day-to-day problems and concentrate on the positives.

To some, it is a simple and quiet manifestation of faith. Faith in the country and a renewal of deep determination to keep Canada united come what may. To recognize that there is a bedrock of unity which can never be shaken. That problems of graphic differences, regional disparities, language and cultural differences are present but will never shake the foundation of one Canada.

Hundreds of people around the world would like to live in Canada, because Canada is a country with a dazzling potential. Canada is a blend of the old and the new. It combines North American initiative with the qualities of other civilizations to make a unique Canadian way of life.

We must make certain it stays that way. And that is why the Council for Canadian Unity organizes Canada Week and encourages Canadians at this birthday period to show pride in Canada, promote national unity and encourage dialogue and understanding among Canadians.

Canada Week is a remarkably positive force. It is a time of tolerance, goodwill and understanding. It is also a time for thanksgiving - Canadians have much for which to be thankful.

As a Canadian, what can you do?

You can fly a flag, or dance, sing, twirl a baton, or march in a parade (there's one here). Say hello to your neighbour from across town or across the country. Take a trip or sponsor a student exchange.

But, whatever you do, put your heart into it!

Rate Unfair To Cottage Owners

Bathurst, N.B.
June 20, 1977

I am writing regarding the recent raise in the monthly electric service charge on cottages.

We used to pay $12 a year and we were allowed five KWHs a month, making a total of 60 KWHs a year against current used.

Three years ago this was discontinued and we were charged a flat service rate of $2 per month. This did not include any KWHrs. This service charge was raised to $3 per month.

Now we have been advised that, as of 1 April 1977, this service rate is to be increased to $5.45 a month, practically a 100 per cent increase which we feel is not justified.

We do realize, however, that the majority of cottages are only occupied for a short period throughout the summer months. Nevertheless it is ironic and inequitable that those who only occupy their cottages several months of the year should supplement the loss of revenue to the N.B. Electric Power Commission for this period.

A more equitable method of service would be for only a period of 5 months from May 1 to Sept 30.

Certainly cottage owners are paying for seven months service for nothing, as very few cottages are used more than the five months from May 1 to Sept 30 each year.

Take a stand, cottage owners, and voice your opinions at this time. Nobody else can order a 100 per cent raise in the rent or anything else, according to the price controls.

Language Issue Action "Premature"

Bathurst, N.B.
16 June, 1977

This letter is to comment on the actions of various city schools as reported in your front page article of June 15th regarding opposition voiced by parents' associations to rumored unilingual re-organization of our schools.

To begin with, my congratulations to the Home and School Associations of Superior and Holy Family (English group) for wisely refraining from formulating a petition to the Board on the re-organization of schools.

They showed common sense and admirable restraint in resisting any temptation to respond to rumour and the grapevine. What sort of well informed opinion can be developed from hearsay and gossip? As a point of interest, at the time of these meetings, there were available no facts upon which to base a discussion or formulate a brief. The issues were at the committee level and no official policy statement from the Board had been made public.

It is clear to me that all groups who voted to present briefs opposing Board policy have acted prematurely and have "pressed the panic button". It is a rather frightening spectacle to see ordinarily sensible parents reduced to panic and irrationality by rumor, hearsay and half-truth.

The public is justifiably concerned about the future of our city school. The proper approach would have been to wait until the facts were officially presented, study the proposals and then, and only then, on the basis of facts, figures, definitions and statistics, prepare an informed brief should one have seemed necessary.

Yours truly,
Kathleen Brown

Not Satisfied With Decision

Bathurst, N.B.
June 15, 1977

(Editor's note: The following letter, from the Parkwood Heights Homeowners Association, is addressed to the June 23 meeting of the District 4 Board of School Trustees.)

Your letter of June 3rd, 1977 was read at our executive meeting of the Parkwood Heights Homeowners Association June 12th. We are not satisfied with your decision to place our request, to be put on your top priority list for immediate school construction, into the hands of your committees again for further study. We are requesting that the Parkwood Heights School be placed on your priority list now and forwarded to Fredericton so it can be considered in their next capital works budget.

We disagree with the terms of reference given to the principals and vice-principals for the re-organization of elementary and junior high schools in the City of Bathurst. The terms of reference for re-organization during the past ten years which did not allow any new construction in the city schools at the elementary level, or junior high level, when at the same time the Equal Opportunity Program severely overcrowded the Bathurst schools. Now you plan to reorganize the temporary mobile classrooms to new locations to accomodate our children while the outlying areas get all new school consturction.

We feel we have shown that there must be new school construction at the elementary school level within the city to accomplish the re-organization of elementary and junior high schools. We believe the Parkwood Heights School is the key to this re-organization of city schools.

Our representative on the Board of School Trustees has informed the association that the Parkwood Heights School is not top on any priority list. What's more, the existing priority list was drawn up in 1973. We have been grossly mislead by members of the Board of School Trustees, as well as the school administration regarding our position on a priority list.

We want to know if we can be placed on your top priority list for a new school construction, and forwarded to Fredericton before the board adjourns for the summer.

Mrs. Florine Rutledge,
President

Mail Service In Other Countries

Bathurst, N.B.
June 9, 1977

A Toronto Globe and Mail columnist recently asked that newspaper's widely-travelled readers about countries which (unlike Canada) have efficient mail service.

Here are some of the replies:

Sheila Bates, Port Hope, Ont.: The British mail service is certainly not what it used to be, but they still have two deliveries each day, and that includes Saturday.

R. T. Applevard, from London, Ont.: Hawaii has six day mail delivery and very cheerful service, too. Distances between homes are sometimes a little long, and the postmen drive trucks similar to our pick-up trucks. The steering gear is in the right side, as the mail is put into curb-side boxes, similar to our rural boxes. Note this, the postman picks up mail for us, providing it is adequately stamped.

Barbara (Bobbie) Hysinger, Ont.: "To my knowledge, France, where I lived for five years, has the best postal system in the world. It's expensive but personal and terrific. I once received a postcard from a friend on holiday in England who had forgotten to note my address. It was addressed simply to me c/o la plus grande maison pres de la rue Legendre (not a main thoroughfare in the 17th arrondisement). I received this card within three days.

"Contrast this service with a letter returned from Toronto to San Francisco because it was addressed to Gibson Place (correct name and number) instead of Gibson Avenue. This happened to my daughter recently.

"When we were there, Paris was a city of 5.7 million with the suburbs, yet for a franc extra (20 cents) you could have a 'pneumatique' delivered anywhere in that region within the hour.

Noted In Passing

Playground Conditions Are Scored

A special meeting of the Superior Home and School Association was held June 14 to discuss certain problems.

The meeting chaired by the president Hugh Campbell opened with the H and S Prayer.

First on the agenda was the presentation of a brief by the Association by Roland Frenette, representing a group of concerned parents whose children attend the French immersion classes at Superior. He asked for the association's support in presenting the brief to the June 23 meeting of the School Board.

Much discussion took place re the upcoming grade 4 immersion students to ensure that more French time would be made available to them. Questions were put to the principal, Albert Lavigne, regarding time allotment, etc. and parents were told that it would mean sacrifice but it could be done.

The concensus of the discussions was that more French was wanted for all students of Superior School.

Second item on the agenda was the school grounds, and repairs there to.

Mr. Campbell read a letter from Mr. Ouellette in reply to the association's letter of May 5. No money was granted by the Dept. of Education to repair the school grounds, which are in a horrendous condition. Mr. Campbell stated he would go back to the Board and exert pressure to get something done. Interior work to be carried out includes reflooring some classrooms, and painting and repairs to two outside doors. But much more work is needed.

A Canada Works grant application which would have assisted in these repairs was refused.

A suggestion to involve the media more in the problems to give them more publicity in the hope of getting some action was made by a member.

It was also thought by the meeting that new schools should get far less capital works money than older schools in need of repair.

In a discussion on the district's reorganization, re unilingual and bi-lingual schools, it was conceded that these plans have not as yet gone before the Board and are largely hearsay. It is understood, however, that the proposal is to be presented and for the next 10 months input from the public will be invited.

The meeting was largely for bilingual elementary schools in the area where they are needed and new construction where necessary. It was decided to wait until the plans were made public before any definite stand is taken by the association.

Mr. Campbell was asked to go before to make the association's feelings known on the subject at the upcoming School Board meeting of June 23.

One view of the Superior School property where a lake literally exists. Despite Home and School Assn. approaches to the School Board and a visit to the scene by the trustees, no action has been taken to remedy the situation. The pool drains onto private properties boarding on College St. and Riverside Dr., the water running into the basements of some of the homes. City Council has also registered a request that the unsightly and objectionable conditions be rectified.

WINS PAINTING IN CHAPTER'S LOTTERY

Death Occurs In 95th Year

The death of Mrs. Marjorie F. MacLean, widow of Donald MacLean and formerly of Campbellton, occured June 15 in Bathurst at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. H. Rogers, 380 St. Anne Street, with whom she resided for the past two years. She was 94.

Born at Campbellton, she was a daughter of the late John and Catherine (Firth) Main and was the last surviving member of her immediate family.

Mrs. MacLean graduated from Provincial Normal School in Fredericton and taught school at Charlo and Campbellton prior to her marriage.

As a younger woman, Mrs. MacLean was active in church and community work. She kept up her membership in both the Women's Missionary Society at Knox Presbyterian Church and in the Restigouche Chapter IODE.

Her husband died in 1962.

Surviving are three sons, Edward of Fredericton; William of Montreal and Albert, Moncton; three daughters, Mrs. Norman Root (Marjorie) of Stratford, Ont., Mrs. J. A. McDonald (Jean) of Ottawa and Mrs. Rogers (Mary), Bathurst; 19 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Mrs. MacLean rested at Maher's Funeral Home, Campbellton.

The funeral was held June 17 at 2:30 at Knox Presbyterian Church. Service was conducted by the Reverend Murray Graham while pallbearers were Llewellyn Vye, Arnold Jagoe, John Mundle, Sealy Pratt, Gordon Harris, (all of Campbellton) and Arlington Mair of Moncton.

Among those attending the funeral were Mrs. Mary Rogers, Miss Rosemary Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rogers and Mrs. Thomas Fraser, all of Bathurst.

One Arrested After Holdup

A 16-year-old Bathurst youth is in custody and a bench warrant has been issued for the arrest of a second person in connection with the armed holdup of the Allardville Caisses Populaire Thursday, June 16.

A spokesman for investigating RCMP officers said Monday that Alfred Sewell has been charged with armed robbery, and is being held pending a court appearance today (Wednesday).

The incident netted thieves $8,900, most of which was recovered.

The robbery occurred in early afternoon Thursday when two men, both masked and armed, walked into the credit union branch. Two tellers, Mrs. Rita Lanteigne and Mrs. Albertine Legace, and a customer were in the building at the time but were not harmed.

The pair, one carrying a sawed-off rifle and the other a knife, then escaped in a car belonging to a teller. The vehicle was abandoned about five miles from the scene.

The suspect was taken into custody on Friday afternoon in Bathurst. The bench warrant for the second person was issued by Judge Frederic Arsenault Monday.

Beresford Wins Pair While Remparts Split On Weekend

Beresford Chalet Sportif chalked up a pair of victories in Bay Chaleur Baseball League action Sunday while the Green Point Remparts split a pair of games suffering their first loss of the season.

Beresford edged Neguac Schooners 3-1 at Neguac Sunday afternoon and then later in the day whipped Tracadie Alpines 7 - 4 in Tracadie.

In the other afternoon contest, Tracadie stopped Green Point 9 - 2 highlighted by Bobby LeBreton's three-run homer. Sunday evening Green Point recovered to whip the Schooners at Neguac by a 14-5 count.

The Beresford-Neguac contest turned into a pitchers' duel as Gilles Pitre and Jean Godin combined to limit the Schooners to just four hits while Levi Muise, Jean-Louis Robichaud and Charlie Stickles stopped the winners on just three hits. The Key blow was a two-run single by Danny Arsenault. Art Aubie and Gilles Pitre singles for the other Beresford hits.

In the evening game at Tracadie, Daniel Arsenault pitched an eight-hitter and fanned 11 in leading Beresford to its 7-4 triumph. Art Aube led the hitters with a pair of doubles while Ron White added a double and single and Roger Boudreau singled twice.

Samuel Richard, who started on the hill for the Alpines, singled twice. He gave way to Conrad Ferguson in the third.

Remparts Split

Ceryle Vienneau limited Green Point to seven hits and struck out seven in pitching Tracadie to its 9 - 2 win Sunday afternoon. Rosaire Legacy started for Green Point but gave way to Charles Doucet in the seventh. LeBreton added a single to his homer for the winners while Moe Ferguson, Ceryle Vienneau, Adair Losier and Jean-Claude Basque each singled twice.

Roger Guitard led the Remparts with a double and a pair of singles and Jesse Legacy added a double.

At Neguac, Sunday evening, Jesse Legacy was treated to a 17 hit attack as he coasted to the 14 - 5 win. He scattered nine hits while walking four and striking out a like number.

Starter Walter Vautour suffered the loss with relief from Jean-Louis Robichaud in the seventh.

Roger Guitard again led the Remparts at the plate with a double and three singles. Gerald Roy added a double and two singles while Reginald Legacy contributed a double and single. Fern Robichaud, Manny Savoie and Jean-Claude Robichaud each had two singles for the Schooners.

Played Thursday

Neguac Schooners edged Notre Dame Red Sox here last Thursday as a last inning rally left the Sox on the short end of a 9 - 8 decision.

Jean-Louis Robichaud picked up the win in relief of starter Levi Muise who gave up six runs on six hits until he was relieved in the fifth. Robichaud held the Sox to four hits and their final two runs coming in the bottom of the ninth.

Andre Arseneau started for Notre Dame and was tagged for five runs on four hits before he was replaced in the third by eventual loser Alvin Pitre.

Manny Savoie led the Schooners with a double and single while Jean-Claude Robichaud and Fern Robichaud tagged a pair of singles each.

Big Bob Hachey once again sparked the Red Sox with a circuit clout and a pair of singles for 3 rbi's. Peter Rudderock and Alvin Pitre both singled twice while Jean-Guy Pitre, Edgar Chamberlain and Andre Arseneau also added singles.

In the league's West Division, Atholville Royals nipped Point La Nim Arrows 8 - 7 behind the 10-hit pitching of veteran Earl Hennessey. Duncan Reid suffered the loss in relief of starter Jim Reid.

Organize For Minor League

A meeting of Bathurst Minor Baseball League held at Chalmers School June 14 elected the following executives:

Past President - Roger Clinch, President - Robert Hachey, 1st vice-president - Max Legere, 2nd vice-president - Paul Chiasson, Secretary - Jean White, Treasurer - Michael White.

Registration forms have been distributed throughout the schools and will be available on Registration Day, Monday July 4th, with instructional sessions to start on the same morning.

There is a possibility that in addition to morning instruction there will be an evening League. Anyone interested in coaching is asked to contact Jim Regan at the City Recreational Department 6-6651.

Oland's Softball League Results

Tuesday, June 14

A bases loaded double by Bernard Duguay in the 4th inning drove in three runs which broke a 5 - 5 tie as Nadeau Poultry rallied to a 16 - 6 romp over Pepsi-Cola. Eric Chamberlain slammed a 2-run homer for Pepsi. Serge Roy (1-0) pitched a solid game in gaining the win. Roger White (1-2) who suffered the loss had three singles. This was Nadeau's second straight win while Pepsi suffered its third loss in a row. The game was played at Coke's field.

Thursday, June 16

Wye Electric increased its winning streak to six by scoring 8 runs in the third inning as they bombed Murphy's Esso 15 - 4. Gary Pitre and Mike Thibodeau both drove in three runs with a pair of singles apiece. Gary Peters (5-0) continued his fine pitching with his fifth straight triumph, giving up just 6 hits including a triple and 2 singles to losing pitcher Carl Smith (0-3). Pat Duguay, Jean-Guy Doucet and Raymond Allain were the other successful batters to get hits off Peters. The game played at College field, marked the fourth straight loss for Murphy's.

In the other game Thursday, Pepsi Cola ended a 3-game losing streak as they outscored Sumner Tire 7 - 3 in a game played at Rough Waters field. Kenneth Hachey (3-1) pitched the win with Byron Boucher (0-3) taking the loss. The win improved Pepsi's won-lost record to 4-3 while Sumner have won one and lost three.

Sunday, June 19

Nadeau Poultry made it three in a row as they squeezed by Sumner Tire 17 - 15 in a game played at Coke's field. Serge Roy (2-0) pitched the win as the league's new team continued to surprise everyone. Allan Daigle (1-1) was tagged with the loss.

In Sunday's other game, Sumner Tire halted Wye Electric's winning streak at six as they scored an 11 - 8 upset win over the first place team. Allan Daigle (2-1) gained Sumner's second win of the season while Gary Peters (5-1) suffered his first setback of the campaign. The game was played at Rough Waters field.

Normoe Increases Labatt Loop Lead

Normoe Sports edged Rough Waters Save Easy 5-4 Monday night and increased their lead atop the Labatt Softball League to four points over the runner-up Save Easy club.

Save Easy led 3 - 1 in the seventh when Normoe came back with 4 runs in their half of the inning to post the win. Jean-Claude Doucet drove in the winning run with a single.

Ernie Leger picked up the win with an 8-hitter while Paul Hebert allowed only six hits in suffering the loss.

Aside from Doucet's winning single, Leonard Leger delivered the key blow for Normoe with a two-run homer in the seventh. Ronald Cormier added three singles to the winning attack.

In the other league game played Monday, Ellis Building Supplies blasted Hachey's Esso 12 - 4. It was the third loss in four games for the Allardville team.

Robert Stever pitched the win while Gerard Noel suffered the loss with relief from Paul Doucet in the seventh when Ellis broke the game wide open with 9 runs. The teams were tied 3-3 entering the final inning, the losing pitchers allowed 8 hits but issued 14 free passes which proved their downfall.

Joe Noel sparked the winners with a two-run homer in the first inning along with a single. Pat Murphy added a double and single. Fern Roy cracked a solo homer in the fifth for Hachey's and added a pair of doubles. Leonard Gauvin slammed three singles in a losing cause.

In weekend games, Normo Sports topped Hachey's Esso 7 - 2 in Allardville last Friday while Thomas TV handed the Allardville team a 15 - 5 thrashing on Saturday.

In Sunday games, Hachey's Esso came through with a 7 - 5 triumph over City Glass Hawks while Cormier and Sons upset Save Easy 10 - 9.

Marcel Coulombe and son Rick are shown with the F. P. Veniot Trophy which they won for the fourth time in the last five years, Sunday, in Gowan Brae's annual Father and Son Tourney.

Coulombes Capture Father & Son Golf Title

The Coulombe family regained the Father and Son golf championship and the F. P. Veniot Trophy at Gowan Brae Sunday as Marcel and son Rick fashioned a low gross of 83 to top a field of 46 teams. The win was the fourth in the past five years for the Coulombes with Marcel usually teaming with sons Danny and Rick in alternate years.

Last year's winners, Dave and Blake Gammon finished in a four-way tie for second place, four shots back at 87. They shared runner-up honors with Bob and R. Binnie, Claude and George Willett along with Nyborg and Ken Sorenson.

Vince and son Peter Girouard captured low net honors and the Bernard Veniot Trophy with a net score of 61. Henry and Normand Mourrant were two shots back at 63. Les and David Davies finished third with a net 66, one shot better than Peter and Mike Samson.

Prize presentations and a delicious supper completed the day's festivities which were under the able direction of tournament chairman Peter Samson.

Following are the gross and net scores:

Gross: The Coulombes 83; The Willetts 87; The Binnies 87; The Gammons 87; the Sorensons 87; The Blanchards 92; The Fergusons 94; The Curries 97; The B. Doucets 97; the D. Club House Chatter

News notes from Gowan Brae Golf and Country Club
by
Jean Boylan

It appears the weatherman was unkind to us last Wednesday forcing cancellation of our first Ladies' Day. I hear a few staunch golfers turned up to play regardless of the rain. But the Ladies' Day will continue each Wednesday morning at 9:30 a.m. hopefully with a little more support from our weatherman in the future.

Our golf pro, Eric St. George invites all new golfers to take part in the clinics he will be conducting. All lady beginners should come to the clubhouse this Thursday at 7:00 p.m. and the male beginners on Friday at 7:00 p.m. This free clinic will run for three consecutive weeks on the same evenings, so please take advantage of these instructions offered by Eric. A few instructions starting out may help you avoid forming some bad habits which become harder to shake off later on, as many of us have found out.

Last Sunday many fathers celebrated Father's Day by taking their son or daughter to the golf course for this year's first tournament. A field of 92 enjoyed 18 holes followed by a supper prepared and served by Pat Maher, Bernice Jardine and Doreen White. They had the help of four junior girls, Kelly Maher, Kelly Grebenc, Kathy Grebenc and Ann Adams. Their hard work was acknowledged by the hearty appetites of all the young folks and their dads.

Winners of the tournament were Marcel and Rick Coulombe with a low gross of 83, followed by Claude and George Willett, Bob and R. Binnie, Dave and Blake Gammon, and Nyborg and Kent Sorenson who all had a low gross of 87. The four low nets were Vince and Peter Girouard with a 61, Henry and Normand Mourrant with a 63, Les and David Davies 66, and Peter and Mike Samson with a 67. The tournament was under the able supervision of Peter Samson.

The next fun event to look forward to is the first Husband and Wife Tournament scheduled for Sunday, June 26. This is, of course, also open to friends, sweethearts, or whatever, providing one of the couple is either a playing or social member. This mixed social tournament was formerly scheduled for Saturday, but has been switched to Sunday, so, sign up and bring your partner along. Tee off time is 1:00 p.m.

See you next week.

Moosehead Softball League Results

Two games were played Sunday in the Moosehead League and one of the contests marked the first victory of the season for the Alpines who upset Captain's Cabin. Captain's Cabin built up a 10 - 0 lead but the Alpines roared back to take the game 11 - 10. The winning pitcher was Gerald Roy (1-0) as George Audet suffered the loss.

In the other league game, played Sunday evening, Pizza Delight trounced Bathurst Machine Shop 14-8. These two teams now share first place in the league standings each with six points.

Maynard Lavigne picked up the win while Fred Theriault (3-1) was tagged with his first loss.

Bathurst Girls Gain Split In 'A' Doubleheader

The Bathurst Dr. Pepper - Dixie Lee ladies softball team split a Senior "A" doubleheader with Memramcook Ladies, the 1976 N.B. Senior Champion, over the weekend. The Bathurst team won the opener 7 - 1 with Memramcook taking the nightcap 8 - 2.

Winning pitcher for Bathurst was Caroline Vanderhayden who gave up five hits, struck out six and walked one. Loser C. Cormier was tagged for eight Bathurst hits. She walked 5 and struck out three.

Top hitters for Bathurst were Lucy Legacy who went 2 for 2, Carolien Vanderheyden, 1 for 1 while Ann Bard and Yolande Boudreau were 1 for 3.

In the second game, the winning hurler was T. Cormier who tossed a 6-hitter. She walked two and fanned one. Loser Yvette Henry was tagged for 12 hits. She fanned two and didn't walk anyone but the team committed four errors behind her which proved costly. Top hitters for the winners were T. Leger, 2 for 3; D. Gaudet, F. Leger and D. Bourque, 2 for 4.

Sue Arsenault and Mary Farrell each had two hits in three tries for Bathurst while Shirley Battah was 1 for 2 and Lucy Legacy 1 for 3.

Meet Loggieville

The Dr. Pepper-Dixie Lee Ladies will meet Loggieville this weekend for the North Shore Senior "A" Championship. On the July 1 weekend the Bathurst team will travel to Moncton to participate in the Ladies Provincial Senior "A" Championship. The Winner of this event advances to Vancouver for the Canadian title.

Winner of the 50-50 Draw held June 15 was Allain Desjardins of Matane, Quebec. He won $423.00.

Mets, Comets Split Twinbill

Bathurst Comets and Moncton Mets split an N.B. Junior Baseball League doubleheader played here Sunday. Bathurst took the first game by a 15 - 9 count while the Mets bounced back for 16 - 7 decision in the nightcap.

The Comets broke an 8 - 8 sixth inning deadlock scoring five in the seventh and two more in the 8th on their way to the win in the opener. Louis Godin, who relieved starter Raymond Landry in the fourth, gained the win.

Yvon Ouellette sparked the Bathurst attack with a three-run homer in the fifth inning along with a double and a single. Rod Comeau stroked a double and a pair of singles while Brian O'Neill singled twice. Barry Cowan, who came on in the seventh, was tagged with the loss. Grant McMurray led the Mets at the plate with a double and single.

Mets Explode

In the second game, Moncton erupted for 15 runs in the second inning and coasted the rest of the way to their 16 - 7 win. Robert LeBlanc gained the win while starter Yvon Ouellette suffered the loss. Yves Daigle and Pierre Aubie also saw mound service for the Comets.

Marty Graham led the Mets at the plate with a pair of doubles while Dave Steeves uncorked a triple along with a single. Shawn Murray added three singles.

Jacques Boudreau slammed a solo homer for the Comets in the seventh inning while Rod Comeau connected for a double and a single.

Chess Tournament In Fredericton July 23-August 1

Chess is the most complex game in the world. It is ancient and universal, well-studied and well documented. Its novelty and fascination are endless. It holds rewards for people of all ages and from all walks of life.

A major chess tournament is an "event". Not since 1943 has a big tournament been held in New Brunswick. That year, a young man from Winnipeg, Abe Yanofsky, won the Canadian Closed Championship in Dalhousie. Yanofsky plans to return to New Brunswick this year to compete in the Canadian Open which will be held in Fredericton from July 23rd to August 1st. He will be one of many top-flight players from Canada and abroad who will attend this tournament.

The tournament is a 10-round event. It is, as the name implies, open to all. The only requirement is that one belong to the Canadian Chess Federation which is accomplished simply by the payment of a small sum. The games are scheduled mostly in the evenings, making it easy for Fredericton and other local players to participate. Indeed, the tournament organizers are encouraging New Brunswickers to take part in the biggest chess tournament in Maritime history. The city will be celebrating Heritage Day festivities during the same period, making it that much more exciting to spend that week in Fredericton.

Hopefully, many chess players in New Brunswick will partake of this opportunity regardless of their level of play.

Further information can be obtained by writing to N.B. Chess Association, P. O. Box 1252, Fredericton, N.B. E3B 5C8, or by calling 455-9638.

TAKE NOTICE that an application has been made on behalf of Bathurst Northern Limited, a body corporate, duly incorporated under and by virtue of the laws of the Province of New Brunswick, pursuant to the provisions of the Quieting of Titles Act, being Chapter Q4, of the Revised Statutes of New Brunswick 1973, and amendments thereto;

THE TITLE of the said Bathurst Northern Limited to the lands and premises described in Schedule "A", investigated and validity thereof ascertained and declared;

NOW THEREFORE, any persons having or claiming to have any title or interest in the said lands and premises or any part thereof, is required on or about the 21st day of June, A.D., 1977, to file a statement of claim, verified by affidavit, with the Registrar of the Supreme Court at his office, in the City of Fredericton, in the County of York, and in the Province of New Brunswick, and to serve a copy on Hogan, Hazen, LeBlanc and Bujold at their offices at 195 Main Street, or 240 King Avenue, in the City of Bathurst. Solicitors for the Applicant, and in default thereof every such claim will be barred and the title of the said Bathurst Northern Limited and the said declarations as made in respect thereto will become absolute.

AND TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that the said application will be further delt with, on Tuesday, the 2nd day of August, A.D., 1977, at the hour of 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon, Atlantic Standard Time, at my Chambers, on St. Patrick Street, at the County Court House, on the second floor, in the City of Bathurst, County of Gloucester and Province of New Brunswick.

DATED this 14th day of June, A.D., 1977.

BERNARD A JEAN
ACTING JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT OF NEW BRUNSWICK

Man Sentenced To Jail Term

A Pointe Verte man who was charged with criminal negligence causing death in connection with a highway fatality in Beresford in September was sentenced by County Court Judge Bernard Jean Friday, June 17.

Gerry LeBlanc, 33, was handed an 18-month jail sentence and placed on two years' probation after he changed his plea to guilty during his afternoon court appearance. In addition, he is prohibited from driving a vehicle for two years unless it is required to go to and from his place of employment, in which case permission must be granted by the probation officer. The 18-month sentence is to be served in county jail.

Charges arose out of a highway accident last fall which claimed the life of eight-year old Nathalie Roy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theophile Roy of Landry Lane. The youngster, her 11-year-old sister Lisa and several other children had just disembarked from the school bus on their return from school.

Mr. LeBlanc had pleaded not guilty during his first court appearance, but changed the plea on Friday.

Crown Prosecutor Ronald Godin handled the case for the prosecution, while Antonio Robichaud QC was lawyer for the defense.

In passing sentence, Judge Jean said only the maximum sentence of life imprisonment would compensate for the loss of life, but he did not think it advisable to send a man with no record to prison with hardened criminals. He stressed the need for a deterrent to discourage other drivers from being careless and from not heeding the flashing lights of a school bus.

The judge said he took Mr. LeBlanc's "unsteady personal life" into consideration and for this reason was ordering probation.

H. P. Theriault Dies, Aged 90

PAQUETVILLE — The death of Henri P. Theriault occurred May 20 at the Msgr. Chasson Residence in Shippegan. He was 90.

Surviving besides his wife, the former Lauza Cormier are one son and one daughter, Alphonse of Saint Leolin and Mrs. Laniere Boudreau (Juliette) of Paquetville, a sister-in-law, Mrs. Georges Theriault of Shippegan, one brother Joseph of Paquetville and one sister, Mrs. Joseph Chamberlain Bernadette of Bathurst.

Mr. Theriault rested at Le Gresley's Funeral Home, Paquetville.

The funeral was held at St. Augustine Church, Paquetville, Monday at 7 p.m. followed by burial in the parish cemetery.

District 4-H Council Formed

A meeting of 4-H leaders and members held at the regional 4-H office in Bathurst in May saw the formation of a New 4-H council to be known as the Nepisiguit Chaleur District Council.

Composed of representatives from English speaking 4-H Clubs in Northeastern New Brunswick, the council includes 4-Hers from New Bandon, Petitcodiac, Black Rock, Big River and Lorne. A fifth group is expected to join sometime in the fall.

Officers of the new council are Gerald Daley, president, John Riordon, vice-president, Marjorie Daley, secretary, Jonathan Branch, treasurer, and Dorothy Knowles, reporter.

The council will hold regular monthly meetings at the regional 4-H office in Bathurst on the last Monday of each month at 8 p.m.

Scholarship And Bursary

Gloucester Chapter I.O.D.E. wishes to advise students graduating from High School in District 4, they will be awarding a $150 bursary and a $150 scholarship for students who wish to further their education.

Information, regulations and applications are available at the schools.

Applications must be made on or before August 20th to the Gloucester I.O.D.E. Education Secretary, Mrs. Hugh Campbell, 590 Princess Drive, Bathurst, N.B.

Tracadie Holds Annual Festival

An eighteen-year-old Sheila girl, Linda Sonier, was crowned queen of the Bitowa Outdoors Fesitval Thursday, June 16.

A capacity crowd was on hand for the pageant ceremonies, which highlighted the four-th annual event sponsored by the Bitowa Fish and Game Association of Tracadie.

Hundreds of campers arrived on the festival grounds on Friday and set up camp for the weekend.

Close to 1,000 people turned out for the Fun Gardens on Saturday night at the Stella Marie Arena following a day of workshops on various sports activities.

On the final day of the festival, a mass was celebrated at the Park LeRoyer Barn. A festival parade followed, and a supper at W.A. Losier High School concluded the very successful festival.

Oldest Tune

Scholars at the University of California have produced a 3,400-year old record. The song is a cult hymn from the ancient city of Ugarit, in what is now Syria on the Mediterranean east coast. The song concerns goddess Nikkal, wife of the moon god, and it is probably addressed to her.

Old Age Pension Payments To Rise

Increases in the Old Age Security pension, Guaranteed Income Supplement and Spouse's Allowance, effective in July, 1977, were announced June 10 by Health and Welfare Minister Marc Lalonde.

Increases in Old Age Security pension and Guaranteed Income Supplement payments represent the fifteenth quarterly escalation based on the cost of living, as provided for in the Old Age Security Act.

The new monthly total at the single rate for persons receiving both the basic Old Age Security pension and maximum Guaranteed Income Supplement will be $250.19.

For a married couple, both pensioners, the combination of the basic pension and maximum supplement will provide a payment of $477.26 for the couple monthly.

The basic Old Age Security pension will rise in July to $147.05 from the present $143.46.

The Guaranteed Income Supplement is paid to pensioners whose income, apart from the Old Age Security pension, is limited. The amount of the supplement varies in relation to the amount of income.

The maximum Guaranteed Income Supplement for a single person, or a married person whose spouse is not a pensioner and is not receiving a Spouse's Allowance, will go up in July to $103.14 from its current $100.62. The maximum supplement for a married couple, both pensioners, will increase to $91.58 each from $89.35. Added to the basic pension, this will give each married pensioner $238.63 monthly, or a total of $477.26 for the couple.

The Spouse's Allowance is paid to persons between 60 and 65 of age who are married to Old Age Security pensioners and meet residence requirements. Entitlement to a Spouse's Allowance, and amount paid, is based on yearly income.

The maximum Spouse's Allowance will increase to $238.63 from $232.81. The maximum Spouse's Allowance is made up of an amount equivalent to the basic Old Age Security pension and the maximum Guaranteed Income Supplement at the married rate.

Administrators Clarify Stand

In view of the recent controversy regarding the reorganization of city schools, the District 4 English Administrators Association has expressed some concern that its position is being misinterpreted.

The association, which unites principals, vice-principals, and department heads, had earlier submitted a brief to the school board which did recommend the separation of French and English. However, association representatives pointed out, the board had requested a brief which would respect four pre-established criteria.

These included:

- that all schools be unilingual.
- that schools be established on a 6-3-3 basis (elementary, junior high, high school).
- that no new construction be anticipated in the immediate future.
- that the plan allow for the re-organization by September 1978.

A statement clarifying the association's position on re-organization contained the following points.

- that elementary schools be bilingual.
- that schools be organized on a 6-3-3- basis.
- that every section of the city have at least one elementary school.

Branch Lashes Amendment As House Session Adjourns

Nepisiguit-Chaleur MLA Frank Branch found time Thursday, June 16 for a final confrontation with the government before the 1977 legislature session adjourned.

Choosing an amendment to the Electric Power Act as his topic, Mr. Branch charged the government with creating extra positions so it would have "more hooks to tie old pals to." He asked what the qualifications would be for persons filling the new posts.

Power Commission Chairman William Cockburn said the qualifications were that a person should be a "well-rounded citizen of the province."

"How do you determine how well-rounded they are?" asked Mr. Branch. Treasury Board Chairman Jean-Maurice Simard entered the debate with an uncomplimentary invective directed at Mr. Branch.

Mr. Branch countered by asking if Mr. Simard was planning to retire and take one of the new positions created by the bill. "If so, I'll vote for it."

At this point, both Mr. Branch and Mr. Simard began shouting at one another so loudly that it was impossible to make out most of what either was saying.

"You won't return to this house", Mr. Simard said, "and that goes for you too, Robichaud". He was referring to Andre Robichaud, Liberal member for Shippegan-les-Iles.

Committee Chairman Leland McGaw rose to plead for order but was unable to restrain a guffas as he did so.

"The Tory underworld has many ways of accomplishing its ends", said Mr. Branch. "You spent more money trying to defeat me than to get your whole caucus elected."

"And it was worth every penny," called a government member from the benches.

Continued Mr. Branch, "When you consider how people are forced to pay even higher electricity rates, and now you are adding three more patronage posts to tie old pals to. One retired gentlemen brought his plate to me - he can no longer afford to pay his hydro bill - it's a shocking disgrace.

"I challenge you to call an election now. Go and advise your master. I sincerely hope there are at least one or two in the back benches of your party who are concerned about their constituents."

"It's too late for crying, you've lost your seat", said Mr. Simard.

"You've got them by the throat", said Mr. Branch; "and now you've got them up against the wall and you're trying to squeeze the last three cents out of their pocket. It's a total shame. What a way to go down."

"Sit down hog", said Mr. Simard.

"That is now parliamentary language", said Mr. Branch. "Is that any better than the word 'scab'? There are two sets of rules in this house". Mr. Robichaud was suspended from the house for two days for using the word "scab".

Mr. McGaw pointed out that Mr. Branch had just used the word himself. "I never called any member of this house a scab, much as I would have liked to", replied Mr. Branch.

Mr. Mooney asked Mr. Cockburn how much the new commissioners would be paid. Mr. Cockburn said he was not sure but he believed $18,000 a year plus out-of-pocket expenses.

"It's really disgraceful", said Mr. Branch. He was about to sit down, but Mr. Simard made a remark, whereupon Mr. Branch broke into French, and began repeating all that he had said in that language. Mr. McGaw ended the discussion by adjourning the meeting.

Library Statistics Show Increase In Membership

An 89 per cent increase in the number of students making use of Nepisiguit Centennial Library was noted recently in the ninth annual report by Librarian Sr. Claudette LeBlanc.

Statistics given for the year ended March 31, 1977 showed a circulation of 608 over the previous year. The largest increase was in the junior English department, followed by French adult.

A notable indication of progress was in the enrolment of 1562 new members, bringing total membership to 12,688. Also, 1751 books were added to the library's collection, which now numbers approximately 26,314.

The library receives 70 magazines and ten newspapers regularly which are available for circulation, and patrons continue to utilize the vertical files and record collection, which has a total of 164 records. A much-appreciated gift of 20 records was received during the year from Radio Station CKBC.

There were regretably fewer music appreciation sessions during the 1976-77 year, but the story hour, on the other hand, attracted a larger number of children and many took out books at the same time.

A small deposit of films was received from the National Film Board Office, with an increase of 22 per cent in showings noted. There were 182 presentations, with an attendance of 4550 children.

A total of 335 school classes visited the library during the year, a total of 7921 students. Teachers, who showed great co-operation with the library staff, were informed of services available to schools at the beginning of the year.

The library's second floor was the scene of several art exhibitions, both by local and out-of-town artists. All were well-attended and highly enjoyable.

Looking back on the library's past ten years of service, Sr. LeBlanc acknowledged the achievement of several aims and objectives through hard work and effort. "Our work is not finished, however, and there is always room for advancement and progress. It is with this in view that we enter into the work of this year", she stated.

Sr. LeBlanc thanked the following individuals and organizations for help during the past year.

Mayor John A. Duffy and city councillors; James MacEacheron, director of library services for N.B. and his assistant, Agnes Hall, and their staff, R. B. Richards, regional librarian; Dr. Alexandre Savoie, library board president and board member; the National Film Board Office. The Northern Light and Radio Station CKBC.

"Finally", concluded Sr. LeBlanc, "I wish to express appreciation to the staff for their excellent work and cooperation. All my appreciation and special thanks to Mrs. Lilian Arseneault for her precious contribution throughout past years."

Library staff members are, in addition to Sr. LeBlanc, Claudette Boudreau, Mrs. Bernadette McKendy, Marielle Landry and Mrs. Sharon Bourque.

Right To Strike Upheld By Labor

New Brunswick Federation of Labour President Paul LePage has described as "ridiculous" and "totally unacceptable" a proposal by the New Brunswick Public Employees Association to eliminate the right to strike for provincial public service employees.

"The New Brunswick trade union movement fought long and hard for the right to free collective bargaining for employees in both the private and public sectors and we do not subscribe to efforts by non-union associations to destroy these gains", said Mr. LePage in a prepared statement June 14.

"A system of public service collective bargaining involving establishment of a Joint Pay Research Board and compulsory arbitration of contract disputes, as proposed by the NBPEA, would not only see the right to strike lost but would also spell the end to free collective bargaining," he said.

"Public employees would find themselves permanently in the hands of a third party unatuned to the give and take of negotiations under the process of free collective bargaining," he said

"The NBPEA in advocating removal of the right to strike definitely does not reflect the views of organized labour in the Province but rather demonstrates its own inability to effectively represent its members at the bargaining table," declared Mr. LePage.

"It would appear to ourselves that the NBPEA, which represents only a few thousand of the approximately 30,000 workers under the Public Service Labour Relations Act, is simply anxious to have an outside party conclude its collective agreements for it," he said.

"The fact is, however, experience elsewhere has shown that compulsory arbitration of contract disputes is unworkable and only leads to a growth of illegal work stoppages," noted the Federation leader.

"As provincial spokesman for 46,000 workers, some 15,000 of whom fall under the PSLR Act the NBFL has and continues to support legislative changes that will effectively improve the collective bargaining process for public employees," said Mr. LePage.

"But what is needed are amendments giving public employees similar bargaining rights as workers in the private sector which would include removal of existing provisions requiring the designation of essential service employees in public service strikes," he commented.

"Free collective bargaining with the right to strike will work provided both sides bargain in good faith and, if as suggested, Treasury Board as employer will not, then the NBPEA should address itself to this problem and not the destruction of hard won legislative rights of workers," concluded Mr. LePage.

Halifax Hosts P.O.W. Reunion

A reunion of members of the Winnipeg Grenadiers and Royal Rifles of Canada, who were prisoners of war in Hong Kong, will be held in Halifax on July 1, 2 and 3 at the Army, Navy and Airforce Club, 2409 Maynard Street. This will be the first reunion ever held on the East Coast, although there are frequent reunions in Winnipeg. There are about 150 known POWs in the Atlantic Provinces.

These men were captured when the Japanese overran Hong Kong in 1941. Conditions in prison camps were indescribably bad, and those who survived to return to their homes in Canada still bear the marks and suffer the effects of the ordeal.

This will be a reunion of old comrades and a program of entertainment and tours being arranged by members of Citadel Unit of the Army, Navy and Airforce and about 50 to 75 veterans and their wives are expected. Billets are being provided by members without charge.

Letters have already gone out to all known POWs at their last known addresses, but some have been returned. It is hoped that through the news media, all will be informed of the reunion. Inquiries should be sent to "Hong Kong Reunion", 2409 Maynard Street, Halifax, N.S.

MANAGEMENT GROUP MEETS IN CHARLOTTETOWN

The Charlottetown Hotel was the scene of the 5th Annual Meeting of Atlantic Management Institute on Friday May 27.

The meeting was attended by members of the Institute and representatives of the business, government and academic sectors on Prince Edward Island. Guest speaker was Harley McGhee, assistant deputy minister (Atlantic Region) of D.R.E.E.

In his address, Mr. McGhee stressed the importance of improving the availability and use of training for managers in the region and congratulated A.M.I. on its achievements.

The Institute has received $1,030,000 from D.R.E.E. in the past 4 years and will receive a further $330,000 during 1977-78. Preliminary discussions are now underway which it is hoped will lead to an expansion of the program using a combination of both Federal and Provincial Funding.

R. J. MacLellan, general manager of Brookfield Foods Ltd., Truro, N.S. was re-elected for a second year as chairman of the Institute.

Vice-Chairman for a second year is Professor A. Cormier of Moncton University School of Business. Also from New Brunswick are L. Lockhart, president, Lock-wood Manufacturers, (Treasurer); J.B. Eldridge, Vice-President - Production, Atlantic Sugar Refineries, (Executive Committee Member); and J. R. Miller, Asst. Manager, Consolidated-Bathurst Ltd. (director).

In his report to the members, Mr. MacLennan spoke on a year in which a significant increase had been achieved in the amount of training taken by people at all levels of management. However, he cited the recommendations of a recent study which indicated that the use of training was still far below that considered appropriate in, for instance, Europe.

Further, figures published by Dun and Bradstreet point to the fact that over 90 per cent of business failures result from some type of management inadequacy.

For an improvement in the economic picture in the Atlantic Region to be achieved, no effort must be spared in raising the levels of management competence. Businessmen must recognize that money spent on training is money invested to raise profitability. Such was the concensus of the meeting.

Grant Aids Area Culture

Herb Breau, M.P. for Gloucester announced today on behalf on the Honorable John Roberts, Secretary of State that a grant has been approved under the program for assistance to official languages minority groups.

The grant to "la Societe culturelle de Tracadie" is in the amount of $4,575.00 It is intended as a means of cultural animation to help awaken the people of the Tracadie area to their cultural characteristics.

The group will direct a research of old implements and work sites; organize shows with amateur, semi-professional and professional artists in the general area of St.-Isidore, Sheila, Neguac, Tabusintac and Tracadie.

Mrs. Dianne Losier of Tracadie is responsible for the project.

NDP Executive Planning For Possible Election

The New Democratic Party of New Brunswick has named an election planning committee to prepare for the possibility of a summer election in the province.

Following the regular executive meeting of the party in Bathurst Saturday, June 18, Leader John LaBossiere of Rexton said although he is not convinced that Premier Richard Hatfield will call an election in the near future, the party executive decided to name a committee to work on a policy document in any case.

Mr. LaBossiere felt the government might delay an election for various reasons, such as economic failures in the province, kickback charges, and the high unemployment level, particularly with the recently-announced shutdown of the Canadian National Railway shops in Moncton for a two-month period.

Named chairman of the election committee during the meeting was Jim Aucoin of Fredericton, NDP provincial president. He was given powers to add members to the committee.

"Plans are to organize and hold a policy seminar August 18 - 21 at the Memramcook Institute", explained Mr. Aucoin. "Attending will be a maximum of 15 members."

"The main priority will be to hammer out a policy document. Candidates will then have the issues and some basis upon which to act before an election is called."

Mr Aucoin, who has served a provincial president for two years, reiterated he would be stepping down in order to concentrate all his time on election planning. His successor will be elected at the 17th annual provincial meeting in Fredericton Oct. 28 - 30.

In a crack at the premier for his hesitancy to reveal candidates' expenses during election campaigns, Mr. Aucoin said his party was releasing a full breakdown of his campaign

Authentic Attire At Acadian Village

Interest in Acadian fashions of two centuries ago?

Like to actually see how the men and women of old Acadia dressed for work or in their "Sunday best"?

You can find out all this and more at Acadian Historial Village, near Caraquet, which opens to the public on Tuesday, June 28, with official inaugural ceremonies scheduled for August 15. The site is open to visitors from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily.

Here visitors will be offered a look at the authentic style of dress which prevailed at the time of the Expulsion, a human tragedy retold down the intervening years through Longfellow's famous poem "Evangeline".

Acadian Historical Village, with its costumes and buildings, reflects in authentic detail the culture and struggle for survival of a people during the hundred years between 1780 and 1880. In retrospect the Evangeline costume, which has been worn by choral singers and during village festivals for so long, was perhaps influenced more by the poem than by Acadian history itself.

Research required to enable the Village workshops to prepare the costumes for the "inhabitants" was started in 1975, a labor of love that not only meant extensive reading but many visits to attics where old clothing had been stored and all but forgotten with the passage of time. Museums across the country proved of little help for the simple reason that the clothing just wasn't available for display purposes. It served its purpose then ended its days as part of patchwork quilts, rugs, hooked mats or even stuffing in upholstered easy chairs. These were days of austerity and everything was utilized in as practical a way as possible.

Acadian women and nuns wore traditional costumes. The nuns did not invent a costume, they simply took the dress worn by the women of their time and removed all its lace and embroidery. The rather severe simplicity of the Acadian woman's costume was due primarily to economic factors, and secondarily to religious factors.

Within a very short time, the Acadians settled along the New Brunswick and Nova Scotia coasts had access, through the Jersey Islanders fish trading posts, to a large quantity of imported merchandise, especially from England. There they could get Indian cotton, unbleached calico, serge, shawls, etc., to trim the fabrics they produced themselves.

The cut of their clothes remained simple, almost primitively so, and was based essentially on the square or the rectangle. Consequently, all features of the Acadian Women's costume such as neck scarves, head scarves, wide-brimmed hats (capine), skirts, petticoats, short capes and aprons were made according to a square or rectangular pattern. Even the pockets were rectangular pouches sewed to the petticoat or apron or suspended from a belt (double bag).

During the week, the 19th century Acadian woman would have work a skirt of locally made material with an apron to match, or a skirt of Indian cotton with an apron of plain white cotton or with a white background, a collarless blouse of Indian cotton, with long sleeves, a wide-brimmed hat or a straw hat for working in the fields, a bonnet for inside, and always within reach, a black shawl.

A woman's Sunday outfit consisted mainly of a skirt, a short cape, a neck scarf and coif (cap). A skirt was formerly called a "cotte". These Sunday skirts were full and varicolored, whereas those worn during the week were plain and dark in colour.

As for the men's costume, descriptions emphasize that it was less distinctive and attracted less attention than the women's. A man's dress consisted of a pair of long trousers with a flap buttoned on both sides. These trousers, made of pure wool material, twilled and ulled, were dark in colour, black, gray, brown or indigo-blue, and were worn with a shirt of course linen cloth or flannel. This shirt was open only a third of the way down in the front, was edged around the collar with a neck ribbon, and hung freely at the shoulders. Braces woven of plain cotton and dark - colored cotton with one or two narrow bright-coloured stripes held up the trousers.

For working around the farm, he wore a coat, an overcoat of heavy, strong, twilled cotton (wish) like the denim in today's jeans, which only came down to the waist. When the Acadian got dressed up, he wore a sleeveless vest of fine material and an elegant overcoat. On his head he wore a soft felt hat or a summer straw hat, in winter, a red tuque (knitted woolen cap), or a fur cap. On solemn occasions, he wore a top hat.

On his feet he wore grey or white wollen socks and moccassins, with or without leggings depending on the season.

Present-day observers would naturally take for granted that the clothes were too warm and too rough for comfort but such was not the case: the fabric kept out the heat as well as the cold and it had the great value of being durable. All things considered, these were the clothes which corresponded perfectly to the work and way of life of the 19th century Acadian pioneers.

Slump Worsens In Construction

By VINCENT EGAN
Business and Consumer Affairs Analyst
Thomson News Service

One of the basic industries that is being hit hardest by Canada's current economic slump is construction.

Canadian industry as a whole is operating at only 84.3 per cent of capacity. But in the steel-construction field, utilization is a slender 55 per cent of potential capacity - for the second year in a row.

That has led to the loss of about 3,000 structural steel workers' jobs. A recent survey of its members by the Canadian Institute of Steel Construction showed that employment in the shop and field will total about 11 million man-hours this year, down sharply from 17 million in 1974 and 1975.

The CISC member-firms fabricate and erect some 85 per cent of the steel used in construction of buildings and bridges in Canada. In a normal year, their bookings are about 400,000 tons, and were as high as 550,000 in the boom years of 1973 and 1974.

This year's estimated bookings: The same as 1976's volume of about 300,000 tons.

"This is one of the severest declines we have faced in nearly two decades", CISC president Geoffrey J. Jackson told the Institute's annual meeting the other day.

LACK OF CONFIDENCE

The slump in construction activity reflects "a continuing lack of confidence by the business community," he believes.

"We are limping along with an economy in dire need of some booster shots. In addition, we are caught up in the clash of some horrendous social and ideological differences."

Alex Garrick, CISC economist, cites these factors as contributing to the slowdown in activity:

- Concern that many Canadian goods are becoming less competitive on international markets.
- Environmental concerns and scarcity of capital, blocking some large projects.
- Anticipated shortages of energy, and the energy-conservation program.
- Political uncertainties related to Quebec.
- Low levels of profit, making it difficult to raise funds for expansion.
- Uncertainties regarding the post-control period.
- A glut of office space, restraints in government spending, and slowdowns in school enrollment.

And, Garrick adds, there is little pressure on governments to stimulate the economy - and thus to combat unemployment - because of increases in Unemployment Insurance benefits and in the number of wives in the labor force.

LOOKING AHEAD

No slump goes on indefinitely, however, and the CISC economist foresees a number of encouraging developments.

These include growth in the U.S. economy, "the sheer size of the $3.8 billion Bruce B generating station for Ontario Hydro," moderating interest rates and highly competitive conditions in the construction industry.

Geoffrey Jackson urged governments and other buyers of construction services to alert

New Prescription Service To Begin

Computerized prescription service is now being introduced to pharmacies throughout Atlantic Canada by compuPHARM, a division of Blue Cross of Atlantic Canada.

K. S. Hume, president of Blue Cross of Atlantic Canada outlined details of the new compuPHARM program to board members and guests of Blue Cross in Halifax June 17.

The new service is expected to begin early this July, with the first pharmacies using it located in Halifax, Moncton, Saint John, Bathurst and Edmundston.

Pharmacies subscribing to compuPHARM service will be able to process customer prescriptions more quickly and efficiently by use of a computer terminal.

As each prescription is filled, the pharmacist keys in relevant information on the keyboard of his terminal connected by direct link to compuPHARM's central computer in Halifax, adjacent to offices of Blue Cross at 1526 Dresden Row.

Within seconds, the prescription label and receipt are produced on the printer unit which is part of the pharmacist's computer terminal, located right in the pharmacist's dispensary.

At the same time, the pharmacist will also receive a print out of the last 10 prescriptions that particular customer has had filled at that pharmacy. This gives the pharmacist back ground information which could help him identify and prevent any potential drug interactions, as well as eliminate any duplicate submission of claims to third party prescription programs.

The compuPHARM service will also free pharmacies of much of their time consuming, prescription-related paperwork and record keeping.

In addition to recording each prescription, the computer also stores separately, information on all purchases under third party prepaid prescription programs. This in turn is made available to the company eliminating much of the paperwork presently required for such claims.

The computer system will be able to produce several different warning messages to indicate problems such as prescriptions ineligible to refill. These messages serve only as an advisory to the pharmacist who still has the final authority over what action to take.

Through the compuPHARM system, pharmacies will also receive a weekly report of all drugs being dispensed which require reporting to the Federal Bureau of Dangerous Drugs.

Blue Cross of Atlantic Canada selected the compuPHARM system after detailed study of similar operations which have been tried throughout North America. It is based on a similar system now in use in Quebec.

The program has been several years in the planning stage with service now scheduled to begin July 4. Following the initial installations, more pharmacies from throughout the four Atlantic provinces are expected to use the service. As demand increased, a second computer will be installed.

The dinner and reception in Halifax Friday evening during which compuPHARM was announced preceded the quarterly Executive Committee Meeting of the Blue Cross of Atlantic Canada Board of Trustees

Select Fisheries Committee Tables 33 Recommendations

Treasury Board Chairman Jean-Maurice Simard, chairman of the select committee on fisheries, tabled an interim report on behalf of his committee in the Legislature June 15.

The committee was formed in June, 1976 and held a series of public hearings between September, 1976 and March 1977.

Members of the committee besides Simard are MLAs James Tucker, DeCosta Young, Lloyd Folkins, John Turnbull, Norbert Theriault and Onil Dorion. Pierre Vagneux of the fisheries department served as secretary.

Following are the 33 recommendations contained in the interim report:

Resource Management

1.1 The Province should participate fully in consultations with the federal government on resource management.

1.2 The Province should encourage New Brunswick fishermen to organize and prepare representative views for presentation to the federal government.

1.3 The Province and the federal government should cooperate to provide improved training and information to fishermen in regard to resource management.

1.4 The federal government should review its policies to ensure an appropriate allocation of resources between offshore and inshore fisheries.

Manpower Development

2.1 The Province should formulate an integrated fisheries manpower development program which would include measures to encourage the entry of younger fishermen into the industry.

The Split between Inshore and Offshore Fishermen

3.1 The Province and the federal government should provide a forum for discussion of differences between inshore and offshore fishermen.

3.2 The Province and the federal government should encourage inshore fishermen to improve the quality and diversification of their catches and assist to a greater extent in the development of the inshore fishery.

3.3 In its review of resource management policies, the federal government should give consideration to increasing the share of available fish allocated to inshore fishermen.

Financial Assistance

4.1 The Province should give consideration to methods for improving the dissemination of information on the requirements for assistance from the Fishermen's Loan Board.

4.2 Financial assistance involving loans should be designed to allow repayment over a reasonable period.

4.3 Lending requirements should be applied on a consistent basis.

Insurance

5.1 The federal government should investigate the possibility of altering its insurance program to recognize:

a) the requirement of inshore fishermen for insurance for less than a full year; and

b) that some fishermen are less hazard prone than others.

Workmen's Compensation

6.1 The Province should investigate the possibility of expanding the Workmen's Compensation Program's coverage of fishermen, and all those engaged in the primary fishing.

Cold Storage, Ice Plants and Freezing Facilities

7.1 The Province and the federal government should investigate methods by which the construction of increased cold storage, ice making and freezing capacity might be encouraged.

Protection of the Acquatic Environment and Marine Acquaculture Development

8.1 Measures should be taken to protect the aquatic environment in areas with the most potential for marine aquaculture.

8.2 The Province should investigate ways to meet the need for technical staff trained in marine aquaculture methods.

8.3 The Province should assess the suitability of long term loans and-or grants as a mechanism to encourage development of aquaculture production.

Financial Assistance to Processing Plants

9.1 The Department of Fisheries and the Department of Commerce and Development should take steps to improve communications between the two departments on matters concerning assistance to processing plants.

Problems Related to Quebec's Regulations

10.1 New Brunswick fishermen who abide by the federal regulations should be permitted to fish without harassment in all Canadian waters.

10.2 The Province should request that the federal government protect New Brunswick fishermen from harassment by Quebec authorities.

Primary Fish Marketing and Fish Prices

11.1 The Province should provide more information to fishermen on fish marketing.

11.2 The Province should promote the concept of higher prices for premium quality fish.

11.3 The Province should encourage fishermen to increase their participation in the marketing of their products, and foster mechanisms whereby fishermen can collectively bargain prices.

11.4 The Province should investigate methods whereby a better balance could be achieved between the supply of fish and the demand for fish.

Research and Development in Aquaculture

12.1 The Province and the federal government should continue to support research and development of aquaculture techniques.

Sport Fishing vs. Commercial Fishing of Salmon

13.1 The Province should increase the penalties for illegal expenses when he ran in the Victoria-Tobique byelection last November.

Of the $1,695 expense, all but $300 came from individual public donations.

Commenting on the way the spring session of the New Brusnwick Legislature ended Friday, June 17, Mr. LaBossiere stated "the usual way of avoiding public input into decisions of government and most organizations is to leave all the important issues to the last minute and then ram them through very quickly. Legislation passed in that way is usually of dubious value."

He said the method of redeeming what was a "poor session" was not "the system of government that any thinking public should want."

Mr. Aucoin said there was general growth in party support in various parts of the province and he predicted increased support spinning off the "patronage and kickback issue."

He recognized the north-south economic and political split and saw the Bathurst area as fertile ground for NDP support for this reason.

Regarding other current issues, Mr. LaBrossiere spoke on the need for the provincial government to release information on the spruce budworm egg count and on the extent to infestation.

The NDP will request a meeting with the executive of the New Brunswick Federation of Labor believing that the NDP has more to offer labor then to do the two major parties whose structures are already determined.

REWARD

Brunswick Mining and Smelting Corp. Ltd. and Belledune Fertilizer have sponsored a study of lobster rate of growth in the Bay of Chaleur. This research programme is being conducted by Noranda Research Centre.

Approximately 2,000 lobsters have been tagged since 1973; the tag is a metal wire encased in plastic.

Since we wish to monitor the growth of these lobsters over the past winter, any fisherman who traps a tagged lobster is asked to send or bring it with its tag to the Technical Superintendent at either plant, who will pay the commercial value of the lobster, plus a reward of 5.00; the tag must not be removed from the lobster. We would appreciate receiving the lobsters alive.

Recovery of these lobsters is expected to be in the Bay area from Dalhousie to Petit Rocher.

Should anyone have no way of returning the lobsters to us, please, call us at either 522-2100 or 522-5250 and we will arrange to pick them up.

Delineation of Provincial Government Responsibilities and Federal government Responsibilities

14.1 The Province and the federal government should clearly establish and coordinate their respective responsibilities.

Fisheries Sub-Agreement

15.1 Canada and New Brunswick should enter into an agreement to provide for new and improved infrastructure such as cold storage, ice plants, and service centers, and mutually agreeable programs and projects.

The New Brunswick Department of Fisheries

16.1 The Province should increase its efforts to develop the fishing industry

16.2 The New Brunswick Fisheries Department should propose a strategy for the development of the fishing industry.

16.3 The New Brunswick Department of Fisheries' mandate should be expanded to include more responsibility with respect to the fish processing sector and with respect to inland fisheries.

Fleet Development and Boat Construction

17.1 The Province should propose a comprehensive five to ten year fleet development program. This program should be formulated in cooperation with fishermen, processors, shipbuilders and the federal government.

Future of Committee

18.1 The Select Committee should become a continuing Committee of the New Brunswick Legislature in recognition of the role of Fisheries in the economy of the Province.

18.2 The Committee should continue to investigate all opportunities for development in the fishing industry.

themselves to the current buyer's market, and to take advantage of the plentiful supply of materials and manpower and the keen competition for new orders.

That's one way to avoid the problems of peak demand and rising prices that are sure to accompany any future up-turn in economic activity.

Unfortunately, for the reasons cited by both Jackson and Garrick, decision-makers in Canadian business are likely to remain cautious about committing funds to expansion for the time being.

By Marg Jamieson,

Woman's Editor

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Barbery recently returned from Montreal after spending a week with their son, Mr. David Barbery, his wife and family.

Miss Karen Scott has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Scott, Rough Waters Drvie. She was accompanied on her return to Halifax by her parents, and her brother, Mr. Lester Scott and all attended Miss Scott's graduation exercises at Miss Murphy's Business College on June 3. She will continue special studies at the college there until Aug. 15. En route, they visited their daughter and sister respectively, Mrs. Merle Killam, Mr. Killam and children Susan and Keith at Lewis Mountain.

Mrs. Effie Audet returned home last Friday after spending a two-month holiday with relatives in Quebec and Ontario. Mrs. Audet visited mainly at Hamilton, Ont. with her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Heckbert and family and visited on several occasions with her aunt, Mrs. Allister Chamberlain (Valerie) and members of the family also residing in Hamilton and other nearby centres. She was also a guest of Mrs. Chamberlain on a bus tour of senior citizens travelling to Toronto to visit the CN Tower. Mrs. Audet spent the final two weeks as the guest of her cousin, Miss Mamie Fournier at Piedmont, Que. Before returning to Bathurst, she spent a couple of days at Fredericton with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Lamb and Mr. Lamb.

Among those attending the graduation of Danny Veniot at the Univrsity of New Brunswick May 19 when he received a Bachelor of Engineering degree, were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Veniot, Mr. Ross Veniot, and Misses Shirley Ann Melanson and Pamela Arseneau.

Miss Lynn Olscamp, Moncton, was the weekend guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ian Jamieson, South Tetagouche, and visited with other relatives in Bathurst and area.

Mrs. Zita Doucet has returned from Douglastown where she spent a week as the guest of her daughter and son-in-law, Sgt. and Mrs. Ronald Doucet and family. She also visited friends in Newcastle and Chatham.

Mrs. Douglas Wolfe and children Heather and Michelle, Pickle Lake, Ont., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Stratton.

Friends of Mrs. Frank P. Doucet formerly of Bathurst, will be sorry to hear she is convalescing at her home 23 South Hollywood, Daytona Beach, Florida, after spending two weeks at Ormand Memorial Hospital. Her youngest daughters, Mrs. Delphine Doucet of Montreal arrived as soon as possible to be with her mother. She, along with other members of her family and friends all wish Mrs. Doucet a speedy recovery.

PROSE CORNER

Ed's Note: A series of compositions written by Grade 5 students of Mary Gosnell School, concerning their trip to a Red Cross Youth picnic and several provincial points of interest, will be published in forth-coming editions of The Northern Light.

RED CROSS YOUTH
By KEVIN PETERS

In 1976 in Grade 5, we became a member of the Junior Red Cross.

January 22, our class of Mary Gosnell School was invited to a World Day Picnic. We were invited because we were a member of the Red Cross and that we finished three projects. They were: airplane posters (2) afghan (1) and health bags (8).

To get there, we had to plan our day so we decided first we should line up at the Kings County Stadium at Sussex, N.B. and to march a mile. We would go to Animaland also in Sussex and then go to Magnetic Hill, then to Wild Life Park and then go shopping.

Then came the hard part. It was raising the money. So our teacher, Mrs. Rose Mary Ronalds and us tried first a popcorn sale and made $10. So we decided to make another one and made $12. So that was the end of that.

We took in $1.50 from comic book sale and $5 from our funds. Then we had two fudge sales and made $20, slaves, $31, bottles, $27.80, then our principal, Mr. Douglas Henderson donated $20 off of the chips and bars.

We were very glad to hear that the Home and School Association gave us money for our supper. We had enough money to buy a milk shake, a big mac and some fries. The amount of money they gave us was $70.

We tried our best to get most of our mothers to come with us. Some of our mothers like Mrs. Gauthier, Mrs. Stever, Mrs. Peters and Mrs. Wood couldn't come because of work.

It was hard for us to get up at 5 a.m. in the morning but we were all there in time to go. Some people fell asleep on the bus. But woke up in time to go in the parade.

On our way to Sussex, we passed some interesting things like the coal factory. There must have been about 30 or 40 feet of coal, and going over the Chatham bridge.

When we got there, we formed a line and marched to where we belonged and in about an hour we started to march in a parade. We passed some interesting places like the cheese and milk factory and a bank with lots of plants in it.

Then came the TV coverage. He took a good picture of our banner and he got some of us on film and as we marched down Main Street, he got a clear picture of all of us.

We marched into the ball field where we had our picnic and the chief of the Red Cross, Mr. Vicar, gave us a speech and told us the, "Henry Dunet was sick and tired of all this nonsense like wars and seeing poor people die so he said, "Let's put a stop to this. We should help the poor. So he made a Red Cross club. Red Cross really means helping the needy and lonely."

At the cermony, Alan Scott of Mary Gosnell School of Bathurst gave his presentation. He started off by giving Mr. Vicar the note and offered him the afghan that we made.

After the ceremonies, we had our picnic. It almost rained. Ice-cream and milk was their treat. After the picnic was done, we left-right away.

We went straight to Animal and and saw lots of stuff. The moose was may favorite and the lobster.

At Magnetic Hill we went to a Wild Life Park where we saw lots of animals. The bear was my favorite. There we saw bears, timber wolves, skunks, rabbits, and deer and lots of other things.

Then we went to MacDonalds and our teacher asked for 28 milkshakes, 28 big macs and finally 28 fries. Every year at MacDonald's they have a birthday party, and we came in on one.

But we all had to go home. Everyone thought it was the end of the world. Everybody was played out and tired.

The most enjoyable thing that happened to me was the animals (Animaland) and there were lots of things to play on and lie on. Plus have fun on.

The most unenjoyable thing was going home. I wish I could live there and have all the fun I want.

Well, the day ended that everybody was glad and couldn't wait to tell their friends what happened.

INSTALLED IN CANDLE--LIGHTING CEREMONY

The annual meeting of the National Secretaries Association (International) Bathurst Chapter was held June 1st. In a colorful, candle lighting ceremony, the retiring president, Marguerite Mallais, assisted by Edna Clouston, installed the following chapter officers for the coming year.

Thelma Gionet, president; Phyllis Stothart, vice-president; Lillian Chick, recording secretary; Hilda MacKay, corresponding secretary; Evelyn Rioux, treasurer, and Marguerite Mallais, immediate past president.

Each new officer was presented with a red rose, the official flower of the association.

Mrs. Gionet reported on the 20th annual conference of the Canadian Division of the association which she had attended, along with 266 other delegates and members. It was held in Quebec City May 20-23.

The main topic of the conference was, The Challenge of The Future, said Mrs. Gionet. She added it was a very informative and educational conference which stressed leadership in the secretarial field.

RECEIVE GOLDEN AWARDS

UCW Makes Donations

President Mrs. Ellsworth Chapman chaired the June 6 meeting of the Central Unit of United Church Women held at the Memorial Hall, Clifton.

A worship period was held in the church with the Janeville unit in charge. It was conducted by Mrs. Harvey Caie and Mrs. Don Ellis on the theme, "vacation time".

The business meeting opened with members repeating the UCW purpose. Minutes were read by Mrs. Harold Jennings, secretary. Twenty-seven were in attendance.

The financial report was given by the treasurer, Mrs. Gordon Ellis who moved that all bills be paid.

Fly-Up To Guide Company

Ceremonies in the basement meeting hall of St. Theresa Church June 10 saw a flying-up, presentations of awards and badges and other events for Brownies of Pabineau District, Girl Guide Association of Canada.

Eight members of 1st South Bathurst Brownie Pack advanced to 1st South Bathurst Girl Guide Company in a traditional program conducted by Brown Owl Jeannine White.

The girls were welcomed into the company by Guide leaders, Captain Joan Kovats, and Lieutenant Anna Garrett and the Guides who were drawn up in their horseshoe formation.

Besides Mrs. White, the Brownie leaders include Tawny Owl Shirley DeGrechie, Snowy Owl Celia Glendenning and Happy Owl Patsy Branch.

Several badges were presented by Brown Owl Mrs. White as follows:

Craft: Wendy Beaulieu, Nancy Branch, Natalie Branch and Monique Goyette; Writer, Thrift and Book Lover: Natalie Branch; Collector: Cathy Moore; Bead Worker: Nancy Branch; Toymaker, Housekeeper: Wendy Beaulieu; Cook: Donna Siemieniuch.

Present as well were the parents of the Guides and Brownies, representatives of the District Local Association and the 1st South Bathurst Guides.

On behalf of the L.A., the chairman, Mrs Carmeline Lemieux, presented each of the Brown and Blue Guiders with a token gift of appreciation and acknowledgement of their work and leadership within the groups.

An entertaining program was presented after which a lunch, donated by the mothers of the Brownies was served by the Guides' mothers.

CWL MAKES DONATION TO GUIDES

Lucy Jarratt (left), Girl Guide Convener, presented a cheque on behalf of the Holy Family CWL to Lieutenant in the Third West Bathurst Girl Guide Company Gladys Groves June 4. The money will be used to purchase a flag for the Company.

VISITS SISTER AFTER 37 YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hussey of Iroquois Falls, Ont., are visiting in the city after an absence of 37 years. They are the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Colin Ramsay, Mr. Ramsay and family, Carron Drive.

Provincial CWL Councils Are Active In Many Spheres

"The Great Voice of God Cries Out for the Fullness of Life", was the theme of the 30th annual convention of N.B. Council of Catholic Women's League of Canada at Moncton June 3 - 5.

Over 100 delegates were registered at sessions held at the University of Moncton.

Provincial president, Mrs. C.A.O. Morris presided over the meeting and Msgr. D. C. Duffie welcomed the guests. Rev. Angus MacDonald, diocesan director, spoke briefly before business sessions and presentation of reports.

Mrs. Joyner Toner and Msgr. Duffie arranged workshops on Saturday afternoon.

The role of women in the church was the topic chosen by Rev. H. P. O'Connnor, OMI, Bishop of the Yukon, the convention's keynote speaker at the annual banquet.

The historian, Mrs. Chipman Kean of Campbellton presented the scrap-book award to Holy Rosary Council of Newcastle.

Mrs. O. N. Emery reported as convener of communications and public relations for the four dioceses in the province.

Mrs. Emery said greater use was made of the press to publicize CWL activities through its councils. She said radio broadcasts brought excellent results. One council strongly criticized television programs depicting violence and pornography and sent letters of protest.

PUBLICITY HELPS

The convener said the image of the CWL and its 5,000 members in New Brunswick has "bettered by the publicity of more frequent releases on the provincial level which go out to 14 newspapers.

Mrs. Frances Leger, community life convener, reported for the Saint John, Moncton, Bathurst and Edmundston diocese councils. Her sub-committee members included Miss Geraldine O'Brien, Mrs. George Garnet, Mrs. D. J. Smith and Mrs. Wm. Stone, Moncton, and Mrs. R. Warren, Fredericton.

Mrs. Leger noted each year shows a greater volume of work accomplished, with many hundreds of volunteer hours given to hospitals, alcoholic centres, CNIB, the VON, meals-on-wheels and the Red Cross.

The convener reported that concern for the elderly, the handicapped, the young and forlorn, assistance in county jails, and to the 4-H clubs are worthy of high praise and project a pleasant image of the CWL.

Mrs. Leger noted CWL members attend citizenship courts and actively participate in projects to assist the needy in their communities.

TRAINING AVAILABLE

In health, she pointed out that "training now is available for volunteers for specializing in certain work in hospitals."

Studies on pre-natal clinics, the banning of saccharin, immunization clinics and the establishment of the detoxification centre have been among projects of the councils, Mrs. Leger siad.
Leger said.

Members reported supporting all aspects of safety and many councils sponsored Grade 11 students to safe-driving seminars. Several councils were responsible for having safety signs placed on the highways.

Mrs. Leger reported the Human Rights commission has been supported and that resolutions were directed to the provincial government on child abuse.

As the provincial convener, Mrs. Leger also reported active participation in the Saint John Human Development project and, in addition to her duties, took part in two half-hour television programs on Human Development and Adult Education.

Mrs. Thomas Shannon, cultural life convener, said "great interest was shown by CWL councils in all provincial education programs." Members worked as teachers' helpers, helped with kindergartens and pre-school programs.

The minister of education was asked to restore driver education courses in high school, and for greater Canadian content in the school curriculum.

Mrs. Shannon said there was increased participation by the CWL in the various levels of the catechetical program, and that many certificates and awards in schools for art work had been made as part of the religious education program.

GIVES BURSARIES

Reports on theology for the laity "were a bit sparce", Mrs. Shannon noted. At all levels in the parish councils and at diocesan levels, bursaries continued to be given to students.

Mrs. Edgar Normandeau of Dalhousie, convener for organization, said the CWL has a total New Brunswick membership of, 5,000 including 18 life members and 103 honorary members.

The convener noted all dioceses are engaged in leadership training. She congratulated St. Thomas Aquinas Council in Campbellton for achieving an increase of 32 members. The Perth-Andover group increased by 10 members, four of them teenagers, Mrs. Normandeau reported.

The resolutions and legislation committee was presided over by Mrs. George Keegan, with sub-committee members, Mrs. E. J. Moran, Mrs. Austin Malone and Mrs. G. J. McLaughlin.

Mrs. Keegan reported a letter was sent to the provincial minister of justice regarding the condition of accommodations for women in provincial jails and several letters went to the minister of health concerning the establishment of the abortion clinic suggested by Federal Minister Marc Lalonde.

Semi-annual workshops will be held in October in Fredericton and will include a regular citizenship court hearing.

An invitation was extended by the Bathurst Diocese to hold the 1978 convention the first weekend in June in Bathurst.

The national scholarship fund of $5,000 to the Coady Institute in Antigonish to sponsor students in underdeveloped countries will continue to be a major project.

Members decided to continue donating one per cent of their personal money spent on luxury items and parish councils will contribute one per cent of all money raised to the Canadian Catholic Organization for Development and Peace, to assist in projects for clean water in the world by 1990.

Mrs. C. A. O. Morris of Riverview was re-elected president of the provincial council and Mrs. Thomas Shannon, Grand Falls, is first vice-president.

Other officers are: Mrs. Gerald Harper, Riverview, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. S. J. Campbell, Newcastle, 3rd vice-president; Mrs. Burton Rideout, Fredericton, secretary; Mrs. Leo Culbert, Woodstock, recording secretary; and Mrs. George Keegan, Harvey Station, treasurer.

Will Teach At Perth-Andover

Miss Jo-Anne Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Scott, 570 Queen St., received her Bachelor of Arts degree, with English major, from the University of New Brunswick, Fredericton, In May.

A 1971 graduate of Bathurst High School, Miss Scott attended Teachers' College in Fredericton for two years.

After teaching in Bathurst School District No. 4 for one year, Miss Scott resumed her studies at U.N.B. where she received a Bachelor of Teaching degree in 1976.

Miss Scott has acceped a teaching position with the Perth-Andover School District and will commence her duties in September.

Social and Personal

Mr. apd Mrs. Fred Atkinson, Sackville, spent last week here as guests of Miss Beulah Knowles. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hinton and other members of the family.

Mrs. Douglas Ross of Victoria, B.C. has returned home after visiting her mother, Mrs. A. S. MacIntosh. Enroute to Bathurst and also on her return to Victoria she visited her son, Sandy Ross and Mrs. Ross in Ottawa and her brother, Harold MacIntosh and Mrs. MacIntosh in Montreal.

Mrs. Dan F. Henry, Toronto, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred M. Doucet, 740 West Dr., while visiting her husband who is a patient in Chaleur General Hospital. Mr. Henry's many local friends extend speedy recovery wishes.

Mrs. Frances A. Aube, Brampton, Ont., arrived Saturday to spend the summer as the guest of her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Martin E. Aubie. She will also visit her sister, Mrs. Jane Doucet and other relatives in the area.

guest book for the church will be looked after by the treasurer.

Mrs. Hugh Jagoe reported on the recent Presbytery executive meeting. She asked if the unit would hostess the next one on Nov. 5. It was agreed.

Mrs. Chapman reported for the Presbyterial meeting held at Tide Head, at which six members were present. The memorial service was conducted by the unit. She also gave a report on the banquet held in Bathurst for the Shriners, and which proved a successful event.

It was decided to donate $500 towards a new garage and $500 towards the Manse fund.

The social action convener, Mrs. Byron Wiseman reported she had sent a parcel to Angola, Africa.

The next meeting will be held Aug. 29.

A film entitled, Partners, was shown, after which the meeting closed with benediction and lunch was served by the appointed hostesses.

Golden Rings Close June 29

The Golden Rings Club of senior citizens will hold its closing party of the year at their Bridge Street meeting quarters on Wednesday, June 29.

The weekly card games will resume again for the fall season about mid-September.

Paul Martel, president, and Albany Gionet, club delegate, accompanied by Mrs. Martel and Mrs. Gionet, attended the annual meeting of the New Brunswick Federation of Senior Citizens held in Saint John.

The Golden Rings held its first lobster party early in June.

STUDENTS INTERESTED IN MODERN METHOD

Grade Seven students at Mary Gosnell School accompanied by their teachers, Mrs Ruth Woodman, left rear, toured The Northern Light on June 10. The various processes concerned in publishing a newspaper by the offset method including make-up, photography, writing, and other phases were explained, starting with typing an article to setting and photography. Many of the group had toured the plant several years ago when it was a letterpress operation and showed deep interest in the modern method.

EMPLOYEE ACCEPTED AS LIFE TIME MEMBER

At the regular membership meeting of Local 550 CUPE, Bathurst Civic Employees Union June 13, Charles Hachey (left) newly elected president of Local 550, presented a Life Membership Card Certificate to Adrien Charette. The certificate was awarded to him for past services rendered to the local. Also elected were Raymond McKenzie, recording secretary, and Joseph Boucher, shop steward for the road division.

Sentence Increased In Holdup Incident

The New Brunswick Supreme Court, Appeal Division, has increased a 12 month sentence imposed on a Bathurst resident convicted of armed robbery following an appearance in County Court in Bathurst, and sent him to penitentiary for three years.

John Mackenzie was charged with armed robbery in connection with the theft July 28, 1976, of $501.25 from Jeannine Hache, an employee of the Bayview Drive-In at Beresford.

He appeared before County Court Judge W.W. Meldrum in Bathurst on April 14, 1977, and pleaded guilty to the charge. At that time he was sentenced to 12 months in jail concurrent to a two-year term he was serving for a conviction Sept. 2, 1976 on a charge of possession of the narcotic phencyclidine for the purpose of trafficking.

In the judgment delivered by Mr. Justice R. V. Limerick, assisted by Mr. Justice John N. Bugold and Mr. Justice Henry E. Ryan, the appeal court set aside the county court judge's sentence and imposed a three year penitentiary term, to be served subsequent to the sentence now being served for the drug offence.

Ronald Godin argued for the Crown in the appeal. Defence counsel was John Hazen.

Mr. Godin argued four grounds of appeal in seeking the increased jail sentence. He said the trial judge failed to take into account the aggravating circumstances of the robbery.

As well, he said the judge failed to take into consideration Mackenzie's lengthy criminal record, and he failed to consider adequately the deterrent aspect of sentencing on the accused and on the general public.

The final argument used by Mr. Godin was that the judge erred in principle in giving a sentence that was manifestly inadequate in the circumstances.

Many Building Permits Issued

A five year planning budget for Northeastern New Brunswick has been approved by the Belledune Planning Commission as a realistic assessment of the needs and financial requirements of the region.

At a regular meeting of the commission held recently in Beresford, the commission gave its full support to the budget approving its strategy and rhythm.

Also approved were the proposed amendments to the Petit Rocher municipal plan and zoning bylaws, with one exception. The commission felt that one certain parcel of land within the industrial fish-related zone proposed for residential use should be reserved for a more conforming use.

In other activities, commissioners heard a report on building permits presented by John Boudreau. A total of 78 residential permits were issued for the region during the month of May at a value of $2,199,900. Other permits issued were for major repairs (27), institutional (2), Mobile homes (13), commercial (2) and others (34).

Glass Ovenware

Foods bake faster in glass ovenware than in shiny metal pans because the glass collects and holds the heat instead of reflecting it. When baking in glass, reduce oven temperature at least 25 degrees Farenheit unless the recipe states it was written for use with glass ovenware.

NAMED SOLDIER OF THE YEAR

Once again this year, "B" Company 2RNBR (NS) is proud to announce its choice for Soldier of the Year. This year's winner is private Sylvio Hachey, who topped 15 other candidates.

To be eligible for the coveted trophy and cash award, a candidate must be of the rank of private for a period of at least one training year, for example, October to June. The candidate is then judged on his ability and willingness to learn, reliability in attendance both at night and on weekend training schemes, ability to follow words of command, as well as dress and deportment. The ability to work under the stress and strain of a close combat situation is also taken into consideration.

Presenting the award to Private Hachey (Centre) is Major W. D. Turbide, Commanding Officer, who was assisted by Corporal B.C. Arseneau. The presentation was made June 5.

Sentence

The robbery was committed while Mackenzie was awaiting trial on the narcotic possession charge. That offence occurred Jan. 9, 1976.

Mackenzie and Michel Doucet discussed the robbery while they were drinking at a Bathurst tavern. They were joined in the tavern by Claude Raiche.

All three men left in Mackenzie's car and they picked up a 22 calibre rifle at Doucet's residence before proceeding to the drive-in.

Raiche and Doucet, wearing nylon stockings over their heads and faces, approached the ticked booth, and the evidence indicates that Raiche broke the window with the butt of the rifle. Doucet then yelled, "this is a robbery, give me the money."

After obtaining the night's receipts, the two men ran to where Mackenzie had parked his car and they drove to the beach where the money was divided and the items used in carrying out the robbery were discarded.

Two days after the robbery, Mackenzie and Doucet were arrested in Moncton and Raiche was arrested in Bathurst.

After being convicted of robbery, Raiche was sentenced to two years less a day in a provincial jail, and Doucet was sentenced to eight months in jail by the Appeal Court.

Coffee Substitutes

Black and green teas, hot chocolate, bouillon, consomme and several commercial hot breakfast drinks—mostly made of grain roasts—are becoming economically popular when compared to coffee. Big spenders have another option: ginseng tea, a favorite of upper-class Asians, sells for about $150 a pound.

New DREE Deal Drops More Money In Area

Canada and New Brunswick signed a $95.5 million agreement at Campbellton June 23 to continue joint efforts for the longterm development of the Northeast of New Brunswick.

Marcel Lessard, federal Minister of Regional Economic Expansion, and Premier Richard Hatfield signed what is currently the largest subsidiary agreement between DREE and the province.

Costs incurred under the five-year agreement will be shared up to $67.2 million by Canada and $28.3 million by the Province.

This brings to 15 the number of sub-agreements between the two parties made under the General Development Agreement of 1974. A total $375 million has now been committed by both levels of government to joint development efforts in regional or sectoral agreements – $278 million from DREE and $96 million from the Province.

The new Northeast Development Sub-Agreement will focus on the realization of development opportunities throughout the Northeast Region, wherever they may exist.

The agreement will permit initiatives in all sectors of the economy – primary industries, resource processing, secondary manufacturing and the service sector – and in both rural and urban communities. Development opportunities include activities which offer increases in viable employment and earned income.

Five major programs, plus an implementation program, make up the agreement. Each is designed to build and enlarge upon the previous joint efforts and government in the region and improve the long-term well-being and standard of living of residents. Negotiations of the agreement followed a long period of joint planning and analysis, which included a major program of public consultation carried out in the winter of 1976.

The programs of the new agreement include industrial development, urban-industrial infrastructure, resource development, human resources, development, special housing, and administration and implementation.

The Northeast is defined in the agreement as including Gloucester and Restigouche Counties and Alnwick Parish in Northumberland County. It contains about 20 per cent of New Brunswick's population.

The new agreement calls for a co-ordinated effort to increase the application of existing federal and provincial programs to the Northeast region. Funding established under the new agreement will supplement existing programs applicable in New Brunswick and in the region. As in all multi-year agreements, provision has been made for on-going assessment of the effectiveness of programs and projects as well as flexibility for program review in the light of changing circumstances and priorities.

Past federal-provincial efforts in the Northeast of New Brunswick found their focus in the FRED Agreement (1966-76). Principal objectives of this agreement as revised in September 1972 were the creation of the greatest number of productive jobs and improvement of employability of area residents.

At the signing of the revised FRED Agreement in September, 1972, Canada and Province jointly committed themselves to a continuing concern for the economic and social problems of Northeast New Brunswick. Both governments expressed willingness to undertake joint programs necessary to improve conditions there.

Canada and the Province took part during the last year in joint planning and public consultation to determine future development effort necessary in the Northeast region. These efforts culminated in the comprehensive programming embodied in the agreement signed today.

DAVID E. BRANCH

Named To Top Hockey Post

Canadian Amateur Hockey Association President Gordon Renwick is pleased to announce the appointment of David E. Branch, 28, as CAHA executive director, effective September 1, 1977. He replaces Gordon Jukes, who is retiring after 15 years.

The Bathurst native, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Allie Branch, now of Toronto, has been secretary-manager of the Ontario Hockey Assn. since 1973.

Prior to that time, Mr. Branch was a representative for a large financial institution. He was educated at the School of Business and Administration at the University of Massachusetts, majoring in economics, accounting, marketing and public relations.

Mr. Branch played with the Toronto Marlboro organization for two years prior to receiving a hockey scholarship to the University of Massachusetts where he played with the "Redmen" for three seasons.

In the summer months, while attending university, Mr. Branch worked as counsellor and office manager for the Haliburton Hockey Haven Boys' Camp.

Besides his responsibility as OHA secretary-manager, Mr. Branch found time to coach minor hockey in his community for the past five years.

He is an honorary member of the Canadian Blind Hockey Association.

Mr. Branch is married to the former Charlene Carney of Toronto and they have a year-old son, Barclay. Family connections in Bathurst include two aunts, the Misses Marjorie and Mildred Branch, and an uncle, Lloyd Branch.

Commenting on the appointment, Mr. Renwick said: Dave's experience and ability in working with volunteers and professional people makes him an excellent choice."

Feds Responsible For Local Language Issue?

Deeply concerned about the School District 4 proposal to reorganize City of Bathurst schools on the basis of first language, a Bathurst parent places the blame squarely on the federal Official Languages Program.

"I believe that the federal Official Languages program and the manner in which its monetary incentives or reimbursements are forced upon the provinces, causes the provincial education departments to abuse the intent of the program by pressuring their local school boards to divide their districts, or collectively, sections of a province, on the basis of language," declared Peter K. Gummer.

"This means an ultimate segregation of communities on an ethnic and religious basis," states the Bathurst geologist who is the father of two young children.

Mr. Gummer believes bilingualism, biculturalism and unity can never be achieved in Canada based on such policy.

"Such vote-winning policies sing the death toll of our freed and just society the outcome can only be deep racism, increased regional economic disparity, and an intense emphasis on geographical boundaries peculiar to the various ethnic groups involved," asserts Mr. Gummer, who has been searching out the reason behind the local proposal for the reorganization of schools along linguistic lines.

"The Official Languages Program must be corrected immediately," the Bathurst man declared in a prepared statement backed by facts and figures.

He says Canadian, English or French, are being taught to identify with bilingualism, but bilingualism, as interpreted by various ethnic groups, does not have "A strong common denominator."

As a consequence, suggests Mr. Gummer, problems have arisen and the necessary basic ingredient for success—tolerance—is being "Stretched to the limit". He says when it breaks ethnic groups will bitterly oppose each other.

While claiming there are many reasons for such developments, Mr. Gummer says the principal ones are linked directly with federal policy.

In the way of explanation, the federal bilingual development programs "are designed to provide an increased opportunity for members of the majority official language group in each province or territory to acquire

Decision On Language Issue Expected Tonight

A special open meeting of District No. 4 School Board to decide on the future of elementary and junior high schools in the city has been set for today (Wednesday) at 7 p.m. at the board office on King Avenue.

The decision was made at the regular meeting of trustees on June 23 which was attended by close to 100 concerned parents. A total of six briefs were presented to the board, all in opposition to a proposal which would see the reorganization of city schools on a unilingual basis.

Presenting the briefs on behalf of the parents were Linden Thurber (in English) and Renee Buraglia (in French) for Sacred Heart School; Nick Kovats for South Bathurst School; George Robertson for Mary Gosnell School; Alyre Hachey for Assumption Academy; Hugh Campbell for Superior School, and Jim Duncan for Holy Family School.

All submissions were totally opposed to the separation of pupils along linguistic lines. Arguments given included the bilingual nature of the city, the social and psychological effects on the children, unnecessary disruption and confusion of bus scheduling and other routines, loss of learning time due to increased busing, and the creation of prejudice in the minds of future adults.

It was pointed out that the same number of students would have to be re-arranged among the same number of schools and mobile classrooms with the same number of teachers. One brief, from the Holy Family group, suggested the present bilingual school setup be expanded and improved so that children could become truly bilingual in a bilingual community, province and country.

Chairing the meeting was Mrs. Joyce Mann, who voiced agreement with the overwhelming feeling of those in attendance.

Other trustees felt more study should be given to the points in the briefs, and some even suggested the matter should be left to the incoming school board.

Members voted 6-4 in favor of a special meeting to decide the issue.

299 Are Graduated By Nepisiguit High

Nepisiguit High School held its sixth annual graduation Sunday at 3:30 p.m. There were 299 graduates. The exercises were held in the school's auditorium. There are 1250 students and 62 teachers at the Polyvolante.

Daniel Saulnier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Valmond Saulnier, 962 Manor Ave., received the Governor-General's Medal for attaining the highest marks.

Guy Roy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albanie Roy, Beresford, was valedictorian. He recapped the life of a student from grade 1 to 12.

Jean Cadieux, president of the University of Moncton, the guest speaker, compared the students' present situation to that of the past, before the existence of the University of Moncton, the Community College, etc. He also emphasized the greater opportunities which have become available to Acadians and francophones.

Mr. Cadieux presented a personal scholarship of $50.00 to Hilaire Saint-Pierre, president of the student council, for his dedication to the Acadian cause. Jeanne Duguay received a scholarship from the University of Moncton and one for $200 from les Dames d'Acadie.

Other students receiving scholarships, ranging from $300 to $2,500, from the University of Moncton were Jacques Cool, Mona Drysdale, Monique Lagace, Hilaire Saint-Pierre and Daniel Saulnier.

Lionel Bruneau, school principal; and Roland A. Ouellet, superintendent of School District No. 4, also addressed the graduates.

Rose-Marie Cool and Harve Theriault acted as masters of ceremonies.

The piano processional was played by Francine Cormier.

Following is the list of graduates:

Parish Debt Written Off

A special mass was celebrated by Msgr. Edgar Godin, Bishop of Bathurst, at Holy Family Church Monday, June 27.

The ceremony was to mark the burning of the 16-year-old mortgage which has now been paid off.

The church officially opened in 1961 with Rev. Omer LeGresley as parish priest, followed by Rev. Moise Arsenault. For the past 12 years the parish has been under the capable direction of Rev. Noel Cormier.

The cost of the building at the time of construction was $300,000.

During the same evening, a surprise going away reception was held for Father Cormier. He is being transferred in the near future to Louisiana where he will continue working in his vocation.

NEW APPOINTMENT

Mrs. Chris Daigle, newly-appointed manager of Sears in Bathurst, is the first member of her sex to hold such a post for the company here. She replaces David Lee, who has been promoted to regional sales manager and transferred to Moncton.

It was in 1958 that Mrs. Daigle first joined the Sears organization. She was moved up to desk supervisor in 1964. The firm's present local staff consists of 50 full-time and part-time employees in the catalogue sales, service and credit departments.

EXPORTED BRAINS

Ingenuity it might be said, is the middle name of a former Bathurst resident, William Hall, who migrated to Toronto some years ago.

On June 13, Mr. Hall received a $50 award from DRG Packaging Ltd., a metropolitan printing concern, for a suggestion to improve service and safety in the plant.

It was Mr. Hall's second such award this year and his 14th during his career as an operator of rotagravure and rotary high-speed presses for the same company.

Mr. Hall's latest suggestion (no. 76-032) has been reviewed and accepted by the Suggestion Plan Committee. An order will be issued to the Engineering group to initiate the installation of protective plates on our ink pot pumps to reduce the fire hazard.

The man with the inventive mind who has been commended by his employers for "this very excellent idea" is a son of Mrs. Amos Hall and a brother of Allan (Sonny) Hall and Junior Hall, Murray Ave.

ATTENTION CB-ERS

All CBers who will be converging on Bathurst this weekend to participate in the Bathurst Community Radio Service Club Campout should become acquainted with the regulations governing the use of Channel 9. This channel is to be used only in emergencies and for calling other stations.

CBers are also reminded of the rule which limits the exchange in communications to 5 minutes. This is to ensure that other licensed GRS operators have an opportunity to use the channels.

TIPS AND TAXES

Among papers presented during the recent Conference of Canadian Learned Societies in Fredericton was one by Dr. P. Fenton Hay, Ottawa chief of the Economic Division of the Dept. of Consumer and Corporate Affairs which he prepared on behalf of the federal government. Dr. Hay is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hay of Bathurst. Rodmar Ltd., a newly-incorporated firm based in Bathurst, according to The Royal Gazette. The organization, it is stated, carries on trade and business as innkeepers and cabaret and dining room operators at 100 Main St. under the title Gloucester Motor Hotel. Listed as principal officers of the company are R. Archibald and Marjorie K. Archibald. Joe Flynn, a familiar name in both teaching and sporting circles, leaving Sacred Heart School after 10 years to assume a new appointment as assistant principal at Chalmers effective in Sept. Bill MacTavish has deserted the automobile field after all these years to join Canadian Life Assurance Co. as sales rep for Northeastern N.B. and based in Bathurst. At a Bathurst session last week J.L. Albert Robichaud, Edmundston, L.C. Ayles, Campbellton, and Frederic Arsenault, Bathurst, elected president, vice-president and secretary-treasurer respectively of the N.B. Provincial Court Judges' Assn. Maud Smyth and Ann Hay who recently stepped down after capably serving as secretary and treasurer of NRDC since 1965 cited and gifted during a directors' meeting June 25 at the Fundy Line Motel which they attended as especially invited guests.

Former residents, Mr. and Mrs. Elliot Branch and son Arthur, Peterborough, Ont., currently visiting the city after an absence of four years, are being warmly welcomed by relatives and friends. Lobster season in area extended 5 days after the June 30 deadline.

Candidates for Brunswick Mills takeover narrowed down to three choice applicants, according to Hon. Roland Boudreau, who adds that a decision is to be made in short order. V.M. Arseneau, 1285 St. Peter Ave., Bathurst, winner of The Northern Light's Atlantic Sweepstakes for June 22.

The Holy Family French and English choirs, under the direction of Mrs. Jean-Eudes Doucet and Thomas Kyte respectively, rendered a number of appropriate selections for the occasion.

Before lunch was served to the clergy and parishioners, presentations were made by the following persons and groups to Father Cormier: members of the French and English choirs, Mrs. Frank Russell, on behalf of the CWL; Basil White, representing the community of St. Anne; Jean Brideau, on behalf of the Holy Family Credit Union; Mrs. Gerald Arseneau and George Daigle, representing the bingo workers; and Gene LeBlanc, president of the Parish Committee, on behalf of the committee and parishioners. Mr. LeBlanc was also emcee for the evening.

Souvenir plaques in commemoration of the "Burning of the Mortgage", were given to all in attendance.

a knowledge of their second official language, and for members of the minority official language group in each province or territory to be educated in their first language."

Stated Mr. Gummer, who has lived in other parts of Canada and in other countries, "These objectives led to the development of programs of federal-provincial co-operation in fostering bilingualism in education."

"In particular, I am concerned about the policies as they affect our children at the elementary and secondary levels."

The young parent went on to outline two of the many incentive repayment plans which the federal program offers the provinces.

1. "Contributions for education in the minority official language. For every full-time student enrolled in a minority official language school, each province receives 9 per cent of the overall average annual cost of educating a student in that province. A full-time student is here defined as one who receives at least 75 per cent of his education in the minority language at primary levels or at least 60 per cent at secondary levels.

This refers to schools in which courses are conducted in French only except for the second language instruction.

2. "Contributions for teaching the second language. For each student studying the second official language, a province receives 5 per cent of a prorated portion of the average annual per student cost.

This refers to schools in which courses are conducted in English only, except for the second language instruction.

"It is apparent," observes Mr. Gummer, "That the province can increase its take of federal reimbursements by closing bilingual schools and building entirely unilingual ones."

"What this means is that with an estimated annual student educational cost of $1,000, New Brunswick could conceivably apply for .09 x $1,000 equals $90 per student enrolled in a French school, but only about $1,000 x .05 x .15 equals $7.50 for students enrolled in an English school."

"In the latter case it is assumed that the pro-rated portion of the cost of teaching a student his second language is 15 per cent of the total cost", explains the Bathurst geologist.

"With such a price differential being placed on our students it is difficult to comprehend that one of the province's objectives is unilingual education?" asks Mr. Gummer.

"But more importantly, do we as parents and interested citizens realize that this separation of different ethnic groups can serve no purpose other than promote social unease, racism, unhappiness and insecurity in our children?" concluded Mr. Gummer, who has been closely watching the efforts being made in this direction on the local scene.

STUDENT OF THE YEAR AWARDS PRESENTED

Paul Ouellette, principal of South Bathurst School, presented the annual Student of the Year Award at the closing banquet and dance at the school on Friday, June 17.

Kim Wilbur, (center), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Wilbur of Big River was presented the female Student of the Year Award. Kim is an honor student who has also been vice-president of the student council, a member of the chess club and active in winter carnival planning and activities.

Kim is an avid athlete playing on the school's volleyball, basketball and badminton teams and was presented a most valuable player award for volleyball earlier in the school year. She was also active in intra-mural sports.

Kim has won a number of essay contests sponsored by the "Moncton Daily Times" and the Royal Canadian Legion and has had her poetry published in a number of national, provincial and local journals.

Derrick Daley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Daley of 180 Melanson Drive, who received the male Student of the Year Award, was president of the student council of the 1976-77 school year.

He, too, is an ardent athlete, playing on the school's soccer, volleyball, basketball and badminton teams. He was presented the most valuable player award for basketball.

Derrick also played intra-mural sports and was a member of the cards and chess clubs. He took an active part in planning the school's variety show and winter carnival.

Ten girls and twelve boys were eligible for these awards which required an average of seventy-five per cent or higher and participation in ten or more school sports and activities.

Governor-General Opens Acadian Village Centre

Governor-General Leger was presented with a canvas-mounted picture of Babineau House, situated at the site, which was done by a Bathurst photographer, Micho. In turn, His Excellency presented a copy of an old map of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia to Jean Yves Theriault, director of the historical settlement.

Other guests at the official function included Premier Richard Hatfield, Lieutenant-Governor Hedard Robichaud and Mrs. Robichaud and New Brunswick Education Minister Charles Gallagher, the Minister responsible for historical sites, Msgr. Camille LeBlanc, local MLA Onil Doiron as well as the mayors of surrounding communities in the county.

After the opening of the administration building, the party moved to the reception centre where guests were introduced to the Governor-General's party.

During the banquet, well-known Acadian folksinger Donat LeCroix sang a repetoire of songs, including the Acadian Song.

Flowers were presented to Mme. Leger and Mme. Robichaud by Michelle and Philip Theriault, Acadian children who were dressed in authentic Acadian costumes.

Jean Nowlan, textiles curator for the fillage, presented Mme. Leger with a shawl while Lieut. Gov. Robichaud and Premier Hatfield were given souvenir portraits of the site by Clarence LeBreton, village historian.

After dinner and the signing of the guest book, the entourage proceeded to the projection room where they viewed the premiere of a 21-minute slide film show depicting the history of the Acadian people as well as the progress during the actual building of the historical site.

The administration centre of the Acadian Village was officially opened by Governor-General and Mrs. Jules Leger June 21 during a five-day visit to New Brunswick.

Under cloudy skies and a steady drizzle, the Governor-General voiced words of praise for the historic site, saying more projects of a similar nature are needed across the country "so that younger and older generations alike can see the actual history of our country as it was long ago."

The inclement weather prevented a scheduled tour of the village by a horse-drawn carriage, but the vice-regal couple did tour the site by automobile.

Long Time Coming

The highway bridge on Route 11 at Bass River, at the city's east end, is being replaced by a modern three-lane structure.

This action is long past due. Remembered with sadness are the many lives lost at this narrow, horse and buggy, one-lane river crossing, not to mention the costly damage resulting from numerous accidents.

Those who regularly use the Bass River Bridge rejoice as they observe the preparations now being made to replace the present out-of-date construction. They will gladly endure any inconvenience occasioned in the interim.

The question which remains to be answered is why has it taken so long to replace this death-trap? Nowhere else on Route 11 is there to be found a one-lane crossing as has existed at Bass River.

An excuse could be made if this highway was one with a minimum of traffic. It is not. This part of our transportation system is one of the busiest in the province.

There have been many petitions in the past to remedy this dangerous situation, but without success. The attitude of the authorities appeared to be that they would replace the bridge when they were good and ready. It is gratifying, nevertheless, to know that that day has finally arrived.

Manners and Morals

The Legislative Assembly of the Province of New Brunswick has ended its spring session. Many people of the province will breathe a sigh of relief. They were becoming a bit tired of the antics of some of the MLAs.

Our elected representatives are sent to Fredericton to arrive at decisions that will be of the greatest benefit to the largest number. To really accomplish this they must act like mature adults.

This characteristic was sadly lacking in not only a few of the members of the Legislative Assembly during the past session.

Reports came almost daily of MLAs shouting and needling each other. Verboten language was used. Physical force was threatened. One occasion a member was ejected.

Many citizens are relieved that the sitting is over and just in the nick of time. Summer visitors are coming from other provinces and from other countries. It would be just as well if they remain ignorant of what has been happening in Fredericton in recent months.

It would not be fair to those concerned to make this criticism without mentioning the fact that the MLAs did agree on some thing. As a matter of fact, the very last week they were in Fredericton they were unanimous one piece of policy. That was that their salaries should be raised and their expense accounts increased.

Say It Isn't So!

With the passing of the years, Canadians have watched those organizations and institutions in which they had placed their trust and faith, fall by the wayside. They were shown to have strayed from the pedestal on which they had been placed.

There is a feeling of sadness in the hearts of many to see these beloved establishments exposed for wrong-doing,or suspicions of it.

Canadians have always hungered for something of which they could be justly proud. It was hockey for a time until our teams failed to measure up in world competition. We hurt inside when other countries outplayed us.

The RCMP were the best force in the world and they were Canadian. Movies were made showing their bravery, skill and vision. Books were written about them. They travelled to other countries and were cheered by the crowds.

Yes, Canadians had the RCMP and swelled with pride. Now they are disillusioned on learning its reputation has been damaged or smeared. Let us hope that a disclosure of the true facts will decree otherwise, or, in other words, will prove that another idol has not fallen.

MAJORETTES BRING HOME 45 TROPHIES

Industrial Growth Principal Objective

Main single thrust of the Northeast agreement signed at Campbellton June 23 between Canada and New Brunswick to facilitate development in the region revolves around two programs, industrial development and urban-industrial infrastructure, at a total cost of $47.1 - million, of which the federal government will pay $36.3-million.

Industrial development initiatives are the cutting edge of economic development. This program has the responsibility for identifying the kinds of industries needed to improve the Region's industrial mix and attracting them in sufficient numbers to suitable locations in the region.

The Industrial Development Program seeks to make the conditions in the Region favorable for the location, expansion, and modernization of the desired industries to encourage the creation of new jobs in these sectors during the 1970's.

The program includes provision to stimulate and support new private sector investment and re-investment in large-scale resource processing enterprises, by making provision for extraordinary infrastructure requirement.

Small business development has not been overlooked. Two million dollars has been allotted to support continuation of small business incentives (the NED program) in the region.

Under the Urban-Industrial Infrastructure Program (estimated cost $23.1 - million of which the federal share is $17.3 - million), the biggest slice amounting to $8.5 -million goes for the provision of serviced commercial and industrial land and plant facilities where there exists an identified need.

Another $6.2 -million will allow for provision of essential infrastructure to adequately

We were happy to see printed in the May 16th issue of your Northern Light the article written by Gabrielle Vienneau deploring the fact that pornography is so wide-spread in our book stores and elsewhere in our City of Bathurst.

She is to be commended for her effort. May other interested and conscientious parents and Christians have the courage to complain and to try to do something to correct this unhealthy situation.

We also hope and pray that something will be done about the wave of filthy television programs that children and others are exposed to more and more each week.

Surely the minds of all our society have not fallen so low. Let us campaign and do something now.

Strong Bid For Ethnic Harmony

Bathurst,N.B.,
June 27, 1977

From what I can perceive, the majority in our City of Bathurst, wish to keep our schools bilingual. But it seems a minority are trying to enforce their unilingual concept on the rest of us. Such a concept, if successful, will be at the expense of our youngsters, for such a system will sow seeds of difference, hate and bigotry between them.

My primary education was French through a bilingual school system and it worked well. There was no dissention between us, we got along excellently, and lasting friendships were developed on all sides.

By examining our high school system, which was originally meant to be bilingual, but somehow didn't turn out that way, we can get an insight into what might happen. I think none can deny that there is a definite aura of separation, friction, trouble and if not outright hate between the two. Let us hope it does not get any worse. Please do not install this feeling in our kids. Leave them along and let them get along as the true brothers and sisters they are.

According to some I am an Acadian, whatever that is supposed to mean. To my point of view, because an accident of birth makes me English, French, Chinese or whatever, does not make it necessary to pound my chest in puffed up pride. I hate labels, even nationalistic ones, so do not pin any on me, be it francophone, Acadian, white even Canadian...I am a member of the human race, and when we can look at and love one another and say we are no better than our neighbours, be they white, black, yellow, rich, poor, english, French, etc. and do something about it, such as helping our brothers suffering hunger in all parts of the globe, then that will be something to be proud of.

Proud of being a member of the global community, and not of some narrow minded nationalistic clique, whoever they may be.

There are those who fight for silly causes on all sides of the ethnic fence, and I am sure that had the laws of chance reversed their so-called ethnic origins, they would still be just as vigorous in their inane wranglings, BUT for the opposite causes they now espouse. It all seems so pointless.

We are all brothers, let us try to get along, even though we have to give in an make sacrifices on all sides, sacrifices which do not really amount to much if we are honest about it. The end is worth it. Let us unite in unifying peace and harmony. Remember the infant who was born two thousand years ago, who came to make us one in Him. His cause and sacrifice was really something. I cannot agree with the view that holds growth is stunted if not unilingual, to me the opposite makes more sense.

As the recent peace marches in Ireland aptly showed, the majority of the people want to live in harmony but a minority will not let them. Let us hope that the minority viewpoint is not allowed to prevail in our city and that we are allowed to continue to let our children to intermingle and live in harmony.

La pornographie aujourd'hui, les crimes demain

Aimez-vous Bathurst? Je suis fiere de ma ville et je trouve deplorable qu'on permette à certaines personnes de Montréal d'apporter leurs revues obscènes dans notre belle petite cite.

Souiller l'esprit d'un enfant c'est l'amener au viol, ou meurtre et à bien d'autres crimes semblables.

Tout acte criminel est précédé d'un processus d'apprentissage. Quand vous attaquez l'innocence d'un enfant, vous le dépouillez de sa moralité et vous le laissez avec une conscience très large.

C'est avec regret que je constate que nous avons parmi nous, plusieurs adultes qui ont perdu le sens des valeurs. Quand une personne met la valeur de l'argent au-dessus de la moralité d'un enfant, la situation est grave. Je ne peux respecter ces personnes.

Citoyens de Bathurst, voulez-vous que Bathurst devienne une cité comme les autres où l'immoralité domine? Sinon, dites aux libraires et aux petits magazins de jeter leurs revues obscènes à la poubelle.

Dites leur que vous ne voulez pas que Bathurst suive le courant, que vous ne voulez pas que l'esprit de vos enfants soit souillé. Dites leur que l'innocence de vos enfants vaut plus que l'argent.

La vie est le cadeau le plus précieux que Dieu a donné à la terre. C'est un cadeau sans pareil. Il n'y a rien de plus beau qu'un bébé, mais hélas il perd son innocence tellement jeune. Parents, vous agissez peut-être en toute bonne foi, vous faites sans doute tout ce que vous pouvez pour le bien de vos enfants. N'oubliez pas qu'il y a un certain nombre de parents qui negligent cette responsabilité. Ceux-ci ne savent pas ce que leurs enfants font, ne connaissent pas les lieux qu'il fréquentent et ces parents ne s'en inquiètent pas. Ces "enfants des rues" sont les premiers à "profiter" de la pornographie. Leur intelligence se nourrit et devient préoccupée jusqu'au moment où ils veulent expérimenter. Si nous ne venons pas au secours de ces enfants, qui le fera?

Ces enfants qui essaient de s'élever sans l'aide de leurs parents ces enfants qui déjà à l'age de 12 ou 13 ans, sont si gâtés que les parents ne peuvent plus les contrôler, exercent une influence sur nous enfants.

Si nous ne réalissons pas contre cette invasion de saleté, nous sommes responsables pour les conséquences graves qu'elle engendre. Ne fréquentez pas ces boutiques. Ne soyez pas de témoins passifs.

Gabrielle Vienneau

A Francophone Point Of View

BATHURST, N.B.
June 24, 1977

(Following is the text of a letter forwarded to individual members of the Board of Trustees of School District No. 4)

Since we will not be given the opportunity to express our views publicly on the question of unilingual school to be discussed at your special meeting of June 29, 1977, we wish to draw your attention on certian procedures that we deem less than honest.

1. The press release asking for public reaction on the reorganisation of the schools in the City of Bathurst appeared only in the English press. The parents of French students were not therefore called upon to express their views.

This explains why all the briefs received were favorable to English oriented thinking.

2. Do you realize that the English population has always had unilingual schools? Even today, Superior, Gordon J. Chalmers and Mary Gosnell Schools are unilingual.

On the French side there is only one unilingual elementary school and it is located at the other end of the city and it is filled to capacity already.

Has hot the French population also the right to send their children to unilingual schools if they so desire? How can they do that if you do not provide such facilities?

3. A few years ago when an honest effort was made to obtain the opinion of the different groups concerned, did you not get such strong arguments that the committee at that time chose to recommend unilingual schools for the district. Yourselves when reviewing these briefs earlier in the year did you not again recommend the same line. The Board acted on your recommendation and voted at its May 26 meeting to aim at reorganizing the district so as to make all schools unilingual. Now that the reaction of only the "right part" of the population has been heard you are trying to reverse that decision.

4. Harmony and "bonne entente" exists between the two ethnic groups as long as the francophones do not ask for anything. The reaction of the public and the trustees at the June 23 meeting when translation of the English presentations was requested is a good example of this fact.

5. Refuse today the rights claimed by the French groups and you will sow the seeds of discord. The French element is not anymore at the stage of keeping its mouth shut and swallowing its pride. They have rights and will stand for them even it is necessary to have recourse to drastic means.

6. The whole controversy brings out in the open the urgent need for autonomous unilingual districts since a bilingual school board does not seem to be able to understand the rights and needs of a major portion of the population.

Hebert Cops Provincial '77; Racing Resumes Tonight

Moncton native, Paul Hebert, powered his 340 cu. in. Dodge Duster to a first place finish in the Provincial "77 feature event at Danny's Speed-Bowl last Friday evening. Hebert also picked up a third place in a Preliminary and a second in the semi-final.

Frank Fraser, driving car No. 23 from Halifax, was second in the gruelling 50 lap feature, followed closely by defending Provincial champion Adelard Cormier and Salisbury native, Paul Lewis.

The fastest time of the evening was turned in by Fraser at 16.9 seconds. Cormier clocked 17 seconds flat while Hebert was timed at 17.3.

Twenty-four cars registered into the pits for the Provincial, one of the largest turnouts ever at Danny's Speed-Bowl. Eighteen cars qualified to start the feature.

Racing was superb with Bathurst cars showing that they can compete. The best showing by a Bathurst car was that of the Pepsi entry driven by Fred Rosengren who finished ninth in the feature. Best TV's entry, driven by Ligouri Roy, finished fourth in the 1st Prelim. Vic Aubie, in his Coca Cola car, performed very well while Kenny's Trucking, driven by Murray Branch, along with the Gilles Morrison car, experienced mechanical difficulty all evening. The Kenny car developed heating and oil pressure problems early and was unable to live up to its potential.

Track Talk

After two rain-outs, the Provincial '77 was certainly no disappointment to the multitude at the Bowl...There were no major delays, which sometime draw the ire of the faithful fan...the only complaint heard was in the inadequacy of the sound system...Top Bathurst car in the time trials was the Pepsi car driven by Fred Rosengren who was clocked at 17.5 seconds...Track officials should be well-pleased with the good looking cars at the Bowl—probably the finest looking cars around are right here in Bathurst...Staff at Danny's should be complimented on the excellent and speedy way in which the race card was run...Parking lot conditions should be 100 per cent for tonight's card, as will the track infield...Bayside Chrysler sound truck much in evidence at the bowl during the race - a very colorful addition to this year's racing... also in evidence was the grooming of the speed bowl staff, sharply dressed in white jackets...Jack Scott has a car that should be ready for Wednesday night...the line-up Friday was a regular Who's Who in stock car circles as there were four cars from Saint John, three from Fredericton, five from Bathurst, one from Halifax, four from the Miramichi and seven cars from Moncton...A very impressive start!

$15.60 GETS YOU $25.00

TD SAVINGS CERTIFICATES

— a great little investment

If you think you need a lot of money before you can make an investment, then here's something that will change your mind . . . TD Savings Certificates.

TD Savings Certificates are available for as little as $15.60*. In six years, when they mature, you receive $25 for each $15.60 invested. That represents an attractive guaranteed return of 8%* per year, compounded twice a year, on your investment. Of course, you can cash TD Savings Certificates anytime before they mature, but your investment will earn a lower rate of interest.

TD Savings Certificates are an ideal way to help your savings program along. Use your Family Allowance cheques to purchase them regularly or buy them whenever you have a little cash left over at the end of the month. And because they're investments there's less temptation to cash them before maturity.

TD Savings Certificates are just one of a wide range of TD Term Deposits. Drop in to your nearest TD branch soon and see which one best suits your needs.

Mooseheads, Remparts Post Wins In Chaleur League

Bathurst Mooseheads and the division leading Green Point Remparts managed to get in winning games on the weekend in the rain-plagued East Division schedule of the Bay Chaleur Baseball League.

The Mooseheads unleashed their vaunted power again Monday night as they banged out 17 hits on their way to a 19-3 triumph over the Schooners.

In the Beresford game, the Mooseheads wrapped up the win early with a 7-run fourth inning for a 14-0 lead before Beresford scored their three-run total in the bottom of the inning. John Doucet started on the hill for Bathurst and gained the win although he was relieved in the fourth by Ivan Smith after Danny Arseneault and Ron White had tagged him for homers. Cleo Godin came on in the seventh inning and finished up.

Roger Boudreau was the starter and loser for Chalet Sportiff. He got relief from Danny Arsenault in the third, Gilles Pitre in the fifth and John Godin in the seventh.

Jackie Roy led the Bathurst hitting parade with four singles while Dan Ross and Ivan Smith each connected for three base hits. Winner John Doucet helped his cause with a circuit clout and a single.

At Neguac, Frank Legace pitched a five-hitter and fanned five in picking up the win for the Remparts. Starter Levi Muise was the loser with help from Walter Vautour in the fifth.

Camille Guitard, Bert Legace and Gerald Roy all smashed homers for the winners with Guitard adding a single to his performance. L. Godin led the Neguac attack with a double and a single.

In a West division game played Monday, Campbellton Hawks shaded Point La Nim Arrows 14-12 as Sterling Loga drove in six runs for the winners including a three-run homer in the fourth inning. Loga added a double and single while George Parker also homered.

Future Games

The Mooseheads are scheduled to visit Notre Dame Red Sox tonight in West Bathurst while both the Red Sox and Mooseheads play doubleheaders this Sunday. Mooseheads play in Neguac at 1:30 p.m. game against the Alpines. In the evening, the two Bathurst clubs switch opponents with Bathurst in Tracadie and the Red Sox at Neguac.

Red Sox Upset Green Point For 1st League Win

West Bathurst Notre Dame Red Sox finally came through with their first win in the Bay Chaleur League this season last Thursday. And they didn't pick on a "patsy" as they fashioned a 9-6 upset over the Green Point Remparts, current leaders in the league's East division.

In another East division contest last Thursday, Tracadie Alpines doubled Neguac Schooners 4-2 behind the combined four-hit pitching of winner Sam Richard and reliefer Bob LeBreton.

At the West Bathurst field, big Bob Hachey started on the hill for the Red Sox but gave way to winner Peter Ruddock in the third inning. Hachey gave up four runs on three hits while Ruddock was tagged for two runs in the fourth but blanked the Remparts the rest of the way on a total of six hits. Charles LeBlanc was the Green Point starter and suffered the loss with relief from Charley Doucet in the 6th.

Jean-Guy Pitre led the Red Sox 10-hit attack with a pair of doubles while Donnie Arseneau, Alvin Pitre and Jean-Marc Daigle each clubbed a double and single. Bob Hachey, Albert Pitre and Dave Furlong singled for the other Notre Dame hits.

Michel Hachey stroked a double and single and Rod Grant singled twice to pace the Remparts at the plate. Vince Doucet also singled twice while Charles LeBlanc doubled and Jessie Legace and Camille Guitard added safeties.

Bathurst Tops Fredericton 6-1 In Senior Soccer

Mal Rodgers and Phil Eddie each blasted a pair of goals to lead Bathurst to a 6-1 victory over Fredericton in New Brunswick Senior Soccer action on the weekend in the capital city.

Other Bathurst goals came from Andy LeBlanc and Paul Delicaet while Ian Anderson avoided a shutout for Fredericton.

This coming July 1 weekend, the Bathurst team will represent the city in a Maritime Senior Soccer Tournament scheduled for Charlottetown, P.E.I.

The Bathurst team is still seeking a sponsor or sponsors-anyone interested in sponsoring the team, which will be representing the City of Bathurst in the N.B. Senior Soccer League, is asked to contact Gary Hall, 440 Murray Avenue, telephone 546-3584.

Sportsmen Edge Golden Hawks 4-3

Vic's Sportsmen nipped Chatham Air Base Golden Hawks 4-3 in Miramichi Valley Fastball League action last Saturday.

Peter Mercer hurled the win and got solid hitting support from Jim DeGrace and Mike MacDonald. DeGrace clubbed a triple and a double while MacDonald doubled and singled. Andy Trusiak also contributed a double.

Off To P.E.I.

The Sportsmen will be travelling to the Island to participate in the 7th annual P.E.I. Open Fastball Tournament scheduled for Charlottetown starting tomorrow and concluding Sunday, July 3

First game for the Sportsmen is set for tomorrow at the City Diamond where they'll face the Liverpool Schooners starting at 2:00 p.m.

Thirty-two teams from all over the Maritimes will compete in this annual Fastball Tournament.

Oland's Softball League Results

Monday, June 20

Sumner Tire was awarded the victory in hotly disputed game with Nadeau Poultry. Sumner held a 19-10 lead when a brawl broke out and the game was stopped in the sixth inning. The brawl resulted in Nadeau losing a player for the remainder of the season while Sumner lost a player for two games. Fines were also handed out to the two suspended players. Byron Boucher (1-3) pitched the win while Serge Roy (2-1) took the loss. Jean-Marc Lavigne clubbed a bases-loaded home run for Sumner. The game was played at Coke's field in East Bathurst.

Thursday, June 23

Sumner Tire broke an 8-8 tie with 9 runs in the sixth inning and went on to a 17-8 come-from-behind win over the slumping Murphy's Esso squad who suffered its fifth straight loss. Jacques Boucher belted an infield home run in helping Allan Daigle (3-1) win his third game of the campaign. Roger Martel (1-3) was tagged with the loss. Donald Kinsmen had a double and triple for Murphy's in the game played at the College field.

Friday, June 24

Murphy's Esso ended its five-game losing streak by handing Pepsi Cola its fourth loss with a 13-10 win over the second place team. Robert LeBlanc who scored four runs and drove in another with two singles, and Ronny Doucet who scored three runs and drove in two more with a double were the main contributors to Murphy's win. Eric Chamberlain tripled and scored three times for the losers. Carl Smith (1-3) picked up the win with reliever Roger Martel gaining the save. Kenneth Hachey (3-2) was tagged with the loss. The game was played at Coke's field.

Sunday, June 26

Wye Electric won its seventh game in eight starts by pounding Sumner Tire 18-8 in a game played at Rough Waters field. Gary Peters (6-1), who is considered the top pitcher in the league, was the winner. Allan Daigle (3-2) suffered the loss. The game marked the half way mark of regular Season play.

Club House Chatter

News notes from Gowan Brae Golf and Country Club by Jean Boylan

If the first Husband and Wife Tournament is an indication of things to come, then the next two will be indeed enjoyable. Most people just ignored the cloudy skies and turned up to play and have a good time.

The low gross for the day was earned by the two enthusiastic couples who drove up from Caraquet despite the weather. It was a draw between Henri and Jacqueline Mourrant, and Blanche and Theo Comeau, and the Mourrant's broke the tie by having the lowest score on number 9. Third low gross was won by Peggy and Ray Nadeau whose highlight of the day was the 40 foot putt he sunk on number 4. There was a three-way tie for 4th low gross. This was earned equally by Pat and Rex Edwards, Doris and Armand Roy, and Jean and Bob Boylan.

And then there were the golfers who competed in the "fun" category, although I think we all qualified for that division. First prize in this group went to Lois and Ian Tower, and second was jointly shared by Noreen and Jim Duncan, and Brenda and Richard Toth. Richard says his prize more than compensates for the 9-iron he bent on a birch tree on number 1.

The next Husband and Wife tournament is scheduled for the end of July, and who knows, maybe the sun will be shining.

There was an omission in last week's report of the Father's Day tournament, and that was the winners of the Father and Daughter twosomes. The low gross for the day was won by Ian Stothart and his daughter Gail, while low net honor went to Jim Schnarr and daughter Stephanie.

The Tuesday evening Mixed Two-balls have begun and will continue each week throughout the summer. Tee-off time is at 6 o'clock and a search is on for volunteers to help with the lunches afterwards. With different people to do their part each week, the burden will not rest on a few.

A few reminders before I sign off...Don't forget to sign up for Ladies' Field Day on July 2nd; luncheons begin next week on July 6; and rain or shine, Ladies' Day tee-off is still Wednesdays at 9:30 a.m.

See you next week...

CONNIE GAMMON

Admitted To The N.B. Bar

Miss Constance Emma Gammon, B.A., LL.B., who received her law degree from U.N.B. in May, was admitted to the New Brunswick Bar June 24.

After graduating from Bathurst High School in 1970, Miss Gammon attended Mt. A., where she was awarded her BA in 1974.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Hope Scott and the late Lloyd Gammon.

Attending the ceremonies in Fredericton last Friday were Miss Gammon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. B. Scott, a brother, Charles Scott, and friend, Velma MacKay, all of Bathurst.

She has accepted a position as a Law Clerk to the Justices of the N. B. Supreme Court Appeal Division, Fredericton.

Among Riders In Royal Parade

Many relatives and friends of Corporal Tom Gammon of Ottawa, formerly of Bathurst, viewed his appearance on T. V. June 6th with the Musical Ride participation in the Queen's Parade-Silver anniversary.

Cpl. Gammon is the son of Mrs. James (Hope) Scott and the late Lloyd Gammon. He was married in October 1976 to the former Shelley Lockwood, R. N. of Kingston, Ontario.

Cpl. Gammon has since returned home after a 3 month tour of the British Isles.

Before going overseas he visited his mother and sister, Mrs. Ken Eddy in Halifax where his nephew Michael Eddy was in hospital.

NATIONAL EXPOSURE FOR ACADIAN MUSICAL GROUP

Among the top recording artists and featured performers drawn together to provide the entertainment for the third "Loto Night in Canada" million-dollar giveaway June 19 none received so great an ovation as Beausoleil Broussard, a quartet of Acadian folk musicians.

The group, of course, had special interest and appeal in Northern New Brunswick since three of the four talented young artists, all of them both vocalists and versatile instrumentalists, are from this area.

Jacques Savoie and Claude Fournier, Bathurst, are sons of well-known residents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexandre Savoie, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fournier, respectively. Isabelle Roy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roy, Caraquet. The remaining member of the ensemble, Johnny Comeau, comes from Saulnierville Station, N.S.

Responsible for both the music and lyrics used by the group (called after a pioneer Acadian patriot) are Messrs. Fournier and Savoie. A long-playing record cut this spring is going well and another recording is scheduled for later in the year.

Beausoleil Broussard recently completed a Canadian coast-to-coast tour and is otherwise very much in demand for engagements. Last weekend, for instance, they performed in Montreal in connection with the St.Jean-Baptiste celebrations. After their June 19 exposure to a television audience estimated at six-million, their popularity is expected to sky-rocket.

Inspects Area Postal Setup

Postmaster General Jean-Jacques Blais made "an impressive" first official visit of municipalities and postal facilities on June 24 in a get acquainted tour of the area, Restigouche MP Maurice Harquail said.

Mr Blais, who assumed his present cabinet post in September of last year, spent the day touring facilities within the federal constituency, visiting with civic officials in Petit Rocher and Nigadoo in the morning, then on to Jacquet River, Dalhousie and Campbellton where he met with a delegation from St. Quentin.

The minister was "very sympathetic" to the needs and wants of those regions visited, promising in most cases to have his department look into the matters brought before him in future weeks, noted the MP.

Mr Blais, accompanied by Mr. Harquail, arrived at Charlo Airport at 10 a. m. Friday from where he travelled to the Beresford and Petit Rocher areas to meet with civic officials and view existing facilities.

The most pressing need in the Petit Rocher post office set up is adequate parking facilities, according to officials there, said the MP.

(See Inspects Page 8, Col. 1)

People Considered Important Resource

Development of both human and natural resources is a principal focus of the new New Brunswick Northeast Sub-Agreement signed in Campbellton June 23 by Marcel Lessard, Federal Minister of Regional Economic Expansion, and Premier Richard Hatfield.

The agreement recognizes that the people of the Northeast region are its most important single resource. An amount of $12-million is dedicated to human resources development, and DREE will contribute up to $7.875-million toward the goal.

Underdevelopment of the human resource in terms of the skill required by growth industries is the greatest single barrier to the full development of the regional economy, said DREE Minister Marcel Lessard and Premier Richard Hatfield.

It cannot be expected that the industries employing newer technology and paying higher wages will expand significantly in the region, they said, unless measures are taken to provide an adequate supply of workers with the skills needed for advanced industrial operations.

To this end, they said $9 million will be used to develop post-secondary technological education at the New Bruns-

INSPECTS

The minister promised to have his department get together with municipal and school board officials (since the office is located near a school) in the near future.

The meeting would be to eliminate what is considered a congestion problem and to discuss future needs, said Mr. Harquail.

In Jacquet River, the Postmaster General met with a group from the International Institute of Cultural Affairs currently doing a study of Lorne. Part of the project deals with the need for improved postal service in the region. The group presented the minister with a brief on this aspect of their research.

wick Community College Bathurst campus on an accelerated basis. It will meet the technical and technological training requirements of New Brunswick and the northeast regional economy, including the development of physical facilities, buildings, equipment and library expansion.

The need for special employment is recognized. There is a plan to initiate, promote and support employment creation and rehabilitation programs for the chronically unemployed creation and rehabilitation programs for the chronically unemployed and underemployed. The $1.5 million allotted for this allows for testing innovative approaches to successful employment creation among the work disadvantaged.

Two other programs are aimed at resources development and housing.

One provides housing improvement through supplementary financial assistance for the installation of water and sewage facilities for owner-occupied homes meeting the criteria for home improvement loans from the New Brunswick Housing Corporation.

The agreement will seek to expand the capacity of Participation-Habitant-Tracadie, and to support the creation of comparable organizations in other locations, in order to improve the delivery of special housing programs and to contribute to improvements in the housing stock and the labor force in the region. An amount of $400,000 has been set aside for this.

The other program provides support for resource development initiatives and tourism under a $26.5 million program. The federal share of this, through the Department of Regional Economic Expansion will be $19.9 million.

Resource Centre development claims $14.5 million. This is to provide in selected rural locations, concentrations of infrastructure and industry related services necessary to keep and add to the economic life of resource industries.

A further $6 million will go to Resource Management, to create employment through the improved management and utilization of the renewable and non-renewable resources of the region and to capitalize upon the region's tourism potential.

The $4 million allotted to resource industry opportunity search and promotion is to provide research, technical and staff resources necessary to identify and define development opportunities based on resource industries and tourism.

JANET DEMMINGS

Gets B. Ed. From UNB

Among those receiving diplomas at University of New Brunswick graduation exercises in Fredericton May 19 was Janet Leigh Demmings.

Miss Demmings, who was awarded a Bachelor of Education degree, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Demmings of 904 O'Neil Avenue. She is a 1972 graduate of Bathurst High School.

JANE NEVILLE

Licensed To Practice Law

Among 50 new lawyers admitted to the New Brunswick Bar in a ceremony held June 24 on the UNB Campus in Fredericton was a Bathurst young woman, Miss Jane Neville.

Miss Neville is the daughter of Mrs. Jacqueline Neville, an instructor at Northeast Institute of Technology (Bathurst Community College), and the late Mark Neville, a onetime Fredericton barrister.

Following graduation from Msgr. LeBlanc High School in Bathurst, Miss Neville attended St. Thomas University, Fredericton. She was awarded her BA degree by Dalhousie University, Halifax.

Miss Neville, who is at present vacationing at the family home in Beresford, has no immediate plans for the future.

REV. EVERETT HAWKES

New Minister At St. Luke's

The pulpit at St. Luke's Presbyterian Church in Bathurst, vacated some months ago with the departure of the former minister, the Rev. Thomas Aiken, will be filled as of July 1 by Rev. Everett Hawkes, B.A., B.Th.

Mr. Hawkes, a native of Maine, received his education at Wheaton College, Illinois, and at Westminster Theological Seminary, Philadelphia.

He and his wife spent one year at a mission school in the Kentucky mountains and five years in a pastorate in Maine before applying to the Mission Board of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. By coincidence, his first preaching engagement in Canada was at St. Luke's in 1953.

Mr. Hawkes has served in the Presbyterian Church at Estevan, Sask. and at several points in Ontario - the latest being the charge of Madoc, Tweed and Ormsby.

The Hawkes have three children, one of whom is the wife of a former minister of St. Luke's.

The Rev. Mr. Howard McPhee of Tabusintac, who has been interim moderator for the congregation during the vacancy, preached his concluding sermon last Sunday.

Services hence forth will be held at 11 a.m.

ANNOUNCEMENT

CHAPMAN-GODIN—Mr. and Mrs. Donald O. Godin are pleased to announce the engagement of their eldest daughter Catherine Elizabeth, to Wells B. Chapman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth E. Chapman of Janeville. The wedding will take place August 6th at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, East Bathurst.

IN MEMORIAM

PAYNE—In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Mrs. Allan Payne, who left us June 29, 1972.

Time goes on and memories stay
As near and dear as yesterday
It's not the words for they are few
It's the loving memories we keep of you
Always remembered by daughter Phyllis, son-in-law Ernest Sealy, son Clifford, daughter-in-law Anne, grandsons, Ricky and Ryan.

BROWN—In loving memory of a dear Grandfather and Great Grandfather William J. Brown who passed away June 15, 1973.

We often sit and think of him
When we are all alone.
For memory is the only friend
That grief can call its own
Like ivy on the withered oak
When all other things decay
Our love for him will still keep
Green, and never fade away.
Always remembered and sadly missed by Margaret, Roy, Debbie and Wendy Reilly.

DOUCET—Mrs. J. Rudolph Doucet wishes to thank Dr. A. Mazerolle and the nurses and staff of 2nd floor for the care and kindness shown her while a patient in Chaleur General Hospital. Also relatives and friends for flowers, gifts and visits.

CARD OF THANKS

GARRETT—The family of the late Mr. William Garett wish to express their heart felt thanks and appreciation to Dr. White, nurses, and staff of the 4th. floor Chaleur General Hospital for the care and kindness extended to Mr. Garrett while a patient there. Also to Elhatton's Funeral Home, Rev. Father Fournier, Father Boudreau, relatives, neighbours, and friends for their many acts of kindness shown. For floral tributes, masses, and many donations to the cancer society and other organizations. Your kindness will always be remembered.

GODIN—Alban Godin desire remercier Dr. Murthy, Dr. Wade, Infirmiere et Personnel du 3ieme plancher de l'hopital General Chaleur. Aussi le pere Jules Genereux pour leur bon soin et bonte durant son sejour a l'hopital. Surtout ceux et celles qui l'ont visite et ont envoye des cartes de retablissement.

PUBLIC NOTICE
Conflict of Interest

The Law Amendments Committee of the New Brunswick Legislature will receive submissions until July 15, 1977, with respect to the outline of Government policy pertaining to conflicts of interest effecting elected persons and appointed public servants.

The Conflict of Interest paper deals with Legislative Assembly members, members of the Provincial Civil Service, appointees to Boards, Commissions and Government Agencies, Municipal Councillors and Municipal Employees.

Matters for consideration include financial interest, public contracts, prohibitions on fees and gifts, abuse of privileged information, appointment to public employment, holding compatible offices, and corrupt practices.

The Committee will consider to what extent spouses, and children shall be brought within the reach of rules relating to conflict of interest, involving elected officials.

The Committee will be pleased if persons and organizations interested in the problem of conflicts of interest of public officials and employees would communicate with the Committee.

Copies of the White paper may be procured from the office of the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly, Fredericton.

Submissions and requests to appear may be sent to:

CANADA WEEK PROCLAMATION

To honour Canada, our land created by the fusion of two founding cultures, enriched by the contribution of many other cultures, fatherland of all Canadians.

To honour this country, home of over 22,000,000 people, proud of their heritage and the freedom they enjoy.

To honour this land of peace and prosperity, this promised land of untold resources.

To honour this country which is ours, of which we all are proud, I hereby proclaim the week of June 25th to July 1st "CANADA WEEK"

Thus, I invite the citizens of Bathurst to celebrate it by striving to know our country better, by flying our flag, by participating in CANADA WEEK and by promoting Canadian unity. Dated in the City of Bathurst, this 24th day of June, A.D., 1977

JACK & THE JESTERS TO PLAY HERE

Vic's Sportsmen To Host Jack & The Jesters July 6

Jack and the Jesters, a five man fastball team from Peoria, Illinois, will be visiting Bathurst next Wednesday July 6, with the intention of teaching Vic's Sportsmen, of the Miramichi Valley Fastball League, a few lessons on how to play the game.

The contest will be staged at the Coronation Park baseball field with starting time set for 6:30 p.m. Tickets at $2.00 for adults and $1.00 for students are now available from stores displaying the game posters or from members of the Vic's Sportsmen team.

The Jesters feature 20-year old Rusty "Jack" Sparks, the world's youngest and fastest "trick" fastball pitcher, who learned his stuff from Eddie Feigner, the King of the famous "King and his Court" team who performed against the Sportsmen here last year.

Sparks pitches from second base, between his legs and behind his back during the game in his efforts to confuse opposing hitters.

Other members of the team include T.C. Collins who plays the infield, Leroy Star at first base, catcher Archie Hamm and outfielder Rick Paychex.

Star doubles as the team comedian and has the ability to throw three balls simultaneously in three different directions.

Rick Paychex is the speedster on the team as well as possessing a fantastic throwing arm. When he's playing the outfield he can convert base hits into outs by nailing the runner with a bullet throw to first base.

A favourite defensive formation of the Jesters includes a pitcher, catcher and three outfielders. Since there are no infielders, the catcher must race the batter to first base to cover. The bag. Normally, the team lines up with a pitcher, catcher, shortstop, first baseman and one outfielder.

When Jack Sparks pitches from second base, and with no infield defensive formation, Ricky Paychex comes in to do the catching and Leroy Star leaves first base to play the outfield.

When and if the batter connects, Paychex outruns him to first to receive the throw from Sparks for the putout. You have to see it to believe it.

Regular catcher Archie Hamm is the team captain and also a bit of a cut-up. He keeps portions of the crowd within hearing distance of his voice in a constant uproar of laughter with an array of barbs and banter aimed at anyone who happens to be in his general area.

The pre-game warm-up of the Jesters is something to behold and reminiscent of the antics performed by the famed Harlem Globetrotters. All in all, Jack and the Jesters have something for everyone and area fastball fans will be treated to one of the top sports attractions of the season when the Jesters visit Bathurst next Wednesday.

Bathurst Alpines Reveal Organizational Changes

At recent meetings held by the Bathurst Alpine Hockey Club, organizational and other changes were discussed and finalized.

For the past two years the team's affairs had been administered by a group of 10 directors, but the players have now decided to revert back to the old system that prevailed in previous years. This would consist of a smaller group that would work more closely with the players.

A coaching change will also be made for the coming season. Hubert Pouliot will be replaced, but no successor has been named to date.

Team manager, Jack Furlotte, who released the above information, also states, "another change that will occur this year is the revival of a Booster Club. In the 1975-76 season we had great success with the ladies' Booster Club, but unfortunately they disbanded last season with the regret of the hockey club," he added.

"This year we are hoping to form a new booster club consisting of both men and women. I have already been in contact with the ladies involved in the former booster club and they are ready to get the ball rolling again with new enthusiasm. What we hope to do this year is to get everyone who is interested in any way together and form a booster club with the idea of the club naming its own executive which, in turn, could work hand-in-hand with the hockey club executive.

So I would like to take this opportunity to appeal to all Bathurst hockey fans who are interested in lending us support in any way to give me a call at my home - 546-4243 - or contact Asst. Manager Vic Aubie. As soon as we get enough people interested, we will call a meeting and get the 1977-78 Booster Club off the ground," he stated.

Jack concluded his appeal to Bathurst hockey fans by stating, "I know its hard to think hockey in mid-summer, but we can't wait until mid-winter to get going. So please give us your strong support so we can provide you with a strong calibre of hockey.

One last item Furlotte mentioned was for all hockey fans to be on the lookout for the "Back checker" who'll be here soon.

Ellis Building And Normoe Score Labatt League Wins

Ellis Building Supplies went on a hitting spree last Friday as they cracked out 18 hits on their way to a tight 16-15 decision over the Labatt Softball League leading Normoe Sports of Beresford. Ellis came from behind with three runs in the top of the seventh to eke out the win.

Robert Stever was the big sticker for the winners with a two-run circuit clout in the fifth inning plus a pair of triples and a single. Marc Landry was close behind with a solo homer, a pair of doubles plus a single while Pat Murphy uncorked a grand-slam homer in the sixth along with a pair of singles.

Michel Albert led Normoe at the plate with a two-run homer in the second along with a single. Bernie Allain added a triple and a pair of singles.

Pat Murphy, though tagged for 10 hits and nine free passes, went all the way for the win. Ernie Leger started for Normoe, but gave way to Paul Branch, the loser, in the fifth.

Sunday, Normoe came back to shade Thomas TV 13-11 in a game played at Sand Hill.

Paul Branch and Ernie Leger combined for the win while Darryl Daley and loser Ron Babin saw mound duty for Thomas TV. Delphis Lavigne paced the winners at the plate with a solo homer in the third and a two-run homer in the fifth.

Jerry Godine and Lou Ouellette both smashed solo homers for Thomas TV in the fourth inning.

Played Monday

In Labatt League games played Monday, Thomas TV defeated Cormier and Sons 13-8 while Save Easy dropped Hache Esso 11-6 in Allardville.

Lou Ouellette led Thomas TV to their win driving in six runs with a pair of homers, a double and a single while Jerry Godine also homered and tripled. David Knowles connected for a four-bagger as well. Ken Pitre and Dave Dow homered for the losers. Darryl Daley gained the win with the loss going to Ken MacFarland.

In the other game, Save Easy banged out 15 hits and won going away behind the six-hit pitching of Eddie Couture. Couture helped himself to a double and three singles. Paul-Emile Guignard doubled and singled twice while Claude Stever doubled and tripled for the winners. Gerard Noel was the loser with relief help from Paul Doucet in the fifth.

North Shore Open Tennis Tourney Set For Mont C

The Mont C Tennis Club is currently preparing for its first tournament of the season - the annual North Shore Senior Open Tennis Tournament. As in the past, the event will be staged in conjunction with Bathurst Festival Week and will commence at 9:00 a.m. Saturday, July 9 and conclude on Sunday, July 10.

Rules and regulations concerning the event stipulate the tournament is open to all male and female players 16 years of age and over with deadline for entries Thursday, July 7. The competitions will include men's singles and doubles and ladies' singles and doubles. The Draw will be completed Friday, July 9.

There is no entry fee—compliments of the Bathurst Festival Committee.

All those planning to participate are asked to telephone Marc Landry at 546-3424 or write to him at 1681 Patterson Crescent, giving your address, phone number and the events in which you wish to participate.

Other club tournaments presently scheduled this season are the Mont C Junior Tournament, July 23-24 and the Mont C Senior Tournament, August 27-28.

Volleyball

The Mont C Club's volleyball schedule swings away on Monday, July 4, with the men's teams seeing action at 7:00 p.m. The following evening, Tuesday, July 5, the ladies will start play, also at 7:00 p.m.

To insure a successful season team members are urged to show up on time for play, and, whether you win or lose, be a GOOD sport.

Remparts Edge Beresford 11-9

Green Point Remparts, East division leaders in the Bay Chaleur Baseball League, increased their margin with their seventh win in nine starts by topping Chalet Sportif 11-9 last night in Beresford.

Rosaire Legacy posted the win for the Remparts, relieving starter Charles LeBlanc in the 8th. Jesse Legace had to take over in the ninth to save the win as Beresford erupted for four runs. Dan Arsenault was the Beresford starter and loser, getting help from Roger Boudreau in the third and Gilles Pitre in the seventh.

Jean-Guy Doucet sparked the Remparts at the plate with a double and a single while Gerry Roy stroked a pair of singles. Bert Legace and Jean-Marc Legace each doubled.

Art Aube clubbed a solo homerin the fifth for Chalet Sportif while Eric Aube slammed a double and a single. Dan Arsenault, Bernie Aube and Hubert Frenette each singled twice as Beresford out-hit the Remparts 13-10.

Hawks Win

In the league's West division last night, Campbellton Hawks took over the division lead with an 11-9 win over Tide Head Falcons in Campbellton.

Wayne Parker hurled the win with help from Luc Lang in the 6th. Parker came back in the seventh to finish up. Bill Harvey started for Tide Head, gave way to Boyd Nicol in the 2nd, then came back in the third and was tagged with the loss. Nicol came on again in the 7th and went the rest of the way.

Parker led the Hawks with a double and a single while Sterling Loga, Luc Lang and Brian Cameron each singled twice.

Over 2000 Expected For CB Campout Here

A first-ever Citizens' Band Campout, sponsored by the Bathurst Community Radio Service Club and scheduled for next July 1 to 3, is expected to bring some 2000 visitors to the city.

Coming from all parts of Canada and the United States, the delegates will be accomodated in an area adjacent to Hache's Motel in Nigadoo.

Theme of the program is "10-4 on the North Shore" and in charge of it are Kevin Harper, Gerry Guignard, and Herman Pitre, while secretaries are Mrs. Lucy McGaugh and Mrs. Bernice Moran.

The Bathurst Community Radio Service Club was formed at a meeting of interested GRS operators back in October 1972. Twelve persons were in attendance on that occasion and the first executive chosen consisted of Gerry Guignard, president; Leonard Chamberlain, vice-president; and Patrick Guignard, secretary-treasurer.

Membership at the moment stands at approximately 100 and the present executive is again headed by Gerry Guignard, with Thomas Babin as vice-president; Annette Boucher, secretary-treasurer; Eloi Vienneau, past president; and Kevin Harper, chairman of public relations.

Purpose of the organization is to provide a community service to any person or group where this type of communications might be of help. Members donate their time and use their own radio equipment when needed or called upon. Some of them hold First Aid certificates and are qualified in search and rescue procedures.

Previously helped by the club were the following organizations: Bathurst Boys and Girls' Club, Boy Scouts, Bass River Adult Workshop, Chaleur Handicapped Club, Red Cross, Bathurst Labor Day Committee, RCMP, City Police Force, Chaleur General Hospital, plus various search and rescue parties.

The club has erected two road signs, one on Route 8 and the other on Route 11, while a third is located at Bathurst Arena. These signs are designed to welcome C-Bers to the city and inform them of the channels monitored here.

Distinguished Guest List

A number of distinguished guests have been invited to attend Campout 1977 sponsored by the Bathurst Community Radio Service Club and many of them have accepted.

The guest list includes mayors of the various Gloucester County towns and villages; Premier Richard Hatfield, Minister of Natural Resources Roland Boudreau; Gail Knowles, the reigning Miss New Brunswick.

Some time ago an invitation was also forwarded to Tennessee Ernie Ford, himself a C-Ber. He has since replied, declining with regret due to the fact that he will be away on vacation on dates coinciding with the Bathurst Campout.

Campout Control Channel Is 22

Out of town C.B.'ers who will be approaching Bathurst from the East, should be in transmitting range when they reach the Salmon Beach area.

Those approaching from the South should be in range when they reach the Bathurst By-pass in East Bathurst.

C.B.'ers coming from the North should make radio contact when they reach Green Point.

These C.B.'ers should monitor channel 22.

Ideal Weather Says Forecast

The weather for Friday, July 1st, will be sunny and warm, which will be ideal for the opening ceremonies. It will become a little noisy as the sun goes down with all of the C.B.'ers gathering at the meeting place. On Saturday, July 2nd, it will be a little warmer with outdoor games and other events planned throughout the day. For the final morning, July 3rd, the C.B.ers will also have prize weather.

Warm Greetings From Committee

On behalf of the executive and the members of the Bathurst Community Radio Service Club, we would like to welcome all G.R.S. operators to this year's campout taking place at Hache's Campgrounds.

This will be our first campout ever to take place in the Bathurst area. The committee has been working hard and have planned events for young and old.

We hope that all C.B.'ers attending this year's Campout will enjoy themselves and meet many friends and renew some old friendships.

CB Trend Nation Wide

The CB radio craze is sweeping the nation and the way things are going, CBs will be as common and popular as TV sets.

And the more the better say three top psychiatrists. They all agree it's good; that it helps to ease tensions; establishes a sense of neighbourliness among strangers; and allows motorists to indulge their fancies while on routine trips.

Aided Project With Donations

The Bathurst C-B Convention Committee is most grateful to the following who extended co-operation and assistance to the project by way of cash donations or the contribution of prizes for various events:

THE DRIVING FORCE BEHIND THE CAMPOUT

Executive members of the Bathurst Community Radio Service Club, who are sponsoring the giant CB campout in the area this coming weekend are, from left, Tom Babin, vice-president, Gerry Guignard, president and Annette Boucher, secretary-treasurer.

Greetings

I am very happy and pleased to welcome to our City all CBers who will be in the area to attend a rally on July 1, 2 and 3, 1977.

The participants, I understand, will be camped in the Hachey Trailor Park in Nigadoo. I feel that many of our citizens will visit with the CBers on this gathering of theirs and show them the hospitality which the whole area is noted for.

As the Mayor of the City of Bathurst, I certainly wish to welcome the CBers to the friendliest City with the friendliest people in the Province of New Brunswick.

Dated this 15th day of June, A.D., 1977.

200 Graduates Attend Banquet

The 1977 graduating class of Bathurst High School enjoyed a fine graduation banquet at Danny's Colonial Room, Wednesday, June 22, at 6:00 p.m. Approximately 200 students were in attendance for this farewell supper, along with teachers and staff from Bathurst High. Special guest was Reverend Ray Francis, from the First United Church of Bathurst.

The principal of Bathurst High, Mr. Emery Goguen, gave the opening remarks, in which he wished the students success in life. He then called upon John Sweezey, head of the English Department at the High School, to say grace.

Danny's provided candles during the meal along with special matches and napkins inscribed "B.H.S., Class of '77". A delightful roast dinner was then served followed by a fruit cocktail.

Mr. Goguen also introduced the guest speaker, Rev. Ray Francis. After a few humorous remarks, Mr. Francis began a serious discussion concerning the future for the graduates and what was expected of them. He urged everyone to find a direction in life and a key to success. He was given a standing ovation from the group.

Bronwyn Davies, a Graduating student of B.H.S., eloquently thanked the guest speaker. The banquet ended with an address of farewell by Mr. Goguen.

CPT. HELEN FINDLEY

Named To Forces Post

On June 17, Captain Helen Findley of Toronto, Ontario was appointed Base Information Officer for CFB Chatham, succeeding Captain Gary Sprigg.

Captain Findley joined the Canadian Forces on Jan. 20, 1972. In 1973 she was commissioned and commenced training in the Air Traffic Control classification at Comox, B.C.

In 1974, Captain Findley was posted to CFB Chatham and served as the administrative officer at St. Margaret's for three years. In June, Captain Findley moved from St. Margaret's to CFB Chatham where she is presently employed as the Administrative Services officer.

Captain Findley, her husband Terry and their daughter reside in Curtis Park.

You don't drive your car on sidewalks, do you? Don't operate your boat where people are swimming, either. Skillful boating is most admired when everyone concerned is safe. This is a Red Cross summer safety tip.

Cancer Drive Was A Success

Douglas Williamson, President of the Bathurst Unit, Canadian Cancer Society, wishes to express his thanks to the many volunteers who helped bring the 1977 drive for funds to a successful close.

"The sum of $4,300 was raised and both the Bathurst and Down Shore canvassers are to be congratulated for their efforts in this very worthwhile cause", Mr. Williamson said.

Peninsula's Problems Aired

The Canadian Council on Rural Development met in Caraquet recently at the Caraquet Fisheries School to discuss the economic development of the Acadian Peninsula.

Martin Leger, general director of the Caisse Populaire Acadien; Saad Ghanem, commissioner of the economic expansion commission of the peninsula; Mrs. Bonnie Pond of The Plain Dealer in Fredericton, Donatien Gaudet of the New Brunswick Society of Acadians, and Henri Thomas, Tracadie mayor, were members of the panel, and they discussed the region's problems.

The council was set up primarily to report to the federal minister of economic expansion on the problems of the different federal programs for federal development.

In his report, Mr. Leger emphasized the importance of small businesses and suggested that government should make it policy to give the smaller enterprises forgiveable loans. He said the caisse populaire believes in small enterprise.

He went on to say that the next agreement following FRED should consider tourism development. "It should include the second phase of the Acadian Village and construction of the marine museum in Shippegan."

Mr. Ghanem said real development in the region will be achieved by teamwork between local leadership, municipalities and the labor force.

He said the reason the area was not progressing as it should was that it had excessive bureaucracy and not a lack of money.

Villages Agree To Investigate Group Proposal

The Association of the Villages of New Brunswick, which has been opposed to one overall organization to embrace the villages, towns and cities of the province, has agreed to name a committee of three to study a proposed alternative.

The alternative was submitted to the villages' sixth annual meeting in Petit Rocher recently by Henri Clavette, a former Edmundston councillor.

Since four representatives from each of the three associations of villages, towns and cities make up the Provincial-Municipal Council, Clavette suggested this group could be designated as the executive committee of a federation of New Brunswick Municipalities.

The Provincial-Municipal Council, which also includes representation from the provincial government, was formed a few years ago in the interest of better provincial-municipal liaison.

Clavette suggested it would simply be a case of giving these municipal representatives the extra status so they could act in areas of common interest referred to them by their respective associations. As a councillor, Clavette acted on the Provincial-Municipal Council.

"These 12 people form the only body that truly represents the three groups," declared Clavette.

He also suggested an annual conference perhaps a morning session of all municipalities could be held at a time when the three associations would be meeting for their own purpose. He said it would not need to be an organized group but a group with common interest.

Clavette felt it would be incumbent upon the villages to press for this federated status since it was this group of municipalities that had vetoed the proposal for an overall organization during the fall of 1975.

There was some reservation voiced at Saturday's meeting as to the feasibility of such a move but a motion to study the matter, submitted by Mayor Roland Walls of Blackville and seconded by Arthur Jones of Cambridge Narrows, was given approval.

The conclusions of the three-member committee will be given at the next general meeting. It is expected the proposal will be made to the other two associations when they meet.

Others elected were Mayors Paul Rollins of Minto, first-vice president; Mayor Edmond Landry of Grand Anse, second vice-president; Village Manager Donald Scott of Quispamsis, secretary and Deputy Mayor Ellis Nason fo Black's Harbor, treasurer.

Six resolutions were approved by the representatives of some 70 villages attending the annual meeting.

It was resolved that representation be made to government for more RRAP (Residential Rehabilitation Assistance Program) funds even if it means money will have to be taken from other housing programs.

The villages will petition the department of municipal affairs to amend the Community Planning Act so that a maximum of six persons rather than three act on the planning advisory committee of a village.

The association was directed to explore the possibility of establishing a firm policy with regard to CNR payments to villages for fighting fires or their property, and to refer the matter to the Provincial Municipal Council.

It was resolved that all government departments should discuss proposed regulations with the Provincial-Municipal Council or the respective municipal organization before they are brought into effect. The case at hand was a village being forced to accept different design standards on sewage waste stabilization ponds.

The other two resolutions directed that the provincial government be pressured to share in municipal deficits and that it be responsible for the maintenance of the entire 66-foot width of provincially designated highway including snow removal and sidewalks.

A questionaire on the administration of dumps revealed rising costs justified an

County 4-Hers To Participate

This year the 4-H Inter-provincial exchange program is taking place July 11-25

This program involves 90 4-H club members from across Canada who are 16 years of age or over and have completed at least two years in 4-H club work. Nine members are chosen from every province and each of these visit another province. The nine members from Gloucester County who are participating this year and the province they are going to are as follows

Martine Cormier, Paquetville-Saskatchewan, Marcella Cool, St. Sauveur-Prince Edward Island, Pierrette Cool, St. Sauveur-Quebec; and David Whelton, R.R.3, Bathurst-Ontario.

This travel opportunity is sponsored by the Royal Bank of Canada. Some of the objectives are to experience and become familiar with customs and lifestyles in another province and to exchange ideas and thus develop an understanding and appreciation of other Canadians.

On July 11, New Brunswick's delegates will meet in Fredericton. They will be given a tour of the Royal Bank and following this, they will attend a send-off banquet and briefing session at the Lord Beaverbrook Hotel. On July 12 these delegates will leave Fredericton and fly to their respective destinations. Each delegate will stay with two families during their visit in the host province.

Also on July 12, nine delegates will arrive in Fredericton from the other Canadian provinces. They will visit with host families in various areas of New Brunswick.

All delegates return home July 25

POLITICAL SCENE

Ontario Election A Confusing One

By STEWART MacLEOD
Ottawa Bureau
Thomson News Service

I used to run around with this funny idea that I understood the political process, that I appreciated the significance of winning or losing and that elections were relatively straightforward events in which the party winning the largest number of seats was the victor and the other parties were, in varying degrees, losers.

But in the aftermath of the Ontario election I can no longer make this claim. Not only am I in a state of total confusion, I have also lost my confidence. I might be forced to quit this business.

The change occurred the morning following the election when a breezy commentator on the CBC - who was probably paid $75 for his knowledge -- announced that "the only clear winner in yesterday's election was the Liberal leader, Dr. Stuart Smith"

I assumed my hearing was affected from all that screaming I heard from television "decision desks" the previous evening. But then I picked up the newspaper and there it was again, "If there was any winner in Thursday's election it was Dr Stuart Smith"

And then this became the prevailing viewpoint in every publication I saw.

I know some of you will laugh at my naive view of politics, but I actually used to think that any "clear winner" in election campaigns had to increase his party's seats.

ODD FEAT

But Dr. Smith managed to emerge the clear winner by winning fewer seats than his Liberals did in 1975. My immediate reaction was that Premier William Davis must therefore in a state of delirious delight after his Conservatives returned with six additional seats.

But again I merely exposed my old-fashioned view of politics. There on the front page of a newspaper was a picture of the Ontario premier "managing a smile despite the election results".

I would hate to think of the poor man's condition if he had lost seats. But perhaps I am displaying my outdated viewpoint again, because I see that Dr. Smith spent post-election day "cheerfully clipping his roses" as he basked in his one-less seat victory.

And oh yes, I saw that New Democratic Leader Stephen Lewis, whose party lost five seats, was describing the Conservative campaign, which produced six additional seats, as "outrageous and preposterous". If the NDP had conducted that type of campaign he said, "we would have been decimated".

A few days later Mr. Lewis announced his resignation.

Anyway, this is only the beginning of my confusion. What's really bugging me is that somehow I never managed to get turned in on what Ontario voters were trying to say in this election. In fact it never occurred to me they were trying to say anything.

SIMPLISTIC VIEW

Again, I am forced to admit to holding this old-fashioned view that you vote for the candidate of your choice for any number of reasons and, as a result of this process, one party ends up with the most seats and wins all the marbles.

But apparently I have been missing all the conspiracies. According to what I have been reading and hearing, the people of Ontario had got together and decided to deliver all sorts of messages to Queen's Park.

"The people of Ontario made it clear they don't want majority government," was one editorial comment.

It had never occurred to me that the steelworker in Hamilton who voted NDP and the lumber worker in Kenora who voted Liberal, not to mention the Ottawa civil servant who voted Conservative, were all in cahoots about maintaining minority government. But perhaps it's a good thing I didn't know, because I wouldn't know who to support for minority government.

But wait. Dr. Smith is saying the message from the voters is actually something else - that "politicians should put away their differences for awhile". And it's even a better thing I didn't know about this agreement because, I wouldn't know how to express my feelings.

Perhaps I am just getting too old for elections. So I think I will concentrate on the Senate.

PIRELLI

Canada, I want to shake your hand.

A LOT OF PEOPLE THINK SO MUCH OF PIRELLI TIRES THEY THINK THEY CAN'T AFFORD THEM

Everybody doesn't know Pirelli.

But the people who do know us for some pretty impressive things. They know that for years Pirelli tires have been standard equipment on high performance cars like Ferraris, Porsches, Mercedes, etc. And that Pirelli has been making radials for over 25 years, which is about 15 years longer than any radial made in America.

And that other tire manufacturers think so much of Pirelli radial designs that 68 of them have used our patents.

Because of all this acclaim, many people think they can't afford Pirelli tires.

This is far from true.

And if you'll just stop in we think we can show you that you can afford to put Pirelli tires on your car.

We may even be able to show you that you can't afford not to.

REWARD

Brunswick Mining and Smelting Corp. Ltd. and Belledune Fertilizer have sponsored a study of lobster rate of growth in the Bay of Chaleur. This research programme is being conducted by Noranda Research Centre.

Approximately 2,000 lobsters have been tagged since 1973; the tag is a metal wire encased in plastic.

Since we wish to monitor the growth of these lobsters over the past winter, any fisherman who traps a tagged lobster is asked to send or bring it with its tag to the Technical Superintendent at either plant, who will pay the commercial value of the lobster, plus a reward of 5.00; the tag must not be removed from the lobster. We would appreciate receiving the lobsters alive.

Recovery of these lobsters is expected to be in the Bay area from Dalhousie to Petit Rocher.

Should anyone have no way of returning the lobsters to us, please, call us at either 522-2100 or 522-5250 and we will arrange to pick them up.

JAYCEES PARTICIPATE IN OFFICERS' TRAINING COURSE

An officer's training course for members of the Bathurst Jaycees, conducted by Regional Director Bill Comeau, and assisted by Brian McLean, Glen Matchett and Gary Perkins was held at Danny's Nostalgia Room June 18. Other members attending the course were: Peter Murphy, Larry Chapman, John Neeleman, Terry Hambrook, Edmond Pitre, Jeff Doucet, Aurele Theriault, Morley Foran, Arch Pafford, Gilbert Boudreau and Mark Dempsey who is absent in photo

New Artificial Limbs Proving Their Worth

Prosthetics, the art of making artificial limbs, has finally come of age-and there is a beautiful young mother in Halifax who can prove it

She is Donna Clarke, wife, mother of two wonderful young children and an amputee. Donna lost her leg when she was 18 years old. After the amputation, she finished her education and worked for three years until her marriage in 1970 to Dan Clarke, a petty officer in the Naval Branch of the Canadian Armed Forces

The first artificial limb worn by Donna was adequate, up to a point. In terms of allowing her to get around it got the job done but it did impose severe limitations

Even with this somewhat rudimentary limb, Donna chalked up some enviable achievements in re-adjustment - although she would be the first to say that she has done nothing remarkable

"For the last ten years, if I have been striving for anything, it is simply to be myself, without any actual regard to the fact that I am an amputee", she said in a recent interview 'What I have achieved, my marriage, my children, are not remarkable feats in my mind, but merely the fulfillment of a natural requirement within myself

Notwithstanding, war amputees know that is anything but easy for her here, because the earlier limbs she wore were susceptible to breakage, particularly for an active young housewife on the move

Then came some kind of a dream-come-true for Donna Through the expertise of the War Amputations of Canada, she became acquainted with the newer techniques involved in the fitting of artificial limbs to amputees

PROSTHETIC ADVANCES

First there was a new type of socket designed in Germany and fitted by the Fredericton Prosthetics Firm of A R Menzies and Sons Next was the opportunity to try out a new type of pneumatic unit which controls the artificial limb while it is swinging forward to take the next step This unit was designed by Mr Hans Mauch, an engineer now working in the United States, who refined his techniques while designing rockets for the German Armed Forces during the Second World War

Lastly, Donna was introduced to something called "cosmesis" For many years, technicians in the business did very little about the appearance of an artificial limb. Recently, however, designers in California began to recognize that, particularly among women, an artificial limb must not only function properly, but it must also be attractive.

Accordingly they came up with foam rubber coverings which can be shaped to the contours of the remaining limb. Donna agreed to work with the War Amps and the Menzies firm to experiment with various designs Her acceptance of this role was based primarily on the knowledge that the results would encourage other amputees to share in the new technology which has been developing in this field

On this point, Donna stated: "I think cosmesis will make the difference in the lives of any female amputees, who might tend to closet themselves in their homes for the rest of their lives after amputation. Just as a point of interest, and to show how very far artificial limbs have come in the the ten years since I became an amputee, my first leg was painted a sickly yellow shade, and I was expected to cover it with layers of cotton stockings-something that hadn't been in great demand since my grandmother was a girl!"

RESEARCH PROGRAM

The War Amps - an organization representing the 2500 amputees who lost limbs in military service - operates an active research program, based on contacts with designers and manufacturers of artificial limbs throughout the world

The pneumatically-controlled and cosmetically-attractive limb now being worn by Donna Clarke incorporates only some of the multiple options which are available now to amputees who want something better by way of an artificial limb. These options include the best prosthetic hardware from Germany, Great Britain and the United States, all of which is now readily available in Canada. In addition to some 20 different control units for legs and arms, this hardware involves a full range of modules including knee joints, ankles, elbows and wrist units

In the field of cosmetic coverings, tremendous advances have been made, which include realistic hand with "do-it-yourself" kits which permit the wearer to match the skin shade, and insert hair and even tint veins to give a life-like appearance. The possibilities of shaping, using foam and plastics, now make it feasible to match a remaining thigh and calf, copy a shapely ankle and even carve out toes, should the amputee desire them

WAR AMPS' PROGRAM

Donna Clarke is a classic example of how artificial limbs can contribute to a better lifestyle for the amputee. The kind of assistance extended to Donna Clarke is available to all amputees in Canada under the Civilian Liaison Program of the War Amps organization

Through this unique program Donna has been a part of the "team". Working with the War Amputees, she is able to call upon her own experiences to aid other amputees who might require assistance in the matter of artificial limbs, or other special needs of a person who must face life minus a natural limb or limbs

Donna has been doing this work, with the War Amps, for several years. One of the new amputees who can look to Donna for guidance is four year old Tammy Nickerson, also of Halifax. Tammy lost her right leg, at the hip, in a tragic automobile accident. She, too, has made a remarkable recovery.

Her parents, her doctors, and Varied Program For Fisheries Festival

One of the most popular events in any summer festival is always the queen's pageant, and the 16th Shippegan Fisheries Festival set for July 13-17 this year is certainly no exception.

Seven young ladies from the peninsula will be vying for the Fisheries Festival Queen title in a pageant set for Wednesday, July 13 at Marie-Esther High School Auditorium.

Princesses are Marie Paul Mallet, Denise Mazerolle and Jasmine Mallet, all of Shippegan; Carmen Leger and Annette Cormier of Caraquet, Therese Vienneau of LeGoulet and Fernande Paulin of St. Marie-sur-met.

A panel of judges will choose the queen and her entourage, and the new monarch will be crowned by Fisheries Minister Omer Leger

The guest singers at this year's wine cellar, another well-attended event, will be the Beausoleil-Broussard group, comprising the following artists: Isabelle Roy, Caraquet, who has studied singing and piano in Montreal; Jacques Savoie, who plays clarinet, mandolin, guitar and spoons; Johnny Comeau, violin and mandolin; and Claude Fournier, guitar, mandolin, bass, piano and harmonica.

The group has given many concerts in different parts of Canada and come well-recommended as the festival's feature attraction.

Other activities planned for the week include bicycle racing for youngsters 16 and under, visits to fishing plants and peat bog buildings and fishing display booths at Rheal Cormier Arena.

The Queen's Ball is set for Friday evening, July 15 at the Marie-Esther School, with the Fishermen's Gala Ball scheduled for the following evening at the same location. The Golden Eagles orchestra will provide entertainment on both nights.

Sunday afternoon will see the festival parade, with floats, bands, air cadets, majorettes, clowns and members of the Order of the Fisherman. Dignitaries from different levels of government will also participate, with Premier Richard Hatfield as special invited guest increase in the fee for use of these facilities by outside users. Representation will be made to the provincial government by Mayor Willie Robichaud of Rogersville.

After hearing a report on insurance for emergency vehicles, it was decided the committee continue to act and that it further explore group purchasing, also a pursuit of the Council of Maritime Premiers.

A budget of $14,800 was approved for 1977-78 compared to expenditures of $14,125 during the past year. A total of 67 villages out of 85 paid 1976 dues and the new village of Darlington was given an initial honorary membership. More villages will be joining in 1977.

Mayor Richard Taylor of Darlington was in attendance and his village was given an official welcome.

Zone chairman named were Coun. James Butler of Paquetville (Gloucester Coun. Alcide Gionet of St. Joseph (Westmorland-Albert); Mayor John Dryden of Fredericton Jct., (York-Sudbury); Mayor Raymond Legace of Atholville (Restigouche); Deputy Mayor Ellis Nason of Black's Harbor (Charlotte); Mayor Walls of Blackville (Northumberland); Mayour Louis Arseneau of St. Louis (Kent; Mayor Oscar Boyd of Norton (Kings-Queens); Mayor Malcolm Berry of Renforth (St. John) and Coun. Arthur Cyr of St. Basile (Madawaska-Victoria). The Carleton zone chairman is to be named.

MICHELIN
Michelin Radials are world famous for their quality, because they make only one standard of tire . . . TOP-LINE . . . no seconds . . . no thirds. While some people believe the higher the quality, the higher the price, this is not always so. For, if you compare Michelin's price to top competing tires, you could find that it costs less than you may think to own the best.

Appointments Are Announced

The Honourable Marcel Lessard, Minister of Regional Economic Expansion, announced three appointments to the Atlantic Development Council. A.H. Cormier of New Brunswick and J. B. Ploughman of Newfoundland were reappointed to the Council for additional two-year terms, while D. H. MacDougall of Nova Scotia has been appointed for his first two-year term.

The Atlantic Development Council is composed of residents of the four Atlantic Provinces representing business, labour and the professions. Its function is to advise the DREE Minister with regard to development policy and programs.

Mr. Cormier is a native of Cormier's Cove, New Brunswick, and has been a member of the ADC since 1971, serving as vice-chairman since November 1973. He is an assistant professor in the faculty of Business Administration at Univ of Moncton, New Brunswick. He is currently president of the New Brunswick Association of Chartered Accountants.

The past president of the St. John's Board of Trade, Mr. Ploughman is a native of Coley's Point, Newfoundland, and is vice-president of operations of A. E. Hickman Company Limited of St. John's.

Mr. MacDougall is a lawyer with the firm of Stewart, Mac Keen and Covert. A native of Halifax, Mr. MacDougall has served in a number of national organizations including the Canadian Radio-Television Telecommunications Commission.

JEAN CLAUDE HACHE

Grand Anse Man To Head Bureau

Supply and Services Minister Harold Fanjoy has announced the appointment of Jean-Claude Hache as director of the provincial government's Translation Bureau.

Mr. Hache, whose appointment took effect on June 1, has been employed with the Translation Bureau since March 1969.

Mr. Fanjoy noted that the appointment comes at an appropriate time, since the remaining sections of the Official Languages Act will take effect on July 1. The Translation Bureau is currently being restructured so as to accommodate the additional responsibilities falling to it as a result of the impending proclamation.

A native of Grande Anse, Mr. Hache received his elementary and secondary education in Bathurst, including a bachelor of arts degree in 1967 from Universite Sacre Coeur (later the College de Bathurst(.

Following a year of study at the University of Sherbrooke, Mr. Hache returned to New Brunswick in 1968 as a recruitment officer for the Civil Service Commission and subsequently held various positions in the Translation Bureau.

During the academic year 1972-73 he attended Georgetown University in Washington, D.C. and earned masters' level proficiency certificates as a conference interpreter and translator. He is a member of the Corporation of Translators and Interpreters of New Brunswick.

Mr. Hache is married to the former Katherine Ross of Newcastle. The couple has one child, a son.

JUNE BIRTHDAYS CELEBRATED AT CHALEUR VILLA

The Victories, a popular music group who voluntarily supply entertainment to the residents at Chaleur Villa, were there again June 19 to celebrate those having a birthday during the month. Guests of honor seated from the left are: Emile Theriault, Albina Blanchard, Arthur Godin, Domitilde Roy and Francis Gauthier; and Peter Arseneau, organizer; second row: Julie Lavigne, vocalist; Camille Godin, light disc-jockey, vocalist and organist; Muriel Losier and Bernadette Ferron, vocalists, and Ronald Christie, organist; back row: Bertrand Daigle and Jean Claude Comeau, vocalists and guitarists; Karen Christie, vocalist and tamborine; and Perry Lavigne, guitarist. Others celebrating their birthday during June, missing from the photo are: Sylvia Paulin, Isidore Pelletier, Graziella Roy, Marie Rose Lagacy and Regina Boucher, representing the Golden Age Club.

RAISE FUNDS FOR NEW UNION BUILDING

Winner of the Bathurst Labor Union Association's first 50-50 Draw was Valmond J. Boudreau, R.R. No. 4, Bathurst, who netted $457 June 15. Subsequent winners will be picked on the fifteenth of every month. Proceeds are for the association's new headquarters, the former Arseneault (then Daley) Save-Easy in South Bathurst, which was recently purchasing from Atlantic Wholesalers Ltd. and where renovations are now underway. From the left are: Wilfred McKay, union member; Kingston Gallie, chairman of the building committee; Bill Boucher, secretary - treasurer; Kevin O'Connell, president; Keith Colpitts and Oscar Gallagher, executive members.

Pour finalisier les programmes

Samedi dernier, les organisateurs de la traversée à la nage de la Baie des Chaleurs, accompagnés de l'Administrateur de la municipalité de Paspébiac, étaient en visite à Grande-Anse où ils furent reçus par le Maire, Monsieur Edmond E. Landry et le Conseil Municipal ainsi que par Madame Denise DeGrâce, présidente de la Fête au Village et tous les directeurs de cette Fête.

Cette visite avait été organisée pour finaliser les programmes des fêtes d'été de ces deux municipalités qui sont jumelées ainsi que pour étudier les derniers détails de la traversée.

C'est à cette occasion que les directeurs des "14 Milles" ont révélé les noms des six nageurs qui partiront du quai de Grande-Anse durant la matinée du 7 août. Ce sont: Velgo Rogosic de la Yougoslavie, Claudio Marcello de l'Argentine, Cindy Nicholas de Scarborough, Jon Erickson de Chicago, Régent Lacoursière de Montréal, Raoul Vélagomez du Mexique et John Kenselia des Etats-Unis, le nageur le plus rapide au monde. Régent Lacoursière sera ici encore cette année mais ce n'est pas encore définitif s'il fera partie de la traversée comme nageur ou s'il sera l'un de ceux qui assureront la protection des nageurs.

Contrairement à l'année dernière, les nageurs, leurs entraîneurs et la délégation de Paspébiac seront à Grande-Anse à 3 heures p.m. le samedi, 6 août, et feront vraisemblablement partie de la parade historique qui se tiendra à 7h30 en soirée.

Beaucoup d'autres détails techniques furent discutés afin de rendre la "Fête au Village" ainsi que la traversée de "14 Milles" une attraction touristique non seulement agréable mais vraiment fantastique et aussi prévoir en même temps la sécurité des milliers de personnes qui s'y rendront.

Chaque visiteur reçut un macaron de la "Fête au Village" et la présidente remit à chacun un chandail de la "Fête au Village".

Puisque Grande-Anse a établi le mois d'août comme étant le mois durant lequel l'on rendrait hommage au drapeau acadien, Monsieur le Maire remit à la Municipalité d'un drapeau tricolore avec l'étoile d'or qui nous représentera désormais à Paspébiac.

La rencontre a été considérée par les deux partis comme des plus fructueuse et un contact téléphonique hebdomadaire est désormais établi entre Grande-Anse et Paspébiac d'ici le mois d'août.

Tous les propriétaires de bateau de pêche ou bateau de plaisance de la Péninsule recevront des instructions précises s'il est de leur désir de traverser de Grande-Anse à Paspébiac dans la journée du 7 août.

La "Fête au Village" sera, sans contredit, la première attraction touristique du Nord-Est puisque les "14 Milles" se joignent à nous afin d'offrir à la population une attraction internationale, soit la Traversée à la Nage de la Baie des Chaleurs.

Uniqueness Of French Canadians Is Stressed

By KILDARE DOBBS

What does Quebec want? I mean, what does Quebec really want? This is the question English-speaking Canadians are in the habit of asking and, like Pilate, they do not stay for an answer.

For any anglais not too maudit to have given up curiosity on the subject there's a new book, edited by a couple of bilingual English-Canadians, that offers some answers.

It is an anthology of translations, entitled Voices from Quebec, edited by Philip Stratford and Michael Thomas (Van Nostrand Reinhold Ltd.; 215 pages; $10.95 hard cover, $6.95 paper back).

It contains poems, essays and excerpts from longer works, all of which yield insights into the mind of the predominantly French-speaking province.

Much of it belongs to the literature of complaint and reproach, a kind of writing on which Quebeckers don't have a monopoly, but the anthology tries to be more inclusive than that.

The section headings give a notion of what the editors are after: Confrontations, childhood and Family, School and Work, Love and Fantasy, Sport and Entertainment, Politics and Protest, and Past and Present.

"OURSELVES"

In a brief preface, Stratford and Thomas explain that they had intended to call their anthology Nous-Autres, which means literally "we others." It means, as the editors insist, a good deal more than that, implying the otherness and solidarity of the French-Canadians.

In stressing the singularity, the uniqueness in North America of French Canadians, the editors believe they have avoided trying to make them picturesque. But they have not tried to conceal their rough edges, their lapses into foolishness, or their humor, pointing the texts with cartoons and illustrations and jokes.

The message of the Confrontations section is fairly simple: French-Canadians do not like being condescended to or looked down upon by English Canadians. They have noticed that in their own province the people who speak French tend to be the ones who do the dirty work while those who speak English tend to be the ones who give orders and own fine houses and big cars.

They want to have their crack at the sweet life too; though sometimes their sense of being dispossessed takes the form of persuading themselves that they are above the materialistic values of the "anglo-saxophones" and federastes.

NEW LANGUAGE

Editors Stratford and Thomas, however, don't make the mistake of selecting a particular point of view. There are many issues within Quebec on which Quebeckers disagree. The use of joual, for instance.

For some, joual (the provincial dialect which pronounces the French work cheval as joual) is a symbol of identity, a new language emerging in the new world. For others it is an abomination, a sign of degenerate culture and inferior status.

And this is only one of the questions on which Quebeckers disagree. There is also the question of nationalism. Pierre Elliot Trudeau is represented by an excerpt in which he calls this French-Canadian nationalism a self-deluding passion.

The anthology includes the FLQ Manifesto along with the answer given to it by the late Andre Laurendeau, for whom violence was a human regression.

SILENT MINORITY

Yet - and this is surely an important reservation - one might read it and take away the notion that the entire culture and collective life of Quebec was French-Canadian. If that were true, the politics of Quebec would be simple indeed.

The truth is, there is a large English-speaking minority in the province and they have to be taken into account.

One may concede that for too long they have dominated its economy. What is unacceptable is that any Quebec government should pretend that they can be wished away. An anthology calling itself Voices From Quebec, that leaves out English voices, can only contribute to the delusion.

In saying this, I am aware that I am attacking the editor's intention, which is to present only the French fact, or facts. Within the limits of this intention they have produced a representative and interesting collection of points of view, more or less eloquently expressed and rendered into idiomatic English.

But the anglais-editors are at such pains to have us understand the francophone culture that they seem to be apologizing for their own.

Such a strategy may well keep their own place in Quebec warm and comfortable; but it will do nothing to defend the pluralism essential to the survival of their culture and English-speaking countrymen.

PET NEWS

Choosing Your Dog

By Marguerite Morrison

Be sure your dog is the type and personality you desire, and will fit in well with your family. If you choose a large dog, be sure you have space and time to exercise him properly.

Choose an active playful puppy with clear eyes, a cool moist nose, and a shiny coat. Avoid a shy or nervous puppy.

When training your pup, make commands simple and short. Be calm and patient, using the same words and movements each time. Give the animal warm praise for obedience, and a firm "no" if he does wrong, along with a clear demonstration of what he should have done. Keep your tone of voice constant as a dog is very sensitive. Do not speak loudly.

A puppy loves to play as it keeps him healthy. Make sure toys are tough and cannot splinter or break.

When yhour pup is awake, pet him and talk to him as he needs human contact. When he's asleep, leave him alone and don't wake him so that he will feel secure.

Be sure to have the animal checked by a veterinarian as soon as you get him, and start his vaccination program immediately to keep him in good health.

Public Consultation Influenced Program

The new five-year $95.5 million subsidiary agreement for Northeast New Brunswick economic development signed at Campbellton June 23 was based upon almost two years of planning and analysis.

Intensive public consultation held just over a year ago preceded final negotiation of the agreement between federal and provincial governments.

During two rounds of widely-attended public meetings held across the Northeast in early 1976, the public was invited to comment on the types of development needed to improve regional economic conditions.

Numerous written and oral submissions were made to representatives of the two governments at meetings in St. Quentin, Point-la-Nim, Bathurst and Tracadie.

Organized groups and individuals representing diverse regional interests presented some 70 briefs at 17 separate meetings. An estimated 1,200 to 1,500 persons attended these public meetings.

The form of the agreement reflects to a considerable degree the public submissions made prior to its drafting.

Throughout the public consultations federal and provincial officials were reminded of the variety of economic activity in the Northeast, and of the general desire of the people of the region for a greater measure of economic self-sufficiency.

The appreciation of these and other facts is borne out in the structure of the new agreement which focuses on the realization of development opportunities in all sectors of the economy, in rural as well as urban communities, wherever they may exist.

Major programs in the new agreement relate to development of infrastructure and industry generally, as well as initiatives in agriculture, forestry, fishing, tourism and the service sector. Special programs to assist particular areas of education, housing and manpower training are also included.

The new agreement retains the ability to be flexible in order to allow adjustment to changing circumstances and priorities. The opportunity to consult with the public from time to time, on an on-going basis, is also built in from the outset.

POLICY of STANDARDS for the MACTAQUAC CRAFT FESTIVAL

The Mactaquac Craft Festival has established itself as a prestigeous craft event. It is of great importance that the high standards of New Brunswick crafts are maintained and so a new policy of standards has been proposed for this event by the Department of Youth, Recreation and Cultural Resources.

All works displayed at the craft festival shall be creative designs made in New Brunswick, by hand. All works shown and sold must comply with these strictures.

Craftspeople displaying at Mactaquac must either be juried members of the New Brunswick Craftsmen's Council or must present their work to the specially created Mactaquac Standards Committee. Any craftsman who has not been approved by these bodies will not be eligible to sell at the Festival.

New Brunswick Craftsmen's Council members who have already been juried by standards committee may automatically sell those areas of craft work for which they have been accepted by the New Brunswick Craftsmen's Council standards committee. If they wish to sell new media for which they have not been juried, these must be submitted to the Mactaquac Standards Committee.

Those craftspeople who are not juried members of the N.B. Craftsmen's Council must present three samples of their craft to a specially created Mactaquac jury comprising of:

1) A member of the Craft Division of the Department of Youth, Recreation and Cultural Resources.
2) A member of the N.B. Craftsmen's Council
3) An invited member at large from another Maritime Craft Organization.

The Mactaquac Standards Committee will meet two months before the craft fair. Craftspeople who wish to submit work for jurying should write their intention before July 1st., 1977 to the N.B. Craft School, Woodstock Road, Fredericton, New Brunswick. The standards committee will convene at the following centres on these dates in the regional office of the Department of youth, Recreation and Cultural Resources.

CWL Officers Installed

The June meeting of Our Lady of the Rosary Council Catholic Women's league was preceded by the installation of the new executive in the church conducted by Council Director Rev. J. W. Roche.

In the short but moving ceremony, the gavel has handed to the president, Joyce Thibodeau, by Father Roche, symbolizing her authority and responsibility.

The meeting opened with the League prayer. The church life convener, Marvel Colton, gave a reading from the Book of Proverbs, "Wisdom was born before the earth was made."

New members were welcomed to the league and women of the parish are reminded if they wish to join the CWL, they are always most welcome.

Regular business following, with the reading and approval of the minutes, conveners' reports and correspondence.

The director Father Roche took advantage of the meeting being the last before summer recess to thank council members for their help and work in the parish.

The president was appointed delegate to the provincial CWL convention in Moncton June 3-5. Another member would also attend some of the sessions as a visiting delegate.

Other business was concluded and the meeting closed with a prayer for the Holy Father.

Best wishes for a happy summer were extended and lunch was enjoyed by everyone. Hostesses for the evening were Marie Guidry, Sadie O'Kane and Anne Marie Doucet.

Even if you're handicapped, it doesn't mean you can't enjoy water activities. Call Red Cross to find out where swimming courses for the disabled are being taught in your neighbourhood.

MR. AND MRS. ALFRED DUGUAY

Marriage Vows Exchanged

The marriage of Lorraine Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Arseneault of Barnaby River, New Brunswick and Mr. Alfred Joseph Duguay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Duguay of Bathurst, was solemnized on May 21 at St. Mary's Church, Newcastle.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white "Port De Gros" Parisian style floor length Alecon lace over a white organza gown, with accented collar, bodice and sleeve in pleated organza. It featured a chapel train. Her Headpiece was a floral wreath, with the veil matching the gown and accented with pleated organza edges.

Maid of honour was the bride's sister, Miss Alma Arseneault, who wore a floor length pink silk jersey gown with a mandarin collar and short cap-style sleeves.

The bridesmaids' dresses were floor-length, mint green and cream gowns with a low cut neckline featuring a capelet collar and sleeves with a flower in the center.

Bridesmaids were Miss Diane Arseneault, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Myrna Cormier, Mrs. Maria Gauvin, sister of the groom and Miss Debbie Chamberlain.

A niece of the groom, Miss Barbara Duguay, was the flower girl and wore a white gown with pink trimmings. Her gown also featured a matching capelet.

The bride carried a bouquet of red and white carnations with a large orchid in the center and miniature red carnations on the streamers. The maid of honour carried a brown basket of pink carnations and white daisies, while the remainder of the bridal train carried huge mint green chrysanthemums surrounded by a lacy white holder. The flower girl carried a miniature bouquet identical to the bride's.

Best man was Mr. Fred Whalen while the ushers were Mr. Patrick Duguay, brother of the groom, Mr. Larry Foran, Mr. Roger Cormier, and Mr. Leonard Gauvin.

The mother of the bride chose a yellow floor length Venise lace gown while the mother of groom wore a yellow floor length jersey knit gown.

Reverend Joseph Daley performed the ceremony. William Hachey played the organ while Cathy Harrig sang "The Homecoming", was played as the entrance song. During the ceremony the hymn "Thank-You Lord" was sung, along with the song "The First Time Ever I Ever Saw Your Face." "The Wedding March" ended the ceremony.

A reception followed at the Village Inn in Newcastle.

The groom is presently employed with the provincial government in Saint John where the bride has a job as an accounting clerk.

The Duguays are making their home in Saint John.

Duplicate Bridge Results

An excellent bridge tournament was held at the Gowan Brae Golf and Country Club June 20th with players from Chatham, Newcastle, Campbellton, and Bathurst taking part.

First place trophy went to Mrs. Dave Mitchell and Mrs. J. Bryenton of Newcastle.

Second place was captured by a Bathurst couple, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Chiasson, while Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hare of New

Contributes To W.I. Home

The monthly meeting of Stonehaven Women's Institute Branch, held at the home of Mrs. Douglas Daley in Clifton June 2, was chaired by Mrs. Gary Knowles, President.

The meeting was called to order with the repetition of Mary Stewart Collect, O Canada, salutation of the flag and God Save The Queen.

The minutes were read by the secretary Mrs. Harper Smith. Roll Call indicated 10 members present. There was one visitor.

Correspondence was read and discussed and conveners' reports were distributed. Treasurer Mrs. Burton Comeau gave the financial report. it was decided that all bills be paid.

It was agreed to donate $25 to the W.I. Home in Woodstock.

Exhibits for the district convention at Danny's June 14 in Bathurst were discussed. It was decided all articles would be entered by the branch, and a number of members would be attending the convention.

The convener of agriculture, Mrs. Eric Ellis, conducted a Chinese auction which was won by Mrs. Burton Comeau and netted $285. There was also a quiz on garden and flower seeds.

Mrs. Charles Scott, education convener, conducted two quiz contests, one on the Maritime Provinces which was won by Mrs. Harper Smith, and the other concerning street names in Bathurst won by Mrs. Douglas Daley.

A "guessing parcel" by Mrs. Lyman Knowles was won by Mrs. Cleveland Daley.

Mrs. Harper Smith, delegate to the provincial W.I. convention, gave an informative report on the 3-day event.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Eric Ellis, Janeville.

MR. AND MRS. AUGUSTUS LANDRY

Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Landry Celebrate 65th Anniversary

May 26 marked a very special day for two well-known and liked residents of Green Point, Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Landry. On that day, 65 years ago, Mr. Landry, a native of Belledune, and the former Albina Fournier pledged their marriage vows at St. Vincent de Paul Church, in her native Green Point. The late Rev. Van de Morten officiated.

They are the son and daughter of the late Mr and Mrs. George Landry and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fournier respectively.

Their attendants in 1922 were John Hickey, now of Windsor, Ont., and the groom's sister, the late Jane (Landry) Hickey, who later married the best man.

Celebrations began with a mass at 7:30 p.m. at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Camille Chiasson and Mr. Chiasson with whom they have been residing for the past five years. The celebrants were Rev. J. Emile Fournier, pastor of Sacred Heart Cathedral in Bathurst, and Rev. Gervais LeBlanc, parish priest in Green Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Landry have nine children. Their daughters are Mrs. Camille Chiasson (Evangeline) of Green Point, Antoinette and Mary Landry, both of Vancouver, Mrs. Corinne Paiser, Dartmouth, N. S., Mrs. Ralph Flanagan (Adeline) of Jacquet River and Mrs. Merle Beers (Doris), also of Dartmouth. Arthur of Paspebiac, Que. Hector of Dalhousie and Edgar of Boisbriand, Que. are the sons. There are 17 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Mr. Landry's sister, Miss Elizabeth Landry of Villa Chaleur in Bathurst where she observed her 84th birthday, spent the day with the family at Green Point. Another sister, Mrs. Helen Darling, Balmoral, was unable to be present, nor was a brother, Julien, Portland, Me.

GIFTS RECEIVED

The family presented Mr. Landry with a gold coin and their mother with a gold Madonna Pendant and gold chain.

After the service, friends, neighbors and other relatives called at the home to extend congratulations and best wishes.

The honored couple also received many congratulatory messages, including one from the Minister of Natural Resources, Hon. Roland Boudreau. Flower arrangements included roses and potted plants. The couple were presented a souvenir plaque, along with other numerous gifts.

Mr. Landry who will be 90 in August, operated a general store at Nash Creek during his early years. He later was employed with International Paper Company at Dalhousie for 33 years, first as a woods contractor, and then as a gatekeeper. Mrs. Landry was 86 on March 3.

After his retirement, Mr. and Mrs. Landry lived at Jacquet River until moving to Green Point to reside with their daughter and family.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Landry enjoy good health, are active and interested always in their family and friends as well as in church and community affairs.

Among those present from out-of-town points were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Flanagan and family, Jacquet River; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Landry and son Jacques of Paspebiac and Mr. and Mrs. Hector Landry and daughter Jane Marie, Boisbriand, Que.

Social and Personal

By Marg Jamieson, Woman's Editor

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Comeau, Arichat, N.S., were recent visitors in the city and while here attended the christening of their new granddaughter, Andrea Yvonne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dimitroff. Also present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Barlok, the latter being a sister of Mrs. Dimitroff.

Mr. George Crofoot spent the last week in Montreal, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Loggie and family.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Allo, former Bathurst residents, are interested to learn that they are leaving Montreal to reside in future in Peterborough, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McLaren, Pompano Beach, Florida, have arrived to spend the summer at Youghall Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Oliver, Halifax, were guests last week of the former's uncle, Mr. William Oliver, and Mrs. Oliver, and of his cousin, Mr. Ian Oliver, and Mrs. Oliver, all of South Teteagouche.

Miss Mary Bell has returned to Fairfield, Me., after spending two weeks with her uncle, Mr. Stanley Bell, and Mrs. Bell, South Teteagouche.

Mr. and Mrs. Mufray Nelson and family, Halifax, were weekend guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Keith Brownell, and Mr. Brownell, South Teteagouche.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Wilson, Ajax, Ont. whose marriage took place in Forest, Ont. June 11, spent several days of their honeymoon in Bathurst as guests of the latter's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Vanderheyden.

Miss Dolores Stever leaves tomorrow for Moncton where she will spend a two-week vacation with her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Mathias Stever and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronaldo Olscamp have returned from New Richmond, Que., where they visited for several days with the latter's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Boissoneault and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Landry, Toronto, spent a recent vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michel Landry, Model Avenue, and his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Landry, as well as at the Landry cottage at Carron Point.

GRS Sophisticated And Valuable Tool

(By W. R. Garvin,
Dept. of Communication)

Since the inception of the General Radio Service in 1962, GRS has grown and evolved into a sophisticated and valuable tool, providing countless emergency, business, and personal services which were never available to such a wide segment of the public before.

The Department recognizes the value of this service, and is aware of the thousands of responsible users of the service who benefit each day from its use, and will continue its efforts to preserve and to enhance the value of GRS.

We are also painfully aware of those users who are less responsible and who abuse the privilege of GRS. This has been a problem in many parts of Canada. Departmental staff in the central region are quite prepared to enforce the relevant acts and the radio regulations consistent with current policies, available manpower resources, taking into account the rights of individual citizens, to the best of their ability.

We are also prepared to participate with the public, with GRS clubs and with associations, in finding as many positive ways as are feasible to improve the quality of use of GRS. There are many new or novice operators joining the service.

Plans are under active analysis in the department which are designed to provide better service to the public and better utilization of GRS such as the adoption of 40 channels, adoption of equipment standards jointly set by DOC and the FCC; a national information program on various aspects of GRS; upgraded enforcement program under present authority and recommendations on changes to enforcement authority. Further education, and enforcement of course, are required to deal with the harder core abuses

As we listen to GRS operators in action on the band, while we are disturbed by the bad operators, we are perhaps more impressed by the very good operators. It is these good operators who demonstrate the skill, and in fact, the art of good radio operating. Such a skill is highly respected and serves as an example for new operators to emulate. It is these operators that we would like to support and encourage in the hope that they will be able to exert, by their presence and example, a certain peer pressure against those who abuse that high standard.

With some 500,000 licensed stations in Canada now, and an estimated 2,000,000 by 1980, and with DOC inspectors available for this task limited to possibly 200 people all across Canada, it is obvious that a certain amount of self-regulation by users will have to evolve.

I personally feel we should work on two fronts. On one front, DOC will have to be more effective in dealing with the hard core abuser. On the other front together with the GRS users, through clubs and associations and via the media, we will have to develop an image of GRS which will make us prouder perhaps than we have been before at certain times. This is the sort of pride and responsibility which has developed in the amateur bands.

However, we share your concerns and are prepared to consider further any specific recommendations which might contribute to the general improvement of GRS.

can perform near-miracles with Tammy, but there will always be those questions, so very pertinent to amputation, that only another amputee can answer. This is where Donna Clarke will be available, to offer encouragement and, generally, to counsel young Tammy (and incidentally her parents) regarding prosthetics and the other vexing questions which seem to take on mysterious proportions to outsiders, but which are common place in the world of the amputees themselves

INFORMATION

The most important of these is, of course, the artificial arm or leg on which the amputee must necessarily rely not only for the everyday functions such as eating and getting dressed but also for the special skills of employment or running a household, and sharing in some of the recreational pursuits which add so much to the quality of life.

A catalogue detailing information on these new limbs is available to any interested person, free of charge, by writing to the Key Tag Service. The War Amputations of Canada, Toronto, Ont.

Fast-Food Firms Are Growing Fat

Gourmets might not approve, but the growth of fast-food shops in Canada has been, well, gastronomical.

Limited-menu restaurants and take-out shops now account for one out of every four dollars spent on food, up from one in seven a decade ago.

The success of the fast-food industry isn't built upon the sensitive palates of those who enjoy haute cuisine, but rather upon an insatiable appetite of younger Canadians for hamburgers, hot dogs, fried chicken, pizzas, doughnuts, french fries, ice cream, fish-and-chips and so on.

More than that, however, fast-food operators offer the luxury of convenience and (as their name indicates) speed.

And the tendency of consumers to buy on impulse, if they happen to pass such an outlet, is another major ingredient of their success—and the reason why the selection of sites has become a science in the industry.

The preferred locations are those that people under 35 years of age would find easily accessible.

GROWTH PROBLEMS

"The reputation of the entire chain is in the hands of the individual outlets," comments Ben Kizemchuk of Midland Doherty Ltd., a Toronto-based investment firm.

"Poor service from a few can readily discredit the chain's name."

A growing trend in the industry is to provide more seating accommodation, for customers who would rather not take away their orders. This has forced some chains into a costly expansion of certain of their outlets.

Kizemchuk notes that Canada's fast-food operators had sales of more than $4.3 billion last year, and that the industry is still in its growth stage.

"A simple projection would indicate that roughly one food dollar in two will be spent on fast foods by the mid-1980s, assuming a continuation of its growth rate," he notes.

"Whether this will be the case or not, there is still adequate room for further penetration."

He adds: "What used to be considered a treat, now has become an established pattern of eating."

LISTED COMPANIES

Here are some of the major fast-food companies whose shares are traded on Canadian stock markets:

—Cara Operations Ltd. is the outgrowth of a small company launched nearly a century ago to sell newspapers, candy and the like on trains running out of Toronto. Today its largest single customer is Air Canada, but it has chains of Winco Steak 'n' Burger outlets and Keg 'n' Cleaver restaurants among its wide variety of retail operations.

Sales in its latest fiscal year were an estimated $111.5 million, up 144 per cent in the past five years.

Cara has recently made a $35 million offer for most of the assets of Foodcorp (annual sales: $44.2 million), operator of among other things a chain of Swiss Chalet restaurants specializing in barbecued chicken, and Harvey's, a hamburger chain.

—Scott's Restaurants Co. Ltd. operates a master franchise agreement with Col. Sanders Kentucky Fried Chicken, as well as some other food outlets. Latest year's sales were $90.1 million, an increase of 136 per cent in five years.

—Foodex Systems Ltd. is the operator of the Ponderosa Steak House chain (nearly 100 outlets) and a chain called Frank Vetere's Pizzerias. The relatively small and new chain of Harvey Wallbanger steak houses will be converted into pizzerias. Foodex reported sales of $74 million in 1976.

Will Attend CIC Course

Treasury Board Chairman Jean-Maurice Simard has announced that Lorio Roy, regional director for the Community Improvement Corporation in Bathurst will attend an 18-month course at the Ecole nationale d'administration provinciale in Quebec.

Mr. Roy's career started as a social worker with the health department. He then taught psychology at the College de Bathurst from 1970 to 1973. He was hired by CIC in 1973 and appointed to his current position in 1974. He will leave his duties on August 1.

He is a member of several organizations, including the New Brunswick Psychologists Association, the Canadian Association of Behavioral Specialists, the supervisory committee of the Rogersville Credit Union and chairman of the natural resources' department's Advisory Committee on Mining Safety.

Local Students Visit Capital

Grade nine students of South Bathurst School visited Fredericton and area on Friday, June 10. Accompanying the students were Judy Ouellette and teachers Paul Ouellette, Gerald Godin and Gary Branch.

In Fredericton the students visited the Legislative Assembly where they were welcomed by the Sargeant at Arms and by M. L. A. Eugene McGinley. After attending part of the morning session of the assembly the students chatted informally, outside the house, with Liberal leader Robert Higgins.

The students also visited the Beaverbrook Art Gallery and the University of New Brunswick campus in the capital.

In the afternoon the students visited Mactaquac Power Project where they were given a guided tour. They then visited the Kings Landing Historical Site before returning home.

1977 Monarch Will Be Chosen Tonight

Bathurst City MLA Eugene McGinley will act as master of ceremonies tonight (Wednesday) at the 1977 Miss Bathurst Pageant, set for 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium of Nepisiguit High School.

A total of nine lovely young ladies from the city are vying for the title of queen and the honor of reigning over the 1977 Hospitality Days activities which began today will run until Sunday.

Contestants are Lee Ann Northrup, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Hubert Jagoe; Shirley Picot, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Picot; Monique Leger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Yvon Leger; Yvonne Landry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Landry; Judy Hachey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hampford Hachey; Line Losier, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Gilbert Losier; Cindy Taylor, daughter of Mrs. Mildred Taylor; Carmelle Gauvin, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Leandre Gauvin; and Carol Benoit, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Roger Benoit.

The girls met with the panel of out of town judges this morning at a pre-pageant luncheon, when most of the judging took place.

Music for this year's pageant will be provided by the Bathurst Citizens' Band, with drama entertainment by Bathurst Community Theatre Inc. Commentators will be Jane Richard and Gracia Chasson.

A wide variety of gifts donated by various local businesses and merchants will be awarded to the queen and her princesses this year, including trophies from Tower's Jewellers.

MISSION ACCOMPLISHED

Some weeks ago this newspaper was alerted to the fact that a movement was afoot to remove the clock tower on the Old Bathurst Post Office Bldg., which now serves as an armory.

The Northern Light made strong editorial reference to this proposed unnecessary destruction of a traditional landmark. These comments were noticed by Herb Breau, who took up the cudgels from there.

The Gloucester MP made representations to the several federal government departments concerned. Local organizations and individuals also registered their disapproval of the reported plan. The City Council also filed an objection.

There have been satisfactory results and the latest development is contained in the following communication from Hon. Barney Danson, minister of National Defence, to Mr. Breau:

"The renovations to the building do no include removal of the clock tower and although this building is not an official historical site every effort is being made to maintain the original appearance of the structure to respect the historical character of the site.

"In this respect it is proposed to re-roof the sloped portion of the roof with slate grey asphalt shingles; re-roof the flat portion and replace the metal counter flashing as close to the original pattern as is practical.

"In addition, it is proposed to repair and re-install the cast iron eavestroughing and rebuild and repair all masonry work."

The Northern Light, as well as the citizens of Bathurst, it is imagined, are indebted to our man in Ottawa and to those local people who successfully supported the cause celebre.

NEW SEASON HAILED

The Farmers' Market at Bathurst Exhibition Grounds, will open to the public for the 14th consecutive season on Fri. and Sat., July 8 and 9, from 8:30 a.m. until sellout.

Running concurrently with a 2-day antique sale and in conjunction with Hospitality Days, high quality vegetables, small fruits in season, pickles, preserves, home cooking, fancy work, crafts, jewelry, potted plants and a variety of other articles too numerous to mention will be offered for sale.

In addition, Saturday's market will feature something entirely new. Eric MacMinn, of So. Teteagouche, a noted beef far-

City Saves Much On Storm Sewers

The contract for several capital works projects scattered throughout the city was awarded Monday night to Kenny's trucking Ltd. with a bid of $153,147.50.

The bid, the lower of two submitted, covers the installation of sanitary sewers on Thornton Avenue, intersection improvements on Duke Street, sidewalk on King Avenue from Union Street to Demeresque Street; storm sewers on Garden St., Notre Dame St., Maria Ave., Roche St., Rough Waters Dr., and St. Anne St. and Westmount Heights Subdivision services.

The amount budgeted for the work was $219,790., with the major difference between the budget authority and the tenders being a substantial saving on storm sewers.

Completion date for the work is on or before September 15, 1977.

Meanwhile, the stimulation grant awarded the city this year from provincial coffers will be used to extend water and sewer services on Rough Waters Drive.

Upon recommendation by the engineering department, City Council noted to proceed with services on Payne Court and as far as the house at 2171 Rough Waters Drive. This would service 42 of the 50 buildings between the end of existing lines and the bypass, providing no rock or unusual problems are experienced in crossing two major storm drainage culverts and the Consolidated-Bathurst water supply line. The cost to residents in the area will be $15.25 per foot frontage and $425 hookup.

City Clean-Up Is Continuing

At least three items contained in an unsightly premises report to Bathurst City Council Monday are in line for immediate follow-up action by the local building inspector at the request of concerned councillors.

Properties located at 275 St. Patrick Street, 725 King Avenue and 185 St. Peter Avenue have been on the books far too long for the liking of council, and were singled out for corrective action.

The remainder of the report, which contained ten items, showed either a total clean-up of the property in question or intention to do so in the near future.

$30,000. Park Project Starts

The Parkwood Heights Homeowners' Association are sponsoring "Parkwood Project '77", a Canada Works Project worth $30,000 to begin development and supervision of Centennial Park.

The program will employ a project manager, two park workers and two park supervisors. There will be supervision in Centennial Park from 1:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. daily.

A girl's softball program in Riverside Park is planned for all interested girls aged 8 to 16 years. There is no fee and registration will take place at Riverside Park Monday and Tuesday, June 11 and 12, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon.

Anyone interested in coaching or helping with girls softball is kindly asked to call Mrs. Florine Rutledge, 546-6717.

Further sports activities and facilities will be arranged at a later date.

COMMISSIONAIRES CITED BY CITY

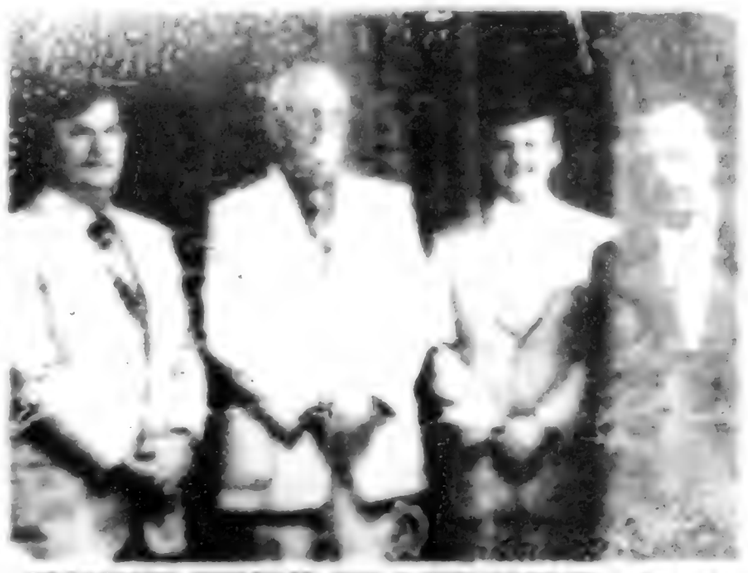
Dual Bylaws Okayed; Delayed Action Scored

Bathurst City Council will make representation to the proper government departments for financial and or technical assistance in providing written translation of all city bylaws.

Making the motion Monday night Deputy Mayor Jean Paul Lavoie felt the translation would represent a goodwill gesture as well as fulfill a request which is bound to come in the near future. He also stated the move would be consistent with Canada Week.

As to the cost, Deputy Mayor Lavoie felt funds should come from either level of government or be undertaken if necessary on a cost-sharing basis. He added cost would be minimal following the initial undertaking with bylaw translation carried out on a regular basis.

In other business, City Council was informed that the untidy situation at the Superior School playground has been remedied. In its letter, the District 4 School Board also asked council's consideration of its request to have the surface drainage problem at the site remedied immediately through the installation of a curb and sidewalk along Duke Street.



ROTARIANS HONORED FOR DISTINGUISHED SERVICE

Decision On Request From Library Pending

A request from the vice-chairman of the Nepisiguit Regional Centennial Library Board for City Council's assistance in pruchasing a microfilm projector has been table pending receipt of more information from the board.

Conrad Coughlan's letter, read Monday night at council's regular session, indicated the library will soon be receiving a number of microfilms from universities, the House of Commons library, provincial Legislature as well as other historical and museum sources. However, Mr. Coughlan pointed out, these valuable resource materials will only gather dust if a microfilm projector is not obtained.

He requested the city's co-operation in the purchase of the piece of equipment, which would cost in the vicinity of $400.

Although City Manager Pierre Marquis said it was too early to tell if there would be any excess budget monies, he felt the city could find the funds for such a project.

Coun. Joe MacNeil's motion to proceed with the purchase was defeated, however, by a 7-1 vote, with most councillors stating the matter should be looked into further.

Coun. Albert Lavigne wondered if council would be limiting itself by buying a microfilm projector only. "As I understand", he said, "many institutions are now using microfish as well. Perhaps we should determine how useful such a projector will be before we

Liquor Laws Not Violated

According to Bathurst Police Chief David Camp, the type of entertainment being offered at La Flamme Beverage Room on Main Street does not violate liquor licensing regulations and does not warrant enforcement action by police at this time.

In a report presented to Bathurst City Council at its regular meeting Monday night, Chief Camp noted the five daily performances are being monitored regularly by plainclothes officers and liquor inspectors, and all are of the opinion the show does not warrant prosecution under the Criminal Code.

"Contrary to widely held belief, a strip tease show is not in itself illegal", stated the chief. "Before prosecution can be successfully entered, an act performed in a licensed liquor outlet must go beyond simple nudity."

Chief Camp added the premises will continue to be checked on a regular basis, and if and when liquor regulations are found to be contravened, prosecution will be entered.

Deputy Mayor Jean Paul Lavoie noted the establishment had originally been issued a restaurant license, and wondered what procedure was required to change over to a beverage room.

Council agreed to get this information from the chief for the July 18 council meeting.

1977 Monarch Will Be Chosen Tonight

Bathurst City MLA Eugene McGinley will act as master of ceremonies tonight (Wednesday) at the 1977 Miss Bathurst Pageant, set for 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium of Nepisiguit High School.

A total of nine lovely young ladies from the city are vying for the title of queen and the honor of reigning over the 1977 Hospitality Days activities which began today will run until Sunday.

Contestants are Lee Ann Northrup, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Jagoe; Shirley Picot, daughter of Mr. and Mrs Roger Picot; Monique Leger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Yvon Leger; Yvonne Landry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Landry; Judy Hachey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hampford Hachey; Line Losier, daughter of Mr and Mrs Gilbert Losier; Cindy Taylor, daughter of Mrs Mildred Taylor; Carmelle Gauvin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs Leandre Gauvin, and Carol Benoit, daughter of Mr and Mrs Roger Benoit.

The girls met with the panel of out-of-town judges this morning at a pre-pageant luncheon, when most of the judging took place.

Music for this year's pageant will be provided by the Bathurst Citizens' Band, with drama entertainment by Bathurst Community Theatre Inc. Commentators will be Jane Richard and Gracia Chasson.

A wide variety of gifts donated by various local businesses and merchants will be awarded to the queen and her princesses this year, including trophies from Tower's Jewellers.

Dual Bylaws Okayed; Delayed Action Scored

Bathurst City Council will make representation to the proper government departments for financial and or technical assistance in providing written translation of all city bylaws.

Making the motion Monday night, Deputy Mayor Jean Paul Lavoie felt the translation would represent a goodwill gesture, as well as fulfill a request which is bound to come in the near future. He also stated the move would be consistent with Canada Week.

As to the cost, Deputy Mayor Lavoie felt funds should come from either level of government, or be undertaken if necessary on a cost-sharing basis. He added cost would be minimal following the initial undertaking, with bylaw translation carried out on a regular basis.

In other business, City Council was informed that the untidy situation at the Superior School playground has been remedied. In its letter, the District 4 School Board also asked council's consideration of its request to have the surface drainage problem at the site remedied immediately through the installation of a curb and sidewalk along Duke Street.

The administration was instructed to examine what provisions have been made in this year's capital works program for Duke Street, and to bring a report back to the next meeting.

MAYOR IRKED

Charges of inaction against several council committees were also part of the business discussed Monday.

Mayor John A. Duffy was especially concerned about the committee formed to investigate ways to finance a new recreation complex in the city. As well, he inquired about the ambulance and airport committees.

Coun. Jim MacLaggan noted attempts to hold a meeting of the recreation committee had repeatedly failed in the past, but he volunteered to try again.

Council members on both the airport and ambulance committees stated there have been no meetings or progress on either subject of late.

The city's chip and seal program is expected to get underway sometime this week.

Approval was given to the Marguerite Ruth Luck and Forest Glen Subdivision plans.

ROTARIANS HONORED FOR DISTINGUISHED SERVICE

MISSION ACCOMPLISHED

Some weeks ago this newspaper was alerted to the fact that a movement was afoot to remove the clock tower on the Old Bathurst Post Office Bldg., which now serves as an armory.

The Northern Light made strong editorial reference to this proposed unnecessary destruction of a traditional landmark. These comments were noticed by Herb Breau, who took up the cudgels from there.

The Gloucester MP made representations to the several federal government departments concerned. Local organizations and individuals also registered their disapproval of the reported plan. The City Council also filed an objection.

There have been satisfactory results and the latest development is contained in the following communication from Hon. Barney Danson, minister of National Defence, to Mr. Breau.

"The renovations to the building do no include removal of the clock tower and although this building is not an official historical site every effort is being made to maintain the original appearance of the structure to respect the historical character of the site.

"In this respect it is proposed to re-roof the sloped portion of the roof with slate grey asphalt shingles; re-roof the flat portion and replace the metal counter flashing as close to the original pattern as is practical.

"In addition, it is proposed to repair and re-install the cast iron eavestroughing and rebuild and repair all masonry work."

The Northern Light, as well as the citizens of Bathurst, it is imagined, are indebted to our man in Ottawa and to those local people who successfully supported the cause celebre.

NEW SEASON HAILED

The Farmers' Market at Bathurst Exhibition Grounds, will open to the public for the 14th consecutive season on Fri. and Sat., July 8 and 9, from 8:30 a.m. until sellout.

Running concurrently with a 2-day antique sale and in conjunction with Hospitality Days, high quality vegetables, small fruits in season, pickles, preserves, home cooking, fancy work, crafts, jewelry, potted plants and a variety of other articles too numerous to mention will be offered for sale.

In addition, Saturday's market will feature something entirely new. Eric MacMinn, of So. Teteagouche, a noted beef far-

City Saves Much On Storm Sewers

The contract for several capital works projects scattered throughout the city was awarded Monday night to Kenny's trucking Ltd. with a bid of $153,147.50.

The bid, the lower of two submitted, covers the installation of sanitary sewers on Thornton Avenue; intersection improvements on Duke Street; sidewalk on King Avenue from Union Street to Demeresque Street; storm sewers on Garden St., Notre Dame St., Maria Ave., Roche St., Rough Waters Dr., and St. Anne St. and Westmount Heights Subdivision services.

The amount budgeted for the work was $219,790., with the major difference between the budget authority and the tenders being a substantial saving in storm sewers.

Completion date for the work is on or before September 15, 1977.

Meanwhile, the stimulation grant awarded the city this year from provincial coffers will be used to extend water and sewer services on Rough Waters Drive.

Upon recommendation by the engineering department, City Council noted to proceed with services on Payne Court and as far as the house at 2171 Rough Waters Drive. This would service 42 of the 50 buildings between the end of existing lines and the bypass, providing no rock or unusual problems are experienced in crossing two major storm drainage culverts and the Consolidated-Bathurst water supply line. The cost to residents in the area will be $15.25 per foot frontage and $425 hookup.

City Clean-Up Is Continuing

At least three items contained in an unsightly premises report to Bathurst City Council Monday are in line for immediate follow-up action by the local building inspector at the request of concerned councillors.

Properties located at 275 St. Patrick Street, 725 King Avenue and 185 St. Peter Avenue have been on the books far too long for the liking of council, and were singled out for corrective action.

The remainder of the report, which contained ten items, showed either a total clean-up of the property in question or intention to do so in the near future.

$30,000. Park Project Starts

The Parkwood Heights Homeowners' Association are sponsoring "Parkwood Project '77", a Canada Works Project worth $30,000 to begin development and supervision of Centennial Park.

The program will employ a project manager, two park workers and two park supervisors. There will be supervision in Centennial Park from 1:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. daily.

A girl's softball program in Riverside Park is planned for all interested girls aged 8 to 16 years. There is no fee and registration will take place at Riverside Park Monday and Tuesday, June 11 and 12, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon.

Anyone interested in coaching or helping with girls softball is kindly asked to call Mrs. Florine Rutledge, 546-6717.

Further sports activities and facilities will be arranged at a later date.

Decision On Request From Library Pending

A request from the vice-chairman of the Nepisiguit Regional Centennial Library Board for City Council's assistance in pruchasing a microfilm projector has been table pending receipt of more information from the board.

Conrad Coughlan's letter, read Monday night at council's regular session, indicated the library will soon be receiving a number of microfilms from universities, the House of Commons library, provincial Legislature as well as other historical and museum sources. However, Mr. Coughlan pointed out, these valuable resource materials will only gather dust if a microfilm projector is not obtained.

He requested the city's co-operation in the purchase of the piece of equipment, which would cost in the vicinity of $400.

Although City Manager Pierre Marquis said it was too early to tell if there would be any excess budget monies, he felt the city could find the funds for such a project.

Coun. Joe MacNeil's motion to proceed with the purchase was defeated, however, by a 7-1 vote, with most councillors stating the matter should be looked into further.

Coun. Albert Lavigne wondered if council would be limiting itself by buying a microfilm projector only. "As I understand", he said, "many institutions are now using microfish as well. Perhaps we should determine how useful such a projector will be before we purchase one."

Coun. Jim MacLaggan agreed, saying there was "no big rush" for immediate action.

Coun. Lavigne's notion to contact Mr. Coughlan for further details passed by a 7-1 vote. In favor were Couns. Ken Frenette, Robert Hodgins, Hugh Campbell, Hilaire Brideau, Jean Paul Lavoie, MacLaggan and Lavigne, while Coun. MacNeil went against the move. Coun. Doug Williamson was absent from the meeting.

Also in the line of library business, council went on record as fully supporting the effort being made by the Chaleur Regional Library Board to retain the bookmobile service in the northeastern part of the province.

In a letter from the chairman of the board, Mrs. I. McCormick, councillors learned of the need for such a service in the area, and the possibility of its being cut-off in the region.

Mrs. McCormick urged council to convey its concern to the local MLA and to the Hon. Jean Pierre Ouellet, minister of youth, recreation and cultural resources.

In indicating his support of the request, Coun. Joe MacNeil said the importance of books could not be overstressed. "We want our children to benefit fully from this bookmobile service."

Councillors voted unanimously in favor of making strong representation to this effect to the authorities involved.

Decisions Made On School Year

The Provincial Cabinet has reached a final decision on the School Year, and New Brunswick students will be facing only minor changes. Education Minister Charles Gallagher has announced that most of the revised recommendations of the Task Force on the School Year have been accepted by the Department of Education and approved by Cabinet.

Beginning with the 1978-79 school year, the Christmas break will be shortened slightly. It will begin on December 23 and students will return to school January 2. When the 23rd falls on a weekend, the break will begin the preceding Friday. When New Year's Day falls on a weekend, schools will re-open the following Tuesday.

Another change will see the one-week March Break beginning on the first Monday in March, said Mr. Gallagher.

The government has also confirmed that there will be no change in the beginning of the school year, which will continue to be the day following Labour Day. In its earlier Interim Report, the Task Force had recommended that schools open in mid-August and close in mid-June. Mr. Gallagher said that there was heavy public opposition to that proposal, and it was not accepted by either his department or the government.

He stressed, however, the Regulations Under the Schools Act empower the Minister of Education to approve valid requests from school districts for earlier opening dates. Traditionally, permission for earlier opening has been granted to two or three districts which then close their schools for a couple of weeks during the potato harvest.

Also approved is a recommendation that the school year remain at 195 days. Thirteen days will be used for Professional Development and Administrative purposes, so that the students will attend 182 days.

Mr. Gallagher said Board of School Trustees will be asked to make every effort to ensure that students are actively and productively engaged in the learning process for the entire student year. Such efforts might include a closer control over times of examinations and graduation exercises.

Each school district will be required to develop an annual school calendar based on the provincial dates. Individual copies of the calendar will be sent to parents not later than the opening day of school.

Hospitality Days '77 Activities Underway

Bathurst Hospitality Days 1977 got underway this (Wednesday) morning in the city, and from now until festivities end Sunday night, July 10, residents and visitors alike will be treated to a wide variety of activities designed for enjoyment by all ages.

The official opening of the festival is set for 2 p.m. at the downtown bandstand, located in the downtown arcade between Kent's Supermarket and the Kent Theatre. One change has been noted in the bandstand program, with the draw for the car being moved to Sunday afternoon in Coronation Park, following the festival parade.

The highlight of today's events, the Miss Bathurst Pageant, is set for 7:30 p.m. at Nepisiguit High School, when judges choose from nine lovely contestants the successor to Miss Bathurst 1976, Gail Knowles.

The Festival "50" stock car races get underway at 7:30 p.m. at Danny's Speedbowl, and Finnigan will provide the entertainment beginning at 8:30 p.m. at the teens' concert at Bathurst Arena.

The final event on the Wednesday schedule, the festival ball, will be held at the Community College gym beginning at 10 p.m.

Also slated for today rather than Thursday afternoon as originally planned is Kiddies' Day. All youngsters are invited to take part in the arts and crafts program, games, contests at LeBlanc High parking lot from 1 p.m. - 4:30 p.m. The magic show, with John Stuart of Moncton, is set for 3:30 p.m.

The remainder of the kiddies' program, including the mini-parade and choosing of mini-royalty, will be held Thursday. The event is sponsored by Bathurst City Police in conjunction with the city parks and recreation department.

COMMISSIONAIRES CITED BY CITY

Liquor Laws Not Violated

According to Bathurst Police Chief David Camp, the type of entertainment being offered at La Flamme Beverage Room on Main Street does not violate liquor licensing regulations and does not warrant enforcement action by police at this time.

In a report presented to Bathurst City Council at its regular meeting Monday night, Chief Camp noted the five daily performances are being monitored regularly by plainclothes officers and liquor inspectors, and all are of the opinion the show does not warrant prosecution under the Criminal Code.

"Contrary to widely held belief, a strip tease show is not in itself illegal", stated the chief. "Before prosecution can be successfully entered, an act performed in a licensed liquor outlet must go beyond simple nudity."

Chief Camp added the premises will continue to be checked on a regular basis, and if and when liquor regulations are found to be contravened, prosecution will be entered.

Deputy Mayor Jean Paul Lavoie noted the establishment had originally been issued a restaurant license, and wondered what procedure was required to change over to a beverage room.

Council agreed to get this information from the chief for the July 18 council meeting.

LADIES' FIELD DAY WINNERS RECEIVE TROPHIES

Trophies were presented the Low Gross and Low Net winners following play in the annual Gowan Brae Ladies Invitational Field Day held Saturday at Gowan Brae Golf and Country Club. Ladies' match chairman Karen McDermott, left, presents the Eddie David Trophy to low net winner Mary Gavin of the host club. Looking on is low gross winner Debbie Dickeson, of Fredericton, who captured the Ivan Stairs Trophy for the second year in a row.

Club House Chatter

News notes from Gowan Brae Golf and Country Club
by
Jean Boylan

The past week has brought us sunny skies and a very busy schedule of activities at Gowan Brae.

Starting off the week was the first Tuesday evening mixed two-ball. A shortage of females made the pairing off a little lopsided, but this didn't detract from the fun of the evening. Winning low gross for the event were Maria Landry and Shayne Carter, while low net went to the dubious pair of Aurele Lavigne and Eloi Lavigne. On hand to pick up consolation honors were Alice Lavigne and Bob Goguen. There was more than enough chicken bouillion for everyone, so here's hoping more will turn out next Tuesday (6:00 p.m. to participate.

The following morning was the 9:30 tee-off for the first Ladies' Day. Club Captain Karen McDermott has organized a system by which ladies can accumulate credits each Ladies' Day and at the end of the season you may choose your own prize at the pro shop. The poster will be downstairs and each lady can keep an eye on her own progress as the weeks go by. Winners for this past Wednesday for the high and low scores on a hidden hole were Beatrice Boudreau with a high of 15 and Gisele Shaw with a low of 5 on number 8 hole.

On Saturday, July 2, a very successful Ladies' Field Day saw a field of 39 golfers from all over the province visit Gowan Brae. Leading the field for low gross was Debbie Dickeson from Fredericton who was presented the Ivan Stairs Trophy. Low net for the field was Gowan Brae's Mary Gavin who earned the Eddie David Trophy. Also in the 1st Division, 1st low net went to Kelly Maher of Gowan Brae, and 1st low gross went to Laura T. Reynolds of Plaster Rock who was presented her prize by Edythe Hatheway.

In the 2nd Division, the honors were as follows: 1st low gross, Ilona Schnarr (GB); 2nd low gross, Margaret Nolan (Rest). 3rd low gross, Edythe Hatheway (GB). Low net in this division went to Lil Manderson (Rest). 2nd low net, Mackie Shaw (Mir); 3rd lot net, Bernice Jardine (GB).

In the 3rd Division, low gross honors went to Jeannette Goguen (Pine Needles), 2nd low gross, Grace Stairs (GB), 3rd low gross, Jo Edna Walsh (Mir). In this division, low net honors were earned by Jean Boylan (GB); 2nd low net, Alma Arseneau; 3rd low net, Alvina Sobey (Mir).

There were also prizes awarded to the most honest golfer which was earned by Zelia Arseneau (PN), and high and low on a hidden hole were awarded to Leona Ogilvy of Woodstock and Chris Peterson of Restigouche.

After the serious golfing was over, the ladies were treated to a delicious steak dinner convened by Denise Hachey. Denise had the help of Maria Landry, Barbara Dodge, Karen McDermott, and Gisele Shaw. Credit for performing the tender task of barbecuing the steaks goes to Frank McDermott, Hugh Currie and Jim Schnarr. Also there to help record scores were Florence Estabrooks and Kelly Maher.

The Ladies' Field Day required a great deal of behind the scenes work all of which was done by Gerry Lenihan and Karen McDermott who deserve the credit for the success of the day.

Members, keep in mind the three regular weekly events the Wednesday noon Luncheons, the Tuesday evening Mixed two-ball, and the Wednesday morning Ladies' Day, and do take part - it's your club!

See you next week.

Debbie Dickeson Wins Field Day

Defending champion Debbie Dickeson of Fredericton fired an 85 here Saturday to capture the annul Gowan Brae Ladies' Invitational golf Field Day.

Dickeson registered a 44 on the front nine and came in with a 41 on the back to register a two-stroke victory over Laura Reynolds of Plaster Rock, who finished with an 87. Chris Peterson of Restigouche came third, two shots back at 89. The win gave Miss Dickeson the Ivan Stairs Trophy for the second year in a row.

Three members of Gowan Brae shared second division honors. Mary Gavin, Kelly Maher and Kathy Grebenc each finished with a 92 while Mrs. Gavin captured Low Net for the field and the Eddie David Trophy with a net score of 72.

Jeannette Goguen of the Pine Needles Golf Club in Shediac topped the third division with a 109 total while Grace Stairs of the host club followed with a 112. Jo Edna Walsh of Miramichi was third, one stroke back at 113.

Thirty-nine golfers took part in the annual one-day invitational event.

First Division

Debbie Dickeson (Fred) 85, Laura T. Reynolds (Plaster Rock) 87, Chris Peterson (Rest) 89, Nancy McKay, (Wood) 100, Edia Baxter (Pine Needles) 106.

Vic's Sportsmen Gain Split In P.E.I. Tourney

Vic's Sportsmen of Bathurst made a good showing in the 7th annual Fastball Tournament held in Prince Edward Island last week. The Sportsmen split four games to finish fifth in the 32-team event.

The Sportsmen lost 7-2 to Dartmouth Alpines who eventually emerged as Tournament champions. The Bathurst team then recorded its first win by edging Newfoundland's Bishop Falls 4-3 in extra innings. The Sportsmen's second win saw them come from behind with three runs in the bottom of the seventh to nip Dartmouth Cable TV by a 6-5 count. Joe Esson's homer provided the winning margin.

Carl's Auto Repair of Halifax then handed the Sportsmen a 5-1 defeat which eliminated them from further tournament play.

Top hitters for the Sportsmen throughout the four games were Joe Esson, Brian Murphy, Roger Roy, Jim DeGrace, Mike MacDonald and Dave Mac-Donald.

Pete Mercer and Brian Murphy each hurled a win and a loss for the Bathurst Club.

Mooseheads Rout Red Sox 21-5

Bathurst Mooseheads combined 15 hits with eleven errors by their opponents to rack up a 21-5 romp over Notre Dame Red Sox in a Bay Chaleur League contest last Wednesday in West Bathurst.

Winner John Doucet gave up 12 hits, fanned six and walked one. He needed help from Jackie Roy in the ninth when the Red Sox scored three of their runs.

The Mooseheads scored 12 runs on only five hits off loser Keith Bowes who was relieved in the fifth by Andre Arseneau. Bob Hachey came on in the ninth.

Ray Jean lead the Bathurst hit parade with a double and a single while Jackie Roy, Mike Brophy, Danny Ross, Charlie Roy and Cleo Godin all had a pair of singles. Ivan Smith and Marc Hachey added doubles and John Doucet singled for the other Bathurst hits.

Gabe Furlong and Alvin Pitre each had a double and single for the Red Sox while Michel Saulnier and Andre Arseneau both singled twice. Jean-Marc Daigle, Edgar Chamberlain and Albert Pitre singled while Robert Hachey cracked a double to complete the Red Sox attack.

Win Thursday

The Mooseheads dropped the Red Sox again Thursday in Bathurst but this game was a tight pitchers' duel. Winner Jack Roy and loser Pete Ruddock both tossed seven-hitters as the 'Heads eked out a 3-2 win.

Dan Ross' second single of the game chased home two runs in the 8th to give Bathurst the edge.

Bob Hachey and Keith Bowes had a pair of singles each for the losers. Ross led the Mooseheads with a pair of singles while Ray Jean and Brian Chamberlain both doubled. Jackie roy tapped singles as [illegible] Godin, Ivan Smith and [illegible] well.

Bathurst Girls Win Two & Lose Two In Sr. A Softball

The Bathurst Dr. Pepper Dixie Lee Senior "A" Ladies softball team travelled to Moncton over the weekend to participate in the Provincial Senior "A" Playdowns. Bathurst won two games handily and then lost a pair by a one-run margin in each game.

In the first game, Carol Vanderhayden pitched Bathurst to a 4 - 1 win over Grand Falls, giving up six hits, striking out 7 and walking a pair. A. Beaulieu was the loser. Top hitters for Bathurst were Sue Arsenault, Mary Farrell, Marie-Claire Hachey and Nicole Roy each with a single.

In the second game, Memramcook defeated Dr. Pepper Dixie Lee by a 3 - 2 count. C. Cormier gave up five hits in pitching the win. Yvette Henry tossed a 3 hitter in a losing cause. Mary Farrell led Bathurst with two singles while Sue Arsenault and Debbie Perron had solo singles.

The Bathurst girls downed Saint John 13 - 3 in five innings (10 run rule) in the third game behind the strong pitching of Marie Claire Hachey who gave up only two hits. She fanned two and walked three along the way. Losing pitcher P. Klimischuk gave up 11 hits. Big guns at the plate for Bathurst were Deb Tingley with a grand slam homer and a single, Nicole Roy with a homer and triple, Sue Arsenault with a single and double and Yolande Boudreau with a pair of singles.

Bathurst was edged 8 - 7 in the fourth game by Fredericton and eliminted. S. Rose was the winning pitcher while Yvette Henry was tagged with the loss. She gave up 10 hits, fanned one and walked two. Ann Bard led the Bathurst attack with a home run, a triple and single while Lucy Legacy also homored. Marie Claire Hachey and Deb Perron each tripled and Nicole Roy added a double.

Top Averages

The top hitters for Dr. Pepper Dixie Lee in this Senior "A" Playdown were Solange Arseneau with an average of .500; Lucy Legacy and M. P. Doucet at .375; Deb Tingley .333; Nicole Roy .307; Ann Bard and Mary Farrell at .300; Sue Arsenault, Yolande Boudreau and Marie Claire hachey at .250.

The Dr. Pepper Dixie Lee girls will now play in Senior "B" competition in late August or early September.

Mooseheads Win 2 Sunday; Beresford Whips Remparts

Bathurst Mooseheads continued to come on strong in the East division of the Bay Chaleur Baseball League adding two more wins to their string in a pair of road games Sunday.

The 'Heads whipped Neguac Schooners 19 - 5 and later on, edged the Alpines 5 - 4 in Tracadie. In other games Sunday, Neguac dropped Notre Dame Red Sox 8 - 3 Sunday evening while Beresford Chalet Sportif crushed the slumping Green Point Remparts 13 - 1. In the other afternoon game Sunday, Tracadie downed the Red Sox 7 - 2.

At Neguac, the Mooseheads scored 10 runs in the first inning on their way to the 19 - 5 win over the Schooners. Cleo Godin went the route for the winners, fanning five and walking a pair.

Danny Ross carried the big stick for Bathurst with a homer, triple and three singles. Ivan Smith was close behind with a homer, double and three singles while Jackie Roy homered, tripled and singled. Godin helped his cause with three singles while Marc Hachey added a pair. Jean-Louis Robichaud, who gave way to Levi Muise in the second inning, was tagged with the loss.

In the nightcap at Tracadie, Ivan Smith scattered eight hits in going the distance for the Mooseheads. He struck out four and walked three. Conrad Ferguson, the first of three Tracadie hurlers, suffered the loss. The trio were tagged with 10 hits including a triple and single by Dave Ross. Ray Jean and Cleo Godin each doubled and singled for the Bathurst club. Keith Coughlan doubled and singled for Tracadie.

Sox Lose Pair

Notre Dame Red Sox played Tracadie in the afternoon and Neguac Sunday evening, just the reverse of the Mooseheads, but lost both games.

Tracadie winner Jean Losier pitched a two-hitter leading the Alpines to a 7 - 2 decision. Alvin Pitre was the loser. Paul Cormier and Jean-Claude Basque each doubled and singled for the Alpines while Michel Noel singled twice for the only Red Sox hits.

At Neguac, veteran Walter Vautour scattered seven hits as the Schooners recorded their 8 - 3 win. Keith Bowes went the route for the Red Sox. Paul Landry had a double and two singles for the winners with Alderic Savoie adding a pair of singles. Alvin Pitre led Notre Dame with a double and two singles.

Remparts Blasted

In the only other game played Sunday, Beresford Chalet Sportif hammered Green Point Remparts 13 - 1 behind the strong four-hit pitching of Gilles Pitre. Meanwhile Beresford tagged a pair of Rempart hurlers for 17 safe blows. Pat Boudreau led the Beresford hitters with four singles while Gilles Pitre helped his cause with three safeties. Eric Aube and Bernard Aube added a double and single apiece while Ron White singled twice.

Marc Legace, Bert Legace, Jesse Legace, and Gerry Roy singled for the lone Green Point hits. Frank Legace was the Rempart starter and loser. He gave way to Charles LeBlanc in the third.

Winner Pitre was in complete control throughout the contest as he struck out nine and walked four. The Rempart cause was hampered by 8 miscues in the field.

Vic Aubie Cops Two Events At Speed-Bowl

Although Paul Hebert of Shediac was the big winner taking the 20 lap Feature and the second semi-final at Danny's Speed-Bowl last Wednesday, Vic Aubie of Bathurst showed that local cars are definitely competitive, with a pair of wins as well.

Aubie captured the first 10-lap preliminary event and came back later to win the Trophy Dash. He topped off the evening with a third place finish in the feature.

Festival 50

On tap tonight at Danny's Speed-Bowl is the Festival Labatt's "50" which runs in conjunction with Bathurst Hospitality Days.

Time trials start at 7:30 p.m. with the opening parade set for 8:00. The program includes three Preliminaries, two Semi-Finals and the 50 Lap Feature. Rain date is tomorrow.

Cubs Take Two From Comets

Moncton Cubs capped a disastrous weekend for Bathurst Comets by winning a doubleheader from the host club here Sunday.

Moncton banged out a two-game total of 29 hits in stopping the Comets 8-5 in the opener ant 18-10 in the nightcap.

Saturday in Saint John, the Comets went down to a 5-4 defeat in 12 innings at the hands of the Raiders.

In the first game here, Ray Bourque fanned 14 and gave up 8 hits in going the distance for the win. Loser Ray Landry also went all the way. He gave up 10 hits, fanned five and walked eight. Dale Nichols and Gary Perry each had three singles for the winners. Yvon Ouellette doubled and singled for the Comets while Danny Pitre added a pair of singles.

In the nightcap, Tim Mollin clubbed a two run homer and a double to spark the Cubs while Maurice Malenfant delivered a solo homer and a single. Andy Spear added a double and four singles to the Cubs' cause. Dennis Halfpenny picked up the win with relief help from Jeff Rinzler in the 8th. Danny Pitre singled four times for the Comets while Brian O'Neill and Joe Despres each singled twice. Starter Andre Arseneau suffered the loss with help from Yves Daigle in the sixth and Pierre Aube in the 8th.

Saturday in Saint John, Ron Munro singled in the winning run in the bottom of the 12th. He also picked up the win as he relieved starter George Graham in the 8th.

Loser Yvon Ouellette went all the way for the Comets fanning eleven and walking four.

In the other N.B. Junior Baseball League contest played Saturday, Moncton Mets crushed the Chatham Junior Ironmen 17-5 in Chatham.

North Shore Open At Mont C Club This Weekend

The Mont C Tennis Club will host the annual North Shore Senior Open Tennis tournament this weekend in conjunction with the Bathurst Festival.

Play commences Saturday, July 9, at 9:00 a.m. and concludes Sunday, July 10.

Entry Deadline

Entry deadline for the North Shore Open is tomorrow, Thursday, July 7, and all those planning to participate are urged to call Marc Landry at 546-3432 as soon as possible.

Rules and regulations stipulate the tournament is open to all male and female players 16 years of age and over. The competitions will include men's singles and doubles and ladies' singles and doubles. The Draw will be completed on Friday, July 8.

There is no entry fee - compliments of the Bathurst Festival Committee.

Clinics

Monitored clinics will be held during July and August, Mondays to Fridays inclusively, from 9:00 a.m. to 12 noon. Due to the large number of children registered and the shortage of playing surfaces, the clinics are reserved for East Bathurst children only.

Game To Aid Local CAMR

The 1977 Intermediate "A" Bay of Chaleur Baseball League All Star Game will be played in Bathurst at Coronation Park, Sunday, July 10 at 4:00 p.m. All proceeds from this game will be forwarded to the local branch of the C.A.M.R.

The West Division won last year's game played in Atholville 6 - 5, with the winning run being scored in the last inning.

Players in the West Division line-up familiar to Bathurst fans are: Clem Tremblay, Sterling Loga, George and Wayne Parker, who all play hockey in the North Shore Hockey League.

The game is hosted by the 1976 Maritime Intermediate "A" Baseball Champions, Bathurst Mooseheads, who have placed 6 players on this year's All Star Team.

Prices for the game is $1.00 for adults and $.50 for children. Local fans are urged to attend what should be a very exciting game while supporting a very worthwhile cause.

"Bricklin" In Third Printing

Brunswick Books Ltd. of Fredericton, publishers of 'Bricklin' by H. A. Fredericks with Allan Chambers, has announced a third printing of the book and its recognition as a Canadian best seller.

Nearly 8,000 copies of the book have been sold since it was released two months ago. The book enters its third printing this week.

Fredericks, a management consultant who says he decided to write the book "on the day Premier Richard Hatfiled and Malcolm Bricklin staged a New York extravaganza to introduce Bricklin's gull-winged dream before a car could even be assembled in New Brunswick", had appeared on Maritime radio and television shows and on such national programs as Morningside, Canada AM and As It Happens to promote the book. 'Bricklin' has also been reviewed on the financial and book pages of major Canadian daily newspapers.

Malcolm Bricklin built 2,880 cars in New Brunswick before going into bankruptcy. New Brunswick lost more than $26-million in government investments in the gull-winged car.

Fredericks said in an interview he is amazed that the New Brunswick government has not accounted publicly for its multi-million dollar investment, "especially since it is shown in the book that the accounting records of Bricklin Canada Ltd. were never audited". He said the government owes an explanation to the province's taxpayers and to the creditors of the Bricklin companies.

He also said it would be impossible to revive the car project because the Bricklin car was not even completely engineered at the time of the bankruptcy in September, 1975.

The government has declined to release the books of Bricklin Canada Ltd. on grounds that disclosure could harm efforts to revive the project.

Remodeling?

If you're planning to remodel your kitchen, install the refrigerator in the coldest part of the room—thus, it will use less energy to operate.

FOOTLOOSE AND FANCY FREE ON THEIR WAY TO JAMBOREE

What consumes 48,000 loaves of bread, 7½ tons of hamburger, 5½ tons of butter and 120,000 eggs in a week? A group of almost 17,000 Boy Scouts and Scoutmasters, etc., that's what, and Prince Edward Island is experiencing the mass invasion this week. Represented at the huge gathering are two Bathurst troops, one of which, the Sacred Heart, is pictured here. Also attending from this District are ten boys from First United Troop and their leaders, Malcolm Steeves and John Rabasse. Included in the above group of happy, spirited lads, impatiently delaying boarding their bus in order to pose for Northern Light Photographer Gerald Doucet are: Marc Doucet, Peter White, Michel Cormier, Paul Chiasson, Jacques Friolet, Serge Arseneault, Gilles Roy, Marc Couture, Billy Adams, Ryan Burns, Vincent Whelton, Michael Buzas, Claude Arseneault, Michel Bourque, Louis Santerre, Marc LeCouter and John Maher. Accompanying the contingent are Leaders Terrence Lenihan and Billy Smith and Venturers Michael White and Lance Whalen. The Bathurst delegation, totalling 21, departed Msgr. LeBlanc High School parking lot about 5:30 p.m. Thursday, June 30 aboard a Canadian Forces bus bound for the Jamboree extending from July 2 to 9.

Canada Week Is Observed

A parade through downtown city streets which saw good representation from various majorette groups, Beavers, Cubs, air cadets and other local organizations highlighted Canada Week celebrations in Bathurst Thursday evening, June 30.

Leading the procession was Mayor John A. Duffy who was accompanied by a police escort. Following were well over 100 majorettes in colorful costumes, Beavers and Cubs from various sections of the city, members of 640 Chaleur Air Cadet Squadron and members of the Ladies Auxiliary, Herman J. Good V.C. Branch No. 18, Royal Canadian Legion.

Both the Legion and the two local I.O.D.E. chapters were represented by color parties, and Mr. Hospitality marched along with other participants.

At the cenotaph, City Police Constables Susan Foote and Patrick Guignard raised the Canadian flag and the Ward Sisters sang O Canada.

Mayor Duffy gave the official Canada Week proclamation and Rev. Emile Fournier of Sacrd Heart Cathedral and Rev. Reid Cooke of Bayview United Baptist Church offered prayers in both languages.

In his address to the gathering, Mayor Duffy urged citizens to fly the country's flag, and said the unity of Canada should be of concern to all Canadians. The ceremony concluded with the singing of God Save The Queen, again by the Ward Sisters.

Master of ceremonies for the function was Robert Bouchard, city treasurer, while former city councillor Patrick McLaughlin was parade marshal. Coun. Jim MacLaggan, chairman of the Canada Week committee, was assisted in preparations for the event by Mr. McLaughlin, Assistant City Clerk Barry Miller, and Couns. Jean Paul Lavoie and Hilaire Brideau.

Comprehensive Account Of CPR's Birth, Growth

By FRASER MacDOUGALL

Most histories of the Canadian Pacific Railway concentrate on the graphic story of building Canada's first transcontinental rail line.

W. Kay Lamb, former Dominion archivist, takes a far broader approach in his newly published History of the Canadian Pacific Railway (Collier-MacMillan Canada Ltd.; 476 pages; $17.95), covering all aspects of its growth into the giant diversified enterprise of the 1970s.

The book, one of the Railroads Of America series, may well be one of the most scholarly accounts of the birth and growth of the CPR. It is fully annotated and indexed, and contains an extensive bibliography.

Its lucid prose graphically pictures the first stages of the CPR's life, bringing them into focus with a useful account of the development of railways in eastern Canada from 1850 on.

It tells of surveys beginning in the 1850s aimed at locating a suitable route to the West, advocacy by many of by-passing the rock-bound north shore of Lake Superior by going through the United States, Canadian anxiety about U.S. intentions regarding the unsettled prairies, and British Columbia's insistence on completion of a railway within 10 years as one condition of its entry into Confederation in 1871.

ESSENTIAL LINK

Many people worked in concert to get the job done:

Politicians, led by Sir John A. Macdonald whose conviction that a railway link was essential to Canada's survival was based purely on judgment, not someone's research paper.

Entrepeneurs George Stephen, Donald Smith and R. B. Angus who looked after the financing and more than once pledged all they owned in the pursuit of their goal;

The men who did the building, under the direction of William Van Horne, over the forbidding Lake Superior section and the Pacific mountain ranges.

Even before completion of the line in 1885, the CPR began the diversification that laid the foundations for today's conglomerate with assets exceeding $4 billion.

It began with a number of services that most railway companies rented or left to others, such as telegraph and express services, launched in 1892.

Next came the special passenger equipment such as dining and sleeping cars that most lines obtained by arrangement with the Pullman company of the U.S. The CPR built its own equipment, to its own standards.

Hotels came in 1887, at Vancouver and Banff, the forerunners of today's extensive chain.

The first shipping venture was on the Great Lakes where three Clyde-built vessels went into service between Owen Sound and Port Arthur in 1884.

Service on the Pacific began with eight chartered vessels in 1886. The first three ships in the renowned Empress fleet that sailed the seas for 80 years went into trans-Pacific service in 1891. An Atlantic service began in 1903.

MODERN ERA

From land and sea transportation, Canadian Pacific naturally sought to move into the air. Lamb describes the obstacles, due in the main to a government decision to make Trans-Canada Airlines - now Air Canada - the sole chosen instrument for international services.

But Canadian Pacific Air Lines did obtain concessions, and service to Australia and the Orient began in 1949. Then it obtained new international routes - to Mexico and South America, to the Netherlands, to the Mediterranean - and broadened its domestic services.

In 1898, the company got into mining, almost by accident, when it purchased the Columbia and Western Railway. The seller insisted that a smelter in Trail, B.C., be included in the deal. Later the CPR purchased the Sullivan Mine at Kimberley with immense deposits of lead-zinc ore. The result is today's Cominco, a giant of the Canadian mining industry.

The company developed other natural resources. It operated coal mines for years, and in the 1950s moved into oil and gas production, by exercising the mineral rights it had retained on most of the land grants received during initial construction.

A CONGLOMERATE

Lamb describes the changes in the CP corporate structure that facilitated diversification.

Formation of Canadian Pacific Investments Ltd. in 1962 is described as a great step toward diversification. CPI in turn, formed two subsidiaries, Canadian Pacific Hotels and Marathon Realty.

The modern period brought another significant development - Canadian control of the company. Stephen had expressed a desire for Canadian control. Norris R. (Buck) Crump, who became president in 1955, held the same view. At the time of his appointment, Canadians held less than 15 per cent of the voting stock. By 1965 Canadians owned 55 per cent and by 1972, 63 per cent.

Fraser MacDougall is former Ottawa bureau chief for Canadian Press.

Appointed Director Of Consumer Branch

The appointment of Karl J. Dore as director of the Consumer and Corporate Services Branch has been announced by Provincial Secretary Paul Creaghan.

Mr. Dore, a native of Fredericton, had been associated with the University of New Brunswick School of Law as a professor of Law.

His new appointment is effective July 1.

The Consumer and Corporate Services Branch is a major section of the Department of Provincial Secretary. It effects regulatory and investigatory responsibilities under authority of the Collection Agencies Act, Cost of Credit Disclosure Act and Direct Sellers Act.

Under its mandate for corporate matters the branch has the responsibility for registering all companies doing business in New Brunswick along with the licensing of real estate brokers and sales personnel.

Employing 18 persons, the branch has offices in Fredericton, Saint John and Moncton.

Mr. Dore will be responsible for directing the administrative, financial and program activities of the branch and his work will entail extensive contact with government and business organizations in the consumer and corporate fields.

A specialist in consumer matters, Mr. Dore is widely published in this field. As well he has prepared numerous lectures on the subjects of consumer protection.

During the period 1972 - 1976, Professor Dore was director of a consumer protection project for the Law Reform Division, New Brunswick Department of Justice.

Among other subjects the project studied unfair and deceptive trade practices, the activities of credit reporting agencies and the validity of guarantees and warranties offered with automobiles and mobile homes.

He is a member of the Canadian Consumer Research Council and of the committee on a Uniform Personal Property Security Act, Canadian Bar Association.

Mr. Dore holds two degrees from the University of New Brunswick and one from Yale University and has received several academic honors.

He is a member of the Barristers' Society of New Brunswick, the provincial branch of the Canadian Bar Association and the Canadian Association of Law Teachers.

He is married with two children and resides in Fredericton.

Sandeau, Jules
Mademoiselle de la Seiglière

Oeuvre émouvante et romanesque, très vivante peinture de la société de l'époque. Pour honorer la parole donnée, bien qu'elle aime en secret Bernard, Hélène refuse de rompre ses fiançailles.

DOCUMENTATION FRANCAISE
Rampa, Lobsang
C'etait ainsi

"Ce volume est un récit passionnant de la vie et des réalisations d'un homme extraordinaire. Il sera une inspiration pour les innombrables disciples de Rampa."

Paupst, James
Bien dormir

Ce volume traite des bonnes habitudes à acquérir dans le sommeil; des causes et des remèdes de l'insomnie; des avantages et des dangers des somnifères; des rêves et des cauchemars.

Daffinitions

Waitress: woman who thinks money grows on trays. Hell: Even if you lick it out of the enemy, war still is. Time: the one thing that doesn't fly when you try to kill it. Sewing circle: place where more men are darned than socks.

CARD OF THANKS

GOYETTE — Mrs. John Goyette (Helen) wishes to thank Dr. B. S. Sundaram, Dr. Robert White and the nurses and staff of Chaleur General Hospital for the kindness and care shown her while a surgical patient in Chaleur General Hospital. She is also grateful to the friends who offered prayers, sent flowers, gifts and cards and paid visits.

CHARTRAND — Mr. and Mrs. Peter Chartrand, (Emily Arseneau), Ottawa, wish to thank the relatives and friends who extended sympathy in the death of their beloved son, Marc-Andre, 20, which occurred June 22, through masses, flowers, telegrams, phone calls, cards, etc. Their kindness was very much appreciated and will always be remembered.

IN MEMORIAM

CHAMBERLAIN — In loving memory of a dear husband Gerald Chamberlain whom God called home on June 29, 1976

I remember the day I met him,
The day god made him mine,
I remember the night God took him
And will till the end of time
Among my tears and heartaches,
There's one thing makes me glad,
That he chose me to share with him,
Those precious years we had.

Always remembered by wife Rita, and Mother-in-law Amanda.

Provincial Home-School Okays Many Resolutions

Several recommendations dealing with the use of alcohol and tobacco by young people in the province were adopted in Newcastle June 18 at the 40th annual meeting of the New Brunswick Home and School Association.

Through its smoking and health committees, the federation called for government legislation to raise the drinking age as well as prohibit smoking rooms in schools along with designated smoking areas. It also condemned the sale of cigarettes at school canteens and through vending machines on school property.

One recommendation went so far as to ask the provincial government to ban the sale of tobacco products by vending machines throughout the province while another suggested that all forms of tobacco advertising be prohibited in New Brunswick.

ZONING BYLAW CITY OF BATHURST

Notice is hereby given that the Council of the City of Bathurst intends to consider amendments to the Zoning Bylaw resulting from recommendation of the Planning Advisory Committee to:

(1) rezone the following:
area in East Bathurst on the east side of Miramichi Avenue between Packard Street and Poplar Street in the area of Allard Street having a depth parallel to Miramichi Avenue of 250 feet and an overall width on the north and south of Allard Street of approximately 500 feet from Agricultural to Rural Residential to permit residential construction.

(2) add clauses regarding building setbacks from street lines.

The proposed amendments to Bylaw 635 may be inspected by interested persons at the Planning Office, City Hall, during regular working hours.

Written objections to the proposed bylaw may be forwarded to the City Clerk.

The Council will meet in City Hall at 7:00 p.m., August 2, 1977 to consider written objections to the proposed amendments and anyone wishing to address the Council on these written objections may do so at that time.

DENIS HACHE

associate director of the Polyvalente Louis Mailloux in Caraquet (1971-73), professor of history and geography in Cameroun, Africa from 1967 to 1970, on behalf of the Canadian International Development Agency. From 1965 to 1967, he taught at the Caraquet regional school.

Born in Shippegan, Mr. Hache completed his high school course at the Shippegan Regional School and was awarded a bachelor of arts degree by College de Bathurst in 1964. He obtained his bachelor of education and master of education degrees with major in school administration from Universite de Moncton in 1967 and 1971 respectively. He is in the process of completing the master's degree in business administration.

Mr. Hache is very active professionally, having been elected to represent the professors on the faculty council and the academic senate. He also worked closely with the New Brunswick Department of Education and l'Association des Enseignants Francophones du N.-B., (A.E.F.N.B.) publishing a research report on the N.-B francophone teachers and professionnal training.

During the summer of 1975, Mr. Hache obtained a bursary from the French government and completed study sessions at l'Institut National d'Administration Scolaire et Universitaire in Paris and at the Academic Centre for Continuing Education.

Besides supervising student research projects, Mr. Hache participated in several research works in the field of education. Two of his projects were supported by the U de M research council.

Mr. Hache has been invited on various occasions to serve as guest speaker and to participate in workshops. He is a member of the following associations: A.E.F.N.B., the Canadian Society for the Study of Education, the Canadian Association for the Study of School Administration, Association Canadienne des Chercheurs en Education, Canadian Association of Education Teachers, Societe Canadienne d'Education Comparee et Internationale, and l'Association Canadienne-francaise pour l'Avancement des Sciences.

In the past, Mr. Hache was a member of the College Jesus-Marie advisory committee from 1971 to 1973 and member of the Caraquet Richelieu Club.

PROVINCIAL

The committee also recommended that five cents from the sale of every package of cigarettes sold in the province be returned by the government to the New Brunswick Council on Smoking and Health to use towards the prevention of illness caused by tobacco.

The federation is also to approach the "proper authorities" in order to have the present legislation regarding the sales of tobacco to children under 16 enforced as well as the ban on smoking on school buses. The committee also wants to have smoking prohibited on all forms of public transportation.

Several of the recommendations and resolutions approved at the session passed by narrow margins and required standing vote counts.

Dr. Blanche Bourgeois of Cocagne cautioned delegates against being too rigid in their approach to the subject of tobacco and alcohol for fear of losing the good will of the children. Members were advised to show the youngsters that such measures are for their own good.

Among other resolutions adopted at the annual meeting were the following.

That the province initiate a New Brunswick-wide survey to determine the proficiency level of students in the fields of spelling, writing and mother tongue use with a view to upgrading these skills. This resolution was provoked by indications of a lowering of standards in such areas by high school graduates.

Teeth Too

Orating on hell-fire, the minister vividly described the sufferings of the damned. The congregation sat in rapt attention as he eloquently described Dante's Inferno. At the end of his sermon, he quoted from the gospel: "On that day, there will be a weeping and a wailing and a gnashing of teeth." "But some of us have no teeth," interjected the toothless senior citizen in the back pew: "On that day," predicted the minister, "teeth will be provided."

Students Found Cuba Fascinating

(Excerpts from an article written by Ann LeBlanc for the June issue of B.H.S. Spectator. The Cuba-bound group included 27 students and the chaperones.)

I'm sure everyone who went on the school trip this year will say "Cuba was fantastic".

We left from B.H.S. Friday, March 18, around 2 p.m. and returned home Sunday, March 27.

We travelled from Bathurst to Montreal aboard Jamieson's chartered buss. It was 12 long hours to Montreal but it was really fun.

We arrived around 2:30 a.m. Saturday at Mirabel airport which is located about 90 miles from Montreal. Since the plane was only leaving at 9 a.m. and we were practically the only ones in the airport, most of us slept on the couches, floor, or anywhere else we could find a place to rest.

Leaving Montreal wearing jackets and sweaters and -20 degrees (F) weatherwise, we arrived in Cuba four hours later in 100 degree (F) temperature.

It was like a dream and hard to believe it was real.

There were palm trees everywhere and all the people were wearing shorts, except our group.

From the airport, we took a beautiful Tourismo tour bus to our hotel. While in Havana, we stayed at the Sevella Hotel for three nights and four days.

During this time, we visited a cigar factory, museums, Revolutionary square, old and new Havana and other key spots in the capital city. We also visited a nightclub at the Riviera Hotel before leaving.

After leaving the city, we travelled directly to the beach where we stayed at the Hotel Oasis for the rest of the trip.

The hotel had many attractions including a salt-water pool, recreational room with ping pong and pool tables, pinball machine and air hockey table, a large dining room, two beach bars, and air conditioning and a balcony for each room.

The weather never went below 90 degrees (F) and it rained only once while we were there.

If there was not enough to keep us occupied at the hotel, we could rent bicycles or sailboats, go horseback riding, scuba diving, visit the towns for miles around, or just sit in the sun.

At night time, when the sun went down, there were night clubs to visit. Two of them were the Pirates Cave and the Kiwanis.

I'm sure that everyone of the 27 who went to Cuba will never forget it. As for the chaperones, Mr. and Mrs. McMillan, everyone on the trip enjoyed their company and we know that they loved Cuba as much as we did. So, for anyone who went on the school trip of 1977, they will probably always have the thought in mind, "Take Me To Kooba".

"There Is Gold In Them Thar Hills"

by JACKIE WEBSTER

The California Gold Rush started when old Fernando Lopez hauled up a bunch of wild onions to add to his stew and knew right away that the material adhering to the roots was not fertilizer.

Old Fernando trumpeted his discovery to the four winds and the Rush was on.

That's not likely to happen in New Brunswick. Nobody bothers much with wild onions.

Still there is gold in New Brunswick. Occurrences have been reported at some 80 locations throughout the province northeast, northwest and centre, and according to Dr. Richard Potter, of the department of natural resources, there is gold in all the sands in southern New Brunswick.

Perhaps not enough to set off a gold rush, but enough to make panning for gold an excellent recreational exercise. On Dr. Potter's desk rests a golden nail which appears to have captured the sunlight and is soft and smooth to the touch. It is made from gold panned at Taylor's Island, near Saint John.

If there are those who prefer a sedentary search for the elusive metal, there are records extant dating back to the 1800's of reported occurrences all over the province, and many of these well worth investigating.

A report in 1865 tells of several pieces, up to an eighth of an inch in diameter found near a beaver dam on Blue Mountain Brook, north of Blue Mountain. At the time this was considered one of the most encouraging localities found in the province.

In 1922, W.E. McMullen reported a number of prospecting licenses issued following a reported gold discovery near Centreville. That was 50 years ago and Centreville remains remarkably placid to this day, but McMullen's report was encouraging.

"The area is underlain by slates of ordovician-Silurian age and gold may be associated with quartz-calcite veins that are common locally."

Another even more promising prospect is located just four mile south of Woodstock. "It is within a small group of trees, three quarters of a mile east-northeast of the bridge on Bull Creek and one quarter mile northeast of the farm of Abner Bull." The vein contained galena, and according to E.H. Greer of Woodstock, gold to $181 per ton, silver and copper. A shaft was sunk and copper, silver and gold were encountered. The width is reported to be 12 feet and was traced in a surface trench for about 450 feet. A large rock specimen with abundant native gold from the area was later submitted to the museum in Ottawa.

"The general area is worthy of careful prospecting," says a report on this prospect called Cobbler-Sexton.

Specimens of gold were taken from the property of Joseph Randall near Elgin Corner, about three miles from the point where gold was found on the headwaters of Salmon River. This was back in 1864, and according to Dr. Potter, there is no record of any further work in connection with this occurrence.

And gold is reported to have been panned from sands and gravels in Lancaster by two Saint John residents, according to Dr. Potter. The location of this occurrence is not known, but it is believed to have been found near the base of a high gravel bank, a few hundred feet north of the Lancaster Pollution Control Centre.

Large flakes of gold have been found in the gravels of Lepreau River, just north of Lepreau, more at Oak Bay, near St. Stephen, at Scoth Ridge, and at St. David Ridge where an assay of the material showed a gold content of 0.05 oz. per ton.

The gold on McLaren's Beach which is about four miles west of Saint John and east of Taylor's Island was first discovered in 1939. A black sand occurs on this beach. It has been traced for about 300 feet, is about 25 feet wide and two feet thick. Gold within this black sand was traced to a four inch sand bed in the bank above the level of high tide. This is the area which produced the gold that formed the nail that rests on Dr. Potter's desk this day.

The area was prospected but nothing of commercial interest was discovered, according to Dr. Potter. Just the same it could hold a lot of interest for a weekend prospector with patience, a prospector's licence and a knack with a pan.

Ten dollors will get you the licence. You can secure it from the Department of Natural Resources, Room 545, Centennial Building, Fredericton or you can order it by mail.

The pan is pretty inexpensive too, and not absolutely necessary.

Should you find yourself picnicking in a promising place without pan, you can always make do with the salad bowl.

Death Occurs In 64th Year

The death of Leo Godin of 1613 Blanchard Ave. occurred suddenly at his home on July 5. He was 63.

Mr. Godin was employed for many years with Consolidated Bathurst, principally as a brakeman on the company's railroad. He took early retirement in August 1976 for health reasons.

Born at Wytopitlock, Maine, he was the son of Ubald Godin and the late Rosalie Theriault.

Mr. Godin was married to the former Emilienne Valley.

He is survived by three sons, Raymond of Toronto, Normand of Hamilton, Ont.; and Roger of St. Catherine's, Ont.; four sisters, Mrs. Richard Cormier (Albertine), Ontario; Mrs. Vincent Frechette, (Exilda) of Montreal; and Mrs. Yvan LeBlanc (Helen) of L'Assomption, Quebec; and four brothers Charles, of Saint John; Ernest and Donald of Toronto, George of Timmins, Ont. and Louis of Salmon Beach.

Mr. Godin is resting at Elhatton's Funeral home from where the funeral will take place Thursday, 4 p.m. to Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, East Bathurst.

Interment will be in the parish cemetery.

ANOTHER GOOD SEASON FOR POTENTIAL PRO

Even after a training camp injury forced him to miss 19 games of the regular schedule, Bo. Schryer enjoyed a good season of Junior A Hockey with the Windsor (Ont.) Spitfires

The 17-year-old, 5 ft. 9, 165-lb centre, a Bathurst native whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Schryer, now reside in Orillia, Ont., was chosen rookie of the year

Incidentally Bo is the third generation of his family conspicuously identified with Canada's national sport His grandfather, the late H Otho Schryer, pioneered the game in Bathurst as one of the original Papermakers and promoted it for many years afterwards His father played on local as well as on varsity teams

He had 17 goals during the regular schedule and another three in the playoffs He averaged just under a point a game, won a second Hiram Walker Trophy, and will return for two more seasons with Spitfires

According to Wayne Maxner, Spitfires' general manager coach

"Bo's assets are his ability to control faceoffs and his work around the slot area, the latter particularly true in power-play situations

"He probably wins about 70 per cent of his faceoffs simply by watching the lineman's or referees' hand before the buck is dropped and by leaning on his stick hard and pulling the puck back

"Bo's already proven that he can play in the Ontario Major Junior League He should improve even more in his next two seasons of eligibility and could be a professional prospect before he's finished as a junior

YOUR BUSINESS

Dollar's Decline Reflects Economy

By Vincent Egan
Business and Consumer Affairs Analyst
Thomson News Service

The Canadian economy at mid-1977 is still struggling to move ahead

Like an expansion baseball team at mid-season, Canada has no shortage of excuses as it falls behind its competitors

But the league standings - that is, the foreign-trade figures and the value of the dollar - don't offer much reason to cheer

On merchandise trade, Canada's surplus in May fell to the lowest level of any month in 1977, although the continuing 1977 decline in the foreign-exchange value of the Canadian dollar ought to stimulate export trade

In the neighborhood of 94 cents (U.S.), the Canadian dollar is at its cheapest point since 1977

After being valued above the U.S. dollar for a number of years, the Canadian unit dropped sharply to a discount of nearly four cents immediately after the election of a socialist, separatist government in Quebec last November 15

It made a modest recovery during December and most of January to just under par, then - after Quebec Premier Rene Levesque's disastrous New York speech of January 25 - resumed its decline to the current level of about 94 cents

BURDEN OF DEBT

It isn't only Canada's political uncertainties that are weakening the Canadian dollar Its decline reflects a variety of factors, a major one being the huge interest burden on Canada's foreign debt

In a typical month, Canadian governments and corporations pay out between $260 million and $360 million to foreign investors who have lent funds to Canadian borrowers. That steady outflow adds substantially to the downward pressure on the Canadian dollar

Meanwhile, the strong keep on growing stronger West Germany and Japan, as well as Switzerland and the Netherlands, have been accumulating big trade surpluses on their international balance of payments - a total of between $10 billion and $12 billion this year, according to an estimate by the U.S. Treasury

The Germans and the Japanese have been coming under strong pressure from the United States, the United Kingdom, the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD), the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and the European Common Market to take corrective action

The rich countries are being urged to increase the value of their currencies, so that they would export less and import more

LOST MARKETS

That's something like asking the Boston Red Sox or the Los Angeles Dodgers to bench their best hitters and pitchers.

In the view of the Germans and the Japanese, they have already relinquished a substantial part of their export potential as a result of the appreciation of their currencies on the open market

As long as consumers in the Western countries have a free choice, there will continue to be a good demand for the products of German and Japanese assembly lines.

It's understandable that the economically strong nations should resist the calls to self-sacrifice, so that other and perhaps less well disciplined countries might have a better chance to grow

And yet the strong and weak both suffer eventually, when the world trade system becomes so unbalanced that markets dry up and unemployment rises to levels that threaten social upheaval

For Canada, the way out of the dilemma may be simply to take an obvious lesson from the Germans, Japanese, Swiss and Dutch - that is, to concentrate on the creation of wealth rather than its redistribution

H.W. Read Had Link With Area

A well-known New Brunswick businessman, Herbert W. Read, who died July 1 in the Sackville Memorial Hospital after a long illness, was familiarly and favorably known in the Bathurst area.

Mr. Read was associated with the family grindstone business earlier in his career and he and other members of his family lived in Stonehaven and worked a quarry there.

Advent of synthetically bonded abrasives in 1930, however, resulted in drastically reduced and finally cessation of operations. Mr. and Mrs. Read consequently returned to Sackville, where they converted the colonial family home into a distinguished hostelry known as Marshlands Inn.

Mr. Read remained at the helm until illness forced his retirement and the hotel-motel business was taken over and expanded by an only son, Herbert C. Read, onetime Bathurst insurance underwriter.

Also surviving is a daughter, Mrs. H. M. Smith (Frances), also of Sackville. There are seven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Mr. Read was predeceased by his wife, Dr. Anne (Smith) Read in 1968. An older brother, Gordon, died in 1952, and a younger brother, Robert, in 1976.

Mr. Read earned a BA at Mt. Allison University in 1905 and a BE at McGill in 1909. And, in 1962, Mt. A. awarded him an honorary doctor of laws degree.

Widely recognized as a philantrophist and a generous contributor to all worthy causes, both on the national and local level, Mr. Read also exerted wide influence in community life.

He was a founding member of the Sackville Golf and Gountry Club and the Sackville Curling Club; a past president of the Royal Caledonia Curling Club; and a life member of the new Brunswick Hotel and Motel Association. He attended and supported Sackville United Church

The funeral was held at "Marshlands" July 3 at 2:00 p.m., followed by burial in the family plot in Sackville Cemetery

MS Walkathon This Friday

Among those participating in a walkathon to benefit the Bathurst Chapter of the Canadian Multiple Sclerosis scheduled for Friday, July 8, are the Jaycees, Eugene McGinley, MLA, Mrs. Margaret Watson and Mayor John A. Duffy

A booth will be set up in the downtown arcade where pledges to the cause will be accepted.

Recent activities undertaken by the group have included a June 18 visit to the Acadian Village by 25 members and patients, followed by a delicious lobster supper served at the home of members Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Paulin.

Take Part In 4-H Exchange

Four county teenagers are among nine from New Brunswick who will leave Fredericton July 12 to participate in a special inter-provincial 4-H exchange program with other Canadian provinces.

The program, sponsored by the Royal Bank of Canada, is aimed at having participants become familiar with the customs and lifestyles and to exchange ideas with Canadians in other provinces.

The New Brunswick group will meet July 11 in the provincial capital where they will be treated to a tour of the Royal Bank of Canada branch office and a banquet at the Lord Beaverbrook Hotel.

As part of the exchange, each member will stay with two families during their visit to the host province, as will those visitors arriving in New Brunswick July 13 from other areas of Canada. All 4-H members will return to their respective homes on July 25.

The local participants are David Whelton of RR No. 3, Bathurst, who leaves for Ontario; Martine Cormier of Paquetville who departs for Saskatchewan; Marcella Cool of St. Sauveur who leaves for Prince Edward Island; and Pierrette Cool, St. Sauveur, who will visit Quebec.

BATHURST HOSPITALITY DAYS JULY 6 to 10

MAYOR JOHN DUFFY

Mayor Extends Warm Welcome

"It is with pleasure that I extend to you on behalf of Bathurst City Council and the citizens of the City of Bathurst a most hearty invitation to attend and participate in our "Hospitality Days".

Our Commission has worked very hard to make Hospitality Days more successful than ever. They have devoted much time and energy in planning the activities for those of all ages to enjoy this year. I take this opportunity to commend our Commission for a job well done.

We all look forward to seeing you and helping you make this a very, very enjoyable occasion.

We, the Commission and all citizens of the City of Bathurst, will make sure that you enjoy "Hospitality Days" with the friendliest people in the friendliest city in the Province of New Brunswick."

Mayor John A. Duffy

This Year's Chairman No Newcomer To Field

MICHEL BOURQUE

It requires many hours of hard work and much energy to organize any activity, as well as goodwill and a large number of volunteers.

This is even more so in the case of an event like Hospitality Days, and a record 50 festival commission members have been working for the past seven months to make sure the population of Bathurst enjoys itself during these five days. All volunteer workers have worked hard, and their efforts much of the time have gone unnoticed because they concern background preparations.

But perhaps the most important single force behind any such group is its leader, the person whose organizing abilities and long hours sometimes get lost in the shuffle.

The man behind Hospitality days 1977 is Michel A. Bourque, C.G.A. A quiet, reserved person, Michel has spent an incredible number of hours planning for this year's event, and his efforts are very evident in the calibre of activities in store for festival-goers this year.

Born in Cap Pele, N.B. in 1947, Michel received his elementary education in that community before attending St. Louis College, University of St. Joseph and University of Moncton where he obtained a Bachelor of Commercial Science. He later received a degree in general chartered accounting.

Mr. Bourque came to Bathurst in 1970 after spending a few years in Montreal, and is supervisor at the local Tax Audit Branch.

Michel joined the Bathurst Festival Commission in 1974 as finance director. He was named vice-president in 1976, and president in 1977. Michel has always been a key member of the commission, and is in a large way responsible for the success of former years.

He is married to the former Peggy Roy and the couple has two sons.

'72 Reunion Approaching

Members of the 1972 graduating class of Bathurst High School are urged to purchase tickets now for the class reunion, set for Saturday, July 16 at Gowan Brae Golf and Country Club.

Tickets are $3 per person, or $5 per couple, and are available from Sharon Veniot at 546-3124 or Polly (Ward) Wesenberg at 546-3121.

Activities will incude a happy hour, pot-luck supper and dance, with music provided by a well-known local disc jockey. Graduates are also reminded to bring a dish or casserole to serve 3-4 persons.

Coffee Crop

The 1976-77 crop is estimated at 60.5 million bags, down 16 per cent from the previous crop and the smallest since 1970-71.

New Submission Made By Mining Industry

The federal and provincial governments must reach agreement on policies covering Non-Petroleum mineral devel opment if the mining industry is to continue to make its historically major contribution to Canada's economy, the Mining Association of Canada says.

In a new report, the Association calls on the federal government to lead the way toward establishing a coordinated, broadly complementary federal-provincial framework for non-petroleum mineral policy.

The report--"Mining in Canada: Issued and Concerns"--has been submitted to the Prime Minister, the federal cabinet, provincial cabinet ministers, and senior government officials.

The report states that while the Association fully understands the legitimate concerns of the government over energy and related issues, this should not prejudice the mining sector upon which Canada must continue to rely in order to main tain a viable balance of pay ments and pay its way in the world.

The Association calls for a conference of First Ministers--the Prime Minister and Provincial Premiers--to develop coordinated non-petroleum mineral policies consistent with the aims of all governments.

The responsibility for initiating the steps leading to such a conference should be placed with the federal Department of Energy, Mines and Resources, the Associations's paper says.

The study points out that "the mining industry is facing the very real threat of a renewed round in the federal-provincial policy tug-of-war." It notes that several provincial governments have signalled their intentions to pursue further their own separate goals in non-petroleum resource development.

The Association underlines the seriousness of Canada's deteriorating balance of payments position and says that, given an outward-looking international trading policy for minerals, the mining industry has the potential to help offset trading deficits.

The balance of payments net deficit in 1976 was $4.9 billion, based on preliminary figures, following a 1975 deficit of about $5 billion--the largest deficit in over 20 years. The combined 1975-76 deficit was the largest in Canada's history.

A federal government paper anticipates that by 1985 the annual deficit in oil trade alone could approach $4.5 billion, the Association notes.

Major and diversified exploration for minerals is necessary to realize a dynamic mining industry, the study says. But expenditures on exploration are declining.

The Association emphasizes that "political risk" is one of the factors that has adversely affected decisions to initiate new projects or carry out expansions of existing mineral-producing facilities.

In a survey of member companies early this year, the Association found that about 63 percent of projects and expansions under consideration are being deferred, delayed or are awaiting final go-ahead decisions even though they are economically viable.

The survey found that, of 38 proposed new projects and expansions, about 60 percent "have been subjected not only to the more traditional economic-risk analyses but have also been the subject of political-risk analyses."

Of the total of 38 proposed projects, only nine decisions have been made to proceed, the survey showed.

In discussing inflation, the Association says that "essentially, inflation is initiated by governments...There is more than a casual relationship be tween government budget deficits of the magnitude of those experienced in Canada in recent years and the rate at which inflation takes place."

It notes that the net cash requirements of the federal government have been rising steadily since 1970.

"The kind of deficit spending experienced in the last three years clearly places the federal government in a position of leadership in giving vigour to those events which permitted inflation to take hold," the paper says.

In discussing the potential of the mining industry, the study says it was incorrect to assume that the country was faced with an impending depletion of non-petroleum minerals.

"Canada has the potential reserves of non-petroleum minerals that are adequate to meet all anticipated Canadian and export demands well beyond the year 2000."

Harvey Returns To Local Stage

Those drama-lovers who missed Bathurst Community Theatre's presentation of Harvey in May will be given a second chance next week when the young group returns to the auditorium stage at Nepisiguit High School.

On Saturday evening, July 9 at 7:30 p.m., in conjunction with Hospitality Days 1977, Community Theatre will once again present its three-act interpretation of a play written by Mary Chase. Steven Jamieson returns as Elwood P. Dowd, along with Wanda Lavigne as his sister, Veta Louise Simmons. Other actors include Gary Levert, Diane Maillet, Paul Lavigne, Colleen Murphy, Barry Power, Darlene Hickey, Penny Schoolcraft, Stephen Parker and Tony Nicholson.

Director is Lynn Draper.

Due to the relatively small turnout at the first presentation of Harvey, the group is looking for a good attendance this time around. Tickets are on sale now.

Community Theatre will also be staging a one-act play entitled "Impromptu" during the Miss Bathurst Pageant on the opening night of the festival, Wednesday, July 6. Written by Pulitzer prize-winning playwright Tad Moseo, the production stars Steven Jamieson, Wanda Lavigne, Diane Maillet and Barry Power.

Red Cross Youth Centre Now Open

A Red Cross Youth Drop-In Centre opened in Bathurst on Monday, July 4 as part of a Young Canada Works project.

The objective of the project is to form a recreation centre for the mentally retarded in the Bathurst area. This is a non profit organization, sponsored by New Brunswick Red Cross Youth.

The centre will be open Monday through Friday from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. and is located in the basement of Sacred Heart Cathedral.

Organizers hope to involve many young people from the community (high school age up to 25) who will then become acquainted with the mentally retarded. This is considered an important experience in the development of social skills for the mentally retarded as well as valuable moral education in social awareness for participating youth.

New Brunswick Red Cross Youth has already successfully organized two on-going drop-in centres, on in Saint John and the other in Fredericton, involving about 50 people in each.

Local employees are Philippe Eddie, director; Nicole Rioux, secretary; and Elizabeth Roy and Margaret Eddy, staff.

About 15 exceptional children are expected to attend the centre daily, and activities such as arts and crafts, physical exercises and co-ordination games will be offered.

MS Objectives Said Reached

Project Development, a LIP sponsored program initiated in January this year by the Atlantic Division of the Multiple Sclerosis Society of Canada terminated its activities on June 30.

Clair F. Smith, executive director of the Atlantic Division says "that the project has effectively completed its objectives which were to develop special projects, public awareness, chapter development and patient services".

Mr Smith adds, "the Atlantic Division was able to employ six additional staff members as a result of the grant", including Mrs. Yolande Mongeon, special projects coordinator, Ms. Elizabeth Neily, public relations officer, Mrs. Donna Williston, chapter development representative, Mrs. Ann Granville, R.N., patient services coordinator and two secretarial staff, Mrs. Deborah D'Ambroise, and Mrs. Grace Alward.

Employees were responsible for the development of such essential programs as educational programs for lay and professional use, the Home Strengthening Program for MSers and their families, special projects as MS Carnation Day, Pass Along Kit and MS Read-a-thon to name a few.

Mr. Smith says "that as a result of the coordinated work of the LIP employees, the groundwork has been layed for the Atlantic Division to enter a new phase of its development" which is to increase public awareness, patient services and to provide resources for research into the cause, prevention and cure of multiple sclerosis.

The Atlantic Division wishes to thank the federal government for providing the funds which enabled it to carry out this vital program.

The hoedown always provides an excellent opportunity for a family get-together.

Members of last year's hoedown committee pose with Mayor John Duffy, Mr. Hospitality and the Royal Family.

Derek-The Man Behind The Hoedown's Success

The success of any summer festival event hinges to a great extent on its entertainment value, and on the time and effort which goes into its preparation.

In the case of the Country Hoedown, time and effort come from many volunteer workers, but the entertainment spotlight has focused solidly for the past several years on Derek Knowles who, for all intents and purposes, is the Country Hoedown.

Since the hoedown's inception some five years ago, Derek has been working steadily, both behind the scenes and on stage, to provide patrons with a wide variety of musical entertainment to suit all tastes.

"The reason for the success of the hoedown", said Derek in a recent interview, "is the variety of music in its program. We provide music for all ages, including country, pop, folk songs, reels and rock and roll. As the hoedown theme states, its for people 19 - 99".

As one might guess, such a program requires a great deal of preparation, and Derek, as music co-ordinator, must be present at all rehearsals. In addition to the three dress rehersals held each year before the festival gets underway, he also must make time for individual practices with the various performers.

Providing four solid hours of virtually non-stop music is no easy task, and this is why Derek is so appreciative of MC Bob Campbell, who comes all the way from Florida each year to make his festival contribution. "We can always depend on Bob to keep the program moving", said Derek, "and this takes quite a load off my mind".

This year's program has a star-studded list of local talent which includes Derek's band, Country Raid. The group comprises Brian Teed, Eric Arseneau, and Roger Arseneau as well as Mr. Knowles. Edna McKinnon will be back this year and will perform much more of her popular country-folk. Of course, the hoedown wouldn't be a hoedown without a fiddler, and Greg Calnan is back to do the honours in that respect, along with Cyrille Hachey with his rousing singing voice and guitar.

Derek also is hoping for a guest appearance by a female singer from Toronto, and is expecting to add a bilingual flavor to the event with a performer from the Montreal-Toronto circuit now living in Bathurst.

The chairman of the Country Hoedown committee, Bev Groves, feels the goal of the event is to provide a very entertaining and inexpensive night with the best of music for city residents and visitors, and as far as he is concerned, Derek's program fits the bill.

"We're very grateful to Derek and the other performers for the great job they do each year. The work is more voluntary than anything else as they receive 'peanuts' compared to what they would get from other engagements. And another thing, they don't really get to take part in and enjoy the hoedown or other events scheduled for the nights they perform."

In addition to the musical entertainment, the hoedown committee receives much help from volunteer workers and the festival commission as well. "We're all working toward the same goal - an enjoyable festival", said Mr. Groves, "so there is full co-operation. Our committee is pulling just as hard for the success of the Moustache Pub, Cav-a-Vin, festival ball, pageant and other festival events."

Of course, the hoedown could not come close to its present standard of success without the sponsor, Moosehead Breweries. "Moosehead provides decorations, posters, and promotes the entire festival with its Special Events Van. It would be difficult to get along without them, and we acknowledge all of the help we've received to date."

Security for this year's event will be as stringent as ever, and CBers will be helping to keep all unauthorized persons out of the building, particularly those under 19. Again, Mr. Groves stated, this is done with the best interests of the public in mind.

Admission is $2 as in other years, and the only price increase occurs in the cost of drinks, which will be 90 cents.

Belledune Bulletin

By W. C. Killoran

Rev. Bernard O'Connors, Sidney Mines, N.S., was ordained to the priesthood on Friday, June 24, in St. Pius X Church, Sidney Mines. Fr. O'Connor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cosmos O'Connors, are former residents of St. John the Evangelist Parish, Belledune. Close relatives who attended the ordination included Mr. and Mrs. Clement J. Doucet, Mrs. Teresa Landry, and Mrs. Elaine Stoughton, Belledune.

Mrs. Robert Arseneau, and daughter Bonnie, Georgetown, Ont. are spending a two-week vacation with Mrs. Arseneau's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leander Landry, Belledune.

Mrs. Isaac Firlotte, Jacquet River, has returned to her home, after spending a three week vacation in California, U.S.A.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Cormier and family, Oshawa, Ont. spent the past two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Rene Cormier and family, Belledune.

Mrs. Effie Audet, Bathurst, spent the past weekend with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lydia Chamberlain, Belledune.

Mr. and mrs. Lannon Beaudry, Halifax, are spending a two-week vacation with their McDonnell, Roherty, Gray and Culligan relatives in Belledune.

A bridal shower in honor of Miss Mary Lawlor, Culligan, was held at the home of Mrs. Elaine Stoughton, Hodgins Street, Belledune, Thursday June 23, with 45 ladies present. They were entertained by bingo and other games. A delicious lunch was served, with Miss Teresa Landry, R.N., presiding over the tea cups. Miss Lawlor received a variety of beautiful gifts.

Mrs. Stephen Sauvef (nee Audrey Doucet) and Mr. and Mrs. James Nelson, Ryan and John, Amherst, N.S., spent the past weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doucet and Susan, Belledune.

Miss Ellen O'Neil, Belledune, celebrated her 8th birthday on Tuesday, June 7, with a party for sixteen. The children enjoyed many different games and skits. A delicious lunch was served during the latter part of the afternoon. Ellen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Neil, Culligan, Belledune.

Mrs. Regina Grennan, Belledune, was present at her granddaughter's High School graduation on Tuesday, June 28. Cheryl Grennan, Nackawic, graduated with honors. Cheryl is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Grennan.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mathew, Miscouche, P.E.I., spent the past weekend with Mrs. Olive Squarebriggs and her son George, Green Point.

Mrs. Freda Guitard, Darcy, and Stephen, Belledune, are visiting relatives in Toronto.

Miss Teresa Landry, R.N. has returned to Pangnirtong, N.W.T. after spending two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leander Landry, and other members of the Landry family, Belledune.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. William Killoran on the occasion of their 54th wedding anniversary on Sunday, June 26.

Relatives and friends extend get well wishes to Mr. Robert McGregor, Belledune, a patient in Chaleur General Hospital, Bathurst, due to an accident while at work.

Congratulations are extended to newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Boucher (nee Patricia McDonnell), Belledune, for a long and happy life.

Belledune contributed $271.85 to the Canadian Cancer Society, during their last campaign in April 1977. The organizers of this campaign wish to thank all the canvassers and contributors.

Mrs. William Farrell and daughter Beverly, London, Ont. and Mrs. James Doucet and daughter Gale, Georgetown, Ont. are spending a two-week vacation with relatives in Belledune.

Local Newscaster Part Of Best Team In Canada

(By Liz Stevens in the Halifax Mail - Star June 20)

It is 4:30 a.m. in Dartmouth And the quiet pre-dawn darkness is shattered by the jangle of an alarm clock Don Tremaine, co-host of CBC's Information Morning, rolls over, climbs out of bed, shaves, and grabs a quick breakfast before jumping in his car and heading for Halifax It is 5:30 a.m

At nearly the same time, a tall slim figure walks through the silent streets of downtown Halifax, pauses at the old white building at the corner of Sackville and South Park, and unlocks the front door. Susan Dexter, the show's producer, not quite awake yet, has arrived

On the third floor, Bernard Bruce, a solemn-faced technician with 21 years experience, is lining up the tapes that will be used on the morning's show; sometimes as many as 15 of them

And in the newsroom, Jim Mulcahy, is busily typing the first of six local and regional newscasts to be read between six and nine a.m

Then, at 5:59, it all comes together

"Good morning everyone", Don Tremaine says "This is Information Morning for June 17th, from the CBC in Halifax Good morning, Reid....."

Information Morning has been standard wake-up fare for many Halifax residents since June 1st, 1970, when the show first went on the air. And few of the faces have changed

Don Tremaine, 49, is the veteran of the crew with more than 25 years experience as a CBC announcer He'll carry the show on the air, with the help of weatherman Reid Dexter, news announcer Doug Arnold, and sportscaster Gerry Fogarty, until 7:00 a.m. For that first hour, they'll chat about everything from the weather at East Green Harbour to Anita Bryant's crusade against "gays" in Miami. In between, there'll be time for a consumer report, an item on agriculture and food And of course news casts — one every half hour, with headlines in between

At 6:45 a taxi squeaks to a halt outside the front door of the building and co-host Don Connolly arrives - in denims, boots, and curly, shoulder-length hair. He's younger (30) and less convention than Don Tremaine, but the two men complement each other with their on-air styles

DON CONNOLLY

Don Tremaine is the host, the personality who stitches the show together. Don Connolly does what he was hired to do - keep a low profile, and handle the heavy questioning on many of the live interviews lined up for the 7 to 9 time slot

This particular morning, the subjects include John Hurling, a labour reporter who is covering the United Mine Workers election in the Unites States, the weekly press report by Bruce Little, a freelance journalist and former Southam correspondent. And a movie review by Pat Murphy, a regular contributor

The whole three-hour program represents the standard CBC approach to early morning programming. Essentially the show is organized the day (and sometimes night) before it goes on the air. No music is used, so there's enough work to keep producer Susan Dexter, story producer Stephen Kimber, and program assistant Mary Smiley busy all day. Even Don Connolly pitches in.

It's a constant search for material, and occasionally a headache. The headaches occur when a interview subject, such as a former MAGI official, cancels out at the last minute. Or, as recently happened, a former Cabinet minister couldn't be reached because his

Language Office A Permanent Service

Keith Spicer, Commissioner of Official Languages, has announced the establishment, in Moncton, of a permanent regional office for the Atlantic Provinces A temporary office under the direction of Robert Pichette, Special Assistant to the Commissioner, was opened in early January 1977.

Mr. Spicer stated that the experience of the past six months has been decisive. "Since the office opened, there has been a dramatic increase in the number of complaints from the Atlantic Region. Clearly, there is now a better knowledge and much better understanding of the Federal Official Languages Act."

In his announcement, Mr. Spicer noted that the role played by the Atlantic Regional Office is not only to deal with complaints from citizens who have been denied their language rights but also to inform members of the public of their rights under the Act.

The Commissioner stated that the information services so far provided in the Atlantic Region has borne fruit and would continue. "Mr. Pichette is at the service of both language communities in the Atlantic Provinces and his job is to promote a better understanding of the Act. No government can legislate tolerance and respect. Only citizens themselves can, by using their rights, develop the climate that

Mr. and Mrs. Coakley Snell and family, Toronto, were holiday weekend guests of his mother, Mrs. Mildred Snell, and aunt, Miss Pauline Howell. They also visited another aunt, Miss Maude Howell, a patient at Foyer Notre Dame de Lourdes.

Miss Nancy Smith, Halifax, spent the holiday weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Smith. She was accompanied by Miss Karen Quinn, Bermuda, and the Misses Trudy Bayer, Janie Inglis and Pat Charman, of Nova Scotia, all of whom are classmates at Mt. Allison University, Sackville.

They were accompanied home by Mrs. White's mother, Mrs. Palmer Branch of Bridgewater, N. S., who will spend a vacation with her daughter and family.

Misses Paula, Linda and Lorna Shellmer have arrived from South Braintree, Mass., to spend the summer with their grandmother, Mrs. John Foley, South Teteagouche, and other relatives in the Bathurst and Janeville areas. They accompanied their mother, Mrs. Vincent Shellmer, and daughter, Miss Anne Marie Shellmer who returned to S. Braintree after spending the weekend with the family. They will return for a longer visit later in the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Moriarity of Belledune, were in Fredericton June 29, to attend the High School graduation exercises of their first granddaughter, Jennifer Thomson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Thomson, Fredericton.

BADGES PRESENTED DURING FATHER-DAUGHTER SUPPER

A father and daughter supper was held in the basement of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, Father's Day, June 19, for Guides and Brownies of that area. Out of an expected 150 persons to attend, only 30 were present for the delicious "Pot-Luck Supper". The event was organized by the East Bathurst Parents Association.

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH T. CORMIER

Are 65 Years Married

Well known and respected residents of Canobie since their marriage until moving 10 years ago to Caraquet, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Cormier observed their 65th wedding anniversary at Villa Beausejour on May 21.

Throughout the day, their apartment at the villa for senior residents was the scene of an "open house" and many called to extend congratulations and best wishes.

A special anniversary mass was held at Villa Beausejour Chapel in the evening with Rev. L. M. Robichaud and Rev. H. Belliveau as the celebrants. Many friends and relatives were present for the service.

After the mass, the children and families of Flavien Dugas, the brother of Mrs. Cormier, served a delicious supper at which time about 40 members of the family were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Dugas were presented with an engraved souvenir plate on behalf of the Dugas family. They also received a bouquet of roses from Les Amis du Foyer Inc. Villa Beausejour, along with other congratulatory messages and gifts.

Joseph Cormier, who was born at Pokeshaw, and Clarisse Dugas were married May 21, 1912 in her native Caraquet. The marriage ceremony was performed at St. Peter in Chains Church by the late Father LeGarrec.

Their attendants 65 years ago were the bride's sister Henriette, now deceased, and the groom's brother Philias Cormier who resides in the United States.

Following their marriage, the couple moved to Canobie where they continued to reside until taking up residence in Caraquet at Villa Beausejour.

Their wedding trip, as they recall, was aboard the old "Caraquet Flyer", which operated from Caraquet to Bathurst for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Cormier travelled as far as Janeville and drove by horse and buggy the rest of the way, a distance of two miles, to what was to be their home for many years.

The couple adopted two daughters, Francoise and Diane who later took up residence in other parts of the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Cormier operated a store in Canobie for 22 years and they always had a vegetable garden.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Cormier who are 93 and 92 respectively, are in good health. They enjoy their retirement years at Villa Beausejour where they have made many friends.

MR. AND MRS. ALLAN COLPITTS

Couple Celebrated Golden Wedding

A well known Dunlop couple, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Colpitts, celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary, June 4th, with many friends and relatives.

Mr and Mrs Colpitts exchanged their wedding vows on June 2, 1927.

Many cards and gifts were received including congratulatory messages from Prime Minister Trudeau, Robert Higgins and Frank Branch.

The reception rooms were tastefully decorated and the lace covered dining room table was centered with a tiered wedding cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Colpitts have 6 children; Kenneth, Keith, Ruth, Mrs. Alfred Murphy (Marjorie), Mrs. Robert Smith (Grace) and Mrs. Clinton Jagoe (Brenda). One other son Bennie, died in 1958. They have 13 grandchildren.

Out of town guests included Mr and Mrs. Nap Beauchamp, New York, niece and nephew of Mrs. Colpitts; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Blackmore of Red Bank, Mr and Mrs. Joe Hodgins, Belledune and Mr. and Mrs. Charles West, Fredericton.

Mr. and Mrs. Colpitts expressed their heartfelt appreciation to everyone.

UCW Suspends For Summer

The monthly meeting of the South Teteagouche United Church Women was held at the home of Mrs. Harvey Murchie on June 15th with the president, Mrs. Kenneth Vance presiding. Eleven members and one guest were present.

The meeting began with the recitation of the U.C.W. Purpose followed by the worship period which was opened with a poem, read by Mrs. Ervine Good, program convener. Mrs. Good then proceeded to read two letters she received from Reverend and Mrs. Howlett. The hymn "What A Friend We Have In Jesus" was sung and the offering received and dedicated, followed by prayer and the Lord's prayer.

The minutes of the previous meeting were approved as read. Then the treasurer Mrs. Donald MacIntosh gave the financial report which was adopted. It was also moved and seconded that all bills be paid. Meanwhile the money collected from the sale of spoons was turned in.

Correspondence read by Mrs. Sanford Smyth included an acknowledgement of sympathy card. Mrs. Smyth also thanked the group for the flowers she received while in the hospital.

As the group is sponsoring a child from the community to attend Camp Elm Tree, Mrs. Ervine Good was chosen to attend to this matter.

Mrs. Wm. Oliver read a letter from Nancy Hardy-Division of Communication on Education for Mission and Stewardship, Toronto, which stated that the group will receive a new magazine entitled "Mission Magazine" twice a year. Mrs. Oliver also gave a detailed report on the 15th annual U.C.W. Presbyterial meeting held at Tide Head April 30th.

A report was also given by the president, Mrs. Kenneth Vance on an executive meeting of the Miramichi Presbyterial U.C.W. held at Charlo recently.

It was moved and seconded that the executive take care of any business which arises during the summer months. The September meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Gordon Vance with Mrs. Donald MacTintosh and Mrs. Hugh Smyth to assist with the lunch.

The meeting was closed with the recitation of the creed, afterwhich the ladies dined at the Fundy Line Motel for lunch.

SCHOOL PRINCIPAL HONORED BY STUDENTS

Elementary students of J. G. Chalmers school declared Wednesday, June 22, "Mr. Dickie Day", in honor of Rheese Dickie, who has resigned from his position as principal. Each grade presented something that they had prepared especially for this day. In top photo, the feelings of the students and teachers were fully expressed in an exercise by Grade One, which went as follows: M - is for the Many years you've been principal at Chalmers School; R - is for your Right hand which made us keep the rule; D - is for Deeds both great and small; I - is for your Interest in us all; C - is for Caring about our little cares; K - is for your Kindness shown everywhere; I - is for the good Influence you've had on everyone; E - is for the Exciting times which make school lots of fun. When these letters are combined, they spell "Best Friend" you'll ever find'

In bottom photo, Margaret MacDonald, Grade 6, and Kelly Maye, Grade 1, present Mr. Dickie with a gift from the students. The day's activities were climaxed as the students joined hands in singing "It's a Small World", accompanied on the piano by Sheila Clouston, Grade 9

Check out these quality features:
LOAD WHEEL-Aluminum bronze alloy "cushions" the load—reducing wear and increasing efficiency.
TOP AND BOTTOM HOOKS—alloy steel, drop forged, hardened and tempered, for longer life and safer use. In the event of extreme overloading, they tend to expand rather than fracture.
SIDE PLATE ASSEMBLY—designed and engineered to maintain precise alignment for smoother operation.
BRAKE ASSEMBLY—Weston Screw-Type (with light lubrication). Extra large diameter friction disc assures long-life and permits heavy use or lowering through long distances without overheating and damaging the brake. Lubrication assures braking effectiveness under adverse weather conditions even if grease or moisture gets on the braking surfaces.
HAND CHAIN ROLLER GUIDES—fitted to assure smooth, efficient action even when the operator is not directly in line with the hand wheel.
GEARING—hardened alloy steel, splined drive shaft design, offers maximum strength and resistance to wear. Accurately machined gears assure smooth operation and longer life.
LOAD CHAIN—hardened and tempered alloy steel offers resilience, safety, and long life combined with reduced weight.

is so necessary if Canada is to continue as a nation."

Since January 4, 1977, the Regional Office has received 125 complaints, mostly against federal institutions, but some against provincial and municipal governments and private enterprise. In areas where the Commissioner has no jurisdiction, complaints are forwarded to the proper authorities, who have cooperated in a most encouraging manner in settling them.

Mr. Pichette will take up a permanent appointment as head of the Atlantic Regional Office, which will move into new premises in the next few months. The only other staff member will be a full-time secretary.

The Moncton office represents a first experiment in decentralizing the services of the office of the Commissioner of Official Languages. It is possible that the still-to-be-announced successor to Mr. Spicer, whose mandate ends on July 31, may wish to examine the question of establishing a regional office in the West.

Hair stylists and models in action.

Hair Stylists In Competition

The Vince Livingston Memorial Hair Cut and Blow Dry Competitions were held recently at Danny's Colonial House. Competitions were open to anyone in the Maritime Provinces.

Participating in this second annual event were eight certified hair stylists and four students from the Northeast Institute of Technology.

The purpose of the hair styling seminar is to bring hair stylists up to date on the new hair techniques, styles, cutting, etc. Guest artists at the event were Miss Judy Wells, Toronto, and Danti Demittria, Halifax.

Vince Livingston, sponsor, was the longest active member of the Canadian Allied Beauty Association present. He has been associated with the beauty industry for 35 years and was a pioneer in his field.

Mr. Livingston was also a great hockey star and was playing with the St. John Beavers when they won the Allen Cup in 1937.

The three finalists were Brian Gregoire, owner of Central Beauty Salon, Campbellton, first place, second was Hazel Daigle from Rita's Beauty Parlor, Bathurst, and finishing third was Patsy Power, who operates her own beauty salon in Robertville.

Mr. Gregoire and model Susan Porter, owner of S.P. Fashions at Bathurst Shopping Mall.

Teachers

traced the origin of the Provincial Normal School giving names and dates of the successive principals who held that post in that old institution which has been taken over by the Dept. of Justice.

Mrs. Blanche (Lawrence) Clarke, guest of honour and only surviving professor, in addressing her former pupils, reminisced over the days at the old P.N.S. She also spoke of the great strides that have been made in education since 1927 and expressed her pleasure at having been invited to this long awaited class reunion.

Clarence Clarke of Saint John, a retired industrialist, reread the valedictory which he had delivered before in 1927 and all listened with mixed emotions.

The next day, a number of these retired teachers attended a luncheon at UNB under the auspices of the Central Branch of the NBSRT and also participated in the annual meeting of this association with Dr. Fournier as provincial president.

It is to be noted that quite a number of these former classmates and retired teachers came from various parts of the USA and from as far west as British Columbia.

Also in attendance from Bathurst in addition to Dr. and Mrs. Picot was another graduate, Mrs. Mae Aube and her husband, Ernest J. Aube.

Everybody doesn't know Pirelli.

But the people who do know us for some pretty impressive things. They know that for years Pirelli tires have been standard equipment on high performance cars like Ferraris, Porsches, Mercedes, etc. And that Pirelli has been making radials for over 25 years, which is about 15 years longer than any radial made in America.

And that other tire manufacturers think so much of Pirelli radial designs that 68 of them have used our patents.

Because of all this acclaim, many people think they can't afford Pirelli tires.

This is far from true.

And if you'll just stop in we think we can show you that you can afford to put Pirelli tires on your car.

We may even be able to show you that you can't afford not to.

Bookmobile Service Important To Region

The Chaleur Regional Library Board's delegate to the New Brunswick Library Council, Irene J. McCormick, has expressed concern over the possibility of a cut-off of bookmobile service to the Chaleur region.

At a recent meeting of the provincial council, Mrs. McCormick expressed the following sentiments regarding the current situation.

"I would like first of all to point out once again that there is a difference between the northern part of New Brunswick and the south. Libraries only came to the north in 1967 and the level of education obtained by the populace has been comparatively low until recent times. We need all the help we can get to attempt to instill a pride and knowledge in our youth of the literature of the two founding peoples.

"With reference to the schools themselves, in the past five years much has been done to upgrade school libraries and great work has been done by home and school associations. However, it must be remembered that the school districts served by Chaleur region are still below the provincial norm with regard to money allotted per student, unlike many southern school districts who are above the norm.

"We have had no success in reaching adult readers by bookmobile service. However, the success achieved by direct circulation to the youth has, in our opinion, been very good with 38,000 to 40,000 circulation on a yearly basis. This we feel is a

Riding in fine style, this comely group took to the city streets Friday, June 24, shouting and singing. The reason - The Bathurst High School girls had just been informed they had graduated. wife forgot to tell him Information Morning would be calling.

The journalistic philosophy behind the show is somewhat vague. Ms. Dexter says she tries to achieve a balance between "heavy and lighter" items. "I try to figure out what a person, an average listener, someone with a wide range of interests, will find interesting somewhere along the line."

So far, the formula seems to have worked. The show's ratings have grown steadily over the years to the point where it leads in the ratings between 7:30 and 8:30, and runs "neck to neck" with the private stations at most other time periods. The CBC's Director of Radio, John MacEwan, says Information Morning generates more audience interest in this area than any CBC show, with the possible exception of As It Happens, which is produced in Toronto.

Who listens? According to the telephone calls, the letters, everyone from taxi drivers to university professors.

And no one gets more letters than weatherman Reid Dexter, (no relation to producer S. Dexter) who's been with the show since its inception. Not surprisingly, he thinks the weather is the most important thing on the show "because it affects everyone", and wishes he had more time to talk about it. Mr. Dexter, a meteorologist who recently retired from Maritime Command, says he'll continue working on the show" ... as long as I enjoy it and as long as I get paid. So far I've had no complaint on either score, and it certainly is enjoyable.

Enjoyment in fact seems to be the key to the success of Information Morning. The on-air personalities don't compete for attention. Instead, there seems to be a genuine feeling of camaraderie and mutual admiration. Of Don Tremaine, Don Connolly says. "The host's role is crucial. It's his presence that ties the show together. And he's the best. Tremaine and I get along very well personally. There's never any conflict between us; if there was it would be apparent on the air." Don Tremaine, for his part, says the show works".. because we've got Connolly aboard."

Doug Arnold, who's done everything on the show but read the weather, says the group works as a team"... and it's a team that works... the other guys have a lot of experience, take Gerry Fogarty for example, he's a sportscaster, "a jock", but he knows a lot more than sports, and a lot of information is given out in those three hours...".

Until very recently the program was produced on a makeshift studio, with the on-air people sitting at three rectangular desks assembled so they faced each other. A big window separates the control room where the technician and producer sit. On Monday morning the crew moved to a brand new studio, where the on-air people will sit at a circular desk that was described by one of the staff as "... looking like a helicopter landing pad."

But for all the Information Morning gang, doing the show can be a grind. It's early to bed and early to rise. This cuts into family and social life. But the good seems to outweigh the bad. "You wouldn't do it unless you enjoyed it," Don C. says. "It's not the kind of job you'd do for a pay cheque."

For Don Tremaine, there's a different kind of satisfaction - the satisfaction that comes from success. "There's no competition.

good return for the cost of the bookmobile service. Our area is largely rural and school stops are the logical place to set up shop.

"We realize we are not part of the Department of Youth, Recreation and Culture, and we feel bringing books to youth of the area should form an essential part of the new department. It is very clear that lack of reading ability remains one of the major drawbacks to success in life. A concerted effort is needed to give reading equal time with all the other attractions available for youth. We have to continue to reach the youth because in most cases it is too late to reach the adults. If we continue, we can hopefully see in five to ten years a reward for our efforts, the reward of young adults who will in turn instill their love of books to their children.

Store Safely

Storing foods correctly is as important as buying clean, safe foods at the store. Remember, handy as it might be, the storage space under the kitchen sink is NOT a good place for storing potatoes and onions. Cans of food stored in a moist area can develop rust and eventually the can will deteriorate and the food will spoil.

LITTER, LITTER, EVERYWHERE

It may seem hard to believe, but the above pictures reveal the truth about litter collected during a recent clean-up campaign which took place on the Brunswick Mines Road. Volunteers from the Bathurst Fish and Game Association succeeded in tidying three miles of the unsightly road-side. Fish and Game personnel have approached the Department of Natural Resources and the Department of Highways for litter barrels to be placed at convenient places on the road side, but none have appeared as yet.

Rural Area Proposal Gets Mixed Reaction

The Hatfield government's plan to organize all rural areas of the province into local service districts appears headed for opposition on the grounds that it will mean higher taxes for those least able to pay.

Bill 77 - the last piece of legislation introduced before the legislature prorogued June 17 - has been referred to law amendments committee for study and public input between sessions. Public hearings could be held as early as next fall.

The bill would empower cabinet to establish as a local service district, or as part of an existing district, any area of the province now without any form of local government.

It would also establish an eight-member rural land use authority, to be appointed by cabinet, responsible for planning in local service districts.

The Liberals, including former premier Louis Robichaud, contend the legislation represents an erosion of the Robichaud government's Equal Opportunity program of the late 1960's.

Mr. Robichaud, now a Liberal senator living in Ottawa, said in an interview he has "very strong reservations" about the plan because it will result in higher taxes for rural areas where much of the province's less affluent population resides.

"The people (in the local service districts) will have to tax themselves and they tend to be poor," he said.

Ray Frenette (L-Moncton East), the Opposition municipal affairs critic, says the government should strive, wherever possible, for amalgamation of unincorporated areas with municipalities instead of creating more local service districts.

"I'm concerned that they (government) seem to be returning in disguise to the old county councils," he said. "This is only another piece of patchwork that might create more problems 10 years from now."

The Robichaud government abolished county councils in 1967 as part of its program to provide equal services to all parts of the province, regardless of regional economic disparity.

The reasoning was that poorer regions of New Brunswick, particularly the north and east, did not have the tax base to support the same services being provided elsewhere.

"We wanted to distribute the wealth and tax burden equally," said Mr. Robichaud. "If they (the Hatfield government) are going back to the past, it's a very retrogressive step."

The government, however, looks at the situation from a different viewpoint. Municipal Affairs Minister Horace Smith has said again and again the government's intentions are not higher taxes, but rather to provide a mechanism for local input into administering community services.

With the county councils abolished, about 96 per cent of the province's land area and 37 per cent of the population are located outside municipal (city, town or village) boundaries.

The Allen task force report, tabled in the legislature last year, recommended creation of 11 rural municipalities to take in all unincorporated areas in the province.

But mainly due to opposition from farmers fearing higher taxes, the government discarded the idea, deciding instead to extend the use of local service districts.

Local service districts, numbering about 180, contract with the government for such services as water, sewerage, garbage collection and snow removal.

Under the new legislation, residents of local service districts would elect a three-to-five-member committee to advise the municipal affairs minister in district matters.

The province would provide the services required in the district and the minister would each year prepare a budget to cover the cost of delivering the services. The estimate would be forwarded to the local advisory committee and the tax rates would then be calculated.

Just as they opposed the rural municipality proposal, farmers are dubious of the government's latest move.

"We are overtaxed now," said Robert Acton of Sackville, president of the New Brunswick Federation of Agriculture. "We would like to see things stay as they are because, as farmers, we stand to gain little from local service districts."

The plan might benefit non-farm residents, he said, but farmers would probably bear the brunt of the increased tax burden.

For example, he said a farmer living 10 miles from a municipality with fire protection would not benefit from extension of that service into the rural area.

The farmer would be expected to pay the additional cost, said Acton, but if a fire broke out on the farm "you could kiss it goodbye by the time they (firemen) got there."

Meanwhile, municipalities seem to have no objections to the bill.

Mayor Elbridge Wilkins of Fredericton feels that creation of more local service districts would, among other things, allow for more orderly planning and enhance the future annexation of rural areas surrounding cities, towns and villages.

A major problem faced by municipalities, said Mr. Wilkins, chairman of the Six Cities of New Brunswick Association, is that too many people reside in unincorporated areas just outside municipal boundaries because of lower taxes.

Residents of unincorporated areas might pay taxes amounting to as little as $20., while municipal ratepayers with similar property may pay 10 times that much.

But these same rural residents often hold jobs in the municipality and make use of the roads and recreation facilities which must be financed by the municipal taxpayers.

Organizing unincorporated areas into local service districts, said Mr. Wilkins, would result in a more equitable tax structure between municipal and rural residents, and would also provide better community planning in areas that might eventually want to amalgamate with municipalities.

Hitting The Spots

When doing a major kitchen cleaning, reorganizing, or remodeling, try to find as convenient a spot as possible for each kitchen aid. Ideally, small appliances should be stored where or near where they are used—especially those used often such as the toaster, coffeemaker or can opener.
